'THE MIKADO' POSTPONED UNTIL JUNE FOURTH

See page two for story.

'Silly' Operetta Is Sat. Production

By Rollin Lawrence

It is all a silly business to begin with. Nanki Pooh, the son of the Mikado and heir to the throne of Japan, is banished because he disdains the hand of Katisha.

He disguises himself as a wandering minstrel and of course falls in love. The maid is pretty Yum Yum, who is already promised to Ko Ko, the Lord High Executioner.

Ko Ko himself is condemned to die, but he has been appointed executioner and thus faces the awkward situation of executing himself unless he can find someone to execute in his place.

Nanki Pooh, in despair because he can't have Yum Yum, is at the point of taking his own life, and Ko Ko, finding him thus, thinks his problem is solved. But Nanki Pooh has a month to live and refuses to let Ko Ko execute him unless he can first marry Yum Yum. Poor Pooh Bah is forced to lose his love to save his life, but he agrees, knowing that love is a fickle business anyway.

Tender-hearted Ko Ko cannot bear the thought of killing even his rival and so he bribes Pooh Bah, Lord High Everything Else, to "fix" the execution so that Nanki Pooh is dead in law but not in fact.

The Mikado forgives everyone of everything and the story ends happily with even Ko Ko content in a new love.

It's All "The Mikado"

The names are silly, the plot is silly, and the whole story is ridiculous, but it is the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta "The Mikado," and under their skillful treatment it becomes an altogether enjoyable production. Clever lines and snappy music, together with the colorful Japanese setting and costumes make it a perennial favorite.

"The Mikado" will be presented by the combined musical organizations of Ursinus College, in matinee and evening performances, on Saturday, February 12, in the Thompson Gay Gymnasium. Musical Director William F. Philip and Dr. Reginald Sibbald are co-directors.

The evening performance will begin at 8:00, and the matinee at 2:15. Tickets will be 75 and 50 cents with a special rate of 25 cents to high school students in the afternoon.

McCorkle And Craigie Leads

The leads will be taken by Dorothea McCorkle '39, in the part of Yum Yum, and Paul Craigie '38, as Nanki Pooh. Craigie, drafted for the part at the last minute, will be remembered as the romantic hero of "In Springtime."

Elizabeth Trout '40, and Elizabeth Usinger '40, will appear as Peep Bo and Pitti Sing, friends of Yum Yum. Roy Snyder '41, a talented newcomer to the Ursinus stage, will play the part of the passionate executioner Ko Ko.

Bernice Grubb '39, as Katisha; Robert Gross '39, as Pooh Bah; Mark Alspach '40, as the Mikado; and Kenneth Snyder '40, as Pish Tush, round out the cast, which will be supported on the stage by a large chorus and in the pit by the Symphony Orchestra.

Ernest Muller '40, is manager, Paul Haas '39, publicity director, and Richard Evans '40, treasurer of the production.

COLLEGE MEN CAPTAIN 'DEAN'S LIST', ALSO LEAD ON 'B' LIST

Once again that dreaded "Dean's list" of ineligible students has taken its toll—a toll of nearly ten percent of the student body. But a more encouraging note is sounded by the "B" list, for this list surpasses the ineligible list in number.

By analyzing these two lists closely there are many interesting facts to be found that are not evident at a casual glance.

Of the 49 students on the ineligible list, 34 are boys and apparently the remaining 15 are girls. Also on the "B" list the males are predominant, with 33 of the 60 listed.

By classes, the sophomores head the ineligible list, with 28 who failed to make the grade. Six juniors and 15 freshmen are also listed as fatalities.

The seniors top the "B" list with 36 while the juniors have 24 fortun-ates. Only the two upper classes are eligible for enrollment in this select, cutting-privileged group.

Of the girls' dorms, Fircroft, Lynnewood, South, and Superhouse came through the semester unscathed. Maples, 612, Glenwood, Sprinkle, and the girls' Day Study each had one girl on the ineligible list; 944 and Shreiner each have two; and Clamer has five.

On the "B" list, Maples and girls' Day have six; Shreiner, four; South and Glenwood, three; Fircroft, two; and Superhouse, Sprinkle, and Clamer, one.

