Curtain Club Places Second In Philo Competition

By William Wimer

Seagrave Takes First Prize
For Male Performance

The first annual one-act play contest sponsored by the Philo Drama League was acclaimed a success by some four hundred persons, a representative group of the college and vicinity, in the Thompson-Gay gymnasium last Friday night.

A trophy to be kept by the winner for only one year, and a cup to be retained permanently, were awarded to the Schuylkill Valley Players of Phoenixville, who, under the direction of Mr. William S. Campbell, presented "Riders of the Sea" by John M. Synge. Honorable mention, or second place, went to the Ursinus Curtain Club for its presentation of "The Vision at the Inn".

Individual medals were awarded to Kenneth Seagrave '39, for his capable execution of Sir Guy de Laval, and to Margaret Eachus of the Schuylkill Valley Players for her touching performance as Cathleen in "Riders of the Sea".

Honorable mention for both of these competitions went to members of the Schuylkill Valley Players, Mrs. Avis Eadline as Maurigia, and Vernon Replogle as Bartley, in whom the tragedy of the play culminated.

"Riders of the Sea"
Is Prize Winner

"The Master of Solitaire", produced by the Jesters of Phoenixville, opened the contest. While not an outstanding piece of work, the play had an interesting plot. James McFadden may be complimented on his performance as the investigator.

Of "Riders of the Sea", the prize-winner, only the loftiest commendations may be spoken. It was a very fine presentation of a very difficult play. All the women displayed a familiarity with their setting that approximated naturalness.

Miss Louella Mullin's Dramateurs' "The Lay Figure" also deserves praise. To Richard Derr, as the mentally unbalanced artist, belong the laurels of the entire play. Miss Mullin is also to be complimented on her choice of a play, a real thought-stimulator.

Last of the presentations was the Curtain Club's "The Vision at the Inn," in which its players soared to marked glory. Mary Helen Stoudt '39, as Jeanne d'Arc, deserves manifold plaudits. Had her performance been supported by lighting effects of which the College is capable of producing, Miss Stoudt would have more ably manifested the sainthood, which we know Jeanne was to attain.

Second only to Miss Stoudt in performance was Nadine Sturges '41, as Catherine. Too bad Mr. Seagrave was not able to shake himself from his Montoya of "Night Over Taos." The Tiring Woman and the Inn Hostess, Edna Hesketh '40, and Mary Alice Lord promised to be fine supporting characters in the opening scene, but tended toward overacting in the end.

Honorable mention goes also to Dr. and Mrs. Sibbald for their colorful production and splendid execution. Following the performance the prizes were presented by Mr. Donald L. Helfferich '21, vice-president of the College. Music between the plays was supplied by the College symphony orchestra conducted by Dr. William Philip.

GOING HOME

The Thanksgiving Recess begins at 5:00 p. m. this Wednesday afternoon, November 24. It ends at 8:00 a. m. Monday, November 29. However, there will be no Weekly published next Monday. The next Weekly will appear on December 6, the following Monday.

The Weekly joins the student body, faculty, administration, alumni, and friends in extending its sincere sympathy to Dean Whorten A. Kline on the death of his brother, Samuel W. Kline, age 71, of Hanover, Pa.

English-U.S. Relations Next Forum Topic

"Social Significance of Anglo-American Contacts" will be the topic of Richard H. Heindel, speaker at the next Forum to be held December 12. The speaker is well acquainted with this broad subject, having conducted research work in the field of Anglo-American relationships.

Mr. Heindel is a graduate of Harvard, and received his master's degree from the University of Pennsylvania. He studied in England for fifteen months under the Rockefeller Foundation. At present Mr. Heindel is studying at the University of Pennsylvania on a Penfield Scholarship in international law.

NEXT SPEAKER ON BURMA

On Wednesday evening, December 1, at 7:00 p. m., Miss Marion Reifsnnyder will speak at an open meeting of the Y. M.-Y. W. to be held in Bomberger. She will talk about the island of Burma.

