PM Pledges Drastic Cuts

OTTAWA (CP) — Prime Minister Trudeau has promised "drastic" cuts in many areas of public expenditure, coupled with a drive to force cabinet ministers to come up with more productive programs.

The prime minister made the promise at a news conference Friday as he announced cancellation of the winter works program, which has cost Ottawa some $30,000,000 a year for the last decade.

"We will be cutting various important projects, new or ancient," he said.

Just one day earlier the government had announced the scrapping of a $22,000,000 program to build an observatory on Mount Kobay in British Columbia.

On Friday Mr. Trudeau spoke of a need for the "greatest possible restraint" in spending by all levels of government, and declared that the planned federal cuts were no "sham."

Difficult decisions had to be made about which programs and services could be continued, expanded, reduced or eliminated, he said.

The winter works program, begun by the Conservative government of John Diefenbaker, paid half the payroll cost of most capital expenditures undertaken by municipalities in winter.

Mr. Trudeau said the government's planned regional development program will aim to strengthen the whole economic base and increase employment opportunities in a more fundamental way than that of winter works.

More than 300,000 adults would be trained in 1968-69 under an expanded manpower training program, compared with 160,000 in 1964-65.

Kidnapper Had Tough Time Finding Ransom Go-Between

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — The kidnapper of four-year-old Stanley Stafford Jr., telephoned four restaurants in the Los Angeles area before he found a man willing to deliver $250,000 ransom.

Before Harold (Red) Tracton agreed, the caller said of the others: "They all said they didn't want to get involved."

A nerve-racking 36 hours followed by Tracton, 47. The ordeal included 15 hushed phone conversations, the care of a 50-pound satchel containing $250,000 in $20 bills and a lonely drive to the payoff spot with the hope FBI agents were some where near, watching.

At the end Robert Dacy, 39, an exconvict, was wounded and captured Friday in a wild auto chase and gun battle, and the frightened boy was returned to his parents.

Dacy, in hospital with a broken right leg, later pleaded not guilty to two state counts of kidnaping for ransom. He was ordered held without bond with his preliminary hearing set for Sept. 20.

"I took good care of your boy," Dacy told the mother as she arrived at Morningville Hospital where doctors were taking seven stitches in Stanley's leg, cut in a traffic collision that ended the long chase.

"I gave him candy and milk," the youngster still wore the blue bathing suit which he had on Wednesday morning when a man posing as an electrician working next door tied up his mother and kidnapped the boy from the Staffords' $90,000 home.

Home-Coming Humphrey Hears Cheers, Heckling

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey, Minnesota's first major party presidential nominee, arrived home to a mixed greeting of cheers from supporters and heckling from anti-war demonstrators.

Humphrey, fresh from his first-ballot nomination at the Democratic national convention in Chicago, and his running mate, Senator Edmund Muskie of Maine, flew into Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport Friday night, en route to a weekend of rest at the vice-president's lakeside home in nearby Waverly, Minn.

About 250 persons, divided about evenly between Humphrey supporters and backers of his defeated presidential rival, Senator Eugene McCarthy, also of Minnesota, were on hand to greet them.

The mixed reception was similar to many of those Humphrey received in the pre-convention campaign. And the tenor of the crowd indicated that Humphrey's appeals for party unity delivered at the convention and at Friday's meeting of the Democratic national committee had made little impact on those who had backed McCarthy and opposed the Democratic party position on Vietnam.

"We want Gene!" they shouted as Humphrey worked his way along the airport fence shaking hands.

These chants, and others of "Stop the war," frequently drowned out the "We want Hubert" cries from the vice-president's supporters.

Canada's Envoy Takes Chair Of UN Security Council

UNITED NATIONS (CP) — George Ignatieff, Canada's ambassador to the United Nations, will be president of the Security Council for the next 30 days, to provide the leader for the 14-September in Canada's month-long rotation of the 15 member countries in alphabetical order.

The 54-year-old Canadian ambassador will be on call day and night to help solve the world's problems as they arise.

Ignatieff, a tall, imposing figure with a receding hairline and a mustache, will be occupying the president's chair for the second time since he was named in 1966 to the UN ambassadorship.

The Security Council presidency rotates among the 15 member countries in alphabetical order.

Ignatieff, who has been in the Canadian diplomatic service since 1940, has excellent credentials for his UN post, being fluent in English, French and Russian. As a young adviser he helped organize the Canadian UN mission in 1946, and friends said that his appointment as head of the mission 20 years later was especially pleasing to him.

He came here after four years as Canada's permanent representative to the NATO council in Paris. Before that he held diplomatic posts in Washington and London, and—as ambassador—in Yugoslavia.

George Ignatieff is the youngest of three sons of Count Paul Ignatieff, a minister of education under the Russian czarist of Canada.

GEORGE IGNATIEFF
... Canada's turn

who fled to St. Petersburg with his family after the Bolshevik Revolution.

The family went to England when George was five, and later in Montreal when he was 14. Two years later they moved to Toronto where George continued his education, winning a Rhodes scholarship in 1935.

From England's Oxford University, Ignatieff moved to Canadian diplomacy, writing his examinations and becoming an aide to Vincent Massey, then Canadian high commissioner in London and later Governor General under the Russian czarist of Canada.

NEW RUSSIAN THREAT CONFRONTS ROMANIA

THEY'RE JUST MONKEYING ABOUT

Young boys will do anything to get into a photograph... run through sprinklers fully clothed... hand upside down from branches... stage mud-fights with good clothes, and so-on. As soon as the boys above spotted the photographer coming they all came a running shouting "take a picture of us... take a picture of us..." OK," said the Courier photographer. Now about wrestling each other. "Sure thing" was the instant reply. After the pictures had been taken, the boys could still be seen wrestling in grass as the photographer drove away... 'Soul Music' Stirs Riot

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Twelve policemen were injured, one by a gunshot, some young people and two news men hurt, in a five-hour flare-up of violence late Friday and early today.

The violence broke out at a "soul music" dance and spread to the city Negro district.

Eleven policemen and some young people were injured when youths hurled rocks and bottles at the police. None were reported seriously injured.

Police Patrolman Arnold Westphal, 54, was taken to hospital where he was described in "good condition with a bullet wound in his left shoulder."

New Heart Transplant Goes Well In Montreal

MONTREAL (CP) — Elio Zaor, Canada's newest heart transplant, was reported receiving normally eight hours after receiving a new heart at the Montreal Heart Institute.

In a bulletin issued shortly after 10 a.m. today, an institute spokesman said the father of five had regained consciousness and that the transplanted heart "maintains, on its own, excellent blood pressure and circulation."

"Mr. Zaor's immediate post-operative evolution is satisfactory," a spokesman added.

Mr. Zaor, a 58-year-old native of Turkey and resident of Sherbrooke, Que., received his new heart Friday night from Aime Lamothe, 35, a welder from Sorel, Que., who died from a cerebral hemorrhage.

Dr. Pierre Grondin, head of the surgical team that performed all three heart transplants in Canada, said immediately after the operation that "the heart took over in a beautiful fashion."

Dr. Grondin told reporters Mr. Lamothe's hemorrhage was caused by "severe hypertension" that was "secondary" to a kidney ailment dating back several years.

Dr. Zaor had suffered three heart attacks—in 1947, 1955 and last Aug. 20.

Employed by Dominion Textiles in Sherbrooke, Mr. Zaor has been an invalid since May.

Dead Woman Benefits Others

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Teams of surgeons removed the heart, both kidneys and one lobe of a lung from a young shooting victim today and transplanted the organs into four men.

Her eye corneas were removed and placed in an eye bank for possible use later.

Dr. Michael E. DeBakey, internationally famous as the developer of the mechanical heart, headed the operating teams.

Methodist Hospital reported more than 60 physicians, nurses and supporting attendants working as five teams took part in the surgery.

All patients were reported in satisfactory condition several hours after the operations began.

The donor was Nelva Lou Hernandez, 23, of Houston, a hospital spokesman said.

DONOR WAS SHOT

She was shot in the head with a .22-calibre revolver bullet Friday evening. The operations began at 3 a.m. today.

Police reported that the donor's husband, Arthur, 27, said he and his wife quarrelled at their home.

She took the pistol which she intended to take to a pawn shop, said the husband, and declared, "I'm going to shoot myself."

Then she pulled the trigger, he said.

'Don't Start War' LBJ Tells Moscow

BUCHAREST (AP) — Western diplomats and Romanian travellers reported a growing number of Soviet and Bulgarian troops near Romania's borders Friday, rousing fears the Soviet Union might be planning another invasion of a Warsaw pact ally.

In San Antonio, Tex., President Johnson said in a speech there were rumors that the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia might be repeated elsewhere in Eastern Europe and a White House aide said such reports had created anxiety.

Johnson did not mention Romania by name, but reports of a threat to Bucharest, which allied the Soviet Union's campaign to silence Czechoslovak liberalism, have been coming in from many sources.

A group of Romanians returning from a visit to the Ukraine, said they had seen Soviet troops headed toward Romania.

"The roads leading up to the border were clogged with troops heading west," one traveller said.

Long columns of Soviet tanks and artillery were near the Prut River, which forms the border between Romania and the Soviet Union in the east, another said.

Other travellers who crossed into Romania at Albita, said Soviet armor, personnel carriers and guns were massed near the Ukrainian town of Kotovskoje.

Romanian government officials declined comment.

The Soviet press labelled the reports as "provocation."

Romanian leaders, alarmed by the reports, were reported searching for a political settlement to the East European crisis to avert the threat of invasion.

Reliable sources said President Ceausescu offered concessions to the Soviet Union—including renewal of a 20-year friendship and assistance pact—in return for guarantees that Romania would not be occupied.

A formula proposed to the five hard-line members of the Warsaw pact was reported to call for a conference of ruling Communist parties to discuss terms for the withdrawal of occupation forces from Czechoslovakia under an accord to be found with the liberal Prague leadership.

