"AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER"

Lorie Michelle Freeman

To my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, your wondrous works never cease to amaze me. You have continued to pour blessings upon blessings on me that have reached far beyond my imagination. I pray that in all my ways that I have acknowledged your greatness, knowing that it was by your power alone that I was crowned Miss Prairie View A&M University.

To my Family: In everything that I have ever wanted to do I could always count on your support. Mere words could not express my gratitude for the sacrifices that you have made in order for me to reach my goals. I love all of you. Thank you.

Mommy: Since I was a child you always believed that there was something special about me. It was because of your many prayers, faith, and teaching that I have reached this pinnacle in life. I hope that I have made you proud.

Gran and Granddaddy: I could not have chosen better grandparents. Your love and support has meant so much to me. Thank you for the hard work that you put into making me the young lady that you see today.

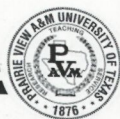

Uncle Andrae: My favorite. Hold on tight, the best is yet to come. Thank you for exposing me to the arts of dance and music. You took me to every exciting event in your life, so now its' my turn and I taking you every where.

Lauren: My big sis. I know that I may have never told, but you are my inspiration. I have always looked up to you. Remember Queens run in the family.

President and Mrs. Wright and the Prairie View A& M University Administration, your generosity and encouragement will always be dear to my heart. Thanks for the undying love and support you have shown me throughout my tenure as Miss PVAMU.

To the Prairie View students: Thank you for always treating me like a queen. You never hesitated to include me in your events (PALS, CAB, and The Panther). Alla Sheena Boyer: Aren't we a pair. Since freshman year, if I could count on anybody it was you. You told me from the start that I would be Miss PVAMU. Your encouragement, love, trust, and listening ear has meant the world to me. I was told that friends should inspire excellence, which you have done. You are truly my best friend.

Torrie Richardson: My love for you is ever present and will remain true. You have my whole heart. I love you.

To the Royal Pantherland Court- Reggie, Elan, Lindsey, Dwight, and Jermaine: Thanks for making this year one of the best in my life. You kept me grounded and laughing. I will treasure every moment from the Texas Southern game (be careful in limos) to homecoming. You all are the greatest.

Ms. Simmons: You have been more to me than I could have ever wished for. You began as my advisor and became my friend. Thank you for everything from late night dinners in Atlanta to all the advice on whatever the subject. If I said thank you ten thousand times it would not be enough. All I can say is that you deserve a raise. P. S. I know that I am your favorite.

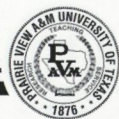

Dean Lewter: I never knew that a minister could be so funny. You always kept my spirits up. I truly appreciate that you would allow me to be myself when no one was looking. Thanks for everything.

To the next Miss Prairie View A&M University: Congratulations in advance. Tonight you join a list of extraordinary women. You are here by divine powers, and have been blessed by this great opportunity. As told to me, queens walk with their heads up, for you are truly royalty. Reign with integrity, dignity, and grace, yet remember that a true queen can humble herself to walk among her people. Becoming Miss Prairie View A&M is a privilege, treat it as such. Times will get hard and you will get tired, but you will find comfort in Proverbs 3: 5-6, and surround yourself with positive people. I pray that this experience is all that you dream of and more.

My beloved Prairie View my song to thee I raise in gratitude, I will sing my hymn of praise. For memories dear for friends and recollections for lessons learned while here I lived with thee. Thank you for loving me. Thank you for respecting me. Thank you for allowing me to be you queen.

Many blessings.

Miss Prairie View A&M University Scholarship Pageant

A Historical Perspective

The era of the "seventies" introduced a new dimension of the Miss Prairie View Pageant. Growing out of an earlier period, which focused on the selection of a queen who reigned supreme in "Pantherland". The Miss Prairie View A&M Pageant extended its emphasis to enable the reigning "Miss Prairie View A&M" to become a competitor in the Miss Texas Pageant and ultimately the Miss America Pageant.

Broadening the University's philosophical premise that "education must encompass the personal -social development of the individual as well as his/her intellectual, professional and cultural development", the University purchased a franchise from the Miss Texas--Miss America Pageants, to provide opportunities for its young women to enter the broader social-cultural competitive arena.

