ROAD AGENT'S REPORT

During the year of 1974 we remeasured the roads in town to determine the increase in mileage due to new developments. In 1974 we recorded 80 miles of tar roads as compared to the 1973 figure of 77 and 21 miles of dirt roads compared to the 1973 figure of 26.

Bartley Hill Road from Mammoth Road to Noyes Road was completed and hard surfaced with the State TRA Funds. South Gilcreast Road from the Catholic Cemetary to the Derry town line was hard surfaced with Revenue Sharing Money. This included graveling, clearing of trees and installation of drainage as well. New construction money also completed a large portion of high range road involving gravel, clearing of trees, drainage and hard surfacing from Litchfield road to Alexander Road; Catch Basins and drains on Devonshire Lane; widening of Hardy Road; Ledge removal and drainage on Stonehenge Road and drainage on Spring Road. The hill on Old Derry road has also been hard surfaced including drainage. We have tried to install street signs on all streets, even though some are only wood construction. Vandalism is a very large and expensive problem with all our signs.

The new grader arrived which was paid for with revenue sharing funds as appropriated at Town Meeting in 1974.

As this is the last year that I will be working for the town as an elected official, may I sincerely say thank you to everyone for all the cooperation I have always received and I will look forward to working for the town in every way possible.

Sincerely,
Richard S. Moore, Road Agent

LONDONDERRY POLICE DEPARTMENT ANNUAL REPORT — 1974

Demand for Police related services in 1974 continued to increase at a rate considerably above the population growth of the Town. The list of the Police activities accompanying this report illustrates the work load of departmental activities. Some of the major increases were in burglaries, up 42%; Thefts up 72%; Criminal mischief (vandalism) up 57%. Complaints and requests for assistance requiring the dispatch of a cruiser totaled 3395, an increase of 38% over 1973. If the current rate of requests continues without substantial increase, cruiser responses will approximate 6000 in 1975, an additional increase of about 75%.

The number of investigations handled by the department, excluding auto accidents, was 775 or about 2 per day. Each investigation may take from several hours to several days. We have not had sufficient manpower to properly investigate all complaints. Lieutenant Webster and Agent Eaton, working individually and as a team, have done extremely well particularly in the area of offenses committed by local youth. If you will note the number of juveniles apprehended in the various categories you will have some idea of the extent of our local problem. Additional manpower must be allocated in the coming year to meet the demands in the area of criminal investigation.

Refunds and reimbursements to the Police Department totaled 12,712.62. When deducted from our total expenditure of 155,719.10, we show a net expenditure of Town funds in the amount of 143,006.48. In addition to the refunds and reimbursements we were able to employ additional dispatching help representing more than $4500 in wages at no cost to the town. The need for 24 hour dispatching from the Police office has become critical to the efficient operation of the Police Department. The wages for the additional help will be paid by the Concentrated Employment Program until March at which time the town meeting will be acting on the police budget which includes provisions for these personnel.

LONDONDERRY CIVIL DEFENSE 1974 REPORT

Since my appointment on September 24, 1974, considerable progress has been made to rehabilitate the building on High Range Road for Civil Defense use.

The building needed considerable repairs to make it habitable. A new roof was installed, one wall completely rebuilt, new lighting and a heating system capable of heating the complete building was installed. Enough building materials are on hand to finish repairing portions of the interior walls, ceilings, and put a good solid floor down to cover up recessed portions in the concrete.

Insulation will be put in most of the walls that can be exposed, and in the ceilings. This will save much fuel during the cold months, and keep temperatures reasonably cool during the summer.

Proposed plans include installing toilet facilities, a reasonable water system, communications room, and repair the emergency generators on hand. The remainder of one wing not used for storage and office space will be utilized for a shelter.

A functional classroom should be finished by the first of March 1975, so classes of instruction can be held comfortably. Classes will include first aid, and other important subjects related to Civil Defense. Dates and times will be published ahead of time so anyone will have the opportunity to attend.

A complete reorganization of the Civil Defense posture is progressing, so the department will be a practical, and functional unit for the benefit of all residents needing help from disasters that may strike in the future. When major fires, hurricanes or similar disasters happen, this department should be ready to provide immediate help. Our aim to be ready can be a reality with the support of all the residents of Londonderry. Residents capable of donating one hour per month towards this goal, should contact me or the town office for more information. This includes male or female adults, and young adults. Representation from all sectors of the town is an important segment of a Civil Defense plan. Your cooperation will make it a success.