Army In State Of Semi-Alert

But Romanian military and internal security precautions, set up after the Soviet Union, Poland, East Germany, Hungary and Bulgaria invaded Czechoslovakia Aug. 20, remain in effect.

Informed sources said the Romanian Army was on a state of semi-alert with all reserve officers and 60 per cent of other reserve personnel on active duty.

President Nicolae Ceausescu, in a speech at Cluj repeated his call for an early withdrawal of Warsaw pact troops from Czechoslovakia.

MANY DIVISIONS

Soviet troops in the border area has been estimated at between 15 and 27 divisions of armor and motorized infantry.

There also were reports of movements by Bulgarian troops near Ruse, across the Danube River from Giurgiu on Romania's southern border, where a large bridge connects the two.

In a tour of the border area along the Danube River, Western journalists saw no signs of military activity on either side of the river, but noticed there was less traffic than usual on the bridge at Giurgiu.

Outwardly the country remained calm with a general feeling that if Czechoslovakia should give in to Soviet pressure, Romania's position would become more difficult.

Johnson conveyed his warning in a speech shortly after advisers in Washington telephoned him to report on rumors that the Russian military invasion of Czechoslovakia might be followed by similar action against Romania.

EXPRESSES A HOPE

Then the president indicated that he hoped his warning would be heeded by the Soviet leaders.

"There are no questions that I know of," he said, "that cannot be settled and should not be settled by peaceful means, if the governments will only take the time and the patience to try and find the peaceful answers."

"So, let no one unleash the dogs of war,"

Johnson also said he would maintain his efforts to achieve a just and honorable peace in Vietnam.

Czech Government Shuffled In Order To Placate Soviet

PRAGUE (CP)—Liberals who controlled information, education and the secret police were reported on their way out today in a shuffle to make Czechoslovakia's Communist government more acceptable to Moscow.

Associated Press correspondent Carl Hartman reported that Soviet security men had moved behind the scenes to tighten the Russian grip on the country occupied 10 days ago by 350,000 Soviet-blue troops.

Reuters correspondent Lionel Walsh said the Czechoslovak central committee scheduled a meeting today to elect a new 11-man presidium that would include pro-Soviet hard-liners.

Hartman wrote that the Russians were reported putting their own experts in all ministries and into the Czechoslovak Communist party's central committee building.

The Soviet press reported resistance to occupation troops in the country and said "The struggle is far from being over."

The main figure reported on the way out in Premier Oldrich Cernik's government shuffle was Interior Minister Josef Bazel. Under him, the secret police had stayed in the background since Communist party chief Alexander Dubcek began in January leading the nation away from 20 years of Stalinist rule.

There were reports, but no official confirmation, that Pavel already had resigned.

GUARD HIS MINISTRY

Soviet soldiers guarded his ministry and he has not been in his office for 10 days, although he still attends cabinet meetings.

Stanfield Raps Demise Of Winter Works Plan

Opposition Leader Stanfield denounced in Ottawa the government's decision to cancel the winter works program as "unjust and unjustified." Friday. "It is impossible to understand by what bizarre process of reasoning Mr. Trudeau can conclude that the winter works program is unnecessary at a time when 40,000 Canadians, representing 5.5 per cent of the labor force, are unemployed, and face a difficult winter with prospects of increasing unemployment," Mr. Stanfield said in a statement.

Governor Louis Rasminsky of the Bank of Canada announced Friday in Ottawa a cut in the bank rate to six per cent from 6 1/2 per cent, effective Sept. 3. His brief announcement said the cut was "in line with recent developments in Canada and abroad." The bank rate is the rate of interest charged by the Bank of Canada on loans to the chartered banks. They rarely draw such advances, and then only for short periods, but the central bank stands ready to make the advances as so-called lender of last resort in the banking system.

Five queens were among 50 royal mourners at the funeral of Princess Marina, Duchess of Kent, in St. George's Chapel, Windsor, Eng. Friday. The princess, 61, died from an inoperable brain tumor at her London home Tuesday. She was buried alongside her late husband, the Duke of Kent, in the British royal family's private burial ground at Frogmore, a quiet corner of Windsor Great Park.

Mayor Stephen Juba of Winnipeg is said to be seeking to dock Magistrate Ian Dubinski's $17,000 salary on grounds that the magistrate exercises too much leniency in passing out sentences. Ald. Ernest J. Enns, a member of the police commission, told reporters Friday the play would be for the city to withhold its half share of the magistrate's pay. The provincial government makes up the balance.

Dean J. Eyre, New Zealand's new high commissioner to Canada, arrived in Ottawa Friday to take up his post. Mr. Eyre, is a former cabinet minister in the New Zealand government. He succeeds Sir Leon Goets as New Zealand high commissioner here.

LOUIS RASMINSKY ... half a per cent

Stan McCabe, 39, has been appointed Ontario news editor of The Canadian Press, effective Sept. 1.

The government showed a $71,300,000 surplus on financial operations last month. Finance Minister Benson's monthly statement, released Friday, showed that budgetary revenues in July were $870,700,000 and expenditures were $799,400,000. The resulting surplus compared with a deficit of $30,300,000 in July of last year.

A man is being charged in Bombay, India, with murdering 22 persons with knives and crowbars in the last four years, including 12 this month. Police Commissioner E. V. Modak announced Friday at a press conference. Modak said police believe the man, Raman Kaghawar, is a devotee of the Hindu goddess Sideshwari and thought that if he committed 108 ritual murders the goddess would appear in person and conduct him to heaven. But, said Modak, Raman admitted only that his motive was robbery, although his loot was pitifully meagre.

Canadian Students Union Loses Third Of Its Members

GUELPH, Ont. (CP)—The finance commission of the Canadian Union of Students starts work on its budget today minus revenue from a third of its members.

Seven universities withdrew Friday night and five others were expelled after they refused to sign a declaration of commitment to a per-capita levy. The departing universities have about 25,000 students.

The committee clause was written into the constitution by last year's convention in London, Ont. It was designed to give the finance commissioner a guideline in drawing up the budget at the week-long conference.

The levy now averages 75 cents a student. It is expected to rise to $1 although CUS has a surplus of $30,000.

DELEGATES WALK OUT

At the midnight deadline, delegates from Waterloo Lutheran University walked out of the plenary session. CUS President Hugh Armstrong said the University of British Columbia, Mount Allison in Sackville, N.B.; British Columbia's Victoria College, and the University of Manitoba could also be considered seceders.

Earlier Friday, seven other members gave formal notice of withdrawal. They are Notre Dame in Nelson, B.C.; St.

Patrick's College, Ottawa; College de Bathurst, N.B.; Southern Alberta Institute of Technology, Calgary; the Saskatoon Campus of the University of Saskatchewan; the University of New Brunswick at Fredericton, and the University de Moncton.

Ottawa University pulled out Thursday, leaving 27 universities still in the union today.

SEES UNITY

Dee Maxwell, president of the student's council at Ryerson Polytechnical Institute in Toronto, said he was not frightened by the dropouts because it may mean that CUS will develop a unified policy for the first time.

"When I go back to campus they are going to know what CUS views are and they are going to accept them or I'm getting out because I don't want to lead that type of body."

President-elect Peter Warrin said early today the withdrawals may mean a cut in CUS services.

As the dissenting delegates withdrew one after another, Mr. Warrin offered to resign and take the secretariat with him. He said the union had a general mistrust of the relation between schools and the secretariat.

"The per-capita levy which everyone seems hung up about won't be established until we see what the program is."

Premier Bennett has accused Canadian press services of "managing the news" in order to destroy Social Credit in British Columbia and bolster the fortunes of other political parties. Premier Bennett told a news conference that Canadian news outlets favor the federal government, and are always attacking his B.C. administration. He did not identify the news outlets by name. "The point I am making is that press services are managing the news," said the premier. "They always manage not to criticize the federal authorities but they find ways to criticize us."

Rekindle Gift From God That Lies Within You...

Several years before his death, Fritz Kreisler, the famous violinist was hurt in an automobile accident. His best friends tried to tell him that he should never perform in public again. It would only reflect how much of his former skill had been lost through the accident.

Following his convalescence, Kreisler took up his violin again. Carnegie Hall was filled for his first return recital. When he began to play, the people knew that Fritz Kreisler was still a master of the violin. At the close of the concert, they tendered him a standing ovation.

In our life, there is a gift of God. There is something of things that we can and should do. As we discover this gift, we too can make a meaningful contribution to society.

Many young people have a "sour grapes" approach at this point. They say, "if I could play the violin like Fritz Kreisler, or pitch a ball like Sandy Koufax, or skate like Bobby Hull, or pass a football like Kenny Ploen, or have the brains of my classmate—wow! then I too could leave a mark upon the world! But I have no chance; I'm just an average guy—no special talent, nothing that gives me a right to make a noise. I'm just another drop in the bucket. I might as well accept my fate."

It is here that your outlook on life makes a big difference. The man who sees life as an accident, also sees man as tied to a certain fate. If you see life as a creation of God for the ongoing good of all involved, then life becomes dynamic.

The apostle Paul thought of life as continuously demanding our best efforts. In writing to young Timothy, he challenges him to "rekindle the gift of God that is within you . . . for God did not give us a spirit of timidity but a spirit of power and love and self-control." (2 Tim. 1:6-7).

Laboratory tests, as well as the experiences of people in emergencies, show that ordinary people have physical energies which are not called upon under ordinary circumstances. Similarly, there are intellectual and spiritual capacities, often unsuspected, in men and women.

Let us, as men and women of our free society, who have benefited from the teachings of Christ, "not neglect the gift of God within us," but put our talents on the altar of service to help eradicate what is evil in our day, and to build that which is good.

—Rev. John D. Stoetz, Pastor, Kelowna Mennonite Brethren Church.

What Price Discord

The emotional bloodletting within the U.S. Democratic party in Chicago this week will sorely test the party's reputation for healing divisions quickly to win elections. In fact, the convention disagreements may seriously affect the chances of Democrat Hubert Humphrey in his contest for the presidency on November 5th with Republican Richard Nixon, especially as the third party headed by Alabama Governor Wallace is mounting a strong threat.