Miss Reifsnnyder is an Ursinus graduate of the class of 1917. She was born in Mandalay, Burma, and is here in this country under the direction of the Baptist Board.

Miss Reifsnnyder will bring with her an extensive display of Burmese costumes.

LeCron Heads Dance

Alex Lewis '38, president of the Interfraternity Council, announced today the names of the five men who will serve on the Interfraternity-Sorority Dance that will be held on the second week after the Christmas recess in January: Robert LeCron '39, chairman, Allen Dunn '39, Samuel Leshner '39, Fred Glatfelter '39, and Fred Todt '39.

SOPHOMORES!

Your committee has selected the 1940 class rings. They are the "U" type similar to the present junior class ring and will be made by the Chas. H. Elliott Co., of Philadelphia. Full details will be given at a meeting in room 7 tomorrow noon at 12:30.

(Anyone else interested in securing an Ursinus ring is invited to attend. Rings of other years may be secured at no extra cost.)

LEWIS AND PADDEN ARE STUDENT MEMBERS OF COLLEGE ATHLETIC COUNCIL

The Athletic Council of the College held an organization meeting last Tuesday evening, at which were present for the first time the two student members who are in the body for the current year.

These two are Leo Padden '38, appointed by Justus Bodley '38, Varsity Club president, representing the undergraduate athletes, and Alex Lewis '38, appointed by John Tomlinson '38, Men's Student Council head, representing the undergraduate non-athletes.

At this first meeting only routine business was handled. The Athletic Council is the College sports administrative body that formulates all athletic policies and controls all campus athletic organizations and activities, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors of the College.

It is composed of nine members: two from the Board of Directors, two from the faculty appointed by the President, two from the alumni elected by the Alumni Athletic

Cooper Describes Eastern Pen To Y's

Speaker Is Education
Head At Graterford

Dr. John A. Cooper, head of the Bureau of Education at the Graterford penitentiary, gave a description and explanation of the operation of the Eastern Penitentiary at the Y. M.-Y. W. meeting last Wednesday evening. Approximately seventy-five students were present to hear Dr. Cooper's verbal tour of inspection of the Graterford institution.

The speaker pointed out the three types of penal institutions; major, medium, and minimum. The Eastern Penitentiary in Phila. is the first type, and individuals in that prison are serving a very long term, or a life sentence. Graterford is of the medium type and sentences there are comparatively shorter than the former.

All men are sent to Philadelphia, where it is decided to which penitentiary they are to be sent by a staff of doctors, psychologists, and sociologists.

Dr. Cooper recounted the construction of the Graterford Penitentiary, which was built by inmates. It is divided into five cell blocks, each one housing four hundred men and having its own dining room. The building is constructed to allow a maximum amount of sunlight to enter through the windows and skylights.

The men spend most of their time working on the farm which consists of over a thousand acres outside the wall. Recreation is provided, and a vocational study through correspondence schools is allowed. Through these courses a diploma is obtained, which has no reference to their sentence in order that the men will not be hindered upon release.

In closing, Dr. Cooper offered an explanation of parole, commutation, and pardon, which are the methods of release. The fitness of a prisoner for parole is decided by a board to which the released prisoner must report at least once a month. Commutation is the lessening of the minimum length of a sentence, and pardon is an outright or final release.

Albert Robinson '38, president of the Y. M. C. A., was in charge of the meeting, and Russell Barbour '39, gave a comparison of the teachings of Jesus and Theognus concerning penology, which led up to the main speaker of the evening.

Club, two from the student body, and the Director of Athletics, Mr. R. C. Johnson.

Other than the two student representatives, there is only one new member on the Council this year, Harry W. Snyder '08, representing the alumni. The other alumnus representative is R. D. Evans '18.