Of the men's dorms, Highland has the fewest on the ineligible list—only one; Stine and Freeland have but three; Derr, four; Brodbeck, six; the men's Day Study, eight; and Curtis, nine. But Brodbeck, men's Day Study, and Curtis are tied for high honors on the opposite list with seven each. Highland and Derr have six each, and Stine has one.

"Swing Your Partners!"

"Swing it" will give place to "swing your partner" on March 11, when a Barn Dance sponsored by the Y. M.-Y. W. C. A. will be given in the gymnasium. In the meantime, classes for those who want to learn how to square-dance will be conducted, announcement concerning which will be made soon.

Campus Players In Penn Contests

Two groups representing Ursinus will compete in the "Cultural Olympics" at the University of Pennsylvania in February and March.

On February 18-19, the Curtain Club will present "The Vision at the Inn" at the "Collegiate Drama Festival," to compete against productions from Penn, Swarthmore, Drexel, West Chester, Kutztown, Shippensburg, and others. The cast will be the same as that which placed second in the Philo Drama League contest held here last fall, when this same play by Susan Buchan was presented.

Edna Hesketh '40, as the tiring maid; Mary Alice Lord '41, hostess of the inn; Nadine Sturgis '41, Catherine de Beaumanoir; Mary Helen Stoudt '39, Joan of Arc; and Kenneth Seagrave '39, who won the individual medal for the best male performance in the Philo contest, as Guy de Laval, make up this cast. The plays are presented Friday and Saturday and the four best are given again Saturday evening. There are no prize awards, only the honor of being asked to repeat a performance as one of the chosen four.

Late in March Ursinus will send a second group of actors to Penn to compete in the "Foreign Language Festival." Mr. Alfred Wilcox will prepare the French play, "La Farce du Cuvier," with a tentative cast of Robert Peck '41, Anne Colsher '38, and Bernice Grubb '39.

These cultural contests, in which the high schools and colleges in Philadelphia and the surrounding area are entered, are held each spring at Penn. One is held each week-end and the series covers the whole field of drama, oratory, music, etc.

Also, according to Dr. Reginald Sibbald, the Curtain Club is planning to take a one-act play to Pottstown on the night of March 22, to present before the Business Women's Club.

Business Outlook Is Forum Topic

Once again the Forum Committee has been successful in securing the services of well-known speakers for the coming weeks.

The schedule for the second semester includes Mr. William A. Stinson, who will speak this Sunday afternoon, February 13; Dr. Leslie Pinckney Hill for March 6; and Dr. Jesse H. Holmes for April 3. The lecturers were obtained by the Forum Committee, itself; whereas the Administration formerly brought all speakers to the campus.

Mr. Stinson, a statistician of a leading Philadelphia brokerage commission house, will speak on "A Confused Business Outlook." A graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and the Wharton School of Finance, he is well recommended for his talks at that university.

An effective speaker, whose subject is currently interesting, Mr. Stinson should repeat the success he made when he spoke not long ago at the Lions Club of Collegeville. Members of the faculty who have heard him remark at his ability to lead discussions.

In previous talks he has discussed the duty of government to the people, the trend of democracy, and the function of the stock exchange as an important economic factor.

The Forum Committee also announced that two sophomores will be nominated to the committee within the next two weeks, and in April an election of officers will take place.

Journalism Course For Benefit Of Weekly Staff

Weekly staff members are to enjoy an advance hearing of the lectures which will be the basis of next year's new course in journalism. Dr. Calvin D. Yost, Jr., faculty advisor to the Weekly and also the professor who is to give the new course, will address the staff at its weekly meetings during the next semester.

Staff meetings will be held on Tuesday evening instead of on Monday, as they are at present. This change will permit Dr. Yost and the editors to prepare constructive criticism from each week's issue. Principles of journalism will be discussed by Dr. Yost in the course of his criticism.

This weekly short lecture series on the college newspaper will be open only to members of the Weekly staff, in all its departments. Further announcements concerning it will be made to the staff at the beginning of the second semester.

In Norristown "Y" Pool Thursday Mornings

Under the direction of Mr. Everett M. Bailey, twelve Ursinus students travel to the Norristown Y. M. C. A. for an hour's instruction in swimming every Thursday morning. The class is limited to juniors and seniors in the Physical Education group. This special course, introduced three years ago at Ursinus, also instructs in diving and life saving.