In 1964 the Republicans tore themselves apart at San Francisco in naming Barry Goldwater and as a result lost disastrously to Lyndon B. Johnson. The roles could be reversed this year by the tribulations and internal friction that was obvious among the Democrats this week.

There is conflict in ideology and conflict of two generations rocking the whole improbable coalition that Franklin D. Roosevelt pasted together first in 1932—a conservative South, labor, academic-intellectuals, the poor and the black.

The Republican party's convalescence toward unity, masterminded by Nixon and so marked at the Miami convention, will be harder to duplicate within the Democrats by virtue of party composition and the changes these elements have gone through.

The Republicans have been for years fewer in number and more homogeneous. Variety, diversity and a talent for consensus or living with basic conflicts have marked the Democratic party.

Their convention was to all appearances controlled by the outgoing President Johnson with an eye on not only continuing but vindicating his Vietnam policy, his opponents say. Those dissidents are among the 40 per cent of the delegates who voted for the so-called peace plank. Johnson's aids included Chicago Mayor Richard Daley, the last of the powerful political bosses. Unprecedented security measures, coupled with the bloody confrontation between Daley's police and anti-war demonstrators Wednesday night, alienated hundreds of convention delegates.

How hard will these people now work for the party, if at all, will remain to be seen. Their hearts and their loyalties were with Senators McCarthy and McGovern and with assassinated Robert Kennedy.

Labor has been a power in the Democratic machine and its muscle was vital in pushing Vice-President Humphrey into the nomination. But that was the labor hierarchy and today there is no longer the certainty that the blue-collar vote will go Democratic.

This is particularly true of the industrial North where backlash against the Negro, first visible in 1964, has grown as a result of city disturbances. George Wallace's third party is the likely gainer.

The academics and intellectuals who characterized the Roosevelt and Kennedy eras no longer seem at home with the Democrats because of Vietnam.

The broadening Negro vote remains with the Democrats because there is no impetus among Republicans to woo it. But Robert Kennedy's assassination removed the strongest link the Democrats had with the Negroes, particularly those in the city slums.

The South? In 1964 Goldwater won only five states, all in the South. That was a Republican breakthrough of a kind in what had been a Democratic preserve. Today the South is being written off by some observers as Wallace's private holding and whether this hits the Republicans or the Democrats will be revealed on November 5th.

The possibility is foreseen of the November election resulting in a no-body-wins decision that the House of Representatives would have to decide.

LEQUIME'S STORE, BUILT 1892

LOOKING BACK WITH OLD STAGER

Lequime Story Part Of Valley's

By ART GRAY

It was in the year 1811 that Eli Lequime was born in the city of Bordeaux, France, on the second day of December, and sailing over France—and a large slice of Europe—at that time was Napoleon Bonaparte, who was yet to meet his Waterloo. Eli became an orphan in his infancy and was raised by an uncle, Anton Lequime, a wine merchant. When he was only 14 years of age, Eli ran away to sea and served for some time as a cabin boy on a windjammer. For over a quarter of a century he followed the sea, and during that time is said to have made four trips around the world.

In the year 1832, while his ship was anchored in San Francisco Bay, reports of the fortunes being made in the gold diggings caused him to jump ship, and set out to join the search for the precious metal, that was drawing thousands of people to California from all over the world. Lequime spent two years searching for gold, with indifferent success, and in 1834 the outbreak of the Crimean War drew him back to his native land to join the French army. He took part in the bloody battle of Inkerman, we are told. Upon his return to France he met his future wife, while travelling from Marseilles to Bordeaux.

He returned to San Francisco in 1836 and set up a hand laundry business and in due course sent for his fiancée, Marie Louise Altabogotto, and they were married upon her arrival at San Francisco.

GOLD RUNS OUT

Soon afterwards they moved to Marysville, north of Sacramento, in the Feather River country. Here he opened a saloon. The gold boom in California was starting to subside, however, and in 1839, hearing of the gold strikes in British Columbia, Eli sold out and in due course embarked with his family aboard the steamer G. W. Elder and arrived five days later in Victoria. From there they took passage to the mouth of the Fraser River. They spent the winter in the Fraser Valley, where Lequime prospected for gold on Strawberry Island. In the spring word was received of gold strikes in the Interior and the family set out over the Hudson's Bay trail. Mr. and Mrs. Lequime on foot, with little Bernard and Gaston riding on the pack horses. They were not travelling alone, but were members of a group, or pack train, heading for the Interior gold fields.

This is borne out by two references in the account in Okanagan Historical Society Report No. 17, which states that "Journeying down the Similkameen River on foot past Princeton to where Hedley now stands, they encountered hostile Indians. They fought them off, and then continued on an further on, when they reached Rock Creek, the report states—"After making camp the men set out to prospect the streams."

The Lequimes remained at Rock Creek for the remainder of 1860 and until October 1861. Tragedy struck the family when the baby, Gaston, was accidentally drowned in a sluice box. Another child was born to the couple while there, and was also named Gaston, and is referred to by Buckland as "the first white child born in the Interior of B.C." While at Rock Creek their son Bernard was kidnapped by Indians. There are two versions of this incident.

Buckland, in Ogoopogo's Vigil states that an inquisitive red man took the boy just to display a white child to his family, and Bernard was returned in a day or two, and there were no hard feelings about the affair. Clinton Atwood, in a story of the early life of the Lequimes that appeared in the Kelowna Courier of Jan. 22, 1942, stated that the three-year-old boy was taken by the Indian from across the border.

INDIAN SLAIN

His absence was not noticed for a time, but when it was, someone told of seeing the American Indian hanging around the store. A pursuit was organized and the boy and the Indian were overtaken near Chesaw, before they got to the border. In the encounter the boy was recovered, but the Indian was killed.

Like so many other mining towns, Rock Creek boomed for a time, and then died, and Lequime found himself with a store on his hands, without any customers, so he decided to pull up stakes once more. The Cariboo was decided upon as their next objective, and they loaded all their possessions, one additional beast of burden was a cow they had acquired while at Rock Creek.

They headed north in October, 1861 but according to most accounts, Lequime was persuaded by Father Pandosy to settle at Okanagan Mission, and abandoned his plan to go to the Cariboo. According to some versions Lequime had extended credit to the miners at Rock Creek, and when the gold played out he was unable to collect, and was almost bankrupt. In any case, they took the advice of the father and settled at L'Anse au Sable, as the area in which the mission had been established was then called.

Lequime built a log cabin 14 by 20 feet, with dirt floor and sod roof. From this rudimentary beginning the gradually built up an extensive ranch and a trading store. There was not actually the first trading post in the area, for John McDougall, a former Hudson's Bay man, had located in the vicinity of the present Gaisachan property in March of that year, and opened a small trading post, stocked with HBC goods, of limited variety.

SOME LUXURIES

Lequime, as he had done previously at Rock Creek, packed in a variety of staple goods from Wall Walla, Wash. Later he ran pack trains over the trail from Hope to the Okanagan, with as many as 30 pack animals, making four and five trips a year. He usually took the first trip each year himself, and continued over by boat to Victoria, to purchase special items not included in the ordinary stock. While the goods brought in were mainly of a staple nature, there were occasions when some unusual luxuries were carried by the pack trains over the mountain trails, including the first piano ever brought into the Valley; the first pool table, and a horse-drawn mowing machine, which was brought in from Fort Hope in separate parts and re-assembled at destination.

Bernard Lequime, the eldest son, writing of these early days said that the fur trade in the Okanagan Mission at his father's trading post was good, and in the sales line fancy shawls and brightly colored handkerchiefs were important items, being in great demand amongst the Indians.

Mail in the early days was carried only once a month, and one of their few contacts with the outer world was a French language newspaper to which his father subscribed, called Le Courier, which was published in San Francisco. His father and mother, he said, were both great readers, and their favorite author was Balzac.

TO YOUR GOOD HEALTH

These Vaccines Sometimes Succeed

By DR. JOSEPH G. MOLNER

Dear Dr. Molner: Please write about vaccine made from sputum and blood from your bronchial tubes, to be given back to you for protection against that same bronchial trouble.—Mrs. J. M.

Vaccines of this type are called autogenous vaccines. They sometimes succeed when other treatments have failed. They are not by any means limited to bronchial trouble, but are used for chronic infections elsewhere in the body, too.

Germs are collected from the infection—from the sputum in this case. Then the germs are cultured—grown, that is—in the laboratory, and modified, killed, or otherwise made into a vaccine.

Then they are given to the patient by injection, starting with extremely small doses, which are very gradually increased.

The basic theory is the same as that of other vaccinations. In the case of the standard vaccines, for smallpox, polio, measles, and so on, the vaccine is modified, or weakened form of the germ which causes a given disease. The dose is not strong enough to cause the disease; it is strong enough, however, to cause the system to start creating antibodies, or substances which protect against that particular germ.

That is the purpose of autogenous vaccine, hoping to help you build up resistance against some particular strain of germ which is bothering you.

Since the appearance of a considerable number of varieties of antibiotics, the autogenous vaccine treatment is not used as much as formerly. One or another of the antibiotics will succeed in suppressing most cases of bacterial infection.

But when that fails—as, for example, if you have acquired a germ that has developed resistance to antibiotics—the autogenous vaccine method may be tried. It is a complicated and time-consuming process, obviously, which is why other methods are tried first.

Dear Dr. Molner: I am 57 and never had tonsils or adenoids removed. At night I breathe through my mouth which causes my tongue to be red, dry, and irritated. Gargling with mouth wash seems to relieve it. Should I see my doctor?—Mrs. A. K.

Unless you want to keep on with this nuisance, I'd see the doctor for a nose-throat specialist to find out what is objectionable.

TODAY IN HISTORY

Aug. 31, 1968 . . .

The Federation of Malaya entered the British Commonwealth as an independent country 11 years ago today—in 1957. The federation, made up of nine Malay states and the British settlement of Penang and Malacca, won self-government despite a political and military crisis spurred by the operations of Communist guerrilla bands from the end of the Second World War.

