

snow was gone and it is now as forward as usual and things are flourishing, prospect for fruit good Shoe business is improving. The new Church was dedicated yesterday, it passed off well and there was a grand rush. I consider it fortunate for you that you are stationed away down in Fla. if you were in Va. your duties would be arduous and heart-sickening in the extreme. Mr. Noyes saw a young man at Manchester the other day belonging to the N. H. L. who had a bullet lodged in his shoulder at the battle of Williamsburg depriving him of the use of his arm he said he considered himself fortunate compared with what he saw in the Hospital he said there was a pile of arms and legs in one corner nearly 2 feet high I received news yesterday of a terrible
he said there was a pile of arms and
legs in one corner nearly 2 feet high
I received news yesterday of a terrible

Transcription:

[fragment letter undated, no salutation or address]

snow was gone and it is now as
forward as usual and things are
flourishing, prospect for fruit good Shoe business is improveing The new Church was dedicated yesterday it passed off well aⁿd there was a grand rush I consider it fortunate for you that you are stationed way down in Fla. If you were in Va. your duties would be arduous and heart-sickning in the extreme.. Mr Noyes saw a
young man at Manchester the other day belonging to the N.H. 2nd who had a bullet lodged in his shoulder at the battle of Williamsburg depriving him
of the use of his arm he said he considered himself fortunate compared
with what he saw in the Hospital
he said there was a pile of arms and
legs in one corner nearly 2 feet high
I received news yesterday of a terrible battle being fought at Richmond McClellan says ^{in his despach} our loos is [veary*] heavy the rebels immense the ground was literally covered with dead bodies so thick in some places that he could not advance without ^{stepping} ing on them. since writing the above I have learned that the loss was not so great. the battle was fought 7 miles from Richmond on Saturday & Sunday our forces were driven back on Saturday but on Sunday the rebels were driven back at the point of the bayonet with great ~~loss~~ and 500 prisoners taken Fremont is driving the rebels in his department; I suppose you have already heard of the evacuation of Corinth by the Rebels Reports are so contradictory about the union sentiment among the people of the south that it is the civil sentiment among the people of the south that it is very difficult to come to any conclusion on the matter you have

Transcription:

the rebels immense the ground was literally covered with dead bodies so thick in some places that he could not advance without tr^ae^ding on them. since writing the above I have learned that the loss was not so great. the battle was fought 7 miles from Richmond on Saturday & Sunday our forces were driven back on Saturday but on Sunday the rebels were driven back at the point of the bayonet with great[---*] and 500 prisoners taken Fremont is driving the rebels in his department; I suppose you have already heard of the evacuation of Corinth by the Rebels

Reports are so contradictory about the union sentiment among the people of the south that it is very difficult to come to any conclusion in the matter you have undoubtedly as far as your own

Observation has extended come
to some definite conclusion in the premises, will you be so kind as to give me your views of the case What has become of Col Whipple has he been made a Brig General.
~~Is~~ ~~Brig~~ ~~Col.~~ Bell in command of your Regt. There is so little of interest doing here that it is difficult for me to select anything that would be likely to interest you hence this dull epistle, I feel as though it ^{would} take quite a number of them to compensate you for one of yours, write soon for I prize your letters highly you have a very interesting way of describing things and I should miss your letters very much. I don't say this to flatter you but in good faith
things and I should miss your
letters very much. I don't say this
to flatter you but in good faith

Transcription:

observation has extended come
to some definite conclusion in
the premises, will you be so kind
as to give me your views of the case
What has become of Col Whipple
has he been made a Brig General.
Is Lieut Col. Bell in command of your Regt..There is so little of inte-rest doing here that it is difficult for me to select anything that
would be likely to interest you
hence this dull epistle. I feel
as though it ^{would} take quite a number
of them to compensate you for
one of yours. Write soon for I
prize your letters highly you have
a very interesting way of describing
things and I should miss your
letters very much. I don't say this
to flatter you but in good faith All well, I hope this will reach you soon Yours Respectfully W^m C Little

P.S. I have finished planting and have commenced hoeing! If you are destitute of postage stamps dont let that deter you from sending me a letter, send it without I trust you will appreciate my penmanship and compliment me accordingly for I think you cannot fail to perceive my marked - approximation to an inexplicable scribble

W. C. G. D. 1846

Transcription:

P.S. I have finished
planting and have commenced
hoeing. If you are destitute
of postage stamps dont let
that deter you from sending
me a letter. Send it without
I trust you will appreciate
my penmanship and compliment
me accordingly for I think
you cannot fail to perceive
my marked - approximation
to an inexplicable scrawl

W^m C. Little