Respectfully submitted,
Maurice J. Lemieux
Director

LONDONDERRY VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT
1974 TOWN REPORT

EMERGENCY CALLS . . . ONLY 432-3138

Station No. 1 432-3442 Station No. 2 432-3369

The year of 1974 began with the continuing training of all fire department personnel. Included was a simulated fire at the Junior High School to test preplanning, in the event a response is required. Firemen participated in 18 training sessions throughout the year, keeping their skills at a high degree of proficiency.

The fire department expends hundreds of man-hours in an effort to raise additional funds to augment town appropriations in maintaining equipment and stations. The May Ball, public dances from October through April, filling swimming pools, collecting newspapers, selling Christmas trees, and renting the Firemen's Hall, netted a total of $4840.55.

The department has spent $1508.97 on new equipment, including a Homelite rescue saw, two Scott-Air Paks, Helmets, Coats, and boots. Rescue markers for children and invalids, which are placed on the windows of the rooms they occupy, were also purchased. These can be obtained, free of charge, at the firehouses.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the fire department contributed $500.00 of their raised funds to the remodeling of the upstairs of Station No. 1. This figure was matched by the department.

Firemen removed chain link fence from Grenier Field, and erected it around the water supply in the rear of the library, to prevent the possibility of accidents. The water supply and a dry hydrant provide protection for the schools.

The fire department conducted 243 inspections of oil burning equipment, chimneys and fireplaces, tank installations, and businesses.

In closing, I want to caution everyone who is using wood to help in heating their homes. Be certain your chimney is clean and in good condition; also that any heating devices attached to the chimney are installed properly. Take note of the fact that the year of 1974 ended with three chimney fires.

If anyone desires information on proper installation they may call Station No. 1 (432-3442) or Station No. 2 (432-3369) at any time. Please use these numbers for all information calls in order to keep the Emergency Line clear.

As a note of interest, fire losses for 1974 totaled $49,575.00. The number of responses for 1974 showed a 22.8% increase over the previous year.

Respectfully submitted,
David A. Hicks, Chief

LONDONDERRY RECREATION & PARKS COMMISSION 1974 ANNUAL TOWN REPORT

1974 was another banner year for the Commission, with considerable growth experience in all our regular programs. Our Youth Basketball program now includes 240 of our local boys and girls. Teenage Basketball and Men's Basketball have an average of 50 participants. Flag Football (excluding Pop Warner) had about 260 participants including cheerleaders. Our Summer Playground Program, expanded to include a swimming program and field trips, experienced an increase to 180 children, up about 60 children from last year. Youth Hockey has grown to three teams, with Men and Women Volleyball maintaining an average of 80 adults. Track and Field Events average about 100 participants.

With the formation of the Londonderry Football Association and the initiation of the Pop Warner Football League, the need for a playable football field in town was one of our top priorities. With the total cooperation of the School Board, the Londonderry Football Association and some very generous citizens of Londonderry, we were able to build a temporary field at the school property on South Road.

The Comprehensive Park and Recreation Plan for our town, which was approved at the 1973 Town Meeting was completed and presented to organizational heads in October. A copy is at the Leach Library for inspection to those who are interested in the recreational growth potential of our community.

Few new programs were initiated this year due to the limited facilities available at the present time. The Commission is finding it increasingly difficult to meet the present needs of our Community, much less begin new ones.

At this time, special thanks should be extended to the School Board, Robert Shea, Central School Principal, the Londonderry Football Association and all the parents who volunteered their time in order to make the programs a success.

Respectfully Submitted,

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DERRY VISITING NURSE ASSOCIATION FOR THE TOWN OF LONDONDERRY

The Derry Visiting Nurse Association, during our past fiscal year of July 1, 1973 to June 30, 1974, made 454 visits to Londonderry residents, more than to any other town served by our agency except Derry. The appropriation of $3,000.00 voted by Londonderry residents in March, 1973 helped our agency to make these visits. (The appropriation of $5,000.00 voted last March is being applied to our current fiscal year. Total visits for this year, ending June 30, 1975, will be included in next year's report. The total for the first quarter is already 182, which is a considerable increase.)

Of last year's visits, 257 were made to give skilled nursing care in the home under a physician's orders and 18 visits were made by our physical therapist. These were "fee visits", but in most cases the fee is paid by third parties such as medicare and private insurance. Our fee is adjustable on a sliding scale according to the patient's ability to pay, and care is given regardless of ability to pay.