On April 28, 1970, the Miss Prairie View A&M University Pageant became the first pageant at the University, which was sponsored in cooperation with the "Miss Texas", and the "Miss America" pageants. Margaret Penn of Houston, Texas was selected as the winner, and became the first Miss Prairie View A&M University to compete for the Miss Texas Title. Prairie View A&M University, once again, made a major thrust forward, as it moved into the mainstream of the America societal system. As it made this move, it also provided for its young ladies a national experience; namely, the State and National competitors for Miss America, as an environment for learning and an environment for studying the concepts of the Free Enterprise System by becoming competitors in the social and cultural environment.

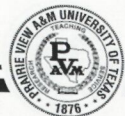

It was the decade of the seventies and Prairie View A&M University was in the move. A new image was being forged and the university was moving boldly to end its first century of service to the State and Nation while charting its future as it moved into its "Second Century". Throughout the University there were visible signs of tangible changes... yes, a change of its physical form. In the intellectual environment the change was electrifying, as the University moved for Excellence. In the world of academics, it broadened its scope and a dynamic faculty, students and administrators, developed programs to serve the State, the nation and the international communities. Therefore, the ushering in of the Miss Prairie View A&M Pageant, as a part of the larger Miss Texas and Miss America pageants, was compatible with the "new philosophy" at the University.

"The decades of the Seventies" was heralded in with the selection of Miss Natalie McKinney of Bay City. The Pageant also made more impact during this period when Ava Malone of Houston was recognized as a non-finalist winner in Miss Texas Pageant. Lillie Taylor of Kinlock, Missouri and Lenice Brown of Prairie View, Texas followed her with the same award. The University received national recognition when Lillie L. Taylor was crowned Miss Collegiate Black America in 1985 and Shari Love was crowned Miss Black College Alumni Hall of Fame in 1987. The highlight for the Miss America System thus far has been the selection of Dellenor R. Miles of Houston, Texas as Fourth Runner-up to Miss Texas in 1984, thus becoming the first Miss Prairie View A&M University to be named as a finalist, in addition to the Most Talented Singer at the Pageant.

The 1990's promised to be the decade of achievement in pageantry for the University. Mary Ann Palmer of Bellville, Texas, Miss PVAMU 1989-90 was crowned Miss Collegiate African American 1990-91; Jolie McKeel of St. Louis, Missouri, Miss PVAMU 1990-91 was named 3rd Runner-up, Miss Black College Alumni Hall of Fame; Elizabeth E. Vaughn of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Miss PVAMU 1991-92, was named 4th runner-up in the Miss Black College Alumni Hall of Fame; Cynthia Lester of Tuskegee, Alabama, Miss PVAMU 1992-93 was named 3rd runner-up in the Miss Black College Alumni Hall of Fame and received the Judges award for being in the top 25 in the Miss Texas Pageant; Rezolia L. Johnson of Abilene, Texas, Miss PVAMU 1993-'94 was named 1st Runner-up, Miss Black Texas Metroplex and later named Miss Black Metroplex. In, 1994, the Pageant saw a major change when an international student, Donna Tomlinson of Westmoreland, Jamaica, was named Miss PVAMU 1994-'95, and named 4th Runner-up in the Miss Black College Alumni Hall of Fame; Kimberly Williams, Miss PVAMU 1995-'96, was named 1996-'97 2nd Runner-up in the Miss Collegiate African-American Pageant; Danielle White of Houston, Texas, Miss PVAMU 1996-'97; Chrystal Bender, Miss PVAMU 1997-'98, of Smyrna, Georgia was named 1st Runner-up, Miss Black Texas Metroplex; Lum-Awah Atang of Buea, Cameroon, Miss PVAMU 1998-'99; and Shiressa Pittman of Fresno, California, the reigning Miss Prairie View A&M University 1999-2000. All of these charming young ladies brought international recognition to the University and the community.