In the life saving class, restricted to seniors, Raymond Gurzynski '39, is in charge of the work. Miss Sara M. Ouderkirk, assistant in physical education, also accompanies the group and aids with the instruction.

FROSH GIRLS PICK PAKENHAM, ROBBINS REPRESENTATIVES

At a noon meeting held Thursday, the freshman women elected Jane Pakenham as their representative in the Women's Student Government Association.

Other nominees for the office were Jane Hartman, Kay Atkinson, Mary Robins, and Elizabeth Cornman. The new representative will be an inactive member of the organization for the remainder of the semester.

The first year girls also selected Mary Robbins to represent them in the Women's Athletic Association in an election held Friday.

What -- So Soon?

Yes, we've only just finished the first semester exams, but word is already out concerning the opening date of the second semester exams. According to the Dean's office, the finals this spring will start on Saturday, May 21, two days before they have customarily started in years past. Reason for this is the "comprehensives", to be given to graduating seniors this year for the first time.

WEEKLY STAFF REORGANIZES; ADDS 16 REPORTERS

Meeting last Thursday afternoon, the Weekly Board of Managers, with the recommendation of the editors, elected 16 new members to the staff of the publication, released two more, and made several promotions.

Elected as news reporters were: Lillian Bedner '39, Nelson Doland '39, Claire Borrell '40, Rollin Lawrence '40, Betty Usinger '40, Nicholas Barry '41, Douglas Davis '41, Richard Deitzler '41, Hilda Ferree '41, Betty Hamilton '41, and Marion Witmer '41.

Elected as sports reporters were: Carlton Davis '39, Harry Atkinson '40, Dillwyn Darlington '41, Winifred Kapp '41, Elias Lucyk '41.

Raymond Harbaugh '39, and Ruth Leone '40, were taken off the staff.

In a reorganization of the editorial staff, James Baird '38, was made managing editor, and Anne Colsher '38, was made feature editor. News editors are Henry Alderfer '39, Mabel Ditter '39, and Allen Dunn '39. Formerly each of these five had the position of associate editor.

Wilson Signs Don Pike For Soph Hop

Committee chairman Paul Wilson '40, announced today that Don Pike and his orchestra, from Philadelphia, have been engaged to play for the Soph Hop, March 12.

Acclaimed by Philadelphia and vicinity for the past several years because of its distinctive rhythmic pattern, this versatile group of ten musicians, under the leadership of Elmer Hoffman, was chosen as the result of a special audition played for the committee last Wednesday. Hoffman is a personality genius who provides a distinctive touch to the orchestra's work. On several occasions he has sung for the currently popular Tommy Dorsey's orchestra.

Wilson has selected the girls on the committee to take charge of decorations, under the leadership of Betty Usinger. The tickets for the Hop will sell at the usual $1.50 price, and they will probably be put on sale during the week of February 21.

"Siggie" Shelly's Band To Play At Lorelei

"Siggie" Shelly and his orchestra will furnish the music for the Lorelei, Saturday, February 19, announced Ruth Roth '38, chairman of the dance committee, last week.

This orchestra, numbering eleven musicians, five of which played at the Christmas Party in the gym, features a girl singer in addition to their smooth arrangements. Coming from Sellersville, it has enjoyed unusual success as a popular band in all of its engagements.

The plans for the decorations will not be made known until the dance. Tickets will be on sale at the end of this week. The price will be $1.50 per couple.

JOB-SEEKING SENIORS TO SEE MICHAEL, WEDNESDAY

On Wednesday, at 12:30 p. m., Mr. Eugene Michael, head of the Placement Bureau, will meet all seniors interested in any form of employment other than teaching.

The meeting will be held in room 7, Bomberger Hall. The purpose of it will be to find out and catalogue the professional interests of graduating students. Mr. Michael will explain qualifications for various positions and offer the information of the Placement Bureau concerning getting these positions.

Mr. Michael has already organized the placement of teachers. Although this meeting will be concerned with extra-teaching work, prospective teachers interested in other jobs may also attend.

EIGHT STUDENTS QUIT SCHOOL AT END OF SEMESTER

With the opening of the second semester of the 1937-'38 school year Ursinus College has lost eight of its students.

This number shows a decrease of one as compared with the number leaving school at the same time during the 1936-'37 term.

Two of the eight students who left school did so because they were dropped by the faculty. These students were Gerald Correll '41, Pine Grove, Pa., and Willett Brandt '40, Philadelphia, Pa.