The remaining 179 visits were "public health type visits" made to newborns and their mothers or to provide home follow-up to patients seen by our various state clinics. By agency policy these are made without any charge. The appropriation from the town pays for all of these visits and helps us to offer the skilled nursing type visits on a sliding fee scale basis.

During our present fiscal year we have added a Homemaker/Home Health Aide service. So far this has provided 58½ hours of service to Londonderry residents. Since it is new, full statistics for this program for 1974-1975 will be included in next year's report.

The agency is operated by a Board of Directors of not more than 25 members having representation from each of the six towns served. The Londonderry directors at present include:

John Calhoun, Agency Treasurer Phone: 434-6019

John Giannetti Phone: 432-9092

Janet Morneau Phone: 434-0568

Londonderry residents can feel free to call their representatives on the Board for general information as well as the agency office itself which is located at 11 Wall Street, Derry and is open from 8 A.M. to 4 P.M., Monday through Friday. The office phone numbers are: 432-7776 and 434-5806.

REPORT OF THE BUILDING INSPECTOR

During the calendar year of 1974 the office of the Building Inspector issued 368 permits for a total of $12,566,950 with fees totaling $13,994.50. The tight money situation put a hold on what might have transpired, such as three shopping centers and one hundred fifty private homes, more or less. The cooperation between townspeople, builders and contractors and this office continues to be excellent as noted by the reduction of violations.

LONDONDERRY PLANNING BOARD

It stands to reason that the sudden change in the economy would slow the number of subdivisions and lessen the work load of the Planning Board, however this did not seem to be the case in 1974. The Board continued to meet weekly and seemed to have time only to discuss subdivisions. The size of the subdivisions presented did show a change, however, and were mostly a single lot or two by a Town resident rather than a development of 100 lots by a developer.

The Board gave its approval to 127 lots and 306 condominium units.

The zoning regulations, subdivision regulations, airport zoning, and zoning map were updated and printed in a loose leaf binder that can be updated every year by printing and replacing only the pages involved in current changes.

Zoning changes approved by the voters in 1974 added to the Commercial and Industrial areas in Town; improved and strengthened the gravel ordinance, added a requirement that all new driveways be approved by the building inspector; required that multifamily developments have a buffer zone to shield single family developments, be prepared by a professional land use planner and that an additional four feet of frontage be required for each unit over 100.

The regular monthly meeting of the Planning Board is held on the second Wednesday of the month.

Respectfully,
George P. Hicks,
Chairman

III. Remarks:

The Case History shows a slight drop in the number of cases heard in 1974, possibly due to the fact that the Board can no longer grant special exceptions.

There were twenty-one requests involving commercial activity including a concrete batch plant, a kennel, a barber shop, an addition to an existing green house, a tire shop, two kindergartens and several types of offices.

Five requests were for buildings nearer to lot lines than the fifteen feet required by Zoning. Five additional requests involved frontage of less than the required one hundred fifty feet.

Seven cases were heard for non-accessory signs and one for a portable saw mill. The remainder were miscellaneous requests.

THE CONSERVATION COMMISSION of Londonderry, New Hampshire 03053

The Conservation Commission has worked with the Planning Board on an additional Conservation District; The Little Cohas Marsh Conservation District. All land at and below elevation 262 U.S.G.S. Datum in the Cohas Marsh Area will be in this District.

This land is now under the management of the N.H. Fish and Game Department. The Marsh is one of the largest in Londonderry and is under the National Flood Hazard Area.

The Conservation District is intended for the preservation and maintenance of the ground water table, to protect the public against the hazards of flood water inundation and for the protection of the community against the cost which may be incurred when unsuitable development occurs in swamps, marshes, and along water courses.

The Commission has worked all year on numerous projects. The reviewing of Dredge and Fill Permits is one of our more time consuming duties.

The public is cordially invited to attend any of the regularly scheduled meetings held on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month at the Town Office.

Please feel free to contact the Commission through any of its members at any time.

1974 REPORT OF BOARD OF SEWER COMMISSIONERS

The Sewer Commission has been largely concerned through its first year with the sewer construction program for North Londonderry. The administrative needs of this project prompted the Selectmen to appoint the Commission, and it is expected to be the Commission's major project for the next two years.