Embarking on the 21st Century, the legacy of achievements in pageantry for the University continues. Kimberly N. Pierson, Miss PVAMU 2000-01, Erin I. Stevenson, Miss PVAMU 2001-2002, and Nella P. Mupier, Miss PVAMU 2002-2003, were all named finalist in the Miss Black College Alumni Hall of Fame.

The "Miss Prairie View A&M University Scholarship Pageant" has been an experience for the young women of Prairie View A&M University. It has served well as a part of the development of the "whole person." This conforms with the philosophy and is a treasured tradition of this great University.

Mr. Prairie View A&M University Scholarship Pageant A Historical Perspective

Every man in his life has a part to play, and leaves a foot-print, seen and followed by some other. How well that part is played depends very largely on the man. It may be played carelessly, without any thought of its scope in reaching, touching, or influencing another's life. It may be footprints, nevertheless, someone may follow it and be stunted perhaps for life.

On the other hand, that part may be played with great care as to every detail, with much preparation, with the thought ever in view that: no man lives to himself alone, but that we are building character for each other for inspiration.

With this idea in view, Prairie View A&M University's 1985-1987 Yearbook staff decided that it was time to reveal the men who were striving to learn the lesson of true success, and thus planting such footprints on the "sand of time" that observing them one will be impressed, and encouraged to follow them, seeing they lead to excellence, not only here at Prairie View A&M University, but in our society. The path had been set in 1983 when Thomas Carroll was selected as Mr. Prairie View A&M University following his performance in the campus Talent and Fashion Show.

Hence, in the late 1980's, Prairie View A&M University was in the process of "Entering a New Dimension" in the sands of time. The year 1987 was embarked upon by the First Annual Mr. Prairie View A&M University Scholarship Pageant, which was held April 28 in the Memorial Student Center Ballroom. The purpose of this contest was to honor those men whose footprints led in the direction of success, leadership, and excellence: men of great caliber who possessed such qualities and leadership characteristics that made them worthy to be "Lord of Pantherland" and hold such a prestigious title as "Mr. Prairie View A&M University."

Although the other contestants were competitive and the sands appeared a little quickening at times, Mr. Ricky Valentino LaFontaine was selected as the winner, thus becoming the first "Mr. Prairie View A&M University."

During the exploration of this "New Dimension," the Yearbook staff discovered that Mr. Prairie View A&M University would not only serve as an honor to men of this outstanding university, but also to women by serving as the official escort to Miss Prairie View A&M University.

In 1988, the pageant received formal recognition by the Office of Student Activities, where Mr. Prairie View A&M University was elevated to the level of Miss Prairie View A&M University and receives some of the same amenities as prizes including scholarships and housing. Homer Smith, Jr. of Dallas, Texas formally participated in the Royal Coronation for Miss Prairie View A&M University. This year also marked the acceptance and respect for the male pageant concept. The increase in pageant contestants cause the pageant to relocate to Hobart Taylor Recital Hall.

The 1990's ushered in a new era for the Mr. Prairie View A&M University Scholarship Pageant. The pageant was enhanced and received widespread recognition and taken to new heights. Mr. Prairie View A&M University participated in various campus activities as well as community based events. The Pageant also served as the impetus for the creation for the Mr. Collegiate African American Pageant for Black College men in 1991. Mr. Deosick Burney, a Junior Accounting major from Los Angeles, California became the first Runner-up to Mr. Collegiate African American at the first pageant on April 4, 1992.

"Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, To the only wise God our Savior, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen."

Reginald L. Bachus

I am beginning with an ending because I am closing another chapter in my life.

First and foremost giving all honor, praise and glory to God. I truly understand why they say you do not really get to know him until you seek him and find him after you have gone through some things in your life. This last chapter of my life has been a bumpy and rocky one. And I know it was nothing but the Grace of God that got me through and allowed me to maintain. I have learned some life long lessons the hard way, but unlike a lot of other people who see struggle on the outside, a lot of mine was behind closed doors and in my head and still haunt me to this day. But God saw fit to deliver me from the mess that

I created because he knew he had something greater for me and I am here today just saying Thank You LORD!

