Dear Fay:-

We were very much pleased to have your letter of August 1st., and the write-up of Brittain's 183rd. Anniversary. We think the Celebration was well observed and the write-up of same very descriptive. We regretted that we could not attend, but we felt that we should at least send our greetings on that occasion.

Fay, you asked us about the Andrews window or the cost of same. We do not remember the circumstances concerning it, but Coral or Ima would probably know the details and could tell you about it.

As we remember there is a window there in memory of Mother and Father Long given by the children. The Bronze Plaque was presented by us individually. We are sorry that in remodeling Brittain the original architecture was destroyed, which of course ~~done~~ away with the Colonial type.

We had a very enjoyable visit with the Burgess's on Thursday and went to dinner with them at the "Old Mill". We were very much pleased to see Gwen as she had written us that she would be at home this past week and so we made an effort to go while she was at home. It is remarkable what that School has done for her in every way. She seemed to be so thrilled to have one of her former classmates visiting her.

We have some hopes of getting down to North Carolina around the middle of October, but our plans are not definite as we never know when we can get away from here.

Hoping that we may see you in the near future and with our love to you and Madge, we are

Yours,

Miles and Ellen,