In 1974 the newly formed Commission reviewed the North Londonderry sewer project and undertook a number of steps needed to get construction underway. These included discussions with the Manchester City Engineer's office regarding the agreement between the City and Town for treatment of our sewage at the City's new Brown Avenue sewage treatment plant. This agreement is in final negotiation. We cooperated with the City in accumulating and processing data from industries which will be needed as part of the agreement.

The Commission has negotiated with a number of property owners along the proposed sewer lines for easements, and it appears that needed easements can be acquired so as to benefit both the Town and the property owners. Concern over the effects of construction was felt by some property owners, but adjustments or precautions added to the plans and specifications appear to afford satisfactory assurances.

The Commission requested a priority for a construction grant for the sewer project, but has tentatively been allocated a priority for a grant next year (fiscal 1976) due to rescheduling of the Manchester sewer from the Town line to the treatment plant.

The Commission has prepared an article for additional engineering studies stressing environmental effects, required by Public Law 92,500, the Clean Waters Act of 1972. These studies are referred to in the Act as the "Facilities Plan", and are a condition precedent to the construction grants. A breakdown of grants and local costs for the article follows:

Facilities Plan

Town	State	Federal EPA	Total
$2 75.00+	$11,000.00+	$41,250.00+	$55,000.00

Completion of the Facilities Plan will provide data needed to complete the application for the construction grant, and will facilitate future programs as well as re-examining approaches to future sewerage of South Londonderry.

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL BOARD

This year has been an exciting one for education in Londonderry. On July 1, 1974, Londonderry formed its own Supervisory Union (No. 12). We now have our own Superintendent and Business Administrator working full time for us. It has been a real pleasure to work with Dr. Roberts and Normand Tanguay. Londonderry is fortunate to have such dedicated employees.

The School Board has had a busy year co-ordinating the work of our various committees. The High School (Phase II) Building Committee has been monitoring the construction of our newest facility. The completion schedule will allow us to open the building for student use in September 1975.

The South Elementary Building Committee is working hard on developing plans for an elementary school. Their proposal will be considered at this annual School District Meeting.

The Building Needs Committee has continued to up-date their figures on student population and space requirements for present and future needs. Their efforts have allowed us to do the proper planning in order to provide educational facilities for our children.

The Site Evaluation Committee has actively searched for potential school sites to fit the needs as determined by the Building Needs Committee. This Site Committee reviewed many parcels of land and evaluated their useability. It is because of their efforts that the School District will be asked to purchase a parcel of land for future school use.

A Year Round School Study Committee was also formed this year to research the feasibility of “year ’round” schools for Londonderry. The Committee’s report appears elsewhere in this book. The Committee has worked hard on evaluating this educational alternative and has related it to Londonderry’s rapid growth.

The Londonderry School Board wishes to thank all the committee members for their outstanding and untiring devotion to the educational needs of Londonderry’s youth. It is this kind of citizen participation that has and will continue to provide good education for all. Londonderry has much it can take pride in - its outstanding educational system and its people.

Appreciatively,
Patrina R. Nesmith,
Chairwoman
Londonderry School Board

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Until July 1, 1974, the Londonderry School District was a component of Supervisory Union No. 10, with administrative offices located in Derry. On the above date, the component districts of Union No. 10 were separated, and Londonderry became the sole district comprising Supervisory Union No. 12. It is now administered by a superintendent of schools, a business administrator, and a five-member School Board composed of the same persons comprising the Board of the Londonderry School District. The result is a single operating organization, whose total resources and energies are directed exclusively toward the maintenance and improvement of the local schools.

As I approached the assumption of my duties as superintendent of the new Union, three areas of concentration appeared to hold the highest priorities; namely, transfer of functions and reorganization from Union No. 10 to Union No. 12, immediate classroom needs, and development of a high school curriculum. While some progress was made in the initial weeks of the school year in organization of the new Union, the myriad problems associated with the building program - in progress and proposed - required the major portion of our time and energies. The development of a high school curriculum is imperative prior to the submission of a budget for 1976-77.

Bids for steel for Phase II of the High School were taken in March in order to ensure timely delivery and the most favorable price possible. General construction bids were received on May 1, 1974, and the contract subsequently awarded to Charles Construction Company with actual construction beginning in June. In spite of being beset with problems associated with extremely poor soil conditions, septic system design and location, roofing delay and some slow materials delivery, the project is "on time" for a projected opening of September, 1975.

