Some Of Gloss Tarnishes For Business In Canada

By KEN SMITH
Canadian Press Business Editor

A slowdown in new-car sales and in housing starts, coupled with a sharp slump in the stock market, took some of the gloss off reports of generally continuing strong industrial growth last week.

Auto makers reported that April sales of new cars in Canada dipped to about $9,500 compared with $7,197 sold in the previous April, although production and sales so far this year continue well ahead of 1965.

At least part of the decline was blamed on Ontario residents, who had kept dealers busy in March as they hurried to beat a two-per-cent sales tax increase that went into effect April 1.

A similar decline, however, also appeared in the United States.

Ford of Canada reported its April sales of new cars in Canada dipped to about $9,500 compared with $7,197 sold in the previous April, although production and sales so far this year continue well ahead of 1965.

Its truck sales were an all-time record $103,234 per cent higher than a year ago.

Chrysler Canada Ltd. reported a 14.2-per-cent decline in car sales, with 10,876 new cars going to customers compared with 12,550 a year ago.

The big decline was absorbed by General Motors, which sold 34,030 cars and trucks compared with 39,390 in April, 1965.

Almost all of GM's drop came in car sales.

American Motors, however, reported the best spring sales period in its history, with April sales up to 2,395 from 2,315 a year ago, and decided to increase weekly production by 10 per cent.

The Motor Vehicle Manufacturers' Association said total production so far this year continues well ahead of 1965's record pace, with 333,783 cars and trucks coming off assembly lines up to April 30, compared with 307,531 in this similar 1965 period.

Total 1965 car and truck production was 852,000 units, compared with 668,000 in 1964.

In construction, the Southern Building Guide's statistical bulletin reported the national value of contract awards for the first four months of this year was 4.1 per cent higher than in 1965, despite a 4.5 per cent decrease in residential starts, and a 9.5-per-cent drop in engineering projects.

The total value of contracts stood at $1,463,320,000 compared with $1,405,602,000 in 1965.

Totals reported by the bulletin for various categories and regions, with 1965 figures in brackets, were:

Residential $365,144,000 ($382,572,000); business $268,365,000 ($245,193,000); institutional $343,324,000 ($289,320,000); industrial $264,103,000 ($190,485,000); engineering $224,182,000 ($318,031,000).

Maritime $64,440,000 ($46,785,000); Quebec $391,214,000 ($403,820,000); Ontario $669,830,000 ($604,907,000); Prairies $204,911,000 ($165,812,000); British Columbia $132,914,000 ($184,271,000).

The Stock Market: Will It Rebound?

NEW YORK (AP) — History repeats itself in the market with variations, and the question today on Wall Street is: "How far will history go this time?"

On this Monday in May, the stock market has behind it the worst weekly loss since the week ending May 26, 1962.

On Monday, May 26, 1962, the market had behind it the worst stock market week since "Black Monday"—Oct. 29, 1929.

By the end of June, 1962, however, the worst was over. In a year, all the losses were recovered and the market was climbing to new highs.

The up-and-down principle has been operating most of the time since then. The market has habitually rebounded to new peaks.

At the end of last week, the Dow Jones industrial average had plunged 92.32 from its record closing high of 986.15, made Feb. 9. Everyone on Wall Street was confident the fabulous level of "Dow 1000" would be reached—but the market never made it.

The current steep decline is similar to the one that occurred last May and June. The Dow industrials plunged 80.83 then and bottomed out at 840.58. Then followed one of the greatest Bull Market drives in history.

At the bottom of that dip, Wall Street chartists announced a "bear signal," meaning that the market was about to turn back in the Dow averages had penetrated previous lows, confirming each other. Shortly after this had come, however, an advance was under way.

Oddly enough, last Thursday a "clear-cut Bear Market signal under the Dow theory" was given. According to this, stocks should go lower, but the Dow theory had been flouted less than a year ago.

Last June, William McChesney Martin, chairman of the U.S. Federal Reserve Board, cited "disquieting similarities" between conditions current then and those of the roaring 1920s. This week, Martin recommended an across-the-board increase in taxes as he took note of an overheating economy.

Gardner Ackley, President Johnson's chief economic adviser, raised the question last week as to whether soaring profits are in the national interest. This gave stocks one of their worst jolts of the week.

Johnson's record $112,800,000 budget this year was bullish for the market as was his State-of-the-Union address in January, 1965. His anti-inflation stance was carefully balanced. He broadened the possibility of a tax increase while stating a tax hike would be unnecessary if restraint were exercised by business and labor.

Prices Stagger On Exchanges As Key Issues Fall To '66 Low

By LARRY DWORKIN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Prices staggered on Canada's stock markets last week as a number of key issues fell to 1966 lows.

The decline reflected the sharpest daily drop on the New York Stock Exchange since the assassination of President Kennedy in November of 1963, on news Thursday that General Motors had cut production at four plants in the U.S.

Adding stimulus to the decline were hints by some U.S. State government officials of a need for income tax increases to combat inflationary pressures.

At Toronto, Canadian issues also traded in New York suffered the heaviest losses. As a result the industrial index Thursday dropped 2.42, its largest daily slide in 11 months.

Up until the late stages of Friday's session it appeared the index was heading for another severe drop. However, the market rallied on news that GM expected all its U.S. plants would be in operation Monday, and the index was only off 1.7 to 164.50.

At one point near mid-afternoon Friday the industrial index fell to 163.15, its lowest level since August, 1965.

Unlike the heavy selling that occurred in New York, volume at Toronto was considered moderate. Total shares traded were 19,010,655 compared with 23,221,554 last week.

Among the major losers were: Ford of Canada and General Motors off 1 1/2 each to 16 1/2 and 92 1/2; Chrysler 3 to 48; Alcan Aluminum 2 1/2 to 41 1/2; and Moore Corp. and Interprovincial Pipe Line 2 1/2 each to 45 and 80 1/2.

Reversing Wednesday's downward swing was a decision by the Board of Transport Commissioners that earnings of Bell Telephone and B.C. Telephone are at their maximum allowable levels and any increase must be offset by lower rate.

BELL RECOVERS

Bell finished the week, down 1 1/2 to 55 on 82,244 shares. It reached a 1966 low of 52 1/2 Friday before recovering late in the session. B.C. Telephone tumbled 10 to a low of 61.

Base metals also felt the impact of the decline as Inco retreated 4 1/2 and Falconbridge and Hudson Bay 3 1/2 each.

Souray Rantow, also traded on the American exchange, lost 1 1/2 to 29 1/2 as the western oil index moved down 5 1/2 to 115 1/2. However, the 115 1/2 was mixed. Dome gained 2 1/2 to 42 1/2; Kerr-Addison fell 1 to 11 1/2.

Cam Mines highlighted speculative jumping 37 to 77 cents on 2,173,198 shares.

On index, golds were off 5 1/2 to 167.50, base metals 3 1/2 to 91 1/2, and the TSE 4 1/2 to 155 1/2.

At Montreal, industrials were down 5 1/2 to 182.86, utilities 3 1/2 to 117 1/2, banks 1 1/2 to 120 1/2, and papers 3 1/2 to 117 1/2. Volume was 6,052,840 shares compared with 6,409,682 last week.

MAY BOOM TAX

The possibility of a tax increase has loomed over the market, along with fear of government controls on prices and materials, resulting in part from the booming economy and the demands of the armed forces in Viet Nam.

Rising interest rates and tightening credit reached a climax March 16 when the Federal Reserve Board boosted the basic interest rate of large commercial banks to 5 1/2 per cent from 5 per cent. Back in December, a boost in the Federal Reserve Board's discount rate to 4 1/2 per cent from four per cent also had a dampening effect on the market.

Record profits, dividends and production in 1965-66 have boomed the stock market. The enactment of excise tax cuts last June came in time to help spur the market to a rebound from the May-June collapse.

Meanwhile, more and more mutual funds have become speculative, contributing to market swings.

All of these factors, plus the simple need to deflate many inflated stock values, brought the market down this spring.

The cutbacks by General Motors at four assembly plants were merely the triggers to send the market spinning last Thursday. GM's resumption of normal schedules put the market back up again.

Johnson Asks For Some Advice And He Receives A Basin Load

NEW YORK (AP) — President Johnson asked for advice last week on how to prevent inflation in the United States and received it from all sides.

Johnson said he saw disquieting signs in the economy. The United States faces new problems as an outgrowth of prosperity, he said.

The advice offered by William McChesney Martin, Federal Reserve Board chairman, was "a simple, clean, cut, across-the-board increase in taxes." He said that is the logical way to deal with inflation.

Martin said a year ago he saw disquieting similarities between the economic situation then and in 1929.

He differed with the White House in December by voting to increase the Federal Reserve lending rate to 4 1/2 from four per cent.

But this week, Martin said an indefinite rise in interest rates could have undesirable effects on the economy.

Walter W. Heller, a former chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, called for a temporary across-the-board 45,000,000 tax increase. He also proposed temporary suspension of a seven per cent tax credit allowed business on new investment.

SEEN AS INSURANCE

"A tax increase now would be a good insurance agent against inflation," Heller said.

Delegates to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce convention in Washington were polled on what anti-inflation measures they thought would be most effective now.

B.C. Passenger Train Cuts 'Prejudicial To Public'

VANCOUVER (CPI) — The Commons Transport Committee was told today that passenger service reductions by the Canadian Pacific Railway in British Columbia are so extensive that they cannot but be prejudicial to the public interest.

The submission was made in a brief presented to the committee by C. W. Brainer, acting as counsel for the province of B.C.

He was the first witness to appear before the 24-member committee which is under the chairmanship of Joseph Macaluso (L—Hamilton West).

It is holding cross-country hearings and is due to leave here Sunday night aboard the CPR's only remaining passenger train, the Canadian and the head east with one-day stops at Calgary, Medicine Hat, Moose Jaw, Brandon, Winnipeg and Port Arthur.

Mr. Brainer's brief said: "We have now reached the point that any further reductions in CPR passenger service would simply eliminate the last vestige of passenger train service in B.C."

"It must now and for all time in the foreseeable future, be made abundantly clear to the CPR—which has received untold bounty from this province—that future abandonments cannot and will not be permitted."