Members from the Board of Directors are Donald L. Helfferich, Esq. '21, and Walter R. Douthett '12. The two faculty members are Dr. John W. Clawson and Professor M. O. Bone. Dr. Clawson is again chairman of the Council, which office he has held for some years. Mr. Bone succeeds Mr. Helfferich as secretary, and Mr. Johnson remains in the office of treasurer.

Dr. Clawson is this year president of the football league in which Ursinus competes, the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference, composed of Ursinus, Drexel, Gettysburg, Franklin and Marshall, and Muhlenberg.

Howard Gale and Big-Hearted Herbert Take Stage On Alternate Nights

Only eleven more days until the Senior Ball! Only twelve more days until the Senior Play! Only one more week-end until the Senior Week-end, which is the week-end after the Thanksgiving recess, December 3 and 4.

The Senior Play is "Big-Hearted Herbert" by Sophie Kerr and Anna Steese Richardson, and the Senior Ball is "The Year's Big Social Event" by Howard Gale. Price of the first is fifty cents and the opening curtain at 8:15; price of the second is three dollars and fifty cents and the opening melody at 9:00. Both are in the Thompson-Gay gymnasium.

Ball Will Feature
"Sweet" Type of Music

When the Music Corporation of America, agents for Hal Kemp and Guy Lombardo, were in the market for a good medium-priced band to alternate with Hal Kemp's Orchestra at the Junior Prom at Lawrenceville Academy, they chose Howard Gale and his ten-piece orchestra.

In addition to the Lawrenceville engagement, Gale's orchestra was booked to open the biggest resort at Point Pleasant, New Jersey,

BALL BITS

Howard Gale's trombone player can play one note higher than Tommy Dorsey.

The dance programs, which by the way will be something to paste in anybody's scrapbook, will be the first in the history of Ursinus dance programs to spell the word "chaperons" correctly. It is not spelled "chaperones."

And the chaperons will be: President and Mrs. Norman E. McClure, Dean Whorten A. Kline, Dean Elizabeth B. White, Dr. and Mrs. John W. Mauchly, and Dr. and Mrs. Philip B. Willauer.

The decorations will be "sophisticated", says the committee. The false ceiling used for last year's Junior Prom will again be pressed into service, and the paper color scheme will be black and white. Speaking of decorations, the committee won't sleep the night before—that is, the male portion of it.

where he preceded Sammy Kaye's Orchestra, and broadcast over WOR.

Gale's swingsters have recently completed a very successful summer tour of the eastern coast resorts, and only a few weeks ago played their fourth engagement at Hershey Park, which is one of the smartest ballrooms in the eastern part of the country.

Chairman John Tomlinson,

Twenty New Reporters Added To Weekly Staff

Fifteen candidates to the Weekly news staff were accepted on probation by the editors at a meeting held last Tuesday evening. Nine of them are freshmen, four of them sophomores, and two of them juniors.

Five candidates to the sports staff were also accepted, four of them freshmen and one a junior.

Sports Candidates

News Candidates

WEEKLY MEETS TOMORROW

All members of the Weekly news staff, excluding only the sports staff and feature writers, will meet tomorrow night at 7:30 in room 2, Bomberger. The 15 candidates named in this issue will also report. It is imperative that everyone be present, unless due notice is given the editor.

Play Is A Comedy
In Three Acts

"Big-Hearted Herbert" is not big-hearted at all. He is Fred Ditzel, and he is a household tyrant, a wife-beater, and a child-bulldozer. Just listen to this:

Ditzel (soon after the rising curtain, rushes out of the room on his way to the office, in high ill humor.)

Florence Roberts (his wife, who has just been verbally beaten in a friendly before-breakfast tiff) — "Herbert, your hat!"

Ditzel (comes back in still higher humor)—"Give it here!" (Clamps it on his head, starts out again, and stops suddenly.) "What'd I forget? Oh yes . . ." (Stalks back again to friend wife, leans over, pecks a belligerent osculatory peck on friend wife's mouth and stalks out again, muttering . . .) "Damn silly habit!"