A proposal to bond for an elementary school in the southern section of Londonderry was defeated at the March, 1974, district meeting. Subsequently, architects were employed to prepare preliminary plans, and a bond proposal was submitted to the district again in October. This, too, was defeated. Since that time revisions have been made in the specifications in response to public communications, and a new proposal is in preparation for resubmission in March, 1975.

Enrollment projections made last year by the School Building Needs Committee were updated to reflect the slowdown in building, and a close watch has been kept of the current changes. At the present time there is relatively little growth occurring because of families moving into Londonderry; however, pre-school children already here will cause the school enrollment to rise again in September as they enter first grade.

Slow, but steady, progress is being made in providing a comprehensive curriculum for our youth. A full music program was begun in grades 1 to 5 in September, 1974; the social studies curriculum was reviewed and improved as a result of a summer workshop, and a comprehensive study of the physical education program has been underway during the school year with the help of a consultant from Boston University. Plans for 1975-76 envision the initiation of a formal art program at the elementary level, a second foreign language for junior high students, and the employment of a certified school librarian for the district.

Along with providing rooms for elementary pupils to restore space in the Junior High School building for high school students, a curriculum for the high school must be prepared within the next ten months. Even though it is planned to phase in the high school one year at a time, a total curricular program must be developed as a framework for the orderly institution of course offerings year by year.

In closing, I want to gratefully acknowledge the help and support of both the Union and Londonderry school staffs, the School Board, and the citizens of the district in meeting the problems associated with the re-organized administrative structure, building needs, and curriculum development. In spite of many anticipated and unexpected extra demands, the quality of education provided for the children and youth of Londonderry has been maintained at a gratifyingly high level.

Respectfully submitted,
Douglass B. Roberts
Superintendent of Schools

CENTRAL ELEMENTARY SCHOOL REPORT OF THE PRINCIPAL

During the past four years as Principal of the Londonderry Central School, it has been indeed a pleasure to serve as a member of the educational team that is ultimately responsible for the education of the youth entrusted to our care. As your Principal, a portion of this responsibility is being held accountable for the educational process and programs as well as providing a health learning environment for each child.

The following statements are as related from an evaluation held on January 22, 1974 by Mr. John Economopoulos, Consultant for Elementary School Services, Division of Instruction, State Department of Education, in Concord, New Hampshire.

Commend:

1. — Mr. Bernard J. Ellis, Superintendent of Schools, and his staff for the outstanding leadership provided to the Londonderry Central School; and for the excellent information reported to the N.H. State Department in the Comprehensive Report and the DESS Form No. 2 Accountability Report, June, 1972.
2. — The Principal, Robert Shea, for his leadership and professional committment to children and good education.
3. — The Staff for the high morale and good “control” of the children as well as a healthy learning environment.
4. — Principal and staff for the outstanding in-service program, especially with Learning Disabilities.
5. — The children for the good cooperation with the total school staff and their good behavior.

6. – School Board for the excellent cooperation and support of “Minimum Standards”; Teacher in the Primary Team, as well as the four (4) additional Teacher Aides. The evidence of good morale and “individual attention” is significant in this school because of this School Board and community support.

7. – The support of a good library facility (good beginning); and the excellent software in Language Arts, Science, and Math as well as hardware.

8. – The support of mini-courses in Arts and Crafts, Dramatics, Athletics and games; also the volunteer help that makes this possible, including the ski recreation program with the community.

9. – The encouraging staff meetings, because they are planned around teacher and children needs.

Recommend:

1. Additional library space, art teacher, music teacher, physical education teacher, and guidance counselor.

2. A certified librarian.

3. A re-examination of the need for a public school kindergarten program.

4. Re-examine the need for additional library materials.

LONONDERRY JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL REPORT OF THE PRINCIPAL

To the citizens of Londonderry, I hereby submit my annual report as Principal of the Londonderry Junior High School.

This past school year was a very rewarding one for all of us at the Junior High School.

For the first time, we had a full-time reading instructor who was able to work with a large number of our students. Because of this, the reading level of each youngster worked with was raised considerably.

Specialists contributed a great deal to the school as a whole. Guidance services were increased this year; a learning disabilities person was added, and a speech therapist will be added to replace the person previously provided by the Union.

For the first time, the Junior High School will have a Resource Class for the 1974-75 school year. This will enable the very slow and special students to progress at their own pace. Most of these students will spend a portion of the day in a regular classroom, and students who need very special attention in a particular major subject area will be programmed into the Resource Class.