Mr. Brainer said he had received communications from the mayors of interior B.C. towns such as Revelstoke and Kamloops, both on the CPR mainline, and from the mayor of Kelowna, which was the centre of a very rich freight traffic area for the CPR, but whose residents must now take a bus to a mainline point if they wish to avoid themselves of rail service.

Mr. Brainer said in his brief that the criticism of these mayors could be summarized in a general way by saying that the CPR has already gone a long way toward discouraging passenger traffic on its trains "by the inadequate service it has rendered in the past few years."

German Official Planning Visit

Mrs. Susanne Simonis, German consul first class for B.C., will visit Kelowna Wednesday and Thursday. Wednesday morning she will visit Mayor R. F. Parkinson before attending a luncheon in the Royal Anne Hotel with chamber of commerce officials. In the afternoon chamber officials will take the consul on an industrial tour and in the evening Mrs. Simonis will show two color films in the Kelowna Secondary School. The public is invited to the film showing. Thursday, from 9 a.m. until noon she will conduct consultations at the Caravel Motor Hotel, Kelowna. She will also visit city clerks and the Kelowna branch of the Okanagan Regional Library. She continues to Vernon Friday.

City's Spring Cleaning Officially Started Today

Kelowna's spring-cleaning begins today with the opening of Operation Cosmetic. The two-year clean-up campaign is aimed at improving the city's appearance to visitors and making it a more attractive place to live. City trucks will haul away any old sheds left at the edge of residential property. The city will send a letter informing the owner of the property of the city's intention to remove the structure. The city will also be removing old cars and other debris from the streets. The city is committed to keeping the city clean and attractive and is proud of its spring-cleaning program.

Child Hurt, $2,000 Damage In Rash Of Area Accidents

A rash of car accidents during the weekend resulted in aggregate damage estimated at about $150. A motorcycle-bicycle collision Sunday sent one girl to hospital with scratches and bruises, the only injury in the seven accidents reported. Cheyenne Weddell, 1141 Centennial Cres., was treated at the Kelowna General Hospital and released, after the bicycle she was riding was in collision with a motorcycle driven by George Adolph Penno, Vernon, at 3:45 p.m. on Highway 97 near Birch Rd. A two-car collision occurred on Highway 97 south of Westbank at 12:25 a.m. Sunday. The drivers were E. J. LeBlanc, Sicamous and H. T. Henrikson, Peachland. Damage was estimated at $350. Drivers involved in a two-car crash on Highway 97, Sunday, at 1:30 a.m., two miles north of the city limits, were William Lenko, Kelowna, and George Pappas, Rutland. Damage is about $150. Lee Ann Moody, 1080 Stockwell Ave., and Mrs. Muriel Poulkes, Cassara Rd., were the drivers in a two-car collision Saturday at 5 p.m. at St. Paul St. and Doyle Ave. Damage was estimated at $200. Sunday at 7:35 p.m. two cars collided on the Westside Rd. Drivers were Edward Haas, Vernon Rd., and Douglas Franklin Lelke, Westbank. Damage is about $150. Anthony John Welder, 2607 Richter St., and Harvey Melvin Pomrenke, Hall Rd., were drivers of cars which collided on Hall Rd., Sunday at 4:10 p.m. Damage was estimated at $400. Damage is said to be more than $100 following a two-car collision Saturday at 11:30 a.m. at Garner and Walburn roads. The drivers were John Robert Appel, Walburn Rd., and George Lenko, Kelowna.

Valley Destruction Derby Drawing Much Attention

By KEITH DAVIS
Destruction derbies are reported to be "the rage" in the interior and especially in the Okanagan. The derby is a violent event in which many old cars meet a violent end. A destruction derby is a race in which cars are driven into each other and destroyed. The derby is a popular event and is attended by many people. The derby is a source of entertainment and is a great way to spend a day. The derby is a source of income for the organizers and is a great way to raise money for a good cause. The derby is a source of entertainment and is a great way to spend a day. The derby is a source of income for the organizers and is a great way to raise money for a good cause.

TIME CALLED
About every 10 minutes of the derby, time is called and drivers are given five minutes to make repairs to their cars. Teams of mechanics tear into the ring and work frantically to put damaged cars back into motion. Then the green flag is dropped and the destruction starts again. While this may seem to be a young person's sport, many middle-aged Kelowna residents turned out recently to a Cardeans Car Club derby held east of Kelowna. About 2,500 people watched the youths demolish their cars. The next derby coming up is in Vernon Sunday. Many Kelowna youths are frantically working on entries, trying to get the cars ready to roll for the big race.

MOST-PEOPLE-MISSED-ENTERTAINING-TATTOO

More than 1,000 musicians, gymnasts, marchers and military personnel took part in Saturday's Fraser Valley and Lower Mainland Centennial Tattoo in the Memorial Arena. A small crowd was on hand for the fast moving entertainment two hour program. A small fleet of buses was needed to transport the participants and their instruments and equipment and Ella St. was a busy spot as they unloaded late in the morning. Governments Should Use Local Services

The appointment of a Kelowna architect as architect-in-charge for the design of the theatre for the Band School of Fine Arts is an indirect compliment to Kelowna and its community theatre. It also brings to our attention that Kelowna is fast becoming a major centre of architectural and engineering services.

When the appointment of the Kelowna architect was announced by Senator Donald Cameron, director of the Band School, he said that the Kelowna theatre is "the finest value of any theatre he has seen in Canada." He had examined every new theatre built in Canada in recent years and he visited the Kelowna theatre on four separate occasions. The Kelowna theatre cost under $150,000 while the budget for the Band theatre is over $600,000. That the Kelowna theatre is being taken as a model and the same architect is being used is certainly a compliment to the theatre and is also a concrete indication that when building the community theatre Kelowna received excellent value for the money expended.

Another interesting angle to this appointment is that it moves Kelowna along as a centre of professional architectural and engineering services. In this area Kelowna is rapidly becoming as important as it is in the financial field. It is not generally recognized that something over 50 families here are now directly dependent on employment in architectural and engineering offices in Kelowna and the sphere of work spreads as far as Williams Lake, Merritt, Osoyoos and Cranbrook.

However there is one aspect which is puzzling. While Kelowna architectural and engineering services are obviously quite capable of handling major projects, this does not seem to be recognized by either the federal or the provincial governments. Neither as yet has so far seen fit to appoint Kelowna architects or engineers for Kelowna work.

At the moment there comes to mind the new federal building scheduled to start this fall, the hospital and about half the school building program designed by Coast architects. The new airport terminal is the work of a local architect, but this is handled by the municipal, not the federal, authorities.

We noticed the chamber of commerce chided the school board about this recently.

This situation is more serious than appears on the surface. It is more than a mere "prestige" condition. When Coast architects and engineers are used not only the architectural fees which go to wages and services spent at the Coast, but the buildings tend to be designed to use Coast fabricated materials and Coast trades. It would seem logical that an increased cost factor would be present as well.

When Kelowna architectural and engineering services have proved their ability, it is difficult to understand why they are not used by governments on local projects. In the case of Ottawa, perhaps, there is a mitigating circumstance in that Ottawa is far away and possibly not too well informed. This certainly does not apply to the British Columbia government which surely must be well informed on Kelowna affairs and the status of Kelowna services. Yet, oddly enough, the first breakthrough has come from a federal government agency. Thanks to the community theatre.

Kelowna with the rest of the Okanagan is currently designated an "improvement area" and efforts are being made, with government sanction and assistance, to encourage industry to locate here. Yet we have professional services which give employment to a considerable number of people and which are virtually ignored by the major governments. If these services were used on the federal building, the hospital, the schools, many local people would have additional employment and the industry already here would be strengthened by just that much. More local manufacturing firms would obtain just that much more work and give just that much more employment. Money being spent on these local projects would be spent here rather than at the Coast and the local economy would be enhanced.

It is passing strange that government recognize the need for greater employment here and yet turn blind eyes and deaf ears to the fact that they could increase employment here by using competent services already located here.

Church Anniversary

Beginning this month, Poles are celebrating the one thousandth anniversary of the coming of Christianity to their country.

There are about 325,000 Canadians of Polish origin, more than 10,000 of them live in the Hamilton area.

The atmosphere in which Polish Canadians will celebrate this anniversary will be significantly different from that in which the people of Poland will celebrate. The contrast is between a free society and a Communist state.

In Poland, about 90 per cent of the population is devoutly Roman Catholic. With a Communist government avowedly atheistic, there is little chance of permanent settlement. Basically, the cause of the conflict is the division of powers between "prince and prelate," between state and Church.

This conflict was resolved long ago in most European countries. In Poland it continues to be an area of considerable sensitivity.

The Church accuses the state of seeking to restrict its educational work and other activities, while the state maintains the Church trespasses in areas which rightfully belong to the government.

There are periods of relative truce, but the main issues remain unresolved. Whatever its real motivations, the Communist government has done all it could to restrict the Church's anniversary celebrations. Its attitude has made a visit by Pope Paul impossible. And this robs the celebrations of much of their joy for Polish Roman Catholics.

Government - promoted atheism has made little headway in Poland. The trend has been otherwise. In the last 20 years the number of priests in Poland has increased by one third and in high offices in the Communist government there are functionaries who regularly attend mass.

But paradox or not, the government has adopted an unfriendly attitude to the Church's celebrations.

Polish Canadians may reflect that in this country religion is free from government restrictions and the atmosphere is not embittered by official opposition to devotion.

WAR OF LIBERATION

TO YOUR GOOD HEALTH

Change Of Doctors Isn't That Easy

By DR. JOSEPH G. MOLNER

Dear Dr. Molner: When a patient changes doctors, can the records be transferred? Can a doctor refuse to do this?—MRS. L.

Ordinarily yes, but this is not quite as open-and-shut a question as you might offhand think. For practical purposes, the way to proceed is to have your new doctor request the records (or copies of them) from your former doctor. You must specify your willingness to have this done.

Remember, both ethically and legally information which your doctor, past or present, possesses about you is confidential. He has no right to reveal anything without your consent.

Therefore doctors are very careful about giving out information—including your medical records—without your approval. So far as the legal aspect goes, the medical records belong to the doctor, not to the patient.

