Berryman Institute Professional and Program Awards: Nominations open January 1 through March 31, 2021

THE BERRYMAN INSTITUTE (BI) is a national organization based in the Department of Wildland Resources at Utah State University. We are dedicated to improving human–wildlife relationships and resolving human–wildlife conflicts through teaching, research, and extension.

The BI seeks to recognize individuals or groups who have made notable contributions in the field of human–wildlife conflict management. Thus, the BI is pleased to announce its Professional and Program Recognition Program. Awards are given in the areas of research, education and outreach, and professionalism. Awards include a plaque and a $1,000 honorarium. Awardees will be asked to provide a photo and a paragraph summary for the Berryman Institute website and publication in Human–Wildlife Interactions.

Research Award

The research award is given annually to the author(s) of a research article published in the award year that has made a major contribution to the field of human–wildlife conflict management.

Education and Outreach Award

The Education and Outreach Award recognizes an individual or group for outstanding programs or communication in human–wildlife conflict management.

Professional Award

The Professional Award recognizes an individual for career achievement in human–wildlife conflict management who is employed by a federal, state, or private partner.

Nominations can be submitted through the online submission form (<https://berrymaninstitute.org/award-program>) or by e-mail to Terry Messmer, BI Director (terry.messmer@usu.edu). Nomination material should include the following information:

1. Name of nominee or program
2. A brief (500 words or less) description of nominee contribution to human–wildlife conflict or wildlife damage management (for research award, provide a copy of the article(s); for professional award, provide the nominee’s CV)
3. Your name and contact information as the nominator
