Dedgewick. Sept. 24. 1862
To his excellent Grand Workman for
Gov. of Maine.

Sir.

I have been solicited to write you - which I most cheerfully do - in favor of always K. Myrick of Dedgewick, being appointed as drill Officer in Co, ⁱⁿ Command by R. B. Richardson, in accordance of "Company Paper".

Mr Myrick is a private in Co. B. 2^d Me. Regt and has been with the Regt since its organization till recently. He is now in Hospital at Washington having been wounded in the recent battles. He is a worthy - talented - and educated young man, with strictly moral habits.

The Officer of said company

- I understand - are much interested that Mr. Wiggins should have this appointment if there is one to be made

Very Respectfully
Yours Obedt Servt
W. G. Sargent -