The patient receives the services of the doctor—examination, treatment, advice. The records, however, are an account of what the doctor has done. If some legal question comes up, perhaps involving a claim or lawsuit by the patient, the doctor needs his records if he is able to testify intelligently. Thus it is not entirely a question of "the patient has gone to someone else; why keep the records?"

The doctor may, under some circumstances, feel it wise that he retain his notations of what he has done for you.

My answer, therefore, is that in most cases records or copies or summaries of them can be transferred to another physician as a matter of courtesy, but it is not something that you can demand. Courtesy and common sense involve a lot of things easily, whereas defining one's "rights" isn't always so easy.

Dear Dr. Molner: Can exercise to develop the bust be harmful? I think I can see some improvement.—MISS P.R.

No, exercise won't harm the bust. It won't increase the size, either, but it may improve your posture and that helps more than most girls realize.

To Mrs. J. M.: Web-fingers are not-too-unusual accident of nature. You cannot expect the condition to correct itself, but surgery can be effective.

Dear Dr. Molner: My wife is 31 and for several years has had terrific headaches. Aspirin and other tablets don't seem to help. Our family doctor prescribed some pills that give only temporary relief. Where could she go for treatment?—A.M.

Some headaches never yield to aspirin, but must have quite different treatment. Your letter contains no clue as to what type of headache is involved.

Seek a doctor who makes a subspecialty of this problem. Quite a few do. Your family physician may be able to refer you. If not, an inquiry at one of the major hospitals, or at one of the big medical centres in your area, will lead you to such a specialist. Or the county medical society, which provides a special service of referring people to physicians, doubtless will be able to help you.

There are mighty few headaches which cannot be greatly alleviated with proper treatment, but it sometimes takes careful observation to determine which kind of headache is involved.

LETTER TO EDITOR

STORE HOURS

Sir: Personally I do not see the need of stores in Kelowna to stay open later hours, and 95 per cent of residents do their buying in daylight hours. It appears as if our mayor and aldermen have the idea that Kelowna is of the size and population as is Vancouver City. This may include Toronto and Montreal.

If the idea is that tourists go on a buying spree, they are wrong. Visitors usually come well prepared. True, they may purchase a few souvenirs, usually of small or cheapest value and haggle over prices.

I do not think it would be profitable for our storekeepers to stay open to later hours. It would mean extra staff, with overtime rates. Labor is seeking a shorter working week. Most residents, after supper, prefer car riding or their favorite TV program, to shopping.

CANADA'S STORY

Wolfe Was Host At Halifax Dinner

By BOB BOWMAN

In 1745 a force of amateur soldiers from New England captured the French fortress of Louisbourg, which was supposed to be the strongest in the world. Three years later Britain traded Louisbourg to France for Madras, India. Just like some of the trades in hockey, football, and baseball, this one didn't work out well.

The New Englanders were annoyed because their great achievement had gone for nothing. Furthermore Britain had to recapture Louisbourg before beginning the campaign to win all of Canada from France. One of the first steps was the building of Halifax into a powerful military and naval base.

Between 1745, when the building of Halifax began, and 1758 troops in North America were badly beaten by the French, especially under General Montcalm. The British generals did not seem to be able to do anything right. Benjamin Franklin described one of them as being "about as effective as a painted soldier on a tavern sign."

William Pitt became Secretary for War in Britain in 1739 and he was a man of action. He was Britain's "man of the hour" as Winston Churchill was in the Second World War. Pitt said "I can save this nation and no one else can." He studied every phase of the war in North America, and after testing a number of leaders, found the man he wanted: Amherst and Wolfe. They were given 11,000 troops and told to recapture Louisbourg. There was also a strong naval force under Admiral Boscawen, one of whose captains was Rodney, later to become more famous. The force assembled in Halifax where Boscawen and Amherst joined Wolfe on May 9, 1758. Before they sailed for Louisbourg later in the month Wolfe gave a "small dinner" at the Great Point Hotel, which was owned by John Willis. The menu has been preserved.

Most of the dignitaries of Nova Scotia were there, as well as officers of the garrison. Places were laid for 41 guests at a cost of 26 shillings each. They were served 125 bottles of wine and 25 bottles of brandy at a cost of 80 pounds. Ten musicians were employed for seven pounds 15 shillings, including their supper, and an allowance of one pound 18 shillings was made for the table master and his supper. The "small dinner" cost Wolfe almost 100 pounds, or $500 at the old rate of exchange.

OTHER EVENTS ON MAY 9:

- 1628 William Alexander sent his son and 10 settlers to build a new fort at Port Royal, Nova Scotia.
- 1716 Father Lafitau discovered ginseng plant in Canada. It was exported to China.
- 1760 British naval units arrived at Quebec in time to save city from General Levis who was trying to recapture it for France.
- 1782 Sir Guy Carleton arrived at New York to supervise evacuation of British troops and United Empire Loyalists.
- 1793 Alexander Mackenzie started on trip to Pacific which he reached on July 22.

- 1861 General Macdonald arrived near Batoche to begin final attack on rebels.
- 1886 Privy Council upheld right of Canadian government to impose prohibition.
- 1906 Medicine Hat, Lethbridge and Wetaskiwin incorporated as cities.
- 1916 Lieutenant General Sir Julian Byng made commanding officer of Canadian forces overseas.
- 1926 Admiral Byrd and Floyd Bennett flew over North Pole.
- 1937 Canadian contingent attending coronation of King George VI formed guard at Buckingham and St. James's Palaces.
- 1955 Canadian Labor Congress formed from merger of Trades and Labor Congress and Canadian Congress of Labor.

Hess Expensive To Keep In Jail

BERLIN (Reuters) — Rudolf Hess, Hitler's one-time deputy who flew to England 25 years ago in an abortive attempt to negotiate peace, will soon be the world's most expensive prisoner.

On Sept. 30 Hess, now a greying 72-year-old, will be the only inmate left in West Berlin's grim, 600-cell Allied war crimes prison at Spandau.

On that date former Nazi armaments minister Albert Speer, 59, and former Nazi youth leader Baldur von Schirach, 57, will complete the 20 years to which they were sentenced by the Nuremberg war crimes tribunal.

But Hess is serving a life sentence. By an irony of fate the man who flew to Scotland on a lone peace mission May 10, 1941, was found guilty of planning an aggressive war.

Attempts to release or transfer him together with the two other inmates, each of whom costs $55,000 a year, have failed because of Soviet insistence that he complete his term.

Since 1946, the beetle-browed prisoner in Spandau has only had one visitor — his lawyer, Dr. Alfred Seidl.

ANN LANDERS

Mother Substitution Wonderful Solution

Dear Ann Landers: This may be one of the strangest letters you have ever received. I hope you won't think it is too strange to print because I suspect other mothers have the same problem but refuse to admit it.

My husband and I raised our four children to be independent and self-reliant. Everyone told us we did a wonderful job. As the children grew older, I began to wish we hadn't done such a good job. I resented their independence. I wanted them to need me and ask for my advice. Before long I began to meddle in their affairs. I even tried to take over their children.

After a run-in with my daughter-in-law I decided to talk to my doctor. He told me I had an over-supply of mother love and that I needed another baby, which I had seen a letter like this in your column five years ago. So he suggested an alternative. He sent me to the welfare people and I obtained a child care license. I put an ad in the paper and within three days I had a 13-month-old boy. Two weeks later I advertised for a second baby. Now I have two little boys and I'm happier than I've been in years.

The mothers of these children say I am the answer to their prayers. I know they are the answer to mine. When these mothers take their babies away I will get replacements. There will always be mothers who must work and babies who need a mama-substitute. This is my specialty.

My relationship with my own children is better than ever. And I have no time for aches and pains or crying spells. How I wish I had seen a letter like this in your column five years ago. It could have saved me a lot of unhappiness. — SPARK REKINDLED for him and hooray for you.

Dear Spark: What a beautiful example of receiving through giving! And your doctor deserves a standing ovation for coming up with the ideal solution to your problem. Cheers!

Dear Ann Landers: Recently I took a job distributing phone directories. The job turned out to be interesting as well as educational. I wish everyone would try to deliver phone directories for just one day. They'd have new respect for the postman and other delivery people.

It is shocking that thousands of residents don't display their house numbers either on the mailbox or anywhere else. How do they expect anyone to locate them? I had to enlist the help of neighbors in a great many cases. I asked one woman who had no number on her porch or mailbox how she got her deliveries. Her answer was, "They figure it out somehow."

Why should they have to "figure it out"? It seems to me that the burden should rest on the residents and not the carriers.

Please print my letter. It is the surest route of millions of eyes that I know of.—DISGUSTED WITH PEOPLE

Dear People: The moment you finish reading this column, go outside and see if you could find your home if you didn't know where you lived. If your residence is not properly marked, run—don't walk—to the nearest hardware store or the five and dime. Buy some paint and a brush—or some metal numerals and a hammer and nails. It could be the most useful thing you did all week.

Confidential to Tree Top Tall: Shakespeare notwithstanding, life is NOT a stage. You will not receive your satisfactions and rewards from playing to an audience. So what if he is a few inches shorter than you? What does it matter? If you let this marvelous man get away you are out of your ever loving mind.

Senator Muriel Fergusson Inspects New Methods Of Rehabilitation

OTTAWA (CP)—Jail sentences worked off on weekends are being tried on or youthful male first offenders in New Zealand, says Senator Muriel Fergusson, who recently toured penal institutions there and in Japan.

The Liberal senator from New Brunswick made the inspections during a trip to the Commonwealth and Empire Law Conference late last year in Australia. A director of the Elizabeth Fry Society here, she is one of nine senators on a joint committee of Parliament studying Canadian penitentiaries.

The weekend sentences can be served in any one of three "periodic detention centres" for youths 16 to 20 in New Zealand. Set up in 1963, the homes serve young men who had no previous convictions.

The idea is to keep them busy with lessons and small jobs around the community from Friday afternoon to Monday morning—"the time when they are likely to be idle and get into trouble, often because they have no idea of how to use their leisure time."

There are from 10 to 20 youths at each centre. They eat their meals with the home director in a "family atmosphere. Some of them say they have never eaten at a table before. They have always just had something to eat handed to them."

AIM TO BUILD GOODWILL
They are given academic lessons, lectures, physical training and counselling and do repair work "around the house" and grounds. One group looked after the lawn at an old people's home in the community.