1960 — Women and children were evacuated from a 100-square-mile area in western Prince Edward Island as fires continued to burn.

1965 — Heavy fighting continued between Indian and Pakistani forces in Kashmir.

First World War

Fifty years ago today—in 1918—German forces retreated on the whole line from Ypres to Soissons; Australian troops seized Mont St. Quentin; British soldiers took Marrières Wood; Campaign on Canal du Nord and Jevigny, above Soissons.

Second World War

Twenty-five years ago today—in 1943—crushing all organized resistance by Danish soldiers, who fought to the last bullet in isolated engagements, German forces began purging Denmark of all subversive elements; British and Canadian bombers blasted Berlin with 1,800 tons of explosives; Rear Admiral Victor Brodeur was appointed commanding officer of the Pacific coast for the Royal Canadian Navy, Sept. 1, 1968 . . .

First World War

Australian forces occupied the railway centre of Pevennie, while British troops took Rancourt and Bouchavesnes; 57,318 prisoners were taken by British soldiers in France during August. It was announced by the British War Office that 17 British air raids were made on German territory during one week.

Second World War

Twenty-five years ago today—in 1943—Russian troops captured Tugurinsk and drove toward the industrial centres of Stalino and the port of Mariupol on the Sea of Azov; Prime Minister Churchill arrived in Washington for discussion which, it was hoped, might lead to a meeting with Russia; Pope Pius XIII in a new plea for peace on the fifth anniversary of the beginning of the Second World War said "the war seems to be reaching its culmination" and "the soul of all people is revolting against violence."

Big Man, Big Thirst Says Scientists

APRIL 19 (UPI)—Tests carried out by the Medical-Legal Society in New Zealand indicate that men who are more likely to be affected by alcohol than big men. The result was indicated after testing the reactions of a group of men who had equal amounts to drink.

Each man was given three double whiskeys followed by a full dinner during which he drank a glass of sherry. Two glasses of water were given after each drink.

After dinner each man drank a small bottle of beer. The volunteers performed various tests, including breathing, blood walking and standing tests. Nobody was classed as drunk but all were affected to some degree.

Bounty Hunter Seeks Snakes

GLENS FALLS, N.Y. (AP)—The bounty hunter, Colt pistol ready, stalks the ledges and woods of the Adirondack Mountains.

The reward: $5 a kill; the penalty for missing: possible death.

Unlike the Old West, however, the prey is not an outlaw with a price on his head. It is the deadly timber rattler, a species of rattlesnake common to the eastern United States.

Today's bounty hunter is typically a 37-year-old Arthur W. Moore of South Bay on Lake Champlain.

Moore, tall and well-conditioned, often walks nearly 30 miles a day through the Adirondacks, climbing ledges and moving rocks, looking for rattlers.

The $5 bounty is paid by the treasurers of Warren and Washington counties, where Moore does most of his hunting.

The best hunting ground is Warren County, where Taconic Mountain, in the town of Bolton on Lake George, is known as "rattlesnake country."

In 1967, Warren County paid $2,130 in snake bounties for 426 rattlesnakes. Moore accounted for 245 of these. Washington County paid $1,166 for 281 snakes.

In the last two weeks in July and the first two weeks of August, Moore killed 78 snakes, averaging nearly $100 a week.

Moore, who has been hunting timber rattlers for 21 years, says snakes won't bother people if left alone. His advice is to keep away from snakes.

DON'T RHODE!

PICHELLED THAT HAPPY? M. J. Peterson says that's his drink, with a red-intellectual combination every year before using her to haul loads to his deer hunting camp. Peterson said he doesn't want to leave to end up on some new hunter's table.

CANADA'S STORY

Maritime Raiders Helped Royal Navy

By BOB BOWMAN

Yesterday's story mentioned the severe drubbing the Royal Navy took from the U.S. Navy at the beginning of the War of 1812. It was the merchants' ships of the Maritimes that helped stem the tide until the defeat of Napoleon made it possible for Britain to send stronger naval units to North American waters.

The Maritime merchant ships were armed and provisioned by the Royal Navy and defeated the Americans at their own game. The Liverpool Packet was one of the most successful Maritime raiders, and captured 30 U.S. ships in a few months.

By the summer of 1814 the situation had changed to such an extent that a British force of 4,000 men sailed up the Potomac, burned the Capitol and other public buildings in Washington, as retribution for American attack on York the previous year.

Then Sir John Shepperson, the military governor of Nova Scotia, attacked the coast of Maine with a naval squadron and 1,800 troops. They entered the Penobscot River on Aug. 31, 1814, and had little difficulty capturing Castine, Hampden, and Bangor. By Sept. 10, 1814, Maine was occupied by British troops.

The British path of allegiance in Britain. They had always been opposed to the war and wanted to resume trade with the Maritimes.

Trade picked up to such an extent that the British made £13,000 from customs houses in Maine before the war ended. When Maine was returned to the U.S. by the Treaty of Ghent, the £13,000 was placed in a special account in Nova Scotia called the Castine Fund, and was used eventually to found Dalhousie University.

OTHER EVENTS ON AUG. 31:

1670—Hudson's Bay Company party arrived at Nelson River to establish trading posts.

1674—Beggans were ordered to leave Quebec. This was the result of a drive by five women.

1691—Ship "William and Mary" defeated seven French warships at Ferryland, Newfoundland.

1696—England recaptured Fort Nelson that had been taken by Pierre Le Moyne d'Iberville in 1694.

1825—Tea was brought directly to Canada from India and helped to check smuggling from U.S.A.

1851—Montreal and Champlain Railway opened to Roussau Point.

1859—British Columbia adopted Gold Fields Act.

1863—First issue of Calgary Herald.

1950—Railway service resumed after strike.

1964—Federal Provincial Conference at Charlottetown re-elected Confederation Conference of 1864.

Lutherans Start New Church

Members of the First Lutheran Church will hold a sod-breaking ceremony Sunday at 2:30 p.m. to mark the start of construction of a new church building.

To be located at the corner of Bernard Avenue and Burch Road, the $110,000 church will include a parish hall and Sunday school facilities. April, 1969 has been set as a target completion date.

Present facilities, a small but attractive church at the corner of Richter Street and Doyle Avenue, have become inadequate for the growing congregation under the pastorate of Rev. Louis Liske.

Church Vacation Draws Women

GODERICH, Ont. (CP) — Twenty-one women, all of them divorced, separated or widowed, this week are enjoying the first vacation most of them have been able to afford in years.

And it's all the brainstrom of Rev. William Stewart, a United Church minister from Stratford, 50 miles southeast of this Lake Huron community.

The women—and 61 children—are spending a five-day holiday at a nearby camp. Sponsored by the United Church, but non-denominational, the camp offers a break for the women at the low fee of $12 for each woman and $8 for each child between eight and 12, with children under eight free.

Mr. Stewart convinced his Perth-Huron presbytery of the merit of a camp for women who otherwise might not be able to afford one, then held discussions with Children's Aid Societies in the area.

Recalling his work with 10 women in his own parish of St. John's in Stratford for the last two years, Mr. Stewart said that for these women "the financial stringencies are difficult."

"They operate on a tight budget and the only way they can live is by dispensing with vacations and new clothes."

These women cannot afford the commercial camp fees of $80 to $100 a week. The flyer advertising the camp advised those who cannot afford the camp's prices to "let us know—we have some generous friends."

THE CHURCHES OF KELOWNA

Trinity Baptist Church, the second in a weekly series on Kelowna's churches, was organized in 1961 in the long, low building at Sutherland Avenue and Burch Road. Beginning with 71 charter members, the church had as its pastor Rev. Erdman Nikkel, now retired in the city. His place was taken in 1964 by

Rev. John Wollenberg, the church's present pastor. The present congregation of 193 are proud of their church's work with children, which includes Sunday school and other weekly activities. A chorus choir, the church band and a male chorus (which has won first prize twice at the Okanagan Music Festival) are expressions of the congregations' musical predilections. Plans are at present under way to enlarge the building by adding a main sanctuary, capable of accommodating 450 people. Construction will begin late this year or in early 1969.

Wall May Split German Church

WEST BERLIN (Reuters) — The All-German Protestant Church, one of the last links between East and West Germany—may dissolve into separate churches in the two German states.

The East German government has refused to cooperate with Bishop Friedrich-Wilhelm Krummhaefer of Greifswald, who until last month headed the conference of Protestant bishops in East Germany, because he repeatedly came out in favour of preserving church unity in all Germany despite the fact that the two states are separated by a wall.

Last month the eight East German church provinces elected as their chairman Bishop Niklot Beste of Schwerin, who has hitherto not been too closely linked to the All-Germany Protestant Church Council.

Protestants, who form about three-quarters of East Germany's religious population, have been at odds with the Communists since the Second World War.

Catholic Bishops To Discuss Pill

OTTAWA (CP) — Pope Paul's encyclical on birth control is to be discussed by the Canadian Catholic Conference of Bishops at its semi-annual meeting starting Sept. 23 in Winnipeg, the conference said today.

The conference is the association of Roman Catholic cardinals, archbishops and bishops of Canada.

The five-day Winnipeg meeting is the first the conference has held outside Ottawa and will mark the 150th anniversary of the arrival of Roman Catholic missionaries in Manitoba.

An agenda released by the conference shows the meeting will deal with a number of subjects in addition to the birth control encyclical.

They include the role of priests in modern society and the proposal to bring back deacons to help priests in their duties.

