Trombonist Aaron Small is a student of Dan Satterwhite at Lynn Conservatory. Before his time at Lynn, he studied with Carl Lenthe from Indiana University, James Olin of the Baltimore Symphony, Bryan Bourne of the President's Own Marine Band, and Lee Rogers of the Washington National Opera. He has spent time at programs like the 2017 Pokorny Seminar, where he won the orchestral mock audition, and at the 2019 Camp of the Woods in Upstate New York. Aaron aspires to a career balancing chamber music, orchestral performance, and new music performances, whether for trombone alone or small ensembles.