UCW Fellowship Luncheon Has Spring Fantasy Theme

Friendship and fellowship was the spirit of the very successful luncheon sponsored by the United Church Women on Friday. The luncheon, which was held in the First United Church Hall, featured two sittings. The first at 12:15 p.m. was attended by more than 50 business women, and some 180 guests enjoyed the second sitting at 1:30 p.m.

Each of the four long tables was presided over by three hostesses, and decorating the tables were attractive arrangements of tulips, bridal veil and blossom twigs on which perched miniature robin red breasts. Interspersed with the flowers were very decorative layer cakes, baked by the members and topped with spring posies, which also served as the delicious dessert. Acting as hostesses were Mrs. E. P. Carruthers, Mrs. J. E. Ellis, Mrs. S. J. Crocker, Mrs. Sydney Huttie, Mrs. E. C. Horton, Mrs. Felix Sutton, Mrs. Les Stacey, Mrs. J. P. Minette, Mrs. E. J. Strachan, Mrs. Ernest Evans and Mrs. Lloyd Green.

Prior to lunch the president of the UCW, Mrs. C. E. Sladen, asked Mrs. R. S. Leitch, chairman of stewardship and recruiting, to say grace, after which she introduced the other guests seated at the head table. Rev. Dr. E. H. Birdsell and Mrs. Birdsell, Rev. E. S. Fleming and Mrs. Fleming, and Mrs. R. S. Leitch.

In charge of the decorations were Mrs. R. S. Leitch, Mrs. A. A. Hale.

At the conclusion of the entertainment Mrs. Sladen thanked Mrs. Smith for arranging the charming decorations and the delightful entertainment and also thanked her co-conveners of the luncheon Mrs. J. E. Greenaway, Mrs. D. A. MacKinnon and Mrs. A. A. Hale.

Fourth Kelowna Brownie Pack Mother And Daughter Banquet

Special guests at the Mother and Daughter Banquet held by the Fourth Kelowna Brownie Pack were Mrs. A. F. G. Drake, Divisional Commissioner, H. W. Chaplin, Commissioner for District 1, and Rev. F. H. Goggin, minister of St. Paul's Church.

The banquet was held in St. Paul's Church Hall on May 5, and the toast to the mothers, proposed by Brownie Irma Klarenbeck was replied to by Mrs. R. A. Gies. Mrs. Chaplin spoke briefly on the urgency of finding new leaders for the coming year, and stressed the need for the forming of a Guide Company to accommodate the older Brownies who will be ready to move into Guides in September.

Brown Owl of the Pack, Mrs. P. Leach, thanked all the mothers who had given their time to the various activities of the pack during the past year, and a presentation was made by the Brownies to Tawny Owl, Mrs. R. McClelland for her valuable assistance.

The presentation of badges to the Pack was then made by Mrs. Drake. Awarded the Golden Hand were Susan Loft, Karen Hoskins, Lynn Hummer, Joanna Hansen and Debbie Tudman. Golden Bars were received by Joanne Feenstra, Judy Gies and Cheryl Scott, and Service Stars went to Sandra Wood, Lynn Hummer and Joanne Feenstra.

Awarded Cyclist Badges were Monica Melnychuk, Janice Stan, Judy Gies, Susan Loft, Mary Chaplin, Debbie Tudman, Joanna Lewthwaite, Gloria Sampson, Jackie Saby and Kathryn Rueger. Collectors Badges were received by Kathryn Rueger and Judy Gies, and House Orderlies by Irma Klarenbeck, Debbie Tudman, Lynn Hummer, Karen Hoskins and Kathleen McClelland.

The Brownies entertained their mothers with a brief skit and musical atmosphere and the evening ended pleasantly with camp fire singing.

At the May 4 session of the Kelowna Contract Bridge Club 16 tables of Howell movement were played in two sections.

The winners being:
RED SECTION — First, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. L. Roadhouse; second, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hughes-Games; third, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Brown; fourth, Mrs. Lamoureux and Mrs. J. M. MacLennan; and fifth John Fisher and Jesse Ford.

GREEN SECTION — First, Harold Begg and Norman Midgley; second place by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hyde and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Crosby; fourth, Mr. and Mrs. Arwin Rosengren; fifth place by Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wilkinson and Mr. and Mrs. Cec Graham.

Visitors welcomed to the club were Norman Midgley of Williams Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown of Kelowna.

This was the first half of the qualifying round for the team to play in the Unit Team of Twelve Championship. The next session to be held on May 11 at 7:30 p.m. at the Capitol Motor Hotel will be the second half of the qualifying round.

Visiting German Consul Has Had Colorful Career

An interesting visitor to Kelowna is Mrs. Susanne Simonis, Consul of the Federal Republic of Germany, who will be welcomed on her arrival in the Okanagan Wednesday, May 11, by Mayor R. F. Parkinson and William Bennett, president of Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Simonis, who assumed her post as Consul in Vancouver in September, 1965, was born in Berlin, Germany. She studied law and economics at the Universities of Berlin and Cologne, and after extensive traveling spent seven years in the Far East. In 1947 she returned to Germany where she joined the editorial staff of several periodicals and also worked as freelance writer.

In 1950 Mrs. Simonis joined the German Foreign Office in Bonn, where her official duties involved taking charge of the Department of Personnel to select women for the German Foreign Service. Later she was assigned to the legal department of the Consulate in Scotland. In 1960 she returned to Bonn and took over responsibilities as First Secretary of the Cultural Department of the German Foreign Office. During World War II she was a member of the resistance movement against the Nazi regime in Germany.

On Wednesday evening Consul Simonis will show a German colored film accompanied by English commentaries at the Kelowna Secondary School at 8 p.m. in room 11, and on Thursday, May 12, she will hold office at the Caravel Inn from 9 a.m. till 12 noon. The Consul's aim is to offer German citizens.

now residing in Kelowna, the opportunity to obtain legal advice with regard to consular and law matters. Thursday afternoon she will meet with W. P. Loft, chief librarian of the Kelowna Regional Library.

Consul Simonis' objectives during her trip to the Okanagan are to take advantage of the opportunity to establish contacts with official Canadian authorities and Canadian citizens as well as to get acquainted with and give counsel to German citizens living in this area.

Engagement
Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Earl of Rutland announce the engagement of their youngest daughter, Gail Marie, to Gary Earl Forney, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Forney of Rutland.

The wedding will take place Saturday, July 2, at 3 p.m. in St. Theresa's Catholic Church with Rev. Father F. L. Flynn officiating.

SALLY'S SALLIES

"And just whose idea was it to have the choir sing, 'Oh, Unhappy Day'?"

Cepeda Leads Giants Before Swap To Cards

By MIKE BATIST
Associated Press Sports Writer
San Francisco Giants may have pulled off a unique double play at St. Louis, spoiling the Cardinals' farewell at Busch Stadium.

The Giants displayed their muscles in a 10-5 victory over the Cardinals Sunday, then traded slugger outfielder-first baseman Orlando Cepeda to St. Louis Cardinals for left-hander Ray Sadecki.

Cepeda has a lifetime batting average of .308. He put on quite a show before changing uniforms, hitting a grand slam home Saturday and driving in two runs with a pair of hits Sunday.

Sadecki was a 20-game winner for the Cardinals pen-and-ink men in 1964.

The Giants haven't needed much help this season. After a 15-run explosion Saturday, Willie McCovey, Jim Hart and Willie Mays hammered homers Sunday. Mays was No. 513 of his career.

The Cardinals move into their new $24-million park Thursday. Cincinnati Reds edged Los Angeles Dodgers 2-1. Pittsburgh Pirates topped Philadelphia Phillies 3-2. Houston Astros defeated Atlanta Braves 4-2 and New York Mets downed Chicago Cubs 3-1 after losing two runs with a pair of hits Sunday.

Saturday, Chicago topped New York 3-2. Philadelphia defeated Pittsburgh 13-3. Los Angeles crushed Cincinnati 16-2. San Francisco crushed St. Louis 15-2, and Houston shutout Atlanta 3-0.

Jim O'Toole checked the Dodgers on three hits in the seven innings he worked, singled home what turned out to be the winning run for the Reds in the fourth inning and posted his first victory since Sept. 11. Tony Perez's sacrifice fly drove in the other Cincinnati run off Dodger starter Claude Osteen.

The Pirates scrapped a 2-2 tie in the sixth inning on a walk to Willie Stargell and singles by Donn Clemons and Bill Mazeroski. Bob Veale went all the way, scattering eight Phillies' hits. Veale also drove in a run with a single.

Run producing singles by Joe Torre and Lee Thomas gave the Braves a 4-3 lead in the eighth, but the Astros came back in the ninth with the aid of errors by Frank Bolling and Woody Woodward. Rusty Staub scored the tying run on Woodward's wild throw before Joe Morgan drove in the winner with a bases-loaded single.

The Cubs won the first game despite collecting only two hits. The first, a single by Glenn Beckert in the sixth inning off Jack Hamilton, drove in two runs. Chris King's steal of home produced the other run.

Dennis Ribant, who spends his winters in Burlington, Ont., with his Canadian-born wife, stopped the Cubs on five hits in the nightcap while the Mets put it out of reach with a five-run third inning. Jim Hickman triggered the rally with a lead-off homer.

Yanks Win Two Without Keane

NEW YORK (AP) — Johnny Keane came in a gentleman and went out the same way—with kind words for New York Yankees who fired him Saturday as manager.

Keane arrived in New York Sunday from Los Angeles and met his wife, Lois, who had flown up from their Houston home. He didn't even know the Yanks had won their second straight game under Ralph Houk until a reporter told him.

"If they can get them hitting," said Keane, "that is all there will be to it. The pitching wasn't bad, but we just were not hitting."

"I left the Yankees with all good feelings. It has been a privilege to have worked for them."

FUTURE UNCERTAIN
"I haven't had time to talk to anybody about the future. But I plan to contact all the major league teams. They all know that I am out. I want them to know I am available."

Keane said he did not know the fate was about to fall when he left on the long road trip last Thursday night. He had sent his wife home rather than have her alone in New York during his absence.

"The first I knew was about four o'clock Saturday after-noon," said Keane. "I asked them to hold off the announcement until I could tell the players myself. They agreed."