FASHION SHOWS TO HIGHLIGHT LOOK IN

Standing on the construction site of the Kelowna General Hospital are two models who will be seen at the fabulous "Look In" to be presented at the Memorial Arena on Sept. 13 and 14 by the Junior Hospital Auxiliary. Four spot fashion shows will be featured at 2:30, 3:30, 7:30 and 8:30 p.m. each day, with Mrs. John P. Currell acting as fashion co-ordinator. Dale Wentworth will be at the organ, and the commentators will include

Mrs. David Chapman, Al Jensen and David Sparrow. The fashion story for fall is lavish with fur everywhere, and Mrs. L. S. Partridge, left, who is a member of the auxiliary, is shown modelling the chic tweed look. Her suit of emerald green and enamel blue is woven diagonally to enhance the nubby effect, and it has a tunic style jacket buttoned at the side. The suit features a removable fox collar and the skirt is played straight—perfect for fall and winter. More fabulous fur encircles the ultra feminine coat modelled by Mrs. Thomas Finklestein, right. The material of the coat is wool velvet in a scrumptious bottle green, and the wrap around styling brings you glamor right out of Dr. Zhivago. Be sure to look in at the "Look In" for fashions and other exciting ideas.

Productive Hobbies Needed To Fill Future Spare Time

Each year, unseen and unheralded, thousands of Canadians work diligently on their hobbies. The results of their labors are seldom seen, simply because there are few outlets for this kind of display.

However, every year, the Women's Division of the Canadian National Exhibition invites sculpturers, woodcarvers, leather workers, sewers and knitters to compete with each other and show their wares.

"Economists tell us," says Elsa Jenkins, manager of the Women's Division, "that the shorter work day and work week is nearly upon us and that North Americans will have to find other ways of occupying their time than by working. It has been suggested that productive hobbies will answer at least in part, the problem of filling time. The results of our competitions will give the thousands of visitors to the CNE an idea of what those interested in handicrafts and homecrafts can do, and possibly encourage them to take up the hobby of their choice."

This year, over 3,500, including blind people, have entered the competition, in which prize money totals $6,000. The 760 prize-winning items come from centres across Canada, the United States and Europe. They will be on display, along with the 310 prize-winning art exhibits from the annual school art competition at the Better Living Centre, CNE, from Aug. 15 to Sept. 2.

An Okanagan winner of two second prizes in the competition is Mrs. J. Wytenburg, 310 Cambie Road, Rutland.

CONSTABLE AND MRS. KENNETH BEATON DAVIS

Davis-Brunéau Wedding Held At St. Paul's United Church

Bouquets of white and yellow gladioli graced St. Paul's United Church on August 23 at 7:30 p.m. for the wedding of Dora Marquerite Brunéau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Brunéau of Falher, Alta. and Const. Kenneth Beaton Davis, of Kelowna, son of Mrs. H. Davis and the late Harry Davis.

Rev. F. H. Golithly officiated at the pretty evening ceremony and the soloist, Mrs. Golithly, sang "Because" accompanied by Miss Jean Gibson. Given in marriage by her brother Rene Brunéau the bride wore a street-length, shell of Swiss lace over a gown of beau elegance featuring bell-shaped sleeves. Her headdress was natural stephanotis, and she carried a bouquet of orchids intermingled with stephanotis.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Const. and Mrs. Ken Davis where the mother of the bride received wearing a dress of brown brocade, a smart white hat and a corsage of yellow and white roses. The groom's mother, who assisted her, chose a turquoise dress complemented with a hat of brown lace and a corsage of pink roses.

The bride, proposed by Jerry Riggeley, was ably answered by the groom, and the best man gave the toast to the matron of honor.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis of Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. J. Boisvert of Falher, Alta.; Mr. and Mrs. Renie Brunéau of Duncan; Mr. and Mrs. Ramstead of High Prairie, Alta.; Mr. and Mrs. L. Folkman of Revelstoke; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pickles of Blue River and Cpl. and Mrs. A. Millhouse of Clearwater.

The bride and groom will reside in the Belgo.

ANN LANDERS

Easier And Cheaper To Do It Yourself

Dear Ann Landers: You recently published a letter from a woman who said she would rather starve to death than return to housework. The gal listed several complaints—principally the extra things she had to do which were not housework, such as wash the car, repair the plumbing, shampoo the dog, mow the lawn, shovel the snow and so on. You were most sympathetic and invited your readers to present the "other side of the story—if there is one."

Well, there is one, and here it is. Two years ago I went to the expense of bringing a so-called housekeeper over here from another country. Within 60 days, she had boiled the plastic egg timer with the eggs, tried to straighten the curved grapefruit knife with my pliers, put the rubber bathtub mat in the clothes dryer and ruined the motor, boiled a leg of lamb in deep water in the oven, and polished my silver service with steel wool. I could go on, but I think you have the picture.

Thanks in advance for printing the "other side."

—EASIER TO DO IT MYSELF
Dear Easier: Yes, and cheaper, too. Thanks for writing.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a mother of three active children and I seem to be working my tail off from morning till night. I am not complaining. I love my husband, my kids and my home. My problem is my sister-in-law.

"While you're getting your groceries, please get mine." What do you think of this? LIZETTE'S PATSY

Dear Patsy: I think Lizette has found herself a free babysitter, a grocery shopper, and all-around chum. But the question isn't what I think, it's what you think, and apparently you think it's fine or you'd have done something about it.

Dear Ann Landers: I married an immature, hot-tempered, lazy, lying scoundrel against the advice of my family, friends, my clergyman and you. After six months of hellish fighting and being called every name under the sun, I told him (through the bandages) that I wanted a trial separation—three months.

The three months were over last week. I realize now that I must have been crazy to have married that loon and crazier still to have put up with his cruelty. I am filing for divorce tomorrow.

The question: Should I return the wedding gifts? Some of them are still in boxes.

—ALIVE AT LAST
Dear Alive: The wedding gifts belong to the wife unless she makes a special agreement with her husband as part of the divorce settlement.

Information Service Tells Consumer What To Watch For

OTTAWA (CP) — Manufacturers have called exuberant Eleanor Ordway the "consumer's protector" and the "housewife's friend."

Miss Ordway, director of the new consumer service and information division of the consumer affairs department, couldn't be more pleased at the pat on the back from people who might, in some lights, be considered her opposition.

Miss Ordway, 50, has the kind of warm personality which can completely captivate a person and yet leave them with the impression that she can be decidedly firm when it suits her.

"I'd like to see the consumer be more discriminating," she said in an interview in her bright, modern office. "So many people, when they go to buy a carpet, ask for broadloom, for example. All that means is that it's broad and it's loomed."

"If you're buying a carpet—a considerable investment—find out something about carpets. Go to a reliable manufacturer who you know will be in business two or three years from then when your carpet begins to wear. Ask questions."

The new consumer information and service division is not going to tell the consumer what to buy, she said—just what to watch for.

COMPLAINTS POUR IN
The department's new service—"The Consumer, Box 99, Ottawa, Ont."—has, however, received complaints and enquiries from consumers in all parts of Canada.

"There are a tremendous number of men writing in about cars, power mowers and clothing," Miss Ordway said, pointing out the fact that women aren't the only concerned consumers.

"One of our responsibilities is to deal with complaints not coming under any government authority, either federal or provincial."

When the division gets an enquiry or complaint concerning something under provincial jurisdiction, it gets in touch with the consumer protection service in that province.

In other cases, Miss Ordway notifies the manufacturer of a complaint involving his products and asks him to comment.

"I want to make sure I get both sides of the story. If there is an injustice, fine. We will do all we can to correct it."

"If there's an injustice, the manufacturers know I'll be tough, but I'll be fair," says Miss Ordway who, nevertheless, is not hesitant to tell them: "Make no mistake about it. I'm here for consumers."

The division can only help so much, she cautions. The consumer has to help herself.

FILM DISCUSSION PROGRAMMES

A series of film and film discussion programmes co-sponsored by the National Film Board and other organizations. Films, speakers, panels, questions from the audience, and general discussion. No fees—silver collection. Start at 8:00 p.m. in the Kelowna Secondary School. Why not come along and take an active part in the discussions? Associated reading lists provided by the Okanagan Regional Library.

A. CHALLENGE FOR CHANGE — Behind the skyscrapers of our cities, beyond the highways which streak across our rural areas, lies poverty. Obscured by the outward signs of affluence, some five million Canadians live in deplorable conditions. Their lives are impoverished; they are in poor health; they are limited by their education; they are trying to sustain themselves on inadequate incomes. They lack dignity. They lack hope. For most of them — and the number is growing — poverty is all that one generation leaves to the next.

In collaboration with other agencies and departments of the Government of Canada, the National Film Board has embarked on a programme of films designed to serve as a basis for discussion of our society's most serious problem. Tuesday evenings.

October 22—Films—"The Things I Cannot Change" "Pow Wow at Duck Lake."

October 29—Films—"Indian Dialogue" "Encounter with Saul Salinky"

B. NEW HORIZONS IN EDUCATION — A continuation of the popular "Child of the Future" series sponsored last winter and again this year by the Kelowna Branch of the Okanagan Valley District Teachers' Association and the National Film Board. New Horizons in Education will delve further into the alternate approaches to education being suggested today. Through the use of speakers, panels and film, these programs will attempt to present to the public an analysis of some of these different learning methods. Tuesday evenings.

November 5—The Free School—a discussion of the new introductory private schools, and schools operated by the Company of Young Canadians. We hope that a director from one of the free schools in Vancouver will be the main speaker.

November 12—The Student Oriented School— an analysis of recent attempts to allow the students a greater degree of freedom and responsibility in the operation of their schools. A panel of teachers and students involved in such attempts, as well as film, will assist in the presentation of this topic.

November 19 — Are Teachers Necessary! — Will machines replace teachers in the education of our youth? How effectively can machines educate our youth? A representative from a computer firm will be included on the panel. Films will be used to aid discussion.

C. FRENCH CANADA TODAY — A two-part series designed to present a colorful and penetrating look at modern Quebec. Moderator Mr. Art Dawe. Wednesday evenings.

In addition to the exciting changes taking place in La Belle Province through the quiet revolution, there is still the classical rural charm of New France. Well informed speakers and National Film Board films will assist in this entertaining portrait of French Canada.

November 27 — THE COUNTRY — a colorful tour of some of the most beautiful and exciting parts of Quebec. Films: "Ville Marie"; "Down Through the Years"; "Charlevoix". Other films to be announced.