Those who withdrew were Betty Frome '41, Doylestown, Pa.; Marie Simon '41, Palm, Pa.; William Yoh '40, Milton, Pa.; Robert Gray '40, Troy, N. Y.; George Clark '40, Prospect Park, Pa.; and Manuel Es-treicher '41, Pottstown, Pa.

STUDENT OPINION and The U. S. In China

We made a mistake, and we apologize for it. We thought there was student opinion on this campus. But there isn't. We ran a poll in the last issue of the Weekly on the question, "Should the United States withdraw its naval and military forces from the danger zone in China to prevent a recurrence of the Panay incident?" It so happened, however, that no one answered the question. Not a single ballot was cast.

The significance of this you may conjecture for yourselves, for this is not our immediate point. We may mention in passing, however, that the Ursinus student may not be the exception. The Pittsburgh Duquesne Duke ran a poll on the same question, and it evoked one response. The Duke is discontinuing the practice of asking for student opinion, because of "a complete lack of interest of the student body." It is unfortunate that there seems to be nothing else for the Weekly to do but to do likewise.

Perhaps we may be permitted to venture an opinion on this question. As long as we raised it, we may as well answer it.

We believe that the United States should without further ado take every sailor, every soldier, and every marine out of the fighting area, for two reasons. In the first place, those armed forces can do us no good. In the second place, they can do us immeasurable harm.

What good was the Panay in China? Can gunboats and marines possibly protect Americans from an accident? And it was undoubtedly a colossal blunder on the part of the Japanese aviators that lethal bombs sent the U. S. gunboat to the bottom of the Yangtze. Japan has gotten everything she wanted from the United States: the refusal of the President to invoke the neutrality law. And Japan knows only too well that if the United States stacked up against Japan, that day would see the ruin of the Nipponese empire. Her own writers have said so. Tokyo was scared to death by the Panay incident.

And did the Panay, could it possibly, do much for the American nationals in China? Those Americans who were taken aboard the gunboat were in far greater danger of their lives than those who remained in the capital city of Nanking. All of these latter have come through unscathed, even having been able to save thousands of Chinese lives by organizing a "neutral zone," thus adding appreciably to American prestige in China.

It is often asserted that one of the primary reasons for keeping such large forces in China is to protect American missionaries in the land of Buddha. But American missionaries have repeatedly tried to get rid of this embarrassing "protection" of rifles and cannon.

Then there is a further little aside on the claim that the United States must protect its economic interests in China. General Smedley Butler said that twenty million dollars a year were being spent by the United States to protect one hundred and twenty millions in American property in China, mostly oil interests. We might add that it seems to be a losing proposition. Six years of staying out of China would be enough to pay for all of these interests in case anything did happen to them.

And anyway, when we come right down to it, the Yangtze patrol, of which the Panay was a part, is a relic of a type of imperialistic policy which exists nowhere else in the world. The United States has economic interests in other parts of the world, yet China is the only country in which the United States and other nations have quartered their armed forces. This relic will probably not survive the present Sino-Japanese war, no matter who wins.

The United States took the Panay sinking sanely, but the magnitude of the danger that lurked behind the affair was realized no more completely in the United States than in Japan. She will probably try hard not to let it happen again. But suppose it should happen again?

It is perhaps an intelligent observation of our readers that if the United States were to withdraw from China now, it would appear that the Americans were afraid. It might result in a definite "loss of prestige." Yes, it would do that; but we would not stop here.

Mr. Sieber Pancoast, in answering this question in the Weekly's "Personal Paragraphs" column, has the right idea, to our mind: the United States, if it is to preserve the peace of the world now and its own security in the future, must enter into international cooperation to halt the present movement of international anarchy manifested by aggressor nations. Mr. Pancoast says the United States must "lend its weight in the world councils against lawlessness and aggression."

For the nonce we will go no further than this. The immediate application of this policy, for the United States, is to get out of China, where it is only sticking out its neck all alone; and to participate in collective action with the economically superior democracies.

We want to stop war. We want to prevent war now and prevent it in the future. We want to prevent it now by getting out of China, and we want to prevent it in the future by ganging up against the aggressor nations.

Cast Illnesses Cause Postponement Of Operetta Until Spring

 (Due to the fact that the Weekly had gone to press before this story broke, it was impossible to run the article on the front page).