Keane spent his entire professional career as a player, coach and manager in the St. Louis Cardinals organization.

After Bing Devine was fired as the Cards general manager during the 1964 season, Keane made up his mind to step down too. He made the move in dramatic fashion—the day after his Cardinals won the World Series from Yogi Berra's Yankees.

Edmonton Oil King Coach Blames His Goalie For Loss

TORONTO (CP)—Coach Ray Kinasevich blamed his goalie, and not a single Bill Hunter lashed out again at the referee after Edmonton Oil Kings lost 6-3 to Oshawa Generals Sunday and fell behind 2-1 in the Memorial Cup finals.

"You don't expect that a fellow who's played well all season will choke up all of a sudden, but that's what he's done," said Kinasevich, explaining why he yanked regular goalie Don McLeod after the first period.

Kinasevich said McLeod, who plays with a deformed foot, has been weak in all three playoff games against the Generals. McLeod missed three of the first five shots he faced Sunday.

The fourth game of the best-of-seven series for the Canadian junior hockey championship will be played here Wednesday night. All games in the series are at Maple Leaf Gardens and Sunday's contest drew 7,305.

Hunter, who verbally lambasted referee Frank Daigneault of Montreal for being too lenient during Oshawa's 7-1 victory in the second game Friday night, continued his attack. But this time he charged that Daigneault refused to penalize Oshawa players for pulling the puck under their bodies when they fell.

CALLS 22 PENALTIES
Daigneault called 22 penalties and one of them, late in the second period to Oshawa's Barry Wilkins, was for trapping the puck and delaying the game. Otherwise, Hunter claimed, Daigneault was "only five feet away and wasn't calling them."

The Generals again used ace defenceman Bobby Orr only on power plays because of a groin injury, but centre Danny O'Shea stepped into the breach for the second time in a row.

O'Shea scored two goals, bringing his series total to five after a three-goal performance Friday night, and was especially dangerous on the power play. Both his goals came when Edmonton was short-handed.

Wayne Cashman and Ron Dussanville also connected on the power play for the Generals while George Babcock and Bill Little rounded out the Oshawa scoring.

Pappin Scores Three Goals: Leads Rochester To AHL Win

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
Jim Pappin, the top scorer in the American Hockey League's playoffs last season, is at it again.

The 26-year-old native of Copper Cliff, Ont., who played two seasons with Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League, scored all three goals Sunday night to lead Rochester Americans to a 3-1 victory over Cleveland Barons.

The win left the best-of-seven series for the Calder Cup and the AHL championship tied 2-2. Saturday night Cleveland dumped the Americans 5-1.

The Americans were shoved out of their home rink in Rochester several weeks ago by a bowling tournament and played Sunday's game in Buffalo, home of the Bisons. A crowd of 7,655, largest of the AHL season in Buffalo, saw Dick Gumble set Pappin's record on all "three" goals.

McCreary got the only Cleveland goal.

Last year Pappin counted 11 goals to lead Rochester to the Calder Cup. He played two seasons for the Leafs from 1963 to 1965.

Tom McCarthy paced the Barons with two goals Saturday night before 8,045 Cleveland fans. Ron Attwell, Bill Speer and McGreary got the others.

Brian Conacher scored for Rochester.

Fifth game of the series is scheduled for Toronto Tuesday night.

Preakness Next For Derby Colt

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — said Fleet Shoe was "a little too busy during the last year to visit his new Tennessee home and there's no let up in sight as he prepared today to ship Kauai King, the Kentucky Derby winner, east for the Preakness.

"I bought a little, six-acre place at Brentwood, near Nashville, more than a year ago, but I've spent only one night there since then," Forrest said.

Kauai King's last length Derby victory Saturday was his 20th at Churchill Downs.

Forrest, a winner with the first colt he ever saddled for the Derby, gave much of the credit to jockey Don Brumfield.

"He rode just wonderful," Forrest said. "I told him before the race there might be some horses in front of him at the start, but to use his own judgment."

ADVOCATOR CAMP HAPPY
Almost as pleased as Forrest were some in the camp of Advocate, a surprise second finisher in America's most glamorous race. A groom, Albert Fuley, proudly predicted the colt would become Horse of the Year.

Jim Padgett, trainer of third finisher Blue Skyer, said he "couldn't have been more thrilled" with the race.

With exception of Fleet Shoe, Maryland, tried to win the all of the colts from the Derby were pronounced in good fllit by Trainer Larry Stirling call.

Both Fleet Shoe and Abe's Hope, the second choice in the betting and fifth colt under the finish wire, may get some rest from the racing wars. The others will continue training for summer racing.

All of the first six finishers—Kauai King, Advocate, Blue Skyer, Stupendous, Abe's Hope and Rehabilitate, ridden by Ron Furutse of Grand Falls, N.B.—had a top shot at the $120,500 first prize until the last. As the field swept under the wire, only about 25 feet separated the six. Eight lengths back was Amber-oud, who came from last place after a slight stumble coming out of the starting gate.

TRAIL THE LEADERS
Fleet Shoe, Lethalunist, Sky Guy and Williamson Kid followed in that order. Trailing the field over the finish line were Quanta, Tragnier, Beau Sub and Dominar.

The victory in the $103,000 Derby, which matches the second richest in the history of the event, marked a handful of firsts.

It was the first entry in the classic for owner Michael Ford and trainer Forrest and the first Derby ride for Brumfield.

Kauai King also was the first Maryland colt to win the Derby, and the first since Jet were pronounced in good fllit in 1947 to lead at every health Trainer Larry Stirling call.

Sherbrooke Coach Beefing Over Allan Cup Officiating

CALGARY (CP) — Georges Roy, coach of Sherbrooke Beavers, called for a change in referees Saturday after his club evened the 1966 Allan Cup final series.

Roy, a veteran of minor professional ranks, threatened to pull Beavers out of the series with Drumheller Miners unless Dutchy Van Deelen of Edmonton is imported to replace John Kotzma of Yorkton as referee for the remainder of the series.

Beavers posted a 4-1 victory before about 2,100 fans after dropping a 6-3 verdict in the opener.

"I don't want any of my guys knocked out of the series," Roy said. "These guys have jobs."

'IGNORED ROUGH PLAY'
He complained that Kotzma overlooked rough play consistently. Kotzma's assistants were linesmen Jules Swick of Saskatoon and Joe Cassidy of Calgary.

Van Deelen handled the 1965 final, in which Sherbrooke downed Nelson Maple Leafs.

Beavers, smaller and faster than their aggressive rivals, drew six of 10 penalties but scored twice on power plays.

Guy Black paced the winners with two goals and an assist. Claude Cardin and Gil Cartier added singles as Beavers led 2-0 and 3-1 by intervals.

Drumheller's goal was notched by Gene Lambert, who punched a rebound past Sergio Aubry midway through the second period.

Aubry blocked 29 shots com-

SPEED, MAN

Cassius Clay flew off to London predicting a speed fight with Henry Cooper and already looking beyond the Cockney veteran to his next opponent. "I'm gonna be about 265 pounds for Cooper, that's about 11 under what I was when I beat George Chuvalo," said the world heavyweight champion from Kentucky said Sunday night. "This is gonna be a speed fight. I gotta be fast. That man can get in and punch fast. And I might be in trouble if he tagged me."

MARTIAL DREW FANS
George Washington, Thomas Jefferson and John Adams, three United States presidents, were all keen martial arts players.

Little League Pitchers Lead Clubs To Victory

Bridge Service rode a heavy-pitcher Harold Hyming, hitting attack and the eight strike-out pitching of John Gert in three attempts for the losers.

Saturday to trounce Black Knight 9-1 in Little League action.

Lyte Retzlaff paced the winners at the plate with a two for four performance off losing out on top leading the Lions to a 2-0 victory over the Kimmens.

Robson racked up 11 strikeouts a recording his victory.

He also provided all the power at the plate smashing out a double and a single. Stoutenberg fanned three in a row for the losers.

Gadsby's Played Last Game - Future In Hockey Uncertain

DETROIT (AP)—Bill Gadsby, a 26-year-veteran of the National Hockey League, is retiring.

Gadsby said "I have my insurance business at home," referring to his agency in Edmonton.

"My future in hockey?" "I don't know. I'd like to coach. But I'm not sure that I'd like to coach in the minor leagues."

Gadsby was 18 when he started with Chicago. He went to New York and then to Detroit. He plans to discuss his future within the next few weeks with Bruce Norris, Red Wings owner, and Sid Abel, the Detroit coach.

He is one of only three 26-year veterans in the NHL. The others are his Red Wings teammates, Gordie Howe, and Dick Clapper, a former Boston Bruins player.

Gadsby made his decision after playing 1,313 NHL games. The last one was Detroit's 3-2 overtime loss to Montreal which gave the Canadians their second straight Stanley Cup.

Asked what he plans to do, Gadsby said "I have my insurance business at home," referring to his agency in Edmonton.

British heavyweight boxing champion Henry Cooper today has the trophy that will be awarded to the first British boxer to win the world's heavyweight title in London yesterday. Cooper, 32, has a chance to win the trophy when he challenges champion Cassius Clay in London on May 21. Trophy will be waiting to be claimed since it was first offered in August of 1951 when British boxer Tommy Farr first met then heavyweight champion Joe Louis.

Rutland, Oliver Win In Connie Mack Ball

The Rutland Redcaps led all the way to win their second league game, defeating the visiting Vernon team here Sunday by a close 4-2 score.

The home team got a two-run lead in the opening frame, Layden drawing a free pass, Lawler getting a single, and both coming home on singles by McKee and Mettewski.

The home team added two more in the fifth, Lawler hitting a two-bagger, McKee drawing a free pass, Lawler stealing third and coming home on a passed ball, McKee scoring on pitcher Carl Nelson's sacrifice.

Vernon did not get onto the scoreboard until the seventh, when McDougall drew a walk. Monk went to first on an error and both scored on Malenkosky's triple.

They threatened in the eighth and ninth, getting two runners on base each time, but no score resulted. R. Dykstra tripled in the eighth, but was put out trying to steal home.

In the ninth, with two on base, and two away, Yamaoka gathered in a long fly in left field to retire the side.