December 4—THE PEOPLE—a look at "les habitants" and their way of life. Films: "Visit to a Foreign Country"; "Buy Low—Sell High" (clips); "Vaillancourt" (clips); "The Merry World of Leopold Z" (clips). Other films to be announced.

D. HISTORY OF ART—Another popular art film discussion sponsored by the Kelowna Art Exhibit Society. Details of films and speakers will be announced later. Three Thursday evenings, January 23, 30, plus February 6.

E. AUTOMOBILE RACING, SPORTS CAR RALLIES, DEFENSIVE DRIVING — Sponsored by the Okanagan Auto Sports Club. Enjoy these films and discussion and then consider joining a progressive Auto Sports Club. Three Tuesday evenings. Films—

February 18—"The Heroic Days of Auto Racing" (1902-1914); "The Golden Age of Auto Racing" (1920-1929); "Coupe des Alpes" (The world famous Alpine Rally).

EDUCATION IS FOR THE BIRDS

(The birds who want to get ahead)

Anybody who thinks going to school is kid stuff . . . has got to be kidding. Never before has a good education been so essential in getting good jobs and earning good money as it is right now.

And yet, many people still think a good education is a luxury they can afford to do without. The fact is . . . to get a good job today, you need a good education.

A good education qualifies you for a better job to start with. A better salary too. And a future that keeps paying-off year after year.

So, get a good education. You can't get ahead without one. If you're in school now . . . stay there! Learn all you can for as long as you can. If you're out of school, find out how to get valuable training outside the classroom.

(See today's adult education curriculum in the Kelowna Daily Courier and submit your registration form now.)

To get a good job, get a good education

CANADIAN RADIO-TELEVISION COMMISSION OTTAWA, CANADA

KELOWNA, B.C. — DECISION CRTS 68-39

Application by OKANAGAN VALLEY TELEVISION CO. Ltd., licensee of Stations CHBC-TV, Kelowna, B.C. and eight television rebroadcasting stations for permission to transfer 10,002 common shares of capital stock from Mr. Roy G. Chapman (9.957) and Mrs. A. M. Chapman (45) to British Columbia Television Broadcasting System Ltd. Messrs. J. R. Peters and Roy G. Chapman would each hold one of the shares to qualify them as directors.

Decision: APPROVED

REASONS: The CRTS maintains concern regarding concentration of ownership of communications media. It is convinced that equitable balance of ownership is a form of guarantee for safeguarding community interests and sustaining the presentation of vital news and informational services.

In addition to criteria already expressed by the BBG in various licensing decisions, the CRTS has four points of consideration used in making decisions regarding ownership of broadcasting outlets:

1. The balance between shareholders from the community and shareholders from outside the community to be served by the station.
2. The balance on the Board of Directors of the company between members of the community to be served by the station and other members of the Board.
3. The capacity of the company — as demonstrated by the structure of ownership and by the composition of the Board of Directors — to understand the characteristics of the community to be served and to meet the various needs of that community.
4. Extent of ownership of other commercial undertakings which might influence the performance of broadcasting stations.

The Commission recognizes, as well, the need for adequate economic resources in the natural development and expansion of broadcasting.

The decision to allow the transfer of shares of CHBC-TV, Kelowna, B.C., to British Columbia Television Broadcasting System Ltd., is directly related to a normal need for expansion and improvement of general broadcasting service as well as assurance of the continued capacity of local participation as a safeguard for community interests.

F. K. FOSTER, Secretary.

Vernon Airport Plan Studied With Regard To Right-Of-Way

VERNON (Special) — Vernon city council's airport committee is dealing with a letter from the department of highways, Victoria, with regard to the right-of-way, vicinity of Swan Lake, airport. The council committee has been instructed to make recommendations.

The letter is from Deputy Minister H. T. Miard, and asks if the site is suitable for an airport for a city the size of Vernon, as, according to Mr. Miard's letter, the site "would appear to have definite limitations."

However, if council feels this is the correct site, the department would consider leasing the land to the city for use as an airport, with seven conditions, which follow:

- (1) The development is under the auspices of the city of Vernon, with a minimum of one-third financial involvement by the city, with a city representative on the board of directors.
- (2) The site can qualify as a licensed airport within a reasonable period of time under Department of Transport Regulations and approval.
- (3) The development of these facilities in no way conflicts with the established pheasant management farm and proposed bird sanctuary.
- (4) There is no conflict with the Lands Department Map Reserves.
- (5) Such a proposal meets with Regional Planning proposals.
- (6) Steps have been taken to acquire the necessary abutting property.
- (7) Lease would have to be in the name of the city of Vernon.

Mr. Miard states that before proceeding further, he must be

HIT BY FLOODS

MANILA (AP) — More than 59,000 persons have suffered from the floods which swept areas of Tarlac and Bulacan provinces north of Manila, Red Cross headquarters said Friday. The Manila Daily Mirror said more than 22,000 persons faced famine in six Tarlac towns because of the floods, and diseases have broken out in the areas.

NOW SHE'S ROYALTY

BRITT, Iowa (AP) — The Pennsylvania Kid and Boxcar Myrtle were elected king and queen of the hoboes at the 68th annual hobo convention. Boxcar Myrtle—whose real name is Myrtle French—claimed her father was a millionaire. She was the unanimous choice for queen—no other females showed up.

QUESTION: Where the tub porcelain meets the wall, the cement is not only quite rough but broken in several places. As a result, whenever I take a shower, water leaks out onto the bathroom floor. What can I do? The landlord of this two-family house only shrugs and looks faintly amused.

ANSWER: He'll laugh on the other side of his face when this develops into a leak that pours down through the ceiling into his apartment. To stop both from happening, though, get a tube of tub caulk and spread it to cover the joint thoroughly, for its full length. This never dries out, so it will keep any cracks and open seams tightly closed. At any hardware store of plumbing supply house.

HOUSE PAINT REMOVERS
QUESTION: Please tell me various ways to have old house paint removed. I am afraid of having it burned off, even though the painter assures me he can do it safely.

ANSWER: The fastest, best, easiest and most expensive way is having a building cleaning contractor sandblaste. (Get an estimate; you may be pleasantly surprised). Electric paint scrapers are not, I've found, as quick and easy as the ads would have you believe. They work, however. An orbital or oscillating sander will do too. Softening the paint removed, then scraping with a putty knife is also okay, but very slow and tedious.

TOO MUCH GROUT

QUESTION: "Two weeks ago I put one-by-one inch ceramic tiles on my kitchen wall, behind the counter and sink. In doing so, I got far too much grout between the tiles, and I didn't wipe it off well enough. Now it has hardened and looks terrible. What can I do now?"

ANSWER: Sure 'is too bad you didn't get it all wiped off while it was wet. About all you can do is try very gentle and patient urging with a putty knife. Too much enthusiasm or impatience can result in scratching.

WHITE SPOT ON HARDWOOD

QUESTION: When I lifted a damp rug off my hardwood floor there was the beginning of a white spot, like under wet glasses left on a table top. What will remove this?

ANSWER: Very often, at this stage of the game, turpentine will get it out. If not, resort to the same treatment as for those white rings or spots left by hot dishes: Dampen a felt pad with camphorated oil and rub patiently, following the grain. If necessary, add a little powdered rottenstone as a mild abrasive. This is not a five-minute repair.

ROOM EASY TO DIVIDE

QUESTION: Our ground floor bedroom is really too large for us. What would be the easiest way to put up a divider, to make two smaller rooms, the other for dressing?

ANSWER: Simple carpentry. Nail a two by four along the floor and another to the ceiling directly overhead, where you want the partition. At 16-inch intervals, nail vertical two by fours for the framework. Then cover the framework with wall-board, plasterboard, plywood, Masonite or other panelling. Paint or paper, unless you decide on factory-finished panelling.

HOW TO FIX CRACKS

QUESTION: There are many cracks in our poured concrete basement wall, ranging from hair-line cracks to nearly 1/8 inch. Where can I get instructions on repairing these?

ANSWER: Write to Portland Cement Association, either your local branch or the main office at 33 West Grand Ave., Chicago 60610. They will be glad to supply free detailed how-to's for these repairs. However, for the hairline cracks, you can quickly and easily plug them by painting over with a heavy-bodied waterproofing masonry paint called "Tite".

DEODORIZE FREEZER

Still another sure-fire method comes in about how to get a fishy smell out of a freezer. Sounds good, too. It comes from an anonymous friend.

"My mother-in-law handled her problem this way. Boil a large amount of vinegar, for at least two or three minutes. Place the open pan in the freezer and close the door. Leave two or three days. Fishy smell is gone."

U.S. Surplus Of Trade Fades And Seem Unlikely To Return

WASHINGTON (CP)—The United States trade surplus—money in the bank from the goods and services sold abroad—may be a thing of the past.

American affluence and its appetite for foreign goods ranging from autos to typewriters, cameras and exotic foods may be on the verge of turning the country into a chronic importer of more items than it sells.

But instead of slipping into the same dilemma as Britain, for example, which now lacks the money to go on buying more than it sells, the U.S. is increasingly a coupon clipper.

It owns the factories abroad turning out many imported items.

U.S.-owned assets total more than $90,000,000,000 around the world.

Moreover, foreign investors tempted by the profit-making capacity of American corporations are increasingly active in the U.S. stock market. That's another source of strength as the U.S. continues to battle its dollar drain—the seepage of more gold and dollars abroad for defence, overseas investment, tourism or foreign goods than it takes in.

Treasury Secretary Henry Fowler touched on some of these points recently in describing how the dollar drain for April, May and June was down sharply to about $150,000,000 compared with $660,000,000 for the first three months of 1968.

Assistance from U.S. exports in the fight against the dollar drain was a mere $13,000,000 compared with such whopping annual trade surpluses as $6,600,000,000 in 1964.

Big but admittedly one-shot contributions came from Canadian and West German agreements to "convert holdings of U.S. dollars into special non-marketable American government bonds."

Bennett Trip Goes Further

VICTORIA (CP) — Premier W. A. C. Bennett, scheduled to leave British Columbia Saturday on a three-week European visit, has added three more countries to his itinerary.