And so it goes for two acts. Ditzel doesn't want Libby Ware to be in love with Eli Broidy. He also doesn't want Kenneth Clouse to go to college. He also doesn't want Teru Hayashi, "the baby of the family", to be too unruly. There are lots of things he doesn't want.

But comes the dawn in the third act—a domestic revolution, and Big-Hearted Herbert Ditzel finds the worm has turned in all segments of the family. From thenceforth on, he is only a puppet dictator, and friend wife Florence Roberts takes over the strings.

As for the "damn silly habit", young Teru lavishes affection right and left upon his mother, Florence Roberts. And Libby Ware and Eli Broidy are in love . . .

Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Sibbald are coaching the play, and Kenneth Clouse is general manager of the production.

Grand Mogul of the Senior Ball, feels that this orchestra, which, like Sammy Kaye, features the "sweet" type of music, will be particularly well received by Ursinus students, and urges that tickets be purchased before the rush.

New Ruling, Internal Disorder, Cancels Prison Trip

Approximately fifty Ursinus students were scheduled to tour the Eastern Penitentiary at Graterford, five miles from here, last Saturday, but the trip fell through because of some trouble at the institution.

Within the past few weeks a ruling was made, after the trip had been proposed, that no women at all, and no men under 21, were to be allowed to go through the penitentiary. This ruling would therefore have permitted only a small part of those signed up to make the visit. Then there occurred some sort of internal disorder, information concerning which was not divulged, and this forced complete cancellation of the project at the instance of penitentiary officials.

The trip was to be sponsored by the campus Y associations, through Dean Whorten A. Kline, who in the past has secured access to the penitentiary for Ursinus students wishing to observe prison conditions. Marjorie Brosz '38, of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, was in charge of the arrangements.

Brodbeck And The Freshmen Had Spirit

What has happened on this campus? Why the sudden burst of pep and enthusiasm evidenced this past week? Can it be that we have come to life at last? Or is it just a spurt because of the personal interest involved, and because of the small groups concerned?

To be sure, the Brodbeck boys must be given credit for their fine demonstration of spirit showing that they were behind their team every inch of the way. The bonfire was an excellent way to celebrate their victory. But it is to be noticed that some of those same boys snickered and laughed at the bonfire held before the Franklin and Marshall game. And at the game itself or at any other game, they'd think it beneath their dignity to burst forth with any enthusiasm at all. This applies, of course, not only to Brodbeck, but to the College as a whole.

The same thing was true of the freshman-sophomore game. The spirit of the freshmen shown at that game, if carried over into the rest of the College activities, would be a big boost in the right direction—that of prodding you, the students of Ursinus, into action, and of making you enter into the life of your college as if it really meant something to you.

We realize that smaller groups such as a class or dormitory are probably more closely knit than a larger group. But is this true in big colleges and universities? Spirit is everywhere in view on a large university campus. In that respect, we of Ursinus have the advantage; we are a small group, and as such, should act as one compact body. It is too late now to do anything about the fall season, but with the coming winter season new activities are coming up, and new sports are taking the limelight. Now it's up to you. What can you do about it? But more important—what are you going to do about it?

THE MAIL BOX

To the Editor:

Having read your excellent editorial on dining room announcements in last week's issue, I feel it is my solemn duty to add comment.

If students keep up a steady conversation during announcement time, then I accuse the two gentlemen serving in the capacity of headwaiters of:

- not ringing the insignificant bell with necessary vigor;
- not speaking slowly;
- not enunciating distinctly;
- not speaking loud enough.

In view of the above accusations I propose: that the administration of meals procure a larger and fancier bell; that the headwaiters take lessons of elocution at the expense of the student council; and finally, that the headwaiters speak slowly and loudly.

Cordially yours,
REGARDER PERTINACIOUS

A Plea For Less Snickering

To the Editor:

Last Friday night, the Philo-Dramatic League presented four splendid one-act plays in the gymnasium.