Carl Nelson chalked up his second victory, striking out 10 batters, but gave up 10 hits and four free passes. Inglis, the Vernon hurler, allowed only seven hits, and three passes to first, and struck out 11. Passed balls let in two Rutland runs.

B.C. Swimmers Attack Records At Weekend Vancouver Meet

VANCOUVER (CP) — Five British Columbia swimmers and three from the United States led an assault on 14 Canadian records in the eighth annual Northwest International Swimming and Diving Championships here Saturday and Sunday.

Vancouver's Elaine Tanner turned in the most impressive display in the two-day meet, smashing by 14 seconds the existing mark in the 400-yard individual girls' medley and then lowering the senior women's freestyle mark to 2:14.5. Miss Tanner defeated former record holder Jane Hughes of Vancouver in the 400-yard individual medley in a time of 5:20.3 to break the existing mark of 5:34.3. Miss Hughes also bettered her previous record with a 5:28.1 clocking.

Kathy Woodrich, a 10-year-old from Eugene, Ore., and Dick Shanks, 12, from Seattle, led American record-breakers by each smashing two marks.

Miss Woodrich lowered the Canadian open record in the 100-metre girls 10-and-under freestyle with a time of 1:12.7 and then captured the 100-metre breaststroke in the same age group in a record time of 1:36.2. Shanks broke the boys' 11 and 12 years 100-metre freestyle event with a time of 1:03.7 and also took the 100-metre backstroke in an open record time of 1:11.8.

Paul Bovick of Eugene also set a record in the 100-metre breaststroke for boys 10 and under with a time of 1:35.8.

Vito Dunford of Victoria smashed two records in recording a 1:18.4 victory in the 100-metre breaststroke for boys 13 and 14 and a 2:28.1 clocking in the 200-yard medley.

Anne McDaniel of Ocean Falls also set two marks in the 13 and 14 class, winning the 100-metre backstroke in 1:15.3 and the 200-yard individual medley in 2:41.8.

Ian McKenzie, another Ocean Falls swimmer, erased the existing Canadian mark in the 100-metre butterfly for boys 11 and 12 by swimming the event in 1:11.8.

Jim Golmer of Victoria added another record to the two-day meet with a 1:24.1 clocking in the 100-metre breaststroke for boys 11 and 12.

Vancouver YMCA's "B" team lowered the existing Canadian mark in the 200-metre freestyle relay for boys 13 and 14 with a time of 14:5.2.

In the diving section, 10-year-old Sheila Reid of Vancouver proved to be the sensation as she captured both the 3-metre and 1-metre events for girls 14 and under.

Four divers from Eugene grabbed titles with Pat McCormack taking the boys 14 and under 1-metre event, Lorenz Sollinsbee the senior men's one-metre, Brad Wheeler the boys 14 and under 3-metre, and Wayne Schwandt the senior men's 3-metre.

Penticton Lops Over Vernon In OMBL Play

VERNON (CP) — Penticton trounced Vernon 16-2 here Sunday in the only weekend action in the Okanagan-Mainline Baseball League.

A scheduled Saturday game between North Kamloops and Kelowna was postponed because of wet grounds at Kelowna.

Penticton had little trouble with Vernon, running up a 16-2 lead before pitcher Jim Verbaet weakened in the seventh inning as Vernon scored its only run.

Mounties Deeper In Cellar After Two Weekend Losses

Vancouver Mounties dug themselves deeper into the Pacific Coast League baseball cellar on the weekend, dropping single games to the third-place Tacoma Cubs.

Mounties' grief began Saturday when the Cubs pounded on three Vancouver pitchers for 18 hits and 16 runs, two of which came on Don Bryant's fourth homer of the season. Roberto Pena was the villain of the piece in Sunday's contest, breaking up a 6-3 game with a three-run homer in the sixth inning to give Cubs a 5-4 win. The last also spoiled pitcher Don Joyce's first appearance before Vancouver fans.

Mounties are in last place in the PCL Western Division, 1½ games back of fifth place Spokane and three back of league-leading Tucson.

The Islanders won two of their three weekend games, splitting a Sunday doubleheader with Seattle after topping the Angels 5-4 Saturday. Three singles and a 600-foot home run by Hank Allen produced all the Hawaii runs in the Saturday game. Tulsa remained atop the Eastern Division race, downing Phoenix 1-0 Saturday, 8-4 Sunday. The Oilers have a three-game lead on second-place Indianapolis, who also took two on the weekend.

The Indians topped San Diego 8-4 Saturday, then won a 14-inning contest Sunday, beating Padres 4-3. San Diego is in last place in the Eastern Division, 8½ games back of Tulsa.

In other games, Denver dropped a 10-inning decision 4-3 to Oklahoma City Saturday, but came back to sweep both ends of a Sunday doubleheader, winning 6-3 and 15-4.

Pat Dobson handcuffed Spokane in the nightcap, giving up only five safeties as Portland won 5-0.

Hydro Project Booster Revealed By Smallwood

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—Premier Smallwood announced Tuesday the 300,000-horsepower Base of Espoir hydro-electric project, designed two years ago.

Royal Probes Eat Up Cash

TORONTO (CP)—Officials of the Canadian Tax Foundation say outlays for royal commission inquiries are one of the fastest-growing costs of the federal government.

A summary of costs in the current issue of the Canadian Tax Journal says more than $13,000,000 will be spent on royal commissions from 1962 to 1966 compared with $3,582,855 in the preceding five years amounted to only $481,000.

Three royal commissions have been established already this year — the inquiries into the George Victor Spencer spy case, the Gerda Munster affair and the Rand inquiry into the dealings of Mr. Justice Leo Landreville with Northern Ontario Natural Gas Co. Ltd.

Commission costs in 1966 are estimated at $3,325,700, including expenses of some lengthy inquiries that started two or three years ago.

Most costly of all inquiries is that on bilingualism and biculturalism in Canada. The price tag is estimated at $3,700,000, including $1,200,000 expected to be spent this year.

to double Newfoundland's hydro-electric output, is being expanded to produce a total of 600,000 horsepower by 1974.

The expansion was necessary because the initial production had been "oversold" although construction started only last August and the first 100,000 horsepower generating unit will not be turning until March 1, 1967.

The premier said the promise of power at one-quarter of a cent per kilowatt hour had brought $250,000,000 in industrial development investment to Newfoundland.

He said the expansion plans will add 665,000,000-668,000,000 to the projected $87,000,000 cost. It had first been thought the 300,000 horsepower coming from the project by the end of next year would suffice until 1974.

However, the premier now expected the full 1,000,000-horsepower potential on the island of Newfoundland will be developed by 1975 and "I anticipate a minimum of 1,000,000 horsepower in from Labrador."

SEES MANY JOBS
He forecast 1,400 construction jobs continuously during the 10-year development period.

The extra power was necessary in large measure because of increased use of electric heating, the premier said.

Something might be announced "within days" on negotiations for a new "enterprise" requiring 130,000 horsepower and other talks on the sale of between 300,000 and 1,000,000 to a single customer might be culminated this year, Mr. Smallwood said.

The Newfoundland Power Commission will raise the additional money for Baie d'Espoir on its own, he said. The Atlantic Development Board granted $24,000,000 to the first phase.

The power station is at the head of Baie d'Espoir, an ice-free port to be linked with the Trans-Canada Highway 80 miles to the north by a road scheduled to be completed next year.

Source of the extra power will be the headwaters of the White Bear River, to be joined by channels with the Grey and Salmon rivers in creation of two huge lakes draining 1,600 square miles of barren wilderness.

Weekend traffic accidents across Canada claimed at least 50 lives, half of them in Quebec.

A Canadian Press survey from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Sunday, local times, also showed 12 drownings, three deaths by fire and one man killed when he fell from a hotel window in Vancouver.

Quebec reported 26 traffic deaths and three drownings. New Brunswick had eight road deaths—six of them in two accidents—and one drowning.

Four persons died in traffic in Ontario and four drowned. Nova Scotia reported two highway deaths and one drowning.

Newfoundland had two drownings and Prince Edward Island one traffic fatality. Saskatchewan had six highway deaths.

British Columbia recorded two deaths in traffic, one by drowning and one in a fall. Manitoba reported three fire deaths and Alberta one in traffic.

Quebec Election Drive Swings Into High Gear

QUEBEC (CP)—The campaign for Quebec's June 5 provincial general election got into full swing Sunday with the official entry of the Union Nationale party, which formed the opposition in the last legislature.

Party Leader Daniel Johnson opened his campaign in Acton Vale with a sweeping attack on the Liberal administration of Premier Jean Lesage and repeated assurances that the Union Nationale is prepared to take over the reins of government.

He drew a two-minute ovation from an overflow crowd of 2,000 which packed the auditorium and entrance halls of a school in his home riding of Bagot.

Meanwhile, Premier Jean Lesage covered more than 100 miles in a weekend swing through central Quebec. He spoke in four centres and had a choice election topic—a new industry, an urban renewal proposal or an irrigation project—for almost everyone.

The weekend also saw Lucien Carlin, the federal justice minister, throw his support behind the provincial Liberal leader.

In Lac Megantic, 30 miles south of Quebec City, leader Pierre Bourgault of the separatist party Le Rassemblement pour l'Indépendance Nationale told a rally that French cannot survive as a language unless it becomes the only official language in Quebec.

Mr. Johnson said the Union Nationale is "rejuvenated, enthusiastic and serious" and ready to form Quebec's next government. In the coming election, 88 of the party's full slate of 166 candidates would be newcomers.

The Union Nationale leader, said Premier Lesage called the election in a moment of panic. One reason was the province's financial situation. Another was the fear of the disclosure that might be made before the legislature's public accounts committee, which was to have met April 23-24, and still another was the fear that high school examinations results would be "a mess again this year."

This was a reference to mix-ups in results last year through which some students received grades for subjects they had not even written. The government blamed it on problems with its new computer system.

He challenged Mr. Lesage to clear up the mystery surrounding the final report of the Parent royal commission on education, which has not yet been made public but has been the subject of published reports in Montreal and Quebec City newspapers.

Legion Dance Arranged

PEACHLAND — Final arrangements for the Peachland Royal Canadian Legion's dance to be held Friday have been made.