Second I want to acknowledge and thank my family. Because without all of you I would not be half the man I am now. You have exhibited true love in all its brilliance. You have stood by my side in good times and in bad times. You have been there even when I have tried to push you away. I love you mom and dad from the bottom of my heart, Detra and Reginald Bachus. Words cannot even begin to explain; the closest one I know is AGAPE. Next, to my heart my little sister Regina. I do not know what I did to ever deserve the world's greatest little sister. You have always been my biggest supporter and never stopped showing your love for me. I have watched you grow and mature into a beautiful virtuous woman. I love you!

To all my other biological family I love with that same AGAPE love. Grandma and Grandpa Bachus; Grandma T; Auntie Neda, Uncle Curtis, Bria and Bryan; Uncle Jerome, Meechie, Justin, Steven and Jacquelyn; Uncle Selwyn, Auntie Marla, Little Selwyn and Miles; Auntie Sonja, Derrian and DeAris.

To the Family who has been my family away from home, The Williams. Doc, you have been more than my pastor, you have been a caring and loving father who has treated me like one of your own. Mrs. Williams you have given me that motherly love and home cooking and I will never forget how you went out of your way to help me on Valentine's Day. Now to my two new sisters and niece. Lauren what can I say, you have always been there for me to talk to and never bit your tongue, that is what I have needed. Kyra, you know that you are my ace for life and I got nothing but love for you! To my new niece, Courtlyn, girl you are going to be a mess. And thank you to the Joy Baptist Tabernacle Family, 4922 Griggs Road, Houston, Texas. Come experience the "Joy" for yourself!

To the Royal Court. Élan, I can not even attempt to put it into loving words, Lindsey it truly was my pleasure getting to know you and I hope we stay in touch, Big J and Dwight you two stepped into an awkward situation and made the best of it and I couldn't have asked for two better men to walk with me. Now Ms. Prairie View, I could write an entire page and not say thank you enough! I know it was nobody but God who gave me such a wonderful Ms. Prairie View. They say, behind every good man there is a better woman, and not that you were ever behind me but you were truly the epitome of queen in all of its royal splendor! I wish you nothing but blessings in all of your life endeavors.

To the advisors of Mr. and Mrs. Prairie View A&M University, Dean Charles Lewter, IV and Ms. Denise Simmons who through their eminent leadership have navigated and steered the way for my memorable reign as Mr. Prairie View A&M University. I sincerely thank you above all for putting up with me especially when all of my actions in your eyes were not favorable. I am truly indebted to you both for going above and beyond the call of duty even before my reign began! From the bottom of my heart, Thank You!

Now to those who are not my biological family but are still family. To my brother, Artarius Ricardo George keep the head up and I will be here for you when you get out, and to my other brother, Chris Dunlap. All My Kansas City Crew: Curtis, Travis, Cheryl, Becca, Muriel, Will, Kahela, Kulea, Pace, Ben and everybody else! And to all the other people here at Prairie View and in Houston who have embraced me, I truly thank you and apologize that I cannot go into mentioning names for fear of missing someone, charge it to my head and not my heart! Also, to the girl who taught me how to love and helped me find my heart again. Although things didn't work out the way we would have liked them to, you will always have a special place in my heart and Olive Oil.

To the administration faculty and staff. You have all been supportive and examples for the next generation and I sincerely thank each and every one of you from the bottom of my heart. A special thanks to Dr. Wright who was a Godsend to not only this prestigious university but to this world. I hope to keep in touch with you and continue to work hand in hand with you to help this university reach it's full potential.

It is you my sister that I have come to know.
It is you my sister who has grown so close.
What spirit of goodness do you contain?
How talented you are,
Baring no shame.
I am mesmerized by the intellect of your mind.
You are a community helper,
A gift to mankind.
So to you my sister
I gratefully stand back.

Don't Quit

When things go wrong as they sometimes will;
When the road you're trudging seems uphill;
When the funds are low, and the debts are high;
And you want to smile, but you sigh;
When care is pressing you down a bit-
Rest if you must but don't quit.
Success is failure turned inside out;
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt;
And you never can tell how close you are;
It may be near when it seems afar.
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit-
It's when things go wrong that you mustn't quit.

THANK YOU,

To family and friends for your loving support and encouragement.
