UM Course Description of CRWR 411 - Advanced Poetry Workshop | 3 Credits. (R-6) Offered autumn and spring. Prerep., junior standing or consent of instr. An advanced writing workshop involving critical analysis of students' work-in-progress, as well as reading and discussion of poems by established poets. Discussions will focus on structure and stylistic refinement, with emphasis on revision. Different techniques, schools and poetic voices will be encouraged. Frequent individual conferences.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Poetry is the art of connection—yoking disparate things together with metaphor, stringing sounds together in patterns of rhythm and rhyme, employing the power of syntax with a chain of words. In this course, students will analyze published poems for specific strategies of connection and discuss the ways the poet uses these various techniques to establish motivation and emotional depth, and create linguistic music, among other things. Writing in the class will focus primarily on the generation and revision of the students' own poems. Students will participate in evaluating their own work and the work of their peers. The goal of this course is to deepen and expand the students' poetry writing skills and knowledge developed in previous creative writing workshops. Each student will produce an end-of-term portfolio of revised poems.

Student Learning Outcomes for CRWR 411: Advanced Creative Writing: Poetry

- Demonstrate a broad understanding of poetic traditions
- Write and submit a substantial group of poems for peer review
- Revise poems from previous semesters
- Become familiar with various publishing venues and the procedures for submitting poems
- Practice elements of craft and style by writing imitation poems
- Exhibit a high level of sophistication in the critique of peer work

- Assemble a portfolio of poems, including revisions, that displays advanced skill levels as assessed by the instructor.

Required Texts

A Fortune for Your Disaster by Hanif Abdurraqib

The Galleons by Rick Barot

Where Outside the Body Is the Soul Today by Melissa Kwasny

Holy Moly Carry Me by Erika Meitner

The Poet's Companion by Kim Addonizio & Dorianne Laux

ADDITIONAL REQUIRED TEXTS: A good dictionary (one with etymologies) and a thesaurus. An online dictionary is perfectly fine as long as it includes etymologies.

REQUIRED SUPPLEMENTAL MATERIALS

- A notebook and writing utensil for daily writing assignments both in and out of class.
- Access to a computer with internet connection, as well as a printer and a stapler outside of class.

Instructional Methods

The class will consist of in-class discussion of assigned reading, writing exercises, craft lectures, and peer workshop.

Note on formatting and procedures:

- All work must be TYPED in a standard 12-point, single-spaced, and left justified with one inch margins unless there is an artistic, graphic formatting reason to format your work differently. One poem per page if you are submitting multiple poems.
- All work must have your name, CRWR 411, and the date on it in the top right corner.
- All multiple-page work must include page numbers.
- Use staples or binder clips for all assignments.
- ALL work should be before the beginning of class.

GRADING CRITERIA

Work will be graded on completeness; appropriate length; correct and appropriate grammar, word choice, spelling, and punctuation; and successful use of creative writing elements. Late workshop pieces will not be workshopped and will lose 10 points on grade.

WRITTEN WORK:

1. Poems (10 @ 30 points each). Worth a total of 30% of your course grade.

2. Quizzes (10 @ 20 points each). These quizzes will cover poetic terminology and other material we discuss in class or taken from our reading. If you are absent on the day of the quiz, you will be given an alternate quiz. You must arrange this with me within one week of your absence. Worth a total of 10% of your course grade.

3. Portfolio & Critical Introduction (1 @ 250 points) Five sentences minimum of thoughtful critique per assigned workshop poems. Worth a total of 25% of your course grade.

Course Policies

ATTENDANCE AND TARDINESS

Students may miss up to three classes without penalty. Missing a workshop day (even if your work isn't being workshopped) will count as two absences. Each absence after three will result in a 15-point penalty to your attendance grade. Do not be late. I take attendance at the beginning of class; students who are not present when I take attendance are not eligible to be marked present for the day.

CLASS PARTICIPATION

You must be ready to share your ideas and insights on all of the workshop poems, short stories, and essays as well as any assigned readings. And because you'll be getting feedback and comments from your classmates on your poems, this also means you need to come to class prepared to make respectful yet rigorous criticisms of the work presented in workshop.

CRITIQUING CLASSMATES' WORKS

When it comes to critiquing each other's creative writing, I ask that you bring written critiques to class, and I encourage you to take your classmate's work on their own terms rather than hold them up to a rigid paradigm of what you think a poem should be. Begin by praising the successes of the poem and then take an interrogative approach. Consider what the poem seeks to accomplish and try to understand its internal logic. Focus on what makes the poem necessary. I think this makes you a better audience for the poem, and hopefully it provides a more useful experience for your classmate whose work is being critiqued.

CLASS ATMOSPHERE AND SAFETY

We will discuss ideas and writing as a class, in small groups, and one-on-one. All opinions are respected in this class. Students will be mindful of their classmates' feelings when commenting on each other's opinions. You may disagree with each other, and with me, as long as it is done in an atmosphere of mutual respect. Use of electronic devices such as laptops, music players/headphones, cell phones and the like distracts from our class focus and is therefore not allowed unless approved by the instructor. Cell phones must be kept silent. Texting in class is disrespectful and distracting and will not be tolerated.

CAVEAT: I reserve the right to change and amend this syllabus and schedule as necessary.

DISABILITY SERVICES FOR STUDENTS:

The University of Montana assures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students. If you have a disability that adversely affects your academic performance, and you have not already registered with Disability Services, please contact Disability Services in Lommasson Center 154 or 406.243.2243. I will work with you and Disability Services to provide an appropriate modification.

COVID-19 Safety Guidelines

This is my first semester at UM, and starting a semester in the middle of a global pandemic is a first for us all. There is a fair amount of uncertainty about how this semester will unfold, so we'll have to be flexible. We may need to modify this course. I will update the course Moodle as needed, and we may be using Zoom to meet virtually. The health and safety of our class and community is a priority. Please follow these guidelines while in our class:

1. You're required to wear a mask while in the classroom
2. Each student is provided with a cleaning kit. You're expected to clean your personal work space when you arrive for class, and before you leave
3. Classrooms may have one-way entrances / exits to minimize crowding
4. You should not congregate outside the classroom before and after class
5. Specific seating arrangements will be used to ensure social distancing and support contact tracing efforts
6. Class attendance will be recorded to support contact tracing efforts
7. Drinking and eating food are strongly discouraged within the classroom since it involves mask removal
8. Stay home if you feel sick and/or if exhibiting COVID-19 symptoms, and please contact the Curry Health Center at (406) 243-4330
9. Up-to-Date COVID-19 Information from the University of Montana on the following websites:
UM Coronavirus Website: www.umt.edu/coronavirus
UM COVID-19 Fall 2020 website: www.umt.edu/coronavirus/fall2020.php
10. Please help mitigate the spread of COVID-19 outside the classroom—practice social distancing, wear a mask, wash your hands thoroughly and often. This is for your safety and well-being and that of our community.