Other matters discussed were a letter from the postal department asking if the branch had any veterans that they wished to sponsor for the position of postmaster in Trepassey, a position which is now vacant.

Report from H. Thwaites service officer stated, there had been no requests for aid in the last month, and that funds to assist for Legion scholarships both local and provincial, were now available from the principal at George Pringle Secondary School, Westbank.

Arrangements were made to invite S. Dunlop, deputy Zone Commander, to attend the next regular meeting on June 14th.

Mansfield Keeps On Trying Would You Believe Mongolia?

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield proposed today that the United States recognize Mongolia, a Communist nation sandwiched between China and Russia.

This would help ease international tensions, Mansfield said in an interview, and give the United States "a valuable listening post" between the two Communist giants.

Mansfield's proposal came as he endorsed by Senator Edward Kennedy (Dem. Mass.) and George McGovern (Dem. S.D.) for appointment of a "blue ribbon" commission to reassess U.S. policy toward China.

State Secretary Dean Rusk, who testifies before the Senate foreign relations committee today, described the commission proposal as "an intriguing idea."

But Rusk said for more than a year the executive branch has had "a very comprehensive study of these matters."

He also said he has discussed recently with President Johnson "the desirability of systematic outside advice in the general areas of the world I think it is very likely that we shall do this somewhat more systematically than we have done before."

Mr. and Mrs. G. Fallowfield are home again after a trip to Vancouver where they attended the funeral of a uncle. While there, they stayed with relatives, Mrs. F. Buxton, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Fallowfield.

Social Worker Facing Charges In Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP)—A 35-year-old social worker was to appear in court today charged with shoplifting and contributing to juvenile delinquency.

Pauline McBurney, a child care worker for Vancouver Children's Aid Society, also faced a charge of possession of stolen goods.

Police said four teenage girls from a Vancouver rooming house operated by the society were arrested with Mrs. McBurney.

They were to appear in juvenile court today—charged with shoplifting and possession of stolen property.

Underworld Wagner Fear

GRANBY, Que. (CP)—Justice Minister Claude Wagner of Quebec told an election rally Sunday night that the Munster Inquiry in Ottawa "shows how deeply the underworld can infiltrate among our leaders."

He made the statement in renewing his call for a royal commission investigation of organized crime in Canada.

The justice minister also referred to Yvon Dupuis, former federal cabinet minister who has said he will act as "the conscience of Premier Jean Lesage" in the current campaign for the June 5 provincial general election. When the premier opened his campaign in Sherbrooke a week ago, Mr. Dupuis addressed a rival rally in the same city.

Fidel Faces Financial Flip As Sugar Prices Not Sweet

WASHINGTON (AP) — Co-Washington observers doubt the parently faces a financial in view of Castro's fraying rela-squeeze this year from a slump tions with Moscow. The Havana in his country's No. 1 money revolutionary is outspokenly at

Castro acknowledged in a As calculated here, Cuba's speech this week that Cuba's hard currency sugar sales to 1966 sugar harvest will fall to 1966 sugar harvest will fall to reach 3,000,000 tons, 1,000,000 less than the 1965 crop. His was less than the 1965 crop. His goal this year was 6,500,000 tons.

Castro blamed the reverse on a bad drought.

But Washington analysts, who often disagree with Castro, credit Havana's setback to Com-munist mismanagement along with the lack of rainfall. They note, too, that world sugar prices have plunged from a peak of 12 cents a pound in late 1963 to some 2 1/2 cents a pound now.

What happens in sugar is generally regarded as the most im-portant barometer of the is-land's economy, long founded on sugar. Soviet aid to Cuba and the U.S. trade embargo on oil have only partial effect.

The Soviet Union is reported to be assisting Cuba with more foreign exchange into Havana, than $200 million a year, but analysts worry others.

One guess here is that Cuba will cut back some of its 1966 shipments to the Soviets in order to maintain sales to non-Communist countries. Each mil-lion tons of Cuban sugar bought by non-Communist nations could put some $25,000,000 in to the assisting Cuba with more foreign exchange into Havana, than $200 million a year, but analysts worry others.

Opening lead—queen of dia-monds.

Here is a remarkable hand from the match between Italy and the United States in 1956. A grand slam in either hearts or clubs would certainly have been a feasible undertaking, but at both tables only a game con-tract was reached with the North-South cards.

There were extenuating cir-cumstances, it is true. At both tables a premature bid was made with the East-West cards, and this succeeded in blocking the smooth exchange of infor-mation between the North-South players.

When the hand was played at my table, I opened the bidding with three diamonds. My part-ner, John Crawford, who knew I had very little defensive strength and who was suffering from the same deficiency himself, tried to join the works further by bidding four dia-monds.

South also, impressed more by his hand than our allies, bid five clubs, which was passed all around. A diamond was led and South called, looking much the worse for wear in having failed to reach either a small or grand slam, won the diamond and tackled trumps. When Crawford showed out, South called a huge high of trumps for having enjoyed a higher contract.

When the deal was played at the other table, the bidding went:

West North East South
1 ♠ Pass 1 ♠ 3 ♠
2 ♠ Pass 2 ♠ 3 NT
4 ♠ Pass 4 ♠ 5 ♠

Belladonna did not pre-empt with the West hand, but East (Avaris) did. He bid three spades.

The American South had a difficult bid to make and elect-ed to overcall with three no-trump. He would have been wis-er to pass four diamonds doubt-less, but he bid five clubs and made eleven tricks to tie the board.

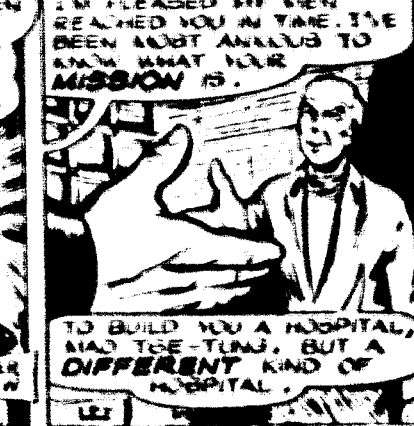

His hearts played by North could have been made, and, in fact, only a spade lead would have stopped seven. But the pre-emptive tactics at both tables made it difficult for North-South to find the best contract and succeeded in blocking out my table. I opened the bidding

YOUR HOROSCOPE

FOR TOMORROW
Some planetary restrictions prevail now. You may be faced with a few minor, but trouble-some, situations at home or in business, but take them in stride. You can avoid a great deal of trouble by shunning friction and being tactful under all conditions.

FOR THE BIRTHDAY
If tomorrow is your birthday, your horoscope indicates that, during the coming year, you will have many opportunities to test your tenacity. Some unusual responsibilities may be thrust upon you but, where others fail, your innate imagi-nation and sound judgment in handling them could bring great prestige as well as career and financial advancement—boons which extraordinarily generous planetary influences for the next nine years should help to advance considerably further. Between now and the end of December, a noticeable upturn in your monetary status will be evident and if you are care-ful to re-evaluate all situations and consolidate gains during January and February, you should be in line position to ex-pand these interests on March 1st, when you will enter an-other excellent 4-month cycle along these lines. Do, however, avoid extravagance and specu-lation in early August, and especially in November and De-cember. Best periods for job advancement: September, No-vember, December and next March.

Personal affairs will also be governed by pleasant influences during the next 12 months, with emphasis on romance between now and late September (an excellent period for all Tau-reans); also in late October and next April. Propitious aspects will govern travel within the next four months; also in Janu-ary and April. Creative work-ers should have an outstanding-ly good year, with notable pe-riods of accomplishment indi-cated in early September, throughout December and next March and April.

A child born on this day will be endowed with unusual cou-rage, independence and a fertile imagination.

TRY AND STOP ME

By Bennett Cerf

AN ARKANSAS lady achieved an audience with Gover-nor Faubus just to tell him, "They sent my husband to jail for three years for stealing one measly ham. I'd like for you to grant him a pardon." "Has he been a decent husband to you?" asked the Governor. "De-cent?" jeered the lady. "He's a no-good bum who beats the children and wastes the few bucks he makes on liquor and poker." "In that case," smiled Faubus, "why do you want him out of jail?"

"Governor," said the lady earnestly, "I feel it's high time we had another ham."

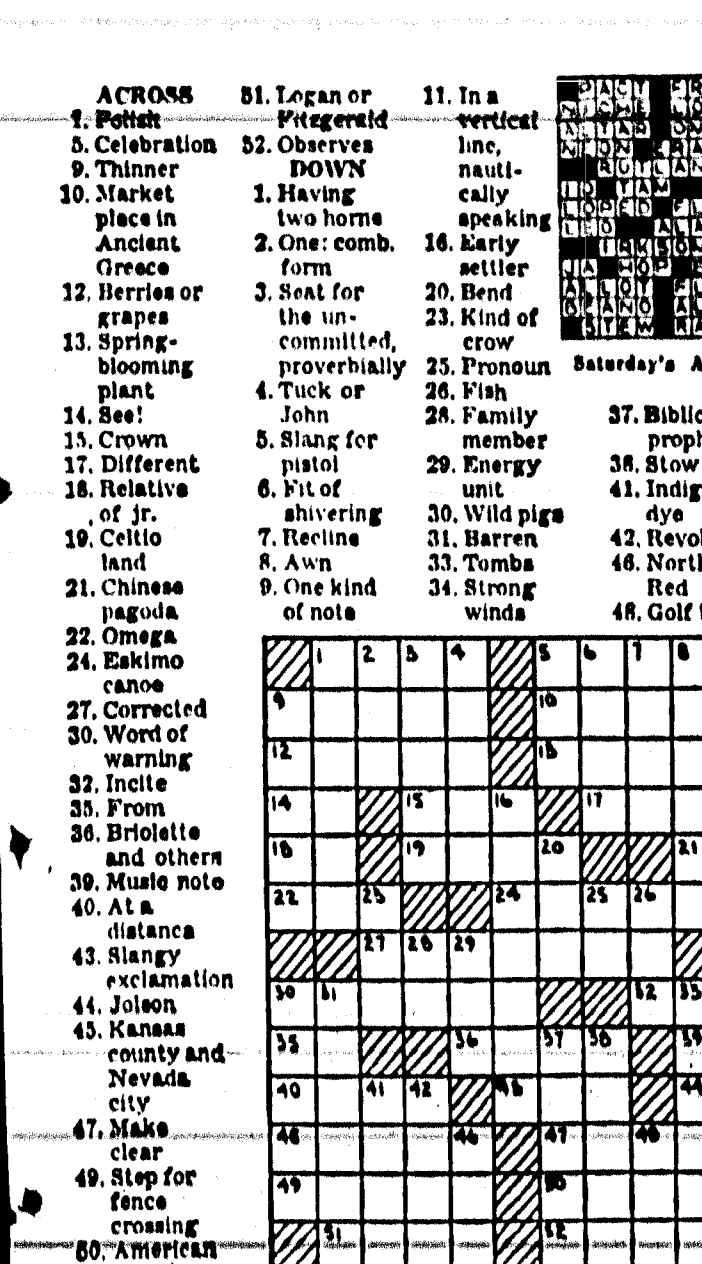

The late David Selznick, the man who made the classic film version of "Gone With the Wind," once determined that Oscar Levant was going to compose the musical score for one of his typically opulent, upcoming productions. "How much?" de-manded the occasionally practical Levant. Countered Selznick cau-tiously, "On how little a week can you live?" "I won't work for that," snapped Levant.