Illness of two leading members of the cast of "The Mikado" caused the postponement of the Gilbert and Sullivan opus until June 4, it was announced exclusively to the Weekly by Dr. William Phillip, head of the music department, and director of the production. The production was to have been presented Saturday afternoon and evening.

The announcement came at one o'clock this afternoon (Monday) when it was learned that Roy Snyder '41, who was to have sung the part of Ko Ko, had undergone a tonsil operation in Philadelphia, and that Paul Craigie '38, who was to have sung the part of Nanki Poo, was confined to his bed with a severe cold.

At first it was planned to substitute Professor Alfred Wilcox in the part of Ko Ko and chance the possibility of Craigie's recovery in time for the production.

Finally, however, it was decided to postpone the performance until June 4, during Commencement Week-end.

This was the second setback the operetta had received since it went into rehearsal several weeks ago. Paul Snead '40, who originally was to have taken the part of Nanki Poo, the male lead opposite Dorothea McCorkle, was declared ineligible last week by the Dean's office.

In addition, the cast has been prevented from using the gymnasium for nightly rehearsals because of basketball practice.

Dr. Phillip also announced that money would be refunded to those who had already purchased tickets beginning tomorrow at 12:30 p. m. in Room 2.

J. Paul English '30, recently passed the examination of the Pennsylvania State Medical Board. He will leave within a few weeks for the Mayo Brothers Clinic, in Rochester, Minnesota, where he has been awarded a fellowship.

1,000 Tobacco Farmers Bank on His Judgment

IN THE warehouses Mr. Pinnix has managed in Georgia, North Carolina, and South Carolina, 46,000,000 pounds of tobacco have been sold. Farmers travel many miles to bring their crops to Mr. Pinnix's warehouse for sale. Reason is that they respect his tobacco experience and business integrity. So surely Mr. Pinnix's views are worth your respect, too.

"At every market I've ever attended," says Mr. Pinnix, "Lucky Strike has bought the ripest, mellowest tobacco offered. That's why I've smoked Luckies ever since I first became a warehouseman 20 years ago."

Mr. Pinnix's statement is borne out by sworn records which show that, among independent tobacco experts—auctioneers, buyers, and warehousemen—Luckies have over twice as many exclusive smokers as have all the other cigarettes combined.

Bear Matmen Fall Before Owls, 26-8

Saturday night, before a large and enthusiastic sports-week-ending crowd, Pete Stevens' Bear grapplers gallantly g-ted and g-ned 'gainst Temple University's mat-stars.

But with only one meet down (that against Penn) and but two experienced varsity men, the Ursinus wrestlers were mat-shouldered, 26-8, by the more experienced Cherry and White.

Terror Teru Hayashi, displaying the form which has made him a consistent winner in past seasons, started the varsity match by gaining the decision over Temple's 118 pounder. This gave his teammates a 3-0 lead to work on. But a forfeit in the next weight-class immediately wiped out this lead.

Physicist Willard Snyder, wrestling in varsity competition in the first meet of his life, extended the experienced Barshay to the limit but lost the decision. Herb Alt-house was too wily to be pinned, but suffered a similar fate.

The Temple captain, Holmgren, used a headlock effectively to pin Bill Grove; Charlie Steinmetz and Gordon Astheimer also went down by the pin-route. Stine's muscular Steinmetz, after displaying bridge-work of which any engineer would be proud, went down under a reverse body press, while Astheimer fell prey to a half-nelson and body chancery.

John "Tiny" Knoll spotted his heavyweight opponent at least 30 pounds but nevertheless gave the Ursinus cheering section cause for rejoicing by his victory via a pin, the only one for Ursinus in the varsity meet.

In the preliminary meet, the Ursinus jayvees also were defeated, by a score of 29-8. This team, composed mostly of freshmen, shows great promise for future years. Scrappy John Witman and footballer Dave Eavenson looked especially good.

KEN SNYDER RESIGNS FROM MEN'S STUDENT COUNCIL

Kenneth Snyder '40, has resigned his position as one of the two sophomore members of the Men's Student Council. Snyder's resignation from the male governing body came as a surprise to its members. In a communication addressed to President John Tomlinson '38, he said his action was caused by purely personal reasons. Snyder was elected to the council last May. A meeting of the sophomore men will be held in Room 7, Bomberger, tomorrow, at 12:30 p. m. to elect a second representative for their class to the council.