The audience was an interested and attentive one, except for one thing. When several of the players entered in costume, snickers and giggles rippled through the audience. I presume that the ones who were responsible were people from the campus because they were the ones who knew the characters well enough to compare their appearance on the street with their costume.

I feel that these interruptions momentarily broke the atmosphere that envelopped the audience as a result of the preceding dialogue and acting. The murmur was audible to the members of the cast on the stage at the time and although it did not disrupt their performance, certainly it must have been a bit disconcerting. The visitors in the audience may not have known the source, but it would be no credit to the school if they suspected the students.

Let's resolve to suppress our feelings in a situation like this and show our respect for the players as well as the other people in the audience.

Sincerely,
Mary Ellen Hillegass '41

Rapping The Joker Who Decorates Bulletin Boards

To the Editor:

No doubt all the members of the College have seen the little yellow card on the chapel bulletin board concerning Roosevelt's unemployment census and have read those two lines of scrawling childishness: "The latest step in the great American Hoax i. e. the New Deal"; but by gosh, very few can guess to whom that cleverness belongs.

How many would think, Mr. Editor, that this practical joker is a man of genius, a member of the so-called intelligentsia, and a respected member of the faculty? You'd think one of such caliber could do something more for the school than supply bits of humor which make the best of us grit our teeth.

Respectfully yours,
William E. Wimer '39

GAFF from the GRIZZLY

No introduction this week, which is funny, because Glenwood presents the feminine angle. Any re-sounding "meows" can be traced thereto.

Ditzel, Dunn, Grove, Kaplan and Harbaugh
 Infest that girl's dorm, Shreiner Hall,
 But among the first, you'll see that mouse,
 Known as Kenneth "small dip" Clouse.

But we hear that Bill (I'd-Do-Anything-For-a-Pal) Albe is president of that club.

Says "Famous Quotes" Ellenbogen, "Why must the Ursinus girls be so particular?" The answer, "Why must the Ursinus boys be so peculiar?"

A hundred girls and a man—Bill Grove in the Music Club.

Overheard:
 Mary Clark:—"My, but you're warm!"

Betty Usinger:—"I don't know why. I didn't have a date tonight".
 Ann Skirving:—"Nobody gets warm on dates around here any more." (Line forms on the right, fellas.)

We wish Frankie Tworzydlo would come back and meet Mieczyslan Rofin Stanislaus Zakrzewski. Call him Matt Zeski for short.

Wanted:

- Drawstring for Smiles' pajamas, so he can keep 'em above his pants in an emergency.
- Mousetraps for all dorms except Fircroft. (They have a cat.) (Yes, a four-legged one.)
- More teaching fellowships. Ginny and Libby envy Muriel.
- Lorelei date for Gene (Clap-saddle) Hile. (Adv.)—Starting earlier this year?

We all knew it before (How could we help it?) but Ditzel makes it official by publicly wearing a Yeadon High ring. Careful, Fred, you know how they talk in Shreiner bull sessions.

Famous Quotes:

- "Seems to me anyone with a normal amount of stupidity can be a college professor." — Chris Moser.
- "I've never been to the Memorial; I wouldn't be seen there." — (Cautious) Edna Hesketh.
- "I wouldn't, either, with her." (We don't want to start a feud, you nasty man.)
- "No, I am not being went with. Where did everyone get that idea?" — Kay (Smarter-than-Peoples and Watson) Atkinson.
- "How long are we allowed to walk in the rain on Friday evenings?" —Betsy Ballinger. (Well, Bill?)
- "Yes, he and I've reached an understanding. We're just waiting for my graduation."—Harriet Adams.

About Historic Old St. Luke's

Just a short distance from the College, in Trappe, stands an old church, a very old church, the St. Luke's Evangelical and Reformed Church, which yesterday commemorated its one hundred and ninety-fifth birthday. A lot happens in nearly two centuries and this church has been a lot since its small beginning in November, 1742, when it was known as the Reformed congregation of Providence until 1835.