Another goal we had at the Junior High School was to develop better communications between parents and the school. To this end we had parent conferences for sixth grade classes for the first time. We also had a night for the parents to take their youngsters schedule and go through a typical day. Thus, a large number of parents were able to better understand the school, the program, and their children's school career.

Parent involvement reached another level this year with the use of parents as volunteer tutors in the Junior High. I would like to thank all those involved for making this a success.

Progress in anything is directly attributable to those who are associated with the product. I am especially grateful to everyone on the professional staff for their outstanding cooperation. I am also grateful to the school librarian, teacher aides, custodial staff, and especially Mrs. Parker, the school secretary. All of these people have played important roles in the operation of the Junior High School.

My thanks are also extended to Mr. Bernard Ellis, Superintendent, and Mr. Arthur Mitchell, Assistant Superintendent, for their cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles R. Stortstrom
Principal

NORTH LONDONDERRY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL REPORT OF THE PRINCIPAL

June, 1974

To the citizens of Londonderry, I hereby submit my annual report as principal of the North Londonderry Elementary School.

This past school year was very rewarding to all associated with the North School. A number of educational programs were evaluated and reorganized throughout the year.

A redesigned math program was incorporated in all grades with a concentration on the use of manipulative aides. Many workshops were held throughout the year with the professional staff focusing on our math program. An evaluation at the end of the year indicated very positive gains with this math program.

A series of in-service workshops were conducted for the professional staff in the areas of learning disabilities and in meeting the special needs of students.

One of our goals is to develop better communication between all parents and our school. In meeting this goal we have extended our parent conferences to include grades one through five. A parent volunteer program was also initiated whereby residents of Londonderry would assist in allowing us to share their talents and services in our school. We plan to further develop this program next year. We are most appreciative to all volunteers who worked in our school. We extend an invitation to anyone interested in joining our volunteer program. Many qualitative educational programs were conducted in all classrooms, also in physical education and in special services. I am most grateful and appreciative to the entire staff for their sincere dedication to the teaching of our students.

Although our elementary programs have grown, we are looking forward to the development of music and additional special services at the elementary level in September, 1974.

We are nevertheless faced with some very serious situations, such as a lack of adequate space for our students and programs. There is also a need for an art program at our school.

I am especially grateful to everyone connected with the North Londonderry School - the professional staff, the clerical, custodial and school lunch staffs for their cooperation. I am also grateful to Mr. Bernard Ellis, Superintendent of Schools, and Mr. Arthur Mitchell, Assistant Superintendent, for their support and encouragement in the operation of the North School.

The staff and I wish to express our appreciation to the Londonderry School Board and to the citizens of this community for their thoughtfulness and cooperation in providing quality educational programs to all the students of Londonderry.

I am indeed looking forward in working with our new supervisory union organization, and especially in working with Dr. Douglass Roberts, Superintendent, and Mr. Normand Tanguay, Business Administrator.

Respectfully Submitted,
Donald Jobin

SCHOOL HEALTH REPORT

SEPTEMBER 1973 – JUNE 1974

A good health program is the result of the combined efforts of the entire staff and community. With this thought in mind, we submit the following report to keep you, the citizens of Londonderry, abreast of the various health education programs that exist in your schools.

A series of three immunization clinics were held under the direction of Ronald Gagne M.D., Londonderry School Physician. The clinics were open to pre-school age children. A total of 132 children received 291 immunizations. We are really beginning to see the results of these clinics, as only one case of measles was reported in Londonderry this year.

The Dental Clinic, sponsored by the American Legion had a very successful year. Mrs. Barbara Coish R.D.H. was our dental hygienist and 512 students received dental care.

School requirements for children entering first grade state that children must be six on or before September 30, 1975. Children are also required to have completed all necessary immunizations and have had an examination by their doctor prior to the first day of school.

Genuine concern for the well being of children must include their nutritional health. With this in mind, the N.H. Legislature has instructed schools to teach nutrition in the classroom. A workshop entitled "Big Ideas in Nutrition Education" was held here in Londonderry. All teachers of grades four, five, and six were invited to attend. The workshop was sponsored by the New England Dairy and Food Council; Miss Judith A. Kettunen R.D. was the instructor.

This year for the first time all seventh and eighth grade students took part in a basic first aid course; 287 students successfully completed the course and received a basic first aid certificate from the American Red Cross.