Tough One Tonight

Tonight the Bears will play one of the highest scoring and strongest teams in the East when they meet the Villanova Wildcats on the home court. Villanova has lost only two games, one to Westminster and one to Fordham last Friday night, and they have a record of fifteen victories already this season, one of the most impressive being a win over Temple Owls, who were considered the best team in the country by some, after their victory over Stanford. "Duke" Duzminski has been the leader of the Wildcat attack, leading the scoring in most of the games.

Rosemont Defeats Bear Sextet In Slow Game

Last Friday Miss Snell's sextet met defeat at Rosemont, 24-21, after a game in which they failed to show up true blue. Only at times during the game did the co-eds exhibit the brilliant and fast playing of which they are capable.

Bunny Harshaw, star forward and high-scorer of last year, could not find the basket, although her shots were never wild, unluckily just missing the mark. Sometimes passes made between both guards and forwards were poorly placed and, as a consequence, Ursinus lost the ball.

In the guard zone, a great amount of the burden was thrown on Captain Edna Myers, due to the loss of one of the varsity regulars. Captain Myers did a good job at intercepting and played a fast game, but the guard combination, new, felt the change. However, the new line-up is likely to prove a good one, as Peg Svit, who has switched from forward to guard position, showed up very well on such short notice.

Rosemont tailed Ursinus after the first half and sideliners felt that the game lagged for the most part after that.

The second team also failed to carry the mail when Rosemont jayvees piled up the score 35-18. At the end of the first half the score stood 25-2 in Rosemont's favor.

BEAR CUBS DROP TWO MORE, TO PERKIOMEN AND CURTIS

Don Kellett's unfortunate freshman courtmen lost two more games during last week: to Perkiomen Prep, 43-29; and to Curtis High School, 33-10.

The yearling jayvees also dropped their match with the Perkiomen second team, 22-17, when Cliff Calvert's proteges won both first and second team games last Tuesday night in Pennsburg.

George Biery and Dave Jacobs topped the scoring for the freshman first team, and P. Wise for the seconds. Although the first team was behind all the way, the Ursinus jayvees led up to the third quarter.

On Friday night, as a preliminary to the varsity-F. and M. fight, one of the best high school teams in the East, Curtis of Staten Island, stopped at Collegeville and added the scalps of Kellett's Bear Cubs to their already well-filled belt of victories. Score, 33-10.

Hashagenmen Jounce Lebanon Valley, 52-46; Drop Thriller To F and M, 41-35

By Stan Weikel

Faced with the task of beating their old rivals, Franklin and Marshall, to tie Gettysburg for the league lead, the Ursinus quintet was not up to par and went down to defeat, 41-35, in an all-important contest Friday night. Earlier in the week the Bears took into camp a smooth Lebanon Valley combine, 52-46.

Friday night's defeat left G-burg in sole possession of first place, while the Bears are tied with Albright for fourth. Both games were played on the home court of the Grizzlies.

The Bears and Diplomats waged a see-saw battle throughout the first half with the classy shooting of Sid Landers and Abe Chern providing most of the thrills. The visitors led at half time, 21-20. Close, hard playing was in evidence throughout the contest, with both teams using the same type of offense.

Early in the second half, the visitors ran their total to 28, but the Bears came back with seven. From the point where the score stood 33-32, to the end, F. and M. had the better of the fracas, and Snodgrass kept his boys working hard to maintain their slim lead.

The close guarding of the Diplomats bottled up the Ursinus offense very efficiently, while the Bears were unable to stop Landers and Stu Snodgrass, high-scoring aces of the visiting splinter-gatherers. Each had 17 points to his credit. Chern garnered 13 for the homesters.

Different Story Tuesday

Tuesday night's game, however, was a different story. With Bobby Keehn leading the attack with 22 points, the Bears played a heady brand of ball for most of the game. Chern dropped 14 toward the cause. While the rest of the squad was not as rampant in the scoring column, they played fine ball, especially in taking the ball off the backboards and in the fast passing attack which allowed the Grizzlies to ring up their 35 points.

The Bears took an early 10-3 lead on Keehn's sensational shooting, but before the half was over, the Flying Dutchmen had tied up the encounter at 21-all.