Services were first held in a barn where nineteen members of the congregation took communion on November 17, 1742, with an increase of forty-four communicants at the second communion on May 3, 1743.

Later, in 1747, a little log church was built "in the old burial grounds (St. Luke's cemetery)." And, as everyone knows, with Valley Forge so near, Montgomery County was revolutionary battleground. This little log church which stood in Trappe over a century ago, was used as a hospital for soldiers who feel ill or were wounded at historic Valley Forge.

Skipping to the year 1835 we find that a new edifice replaced the log building and at this time the name of the church was changed. In 1849 a charter for St. Luke's German Reformed Church was procured, a parsonage was built in 1868 and St. Luke's became a charge by itself. The present building was erected in 1874 with additions in 1887 and in 1928.

College Plays Important Part

Ursinus played an important part in the history of the St. Luke's Church. Our College was founded in 1869, "in the parish of St. Luke's charge." Many graduates of Ursinus became pastors of the church. The first one was John H. A. Bomberger, who was not an alumnus of Ursinus but was its founder and first president. He was pastor there from 1870-1883. Henry T. Spangler '73, was pastor from 1884-1886 and was president of Ursinus from 1889-1890.

Edwin C. Hibsichman '86, was pastor from 1891-1896; Silas L. Messinger '85, from 1897-1923; and Arthur C. Ohi '01, took charge in 1923 and is there today.

At the commemoration exercises which were held last week, Ursinus figured again. A concert held last night at 7:30 p. m. featured a solo by Miss Elizabeth Scherfel '37, while at the 2:15 p. m. service Howard B. Keyser '10, principal of the Collegeville schools, presided. The Hon. Harold G. Knight, Hon. L.L.D. '37, president judge of the courts of Montgomery County; Rev. Purd E. Dietz D.D. '18, president of the Classis of Philadelphia; and Dr. Norman E. McClure, president of Ursinus at present, all gave addresses of salutation.

Yes, one hundred and ninety-five years is a good stretch and Ursinus congratulates St. Luke's Church in its progress, and hopes both organizations can continue the friendly, mutual services each offers to the other, for many years to come.

SORORITY AND SOCIETY

And now the sororities are holding dinner dances, instead of waiting until the spring as is usually done. Both Omega Chi and Alpha Sigma Nu held their dances last Saturday night.

Omega Chi's was held at Spring Mountain House. Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Old and Professor and Mrs. M. O. Bone were chaperones. The music was furnished by George Hopkin's orchestra from Phoenixville.

Alpha Sigma Nu had their dance the same evening at the Torresdale Country Club. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hashagen chaperoned the affair. George Kraunk's orchestra supplied the music. Several alumnae were present at both dances and enjoyed the reunions.

The senior girls of Shreiner Hall gave a tea last Thursday afternoon for all the senior girls. The officers of the Ursinus Women's Club were the honor guests.

Sophs Prevail Over Yearlings, 6-0, In Series Revival

Sophs Score On Pass To Sando

The lowly freshmen will wear their red dinks and black ties up until the end of the first semester. Once more tradition prevailed at Ursinus, as the Sophomore Terrors won a hard fought game from the Growling Grizzly Cubs on wind-swept Patterson Field last Thursday. This was the first opportunity for Ursinus football fans to see the 1941 freshmen team in action, and practically the entire student body witnessed the grueling contest.

The first half ended without a score, neither team threatening and each playing head-up ball. Punting by "Ronny" Roncace, former Norristown High luminary, kept the sophs from any possible scoring, and the defensive power which the yearlings exhibited against the more experienced sophomore men was outstanding. Jim Armstrong, who prepped at Wyoming Seminary, played brilliant ball at the center position and stopped play after play on the line of scrimmage.

