I was somewhat disappointed in some of our activities; we had a total of 8 reports of breaking and entering and only solved 3 of them. But I do believe that in 4 of the others we questioned the persons who were responsible, and we only lacked sufficient proof for arrests. We had wonderful cooperation from the State Police as well as other agencies.

We were fortunate in January to have Jack Covey return to work with us. His efficiency was a major factor in our having a good year and keeping things under control. Any failures we had were not for lack of effort or energy on his part.