Londonderry should be very proud of the many local organizations which assist in the schools in promoting good health. A most sincere thank-you to the American Legion, Fire Department, Lions Club and Newcomers Club for their continued support.

It is the goal of the school health service to promote a higher level of well being for all students and to recognize the interrelationship of physical, mental, social and emotional health. The various health programs in Londonderry Schools would not be possible without the understanding and support of all involved. We would like to express our gratitude to all the Staff, Principals, Superintendent and School Board members for their help and cooperation.

Sincerely yours,
Claire Hunter R.N.
Arlene Early R.N.
Marilyn Ham R.N.

REPORT OF THE YEAR-ROUND SCHOOL STUDY COMMITTEE

In April, 1974, the Londonderry School Board charged this advisory committee to investigate the year-round school concept and generally relate the findings to Londonderry's school system.

The concept of extending school operation is not a recent innovation; since the late 19th century, urban schools have offered summer terms to disadvantaged minorities, Rural students, on the other hand, attended school only during the brief span of time their labour was not needed. Standards for attendance (minimum 180 days) and curricula were ultimately formalized to equalize educational opportunities; even so, many schools continued to administer extended year schedules.

At present, school districts are investigating year-round options in order to increase efficiency of space utilization: a building which stands idle one-third of the year is obviously not being used to capacity. European schools have consistently offered educational programs of approximately 200 days to their students.

Rapid population growth has pushed many school districts beyond their capacity to bond for expensive construction, and in some cases, beyond the voters' willingness to accept higher taxes for education.

Creative educators seek a means to offer students in our highly sophisticated society a greater diversity of courses, thus broadening and individualizing the public school experience.

All of these goals efficiency, economy, enrichment can be realized in one form or other of the year-round format. In many cases, adoption of a plan for economic considerations has led to a corollary diversity in course offerings. Year-round school is a way of life: it requires flexibility and commitment from the communities which implement.

The school districts which have no economic pressure have structured their programs to provide a wider range of educational options. Course specialization and diversification, coupled with the offering of accelerated graduation for qualified students, create a stimulating and enriching educational environment.

Other school systems, pressured by ever-increasing enrollments and shortage of funds, implement year-round scheduling in order to postpone new construction, or avoid it entirely (dependant upon the rate of continuing population growth). The year-round format allows these systems to house up to 30% more pupils in existing facilities.

It should be clear at the outset that year-round use of schools does not necessarily imply that students or faculty attend full-schedule. In most cases, groups of students enter in a staggered series of entries, with short vacations occurring periodically throughout the year, rather than only during the long summer period.

The best method of explaining the basic scheduling concept of year-round plans is to use an example, - let us look at the 45/15 plan developed by the Valley View, Illinois elementary system. The total school population is divided into four geographic groups, and labeled Track A, B, C, D. Each track is scheduled to attend for forty-five school days, and then recess for fifteen days.

1st Day – Track “A” begins forty-five school days

16th Day – Track “B” begins

31st Day – Track “C” begins

46th Day – Track “D” begins

Track "A" goes on vacation (15 days)

The sometimes confusing variety of year-round schedules, for all their diversity of purpose, are implemented by these basic means: division of school population, staggered entries, and multiple vacations. The systems which operate year-round and offer enrichment, allow the student the option of attending full-schedule.

Impacting in our school system, and economic factors are of primary importance to Londonderry at present. The year-round format is considered to be an economically sound solution when implemented with these objectives; certainly when the cost of operation year-round is compared to the sizeable outlay necessitated by a new building (debt service, principle payments), the savings become obvious. Operational costs tend to rise during the initial stages of implementation, and subsequently decrease. Air-conditioning - where necessary - increased secretarial staff, and increase in maintenance of buildings and buses are some of the initial cost increases one might expect during the first year; the economic impact of these, however, can be considerably lessened with careful, foresighted planning.

The School District of Londonderry could save monies related to a new building by implementing the year-round format; the need for construction could be postponed an additional year, but not avoided, because of the demands of our population growth rate. Per pupil expenditures will remain relatively stable. The Committee finds the continuous learning year programs educationally sound, and economically feasible; however, considerable more study would have to be undertaken, with a budget to facilitate, before a cogent recommendation of a plan suitable to Londonderry's unique needs could be forwarded to the School Board.

SOUTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL BUILDING COMMITTEE

The Building Committee was appointed and met for the first time in July. The Committee consisted of 6 members-myself, Leo Masse, Linda Presley, James Reed, Martha Gonzalez and Donald Jobin. We met with the architectural firm of Russell, Gibson and Von Dohlen, who had been hired by the School Board. The proposal presented to the architects was to design a school for 500 pupils, with the possibility of adding on classrooms for 300 more pupils at a later date. The school design consisted of 23 classrooms, which included a special education room, a multipurpose gymnasium and cafeteria with a satellite kitchen, a core area designed for the full 800 pupil school, consisting of administration and guidance offices, conference rooms, health suite, work storage areas and teachers aide rooms and Library/Media center. The total area was 45,600 square feet at an estimated construction cost, including site development, of $32.00 per square foot. Allowing $20.00 per square foot for fixed and moveable equipment, legal fees etc., the total cost of the project came to 2.4 million dollars or 52 dollars per square foot.

At the special school district meeting on October 18, the school proposal was presented to the voters, and the plan was rejected, much to the disappointment of the Committee. We began again in October to work on a new plan. We felt that the community voted against the school for two predominate reasons: the cost of the project and the open classroom design.

The Building Committee lost two valued members,

Linda Presley and Donald Jobin. We then added 3 new members; Richard Hodgman, William Corbett and Vincent Sardo. Our new seven-member committee has interviewed many firms through November and December who are involved in all types and methods of construction in order to arrive at a second proposal to present to the voters in March.

In closing, I would like to thank my Committee for their dedication and hard work. Many hours of planning have gone into this project and their efforts are greatly appreciated.

School Building Committee

REPORT OF THE BUSINESS ADMINISTRATOR

In mid-June, 1974, I assumed my duties as Business Administrator of the newly-formed Supervisory Union No. 12 and became immediately involved with the transition from Union No. 10.

The first order of business was to set up an efficient accounting system, which includes the use of computers, that controls receipts and expenditures, and insures effective use of time and money.

During this same period, construction of Phase II started, which required many meetings with the architect, Building Committee, School Board and Superintendent. A schedule of payments was arranged which allowed temporarily available bond money to be invested in certificates of deposit with yields as high as 12½%. In order to insure that the District pays only for work completed, all requisitions have been carefully audited.

Upon inspection of the Junior High School by the Londonderry Fire Chief and Building Inspector, it was deemed necessary to install stairs and a walkway leading from the building on the north and west sides for emergency use. This was done. Bids for paving the North School parking lot were sent out, as well as bids for the new fireproof stage curtains for Central School. Another significant problem, which has existed for some time, was ascertaining the liability of and the extent of damage to the North School roof. As a result of thorough investigation, it is imperative that the roof be replaced in order to avoid further damage to the building. A warrant article is being introduced to finance this project.

As Bus Coordinator for both elementary and high school students, I have worked closely with the transportation companies in setting up routes to accommodate the students as efficiently as possible within the time and budgetary restraints. A study was made to consider the possibility of the School District purchasing its own buses, with the conclusion that with today's economic conditions, a capital outlay of this nature would not be feasible.

An increased student enrollment which averages 10% per year necessitates the building of a new elementary school. The proposed school would be built on 20 acres of District-owned land in South Londonderry. A major factor in developing the second proposal for this school was the townspeople's desire in regard to the specific concept. Factors involved in arriving at the cost of a school building are general economic conditions, the debt limit of the school district, the long-range cost of operating and maintaining the school, as well as the building cost.

Of prime interest to all taxpayers is the school budget. To begin with, a school budget is a pattern for the educational program of a town and what that program will cost. Portions of the budget are dictated by law. For example: payment of interest, reduction of principals of earlier bond issues, social security, State retirement system, transportation, insurance, and maintaining accreditation. Other portions are necessary expenses, such as fuel, power, telephone service, repairs, and some insurances. The remainder of the budget reflects the town's desire of the quality of its educational system by the wise application of monies. This year, budget development was particularly challenging due to stressful economic conditions; however, it is a workable budget and one that will have a reasonable effect on the tax rate.

Gentlemen:

Due to an excessive workload in 1974, we have been unable to perform an examination and audit of the accounts and records of your school district for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1974 before the publication of your current annual School District Report.

We regret the inconvenience which this may cause. We are pleased to advise, however, that the records examination will commence in the near future. It is expected that the annual examination will thereafter be conducted on a more regular basis.

Your patience and understanding of these circumstances is appreciated.

Very truly yours,

FREDERICK E. LAPLANTE