Near the end of the second quarter, two line plunges by Eddie Kurek and an off tackle slice by Sando gave the sophs two consecutive first downs. Dawson then threw a short pass to Johnstone which netted 6 yards. Dawson again faded back and heaved a long one to Steinmetz which was good for 12 more yards. After two unsuccessful line plunges and an incomplete pass, Dawson attempted a field goal from the 25 yard stripe. His kick was too low, and the half ended soon afterwards, with the Cubs having possession of the ball in midfield.

Roncace Stars For Freshmen

The yearlings were on the offensive most of the second quarter. A feature of the period was a beautiful 22 yard run off-tackle by Roncace behind expert blocking. The elusive jaunts by this diminutive triple-threat man were outstanding during the fray. Roncace should greatly strengthen the varsity next year. The quarter ended with each team playing open ball, and waiting for a break.

In the fourth period, Sando and Dawson carried the ball into frosh territory. Short passes to Clark and Johnstone netted 14 yards. Then, receiving a short pass from Dawson, Briant Sando swept 20 yards around left end for the only score of the game. Sando was by far the outstanding ground gainer for the sophs, and this run climaxed his beautiful playing. Dawson's attempt at conversion failed, and the sophs led by a 6-0 score.

With Roncace heaving long passes to Jacobs and McConnell, the little Grizzlies penetrated deep into sophomore territory in the final minutes of the fray, but were unable to put the oval across. The game ended with the frosh still threatening to score. Final verdict, 6-0, sophomores.

Bear Booters Deadlock Delaware 3-3

On Friday afternoon, November 19th, Doc Baker's Grizzly soccer men played the Delaware University booters to a 3-3 stalemate on the home field. It was the final game of the season for the Bears.

The tilt was played on a muddy field and was characterized by continual fouling. In the first quarter, Delaware threatened most of the time and kept Ursinus back on its heels. However, the Bears managed to keep the score even in this frame, 1-1. Chalk scored for Ursinus on a pass from LeCron, while Boyce kicked one for the visitors. In the second quarter Delaware again played superior ball and went into the lead when Humphries dribbled half the length of the field and passed to Lippincott who scored.

The "Grizzlies" knotted the count in the third period when Chalk scored his second goal on a pass from Swift. Ursinus carried its fine play through the fourth period and LeCron broke into the scoring column when he sent a free kick rebounding from the goalie's chest through the goal.

In the fourth stanza, a break occurred in Delaware's favor. The Blue Hens got a free kick a few inches from the goal line. Nevertheless, "Bob" Keehn, goalie, playing his usual fine game, threw himself on the ball, at the signal, and prevented a score. However, the kick was taken over because of an infraction of the rules and Delaware succeeded in evening the game at 3 goals apiece. Neither team was able to score again, although Ursinus threatened several times to blast the tie.

Co-Eds Drop Finale To Beaver, 2-0

One of the most thrilling games of the season was witnessed last Wednesday by those who turned out to see the Ursinus-Beaver hockey game which resulted in the local lassies' second defeat of the season. From start to finish, the game was an exhibition of skill, nerve, and speed. Score, 2-0.

Although Beaver snatched the victory from Miss Snell's co-eds by tallying two goals, the Ursinus players showed themselves equal in skill if not in luck. Captain Mary Billett was again outstanding at the center-half position. Many attempts at scoring by the "U" team fell short of the goal by a few feet. "Squeaky" Von Kleeck's goal was discredited as it had been made from "outside of the striking circle," and by the close of the game the score read 2-0 in favor of Beaver.

Inasmuch as Saturday's game with Bryn Mawr was cancelled because of rain, the Beaver skirmish was the season's finale for the

12-6 Victory Hands Dorm Crown To Brodbeck Gang

By Morris Yoder

Scores Result From Deception Plays

Before the largest crowd ever to witness an interdorm game, and with more spirit than has been shown for many major sports contests, Brodbeck won the 1937 touch football championship last Tuesday by defeating Curtis 12-6 in a hotly contested play-off battle on Patterson Field.