Hashagen's basketweavers led at the half, 25-23. After Frey had tied up the game once more on a long shot in the opening seconds of the second half, Chern sent the Grizzly pine-board speedsters into the lead. They were never tied after this, but only the finest defense and hard playing on the part of the Bears enabled them to claim the victory, 52-46.

IN THE COLLEGE ORGANIZATIONS

Rev. Mr. Faye and Muriel Brandt To Speak At Vespers

On Sunday evening, a Galilean Service was held in the chapel under the joint sponsorship of the Y. M.-Y. W. C. A. This was a very interesting and unique service in that it depicted the life of Christ in song, poem, picture and story. William Wimer '39, program chairman, was in charge of the service.

Arrangements have been made for Vesper meetings to be held in the near future. This Sunday evening, Reverend Edwin Faye will speak. The following Sunday, Feb. 20, Muriel Brandt '38, president of W. S. G. A., will speak.

This Thursday afternoon, February 10, a Y.-sponsored student tea will be held for all new students. Also, plans are in preparation for student-faculty teas to be held at regular intervals.

Dr. Bancroft Speaks On Bruno To Faculty Men

Giordano Bruno, a little known, but an important sixteenth century philosopher, was used by Dr. William W. Bancroft as the subject of his speech to the Men's Faculty meeting, which was held on February 2, in the Freeland House.

Prof. E. B. Michael presided over the full membership that was present and the regular order of refreshments was served at the close of the business meeting.

Dr. Bancroft pointed out Bruno's principal philosophic ideas and his place in the development of philosophy. He further stated that Bruno was one of the first modern idealists, and that he offers a good representation of the philosophy of the transition period between Medieval and the Renaissance periods.

Ursinus Woman's Club Entertains Co-Eds Today

The Ursinus Women's Club had complete charge of the program at the regular monthly mass meeting of all women, held at 4:30 this afternoon in Bomberger Hall.

It is the earnest desire of Mrs. Trinna Moser, president of the Club, and her members, to interest the present senior girls in organizing a Junior Women's Club which would work side by side with the older group.

German Club Hears Report On German Advertising

Members of the German Club met for the first time this semester on Wednesday evening. The program chairman, Charles Steinmetz '40, and Muriel Brandt '38, took charge. Several games of German origin were played, after which a short report was offered concerning advertising in Germany. The evening was climaxed by group singing of native German songs.

Brotherhood Plans To Purchase Keys For Seniors

The meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Paul took the form of a short business session Tuesday night because of the basketball game. The topic which was to have been discussed, "The Divinity of Christ," was held over until a later date.

The organization decided to continue their present schedule of meeting the first Tuesday of the month at 7:30 p. m. through this semester. President Albert Robinson '38, appointed Charles Wallick '38, to investigate the possibility of purchasing keys for senior members.

I. R. C. To Discuss China Question At Meeting

The International Relations Club will meet tomorrow evening, at 8:00 p. m., in Shreiner Hall. Helen Skilling '39, and Paul Haas '39, will have charge of the meeting.

The subject under discussion will be the Weekly student poll question of a few weeks ago as to whether the American citizens in China should continue to enjoy the protection of the United States military and naval forces. Helen Skilling will uphold citizen protection in China while Paul Haas will take the stand that the United States should withdraw its military and naval forces.

SORORITY AND SOCIETY

Miss Marion A. Spangler, the new member of the Music Department, will give a tea for the freshman girls at the Studio Cottage on Monday afternoon, February 14. The musical program will include selections by Elsie Weikel, soprano, and Jeanne Russell, flutist.

That same evening the Ursinus Women's Club will serve after dinner coffee to the senior girls at the home of Mrs. Norman E. McClure.

The American Association of University Women held its meeting last Wednesday evening at 9:44.

Thursday evening the Ursinus Circle met in the Science Building for an illustrated program on "Contemporary American Art", presented by Mrs. Harvey L. Carter. The social hour was spent at 612.

NEWS BRIEFS

Improvement: The Kitchen Department again reversed its decision last week, when it changed the source of its milk supply from Allied Dairies, Collegeville, to Levensgood Dairies, Pottstown.

Incongruity: Gothic Bomberger Chapel has been fitted out in new modernistic lighting.

Congratulations: A daughter, Elizabeth, was born to Dr. and Mrs. Donald G. Baker last Wednesday.
