Post Dispatchable Oct 26
Gen. Hoagden

Dear Sir I take the liberty to address a few lines to you in connection with a desire of obtaining a discharge which the Dr. says I should have and shall have as soon as I get my descriptive list as I am unfit for duty and if you will be so kind as to forward my descriptive list to you will oblige me very much I presume you know who I am I having trained in your Co and worked at your house on Titusville I tried to get a furlough so not to leave the service but the Dr. said I should not be fit for any more service so he would give me a discharge

I was last payed by Maj

Halman up to the 1st of July last and the clothing amounts $45.00 that I have received from the U.S. The above is a true statement of pay and clothing so you can have no trouble in making out the list

By forwarding the list
you will oblige

Jethro Hall