Curtis scored first on the old "Statue of Liberty" play, "Lefty" Miller taking the ball from "Tiger" Toren and running 30 yards to score, amid a dispute over the whistle, in which Curtis was finally awarded the score.

Brodbeck scored in the second half when interference was ruled on a pass in the end zone, tying the score at 6-6. The second Brodbeck touchdown came on a forward-lateral from center field. "How" Moyer passed to Harry Atkinson who in turn lateraled back to Moyer, who then ran for the winning score.

Both teams missed several scoring chances, and disputed penalties played a large part in the game.

Steward Makes Outstanding Run

Bob Steward made the outstanding run of the game when he intercepted a pass on his own 20 yard line and raced to the Curtis 15 yard stripe before Chris Moser caught him. "Shorty" Schirmer made some spectacular catches, but was well covered by Al Kaplan throughout most of the game. "Tiger" Toren's passing for the Marines was also outstanding.

This victory gave Brodbeck its second successive touch football championship. It is the only dorm which has won the honor twice.

P. M. C. TURKEY DAY TILT LAST FOR 5 SENIORS

"Bring home the bacon" has given place to "Bring home the turkey" as the Grizzly warcry for this Thursday. The Ursinus footballers face the Pennsylvania Military College Cadets for the season's final at Chester on Thanksgiving Day.

Though the Cadets have won only one out of nine games, they will be primed for this tussle after a tough schedule, boasting such stalwarts as "Bang Bang" Spang, Bud Pollock, Stern, and Hartzell. The Bears have a slightly better record to show for the season, with two wins out of eight games and one tie.

According to the predictions of a man who should know, the Bears have an excellent chance of bringing home the turkey for the third time. Says "Whitey" Lehrer, social soph who transferred from P. M. C., and who scored the only touchdown against the Grizzlies last year for the Chesterites, "P. M. C. has a good team, but our's is better." The score of last year's game was 12 to 6, favor Ursinus.

A quintet of seniors will do or die for the last time on the gridiron in this Turkey Day game. Two of them have been varsity lettermen for three years—Captain "Hop" Porambo and Jus Bodley, center and end respectively. The other three are two-letter gridmen, earning their U's for the first time last year. They are Angie Vaccaro, quarterback, Leo "Pappy" Padden, end, and Johnny Knoll, tackle.

Snell cohorts. Captain Billett's hockeyites piled up an enviable record losing only two games, to Swarthmore and Beaver. They were victorious over Moravian, Drexel, Penn, Mt. St. Joseph's, Rosemont, and the alumnae.

Your college life is rich in direct proportion to the number of memories it gives you to carry into later life.

Markley Reports On Heidelberg

The German universities was the subject of discussion at the meeting of the German Club held last Wednesday evening. The president, Teru Hayashi '38, opened the meeting and turned the discussion over to Charles Halm '38. Anna Mae Markley '41, gave a report on the Heidelberg University. She told of the buildings, the campus, and curriculum.

The club sang German songs from their newly purchased books and played games in German.

It was decided that they would have a party with the French Club at their next regular meeting on December 8.

Negative points were set forth by Sara Sadler '40, who cited the natural prejudices of mankind, giving examples to prove that individuals become gullible under stress of excitement and will believe anything.

Due to the absence of a quorum, the election of new members was postponed until the next meeting of the Club which will be held in Maples Hall.

three men whose duty it is to decide who is in the wrong when capital and labor are at odds. The board also has the power to investigate the dispute to any extent it deems necessary, and to subpoena men or records to appear before its personnel. However, the persons who furnish testimony are protected from prosecution by another provision of the bill.

The club became so interested, that it was decided to continue the discussion at the next meeting which will be held on the first Monday after the Thanksgiving recess. For this meeting, a list of the important points for the negative and the affirmative sides of the advisability of such a bill will be consolidated into several main issues. These issues will constitute two briefs which will govern the debating.

Paul Guest '38, president of the club, presided. Mr. Guest stated that this was the most interesting meeting the club had had for some time.