In addition to Britain and Holland, which were the stops he announced previously, plans to make a short visit to Austria, followed by first-time visits to Spain and Portugal.

The purpose of his annual European trip, Mr. Bennett told a news conference, is to interpret B.C. abroad and spread goodwill while trying to attract foreign investment and find new markets for B.C. products.

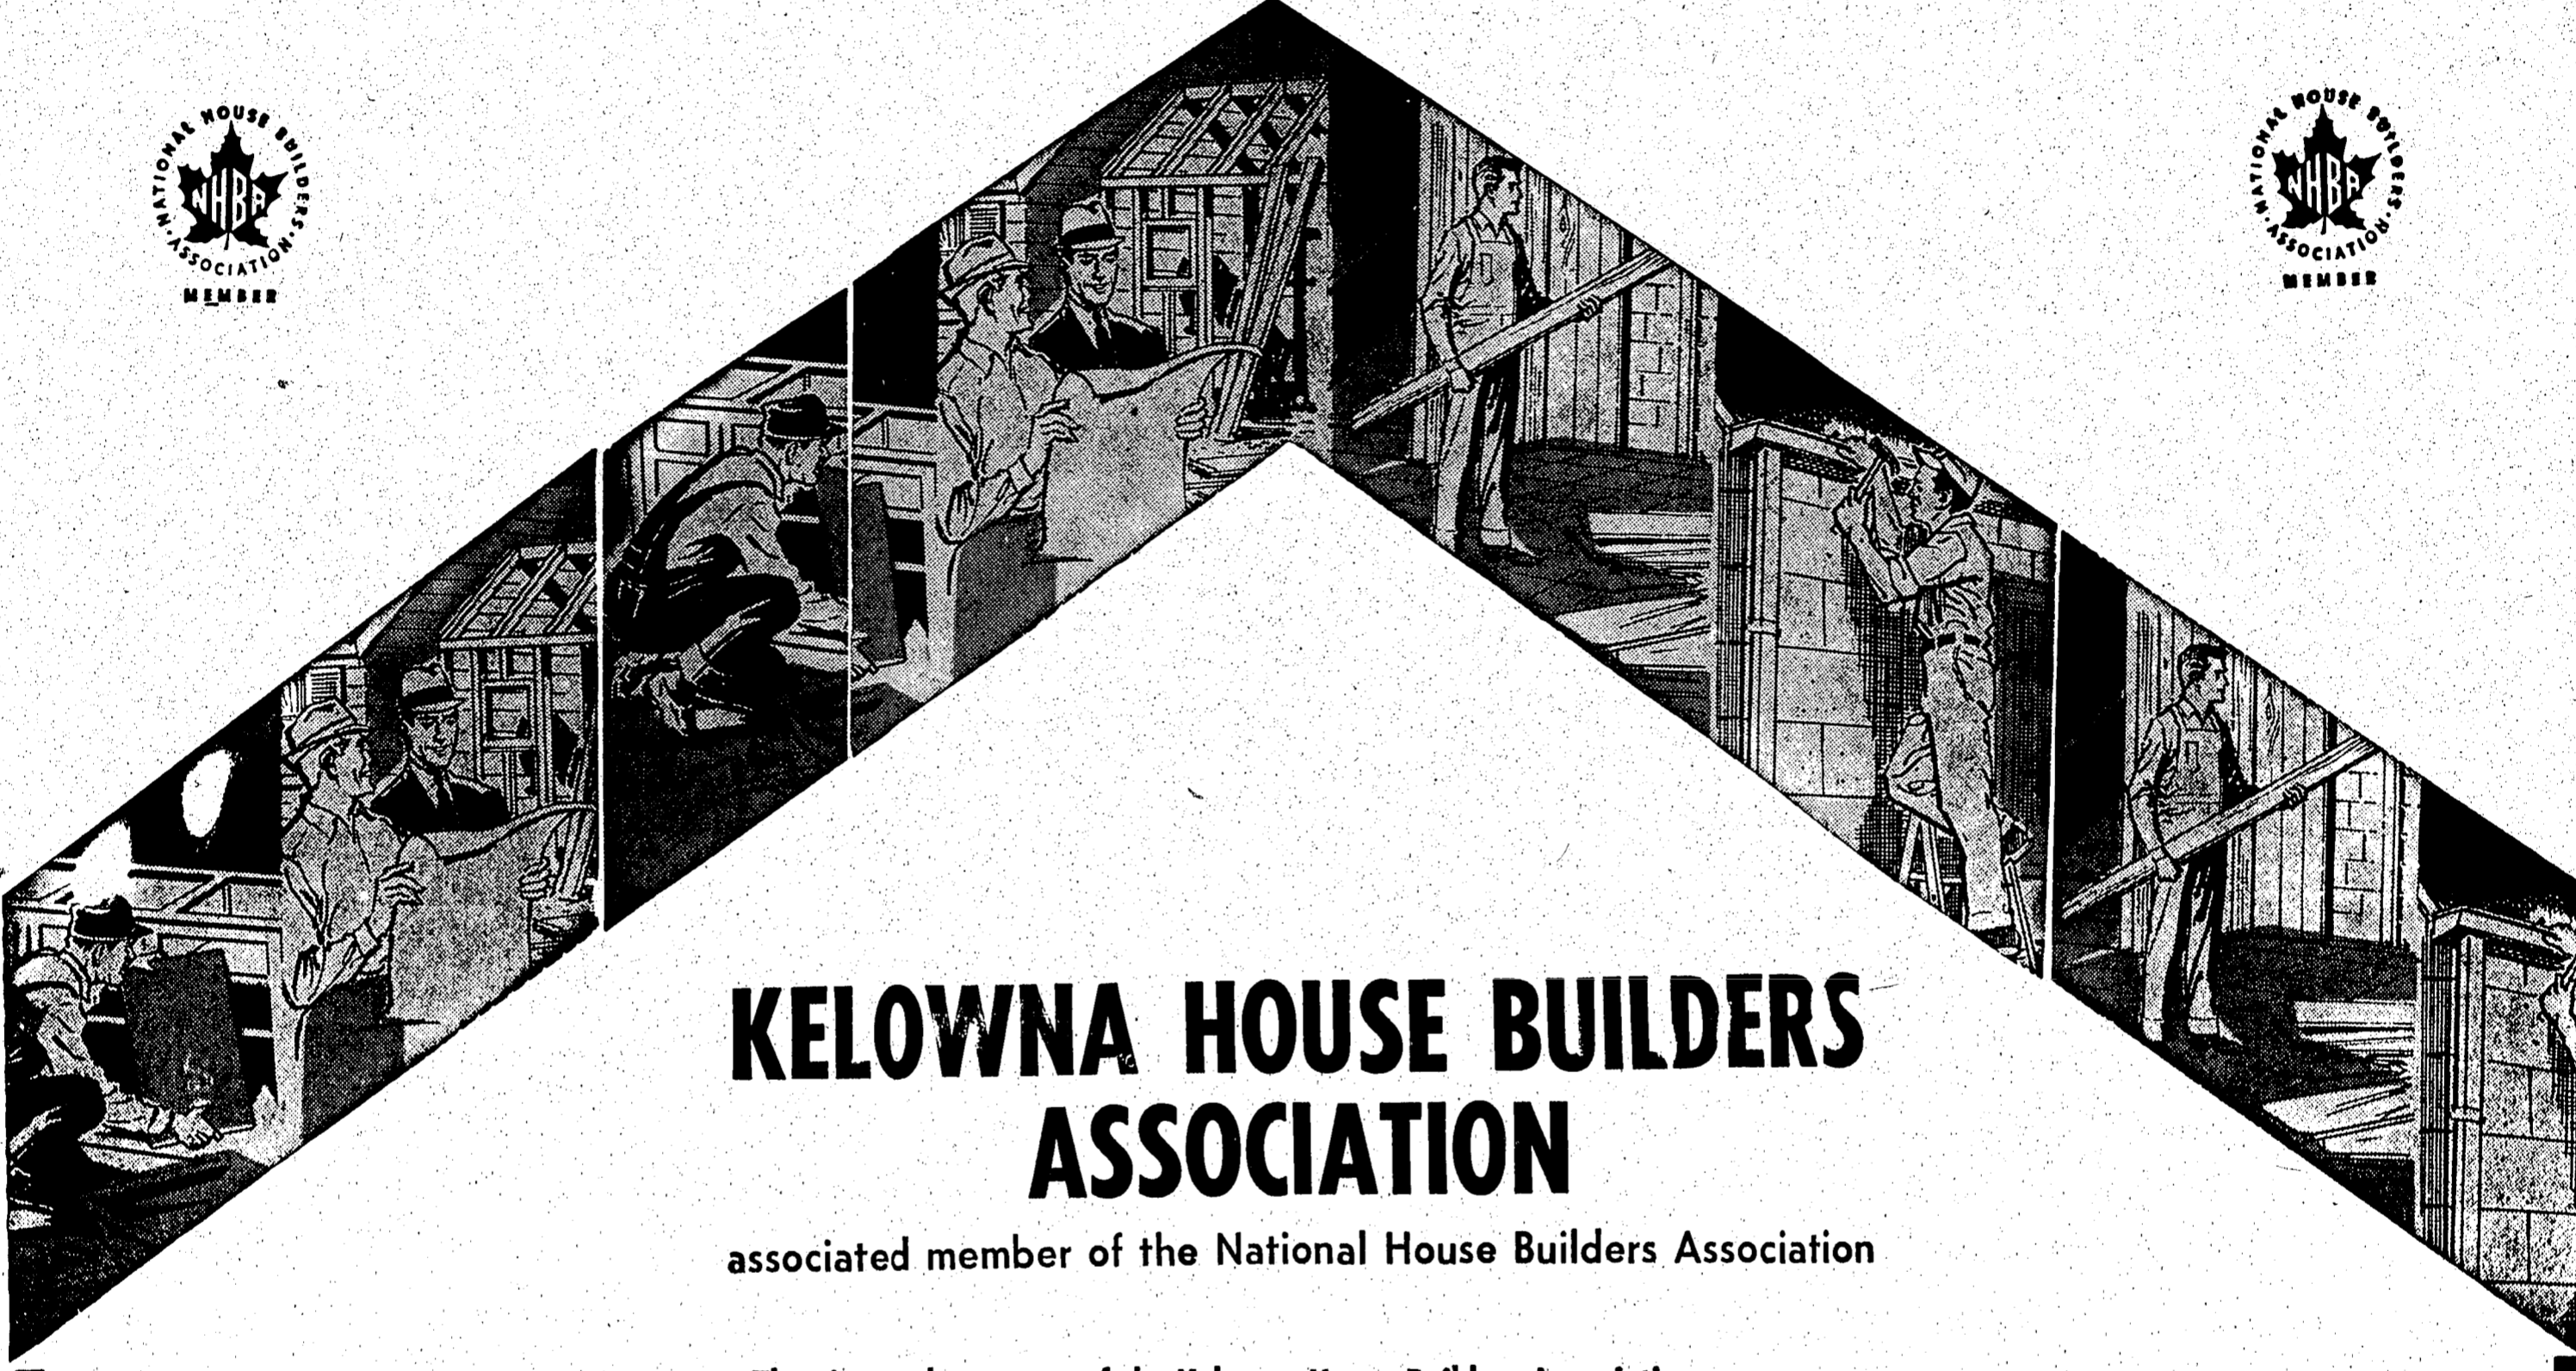

He will be accompanied by Deputy Travel Minister R. B. Worley and John Hecht, Austrian consul-general in Vancouver. Mr. Hecht will pay his own way.

The premier also told news-men there will be no provincial general election this year.

"I know of no provincial election this year in this province," he said. "I would be surprised if one were held. In fact, I would be amazed."

Reminded that he called a general election in 1963 after returning from a trip to Europe and stating there would be none before he left, the premier replied:

"If it wasn't that way there would be no excitement in the press gallery."

Opening lead - three of diamonds.

Australia finished fifth in the 33-nation Olympiad, narrowly missing a place among the top four, which would have qualified them to participate in the semi-final knockout round.

The Australians revealed a generally dashing style of bidding, as exemplified by this hand from their 20-board match against the United States, on which Cummings and Seres got to six clubs in three rapid-fire bids.

At the other table, the American North-South pair stopped at three notrump after a club opening bid by South, a no-trump response by North, and a jump to three notrump by South.

As played by the Australian pair, Cummings' raise to two clubs was highly constructive and showed virtually the same length and strength as a jump to three clubs would in most other systems.

Despite his three-card suit, Seres had no compunctions about leading directly to six clubs, which proved to be an excellent contract.

Had Robinson (playing with Jordan) led a spade or a heart, Seres would have had twelve easy tricks, but Robinson led a diamond instead. Seres won with the ace and played the K-A and another trump. Jordan took the queen and returned a heart. Declarer went up with the ace, crossed to dummy with a diamond, and played two more trumps to produce this position:

YOUR HOROSCOPE

FOR TOMORROW

It may be difficult for you to reconcile yourself to certain prevailing trends and opinions, but it would help if you try to make temporary concessions. Much better influences will prevail next week.

FOR THE BIRTHDAY

If tomorrow is your birthday, your chart presents some pleasing prospects for the year ahead—especially where personal relationships are concerned. If you are single, there will be four periods within the next 12 months during which, under the most fortuitous of planetary blessings, you could wend your way to the altar. They will occur in December, February, May and June. Stimulating social activities and an increase in your personal popularity are indicated during the next month, in late November, January, March, May and July.

If you are careful not to make hasty decisions and avoid risky speculation, financial matters should also go well—especially during the last three months of this year. Next good periods for monetary gain: Late March, May, June and July. Most auspicious cycles for career interests: Between now and November 1st, January, March, June and July. A child born on this day will be endowed with great determination and will power; could do very well in scientific and technological fields.

THE DAY AFTER TOMORROW

Persons who are competing with you may tend to be somewhat blustering on Monday, but you will find it to your ultimate advantage not to come to grips with them just yet. Time is very much on your side right now.

If Monday is your birthday, your horoscope indicates fine prospects where your personal life is concerned. Planetary influences promise harmonious domestic relationships, a stimulating social life and great romantic happiness during the year ahead. Best periods along these lines: The current month, late November, next January, March, May and July.

Where your occupational and financial status is concerned, look for fine advancement between now and the end of December; in 1969, during January, March, June and July. Creative workers will be governed by especially beneficent influences throughout the year—but especially during the current month, next January, February and June. A change of home environment in June could prove highly advantageous.

A Comeback For Parker

By ALJE KAMMINGA

IMAGINE JACKIE PARKER playing football again. Next you know Citation will come back to win the triple crown...

LIONS THIS WEEK obtained the playing rights for Parker from the Toronto Argonauts...

It was 14 years ago this month when he made his first appearance in a Canadian game...

"I REMEMBER TOO that Normie Kwong was also hurt, but we'd just picked up Johnny Bright...

Lions were leading 6-0 with eight minutes to go. The Edmonton rookie lobbed a 12-yarder to Rolie Miles...

"I FIGURED BASEBALL was my game, and the South was baseball country. Nobody in those days knew or cared much about the NFL...