Blunt Warning For Indonesians

JAKARTA (CP) - Indonesia's finance minister gave Parliament a blunt warning today about the country's financial condition.

Sultan Hamengku Borwono, who also is deputy premier, said the state has been reduced to living on credits and declining gold and foreign exchange reserves.

Administration is at a standstill and the country has been forced to conclude short-term loan agreements at high interest rates, he said.

He said there now is a backlog of debt amounting to $177,000,000 in addition to $353,000,000 for 1966.

In Tokyo, it was announced Japan is drawing up plans for a partnership of creditor nations to restore Indonesia's tottering economy.

Erhard And Political Chiefs To Study Reunification Plan

BONN (AP) -Chancellor Ludwig Erhard and leaders of West German political parties try again next week to smooth out their differences over the next step toward German reunification.

The current problem: How to bring leading East German Communists into West Germany even for short visits without their being arrested for confiscating private property, depriving citizens of their civil rights, treason or even murder.

The Communist party itself is illegal in West Germany.

Justice Minister Richard Jaeger, although a strong anti-Communist, said in an interview a special law could be passed to grant safe-conducts as long as they are for a limited time.

One difficulty in getting the law through is that the Socialists are running with the ball on reunification. Erhard's Christian Democrats all are for reunification too, but they don't like to see their opponents winning votes on the issue.

MENTION JULY TARGET
The Social Democrats have been conferring with the East German Communists about holding joint public meetings. The Communists have refused to have them this month and are talking about mid-July. They would organize the first one at Karl Marx Stadt, formerly Chemnitz, in East Germany. It could be the first such meeting in 20 years.

The second would take place in West Germany and that is where the legal trouble would come, said Jaeger.

"Until East German Communist Chief Walter Ulbricht has an assurance he can't be prosecuted on the murder charge that hangs over him, he certainly won't travel to the Federal Republic."

Erhard and Party Leaders Must For Two Hours Friday but Failed to Agree. If They Fail Again Monday the Socialist may introduce their own bill in parliament.

Many West German judges would be ready to issue a warrant to arrest Ulbricht for murder because of the shootings along the Berlin wall.

The Socialists have drafted a bill that would provide full safe conduct. Up to now Erhard's government has taken the line that they can be granted only to people who might be accused of political offences such as treason or endangering the security of the state. In the official view, prosecutors still would have to go after anyone charged with common law crimes.

The smaller Free Democratic party more or less backs the Socialists, even though it is officially part of Erhard's coalition government. Embarrassing Public authorities built 128,000 new houses and apartments in Britain in 1965.

FACES OF FEAR ON VIET NAM WAR

South Vietnamese women cower in a rice paddy and gaze fearfully at a U.S. helicopter as it settles down to take them to a central interrogation point. They, and a man carrying a Viet Cong card, were rounded up by U.S.

25th Division troops in a raid on a Communist stronghold some 25 miles northwest of Saigon. They begged to be allowed to walk, but were put whinpering around the chopper.

GORDON HAS FEAR FOR LIBERALS

Waffling Threat Could Be Fatal

TORONTO (CP)—Walter Gordon says he fears the Liberal party may "waffle" in future between cautious conservatism and deliberate left-of-centre policies.

If it does, said the former federal finance minister, "this might very well be fatal."

He said the Liberal party has three alternatives for the future.

"We can adopt a cautious and conservative approach and try to compete with what may become a more united and potentially rejuvenated Conservative party—a party which in the future may be expected to adopt more traditional attitudes and policies."

"We can adopt deliberately and forthrightly a left-of-centre set of policies clearly stated in this a firm determination to reverse the present trend towards ever increasing foreign control of our economy—in other words, a firm determination to keep Canada free and independent."

STRADDLE FENCE

"The Liberal party can waffle in between these two positions in the hope that by so doing no one will be offended. This is what may happen if as a party we have not agreed upon what we stand for—or if we wish to try to be all things to all men."

"I am afraid the Liberal party may adopt this third course—this waffling approach—without ever consciously realizing or admitting it is doing so. In my view this might very well be fatal."

eral cabinet because he advocated the calling of last fall's election which failed to produce a Commons majority, spoke to the annual meeting of the Ontario Liberal party.

He said he does not believe a waffling, indecisive Liberal party can successfully compete with the New Democratic or Progressive Conservative parties.

Nor could the Liberal party survive by adopting "a clearly conservative approach."

ASKS DECISIONS

He hoped for clear and unequivocal decisions to preserve the Liberal party.

He said the Liberal party should "adopt a frankly progressive line with clearly defined policies on all the issues of the day." The party then should stick to them.

This might mean loss of support from some of the present membership and throw support to the Conservatives. But it also would hold part of the present support and attract the young.

Mr. Gordon urged Liberals to start talking about policies now in preparation for the National Liberal party convention in October.

He also said he believes stories and rumors about the influence of contributors to party funds are exaggerated. But the course "that will remove even the possibility of suspicion or of rumors."

A text of his speech was issued to the press before delivery.

One In Seven Canadians Goofed Over Income Tax

OTTAWA (CP)—One in seven Canadians made a goof in his income tax return this year, Revenue Minister Pearson told the Commons.

A big computer in Ottawa found 1,210,000 errors among 1,100,000 returns, the rejects were sent back to district taxation offices.

Opposition MPs, complaining about the complicated personal tax form, said it's a wonder the average was not higher.

"I feel we cannot simply go on and on putting more and more detail in tax forms which intelligent and thoughtful citizens have great difficulty in understanding," said Richard A. Bell (PC-Carleton).

"I think they have become a statistician's nightmare."

Social Credit and Creditist MPs also pressed Mr. Benson to simplify the form, but he made no promises.

Mr. Bell also wanted to know what right the revenue department had sending back uncertified cheques from employers for payment of regular income tax deductions.

The government insists on certified cheques when payments are made direct to Ottawa.

DEFENDS TAXPAYER

"The minister's day account-ant's mind is simply self-defeating," said Mr. Bell. "The taxpayer in my view, has the right to pay however he likes and he should not be shoved around by the minister."

Mr. Benson replied deductions are being handled increasingly at the local level with payments routed through chartered banks to the government treasury. About 90 per cent of employers liked it that way.

The practice, along with other improvements, led down to one hour's computer time a month work that used to take 600 man-days of work a month.

The Commons approved the department's $94,565,800 spending estimates for 1986-87 in the last minutes of the Friday sitting.

AUTO FACT APPROVED

Earlier in the day the opposition gave grudging approval to the auto trade agreement signed 15 months ago between Canada and the United States. Conservative MPs complained that it is Parliament's right to pass judgment on such agreements before they take effect. But Industry Minister Drury said the pact is within the cabinet's executive authority.

He said automotive production and employment have increased under the agreement although car prices are not yet lower. The final price of cars "is not relevant to this particular agreement."

Under the program, Canadian-made motor vehicles and parts enter the U.S. duty-free zone. Canadian manufacturers may or may not pay a 22.5-per-cent duty on import vehicles and parts on the same basis if they meet a number of conditions.

Production during the first year of the pact totalled $550 million, a 27.5-per-cent increase over 1984. The average number of workers in the automotive industries increased by almost 18,000 workers or 16 per cent.

MENTS AT MOVE

Mr. Drury hinted at a flip side for Canadian manufacturers planning to buy production machinery for expansion of their plants.

In many cases these manufacturers must choose either to invest in

Wall Street Severely Jolted To Steepest Loss Since '62

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market this week was jolted to the steepest weekly loss since the week immediately preceding the Black Monday crash of May 28, 1982.

The 1982 week was the worst on record. Volume of 68,021,800 shares was piled up compared with 58,000,000 the previous week. It was the largest since the record weekly turnover of 55,500,000 in the week ended April 16.

Analysts agreed that statements by federal officials and executives and much to create a hall of uncertainty over Wall Street. These statements, having to do with the anti-inflation drive and the question of possible tax increases in the United States, seemed to pose a threat to the business and financial community.

Even so, the Dow industrials declined this week by 36.85 to 302.83, the sharpest setback since the drop of 58.82 in the 1982 week.

REACHES LOW LEVEL

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks this week fell 17.0 to 331.8, its lowest level.

Pastor Shows Torture Scars

WASHINGTON (AP)—A refugee Lutheran pastor stripped off his clerical garb to the waist at a U.S. Senate hearing Friday to show the torture scars he said were inflicted by the Romanian secret police.

Rev. Richard Wurmbraun, 56, after testifying about religious persecution in his Communist-ruled fatherland, said:

"I'd like to impress myself to my left and show you what a Romanian prison is like."

Pointing to numerous knife wounds on his neck, chest and back and telling of his broken bones, he said:

"I show you the tortured body of my fatherland and my church."

The pastor, a former representative in Romania of the World Council of Churches, said that during years of imprisonment the Romanian secret police had tried to torture him into making "accusatory statements" against bishops and other church leaders.

With his wife sitting beside him and occasionally dabbing her eyes, Mr. Wurmbraun told the Senate internal security subcommittee that "I was not the worst tortured."

"The proof is that I am alive," he said.