"Four of my uncles played pro baseball, and one, Jesse Coyle, went up to pitch with Detroit and Cleveland...

"THEN CAME MY SENIOR year, and Darryl Royal was back from Edmonton and told me I'd really like it up there."

B.C. Lions May 'Unwrap' Parker For Stampeders

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

British Columbia Lions are looking for a key situation before they take the wraps off Jackie Parker...

"We'll certainly be using Parker," Champion said Friday. "As to when and how we're not saying."

"This is a pretty good situation for us because it's going to keep the Stampeders on edge, wondering just when we're going to throw Parker in there..."

But it doesn't look like Parker will be behind the centre of the first time the fourth-place Lions get the ball as regular Peter Oler's ankle is showing signs of improvement...

"Pete looked a lot better in practise and it looks as though he'll be ready to start," said Champion.

In the other Labor day contest in the West, third-place Edmonton Eskimos play in Regina against second-place Saskatchewan Roughriders.

BATTLE FOR TOP Both games are key contests as the Stamps and the Roughies battle it out for the WFC leadership...

Bishop Hungry For Victory Going Into Minto Cup Joust

OSHAWA (CP) — Coach Jim Bishop of Oshawa Green Gaels has a special reason for wanting to win the Minto Cup...

It probably will be Bishop's final season in Oshawa and he would like to leave with another national junior lacrosse championship to his credit.

His Green Gaels will try to make Bishop's desire become reality Wednesday when they open the Minto Cup finals against New Westminster Salmonbellies...

PLANS SOME SWITCHES "We're going to do some new things and some switching to defence. Liske's passing," said Champion...

The Eskimos will be without defensive standouts John Wydareny and Joe Hernandez who were injured in the game.

Only defence made the Eskimos look good in Wednesday's 12-7 loss to Calgary and the Eskies will be without defensive standouts John Wydareny and Joe Hernandez who were injured in the game.

The clubs tied 10-10 in their last meeting, but Saskatchewan assistant coach Jim Duncau says his club needs only a five-day rest and they can prepare for the Green Bay Packers.

"I didn't say we'd beat them," he added quickly. "I just said we could prepare for them."

Coach Eagle Keys says the Riders plan to blitz more against Edmonton quarterback Frank Cosentino than they did the first time the two clubs met.

New Westminster for the Wednesday game

Inspired by Bishop's iron-handed discipline and helped by an efficient farm system in the Oshawa area, the Green Gaels have been almost invincible since moving from Huntsville, Ont., in 1962.

Their chief victims have been the Salmonbellies, defeated by Oshawa in the Minto Cup finals the last four years.

This season, the Green Gaels waltzed through their regular 24-game season without a loss. They lost their first playoff game, then won 12 straight to capture the eastern title.

After Oshawa won the Eastern Canadian title last Wednesday by defeating Mississauga, Bishop indicated he was almost through with junior lacrosse.

"This will be my last year here if Detroit operates next year, and that's definite," he confided. "I'm not taking two clubs again. It's sure taken a lot of fun out of winning with Oshawa."

A look at his schedule this week shows why Bishop is determined not to coach two teams again. He must be in Detroit Tuesday for an NLA game between the Oshawa Gaels and Montreal Canadiens, then fly to

No Pushover, Says Art...

NEW WESTMINSTER (CP) — Coach Art Burrow of the New Westminster Salmonbellies says he knows next week's Minto Cup series against Ontario's Oshawa Green Gaels is going to be no pushover.

The tough Gaels have won the last four national junior lacrosse titles against New Westminster, a small city a few miles east of Vancouver where lacrosse is sports king.

"All we have to do is play better than Oshawa on four nights," Burrow said with a smile as he prepared his Salmonbellies for the best-of-seven series.

BASEBALL ROUNDUPS

Swinging That Bat Better Than Leading With Chin

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Detroit's Earl Wilson, who lost his pitching edge by leading with his chin, has found it again by swinging his bat.

Wilson hurled a four-hitter and drove in four runs with a homer and single as the American League-leading Tigers shook Baltimore's pennant hopes Friday night by jolting the second-place Orioles 9-1 in the opener of a three-game show-down series.

The loss, third in a row for the Orioles, dropped them seven games off the pace. They were only four out last Tuesday.

The home run was the fifth of the season for Wilson, 22-11, who won 22 games for Detroit last season but has been sidetracked this year by fire-line drives he couldn't dodge.

Three of them resulted in shoulder, knee and heel injuries that knocked him out of the starting rotation.

In Friday night's other AL action Washington Senators trimmed Boston Red Sox 5-1; Minnesota Twins nipped Chicago White Sox 5-4 in 11 innings; California Angels beat Oakland Athletics 5-3 and New York Yankees split a doubleheader with Cleveland Indians, winning 1-0 before bowing 3-2 in 10 innings.

Wilson, who stopped Detroit's four-game losing streak last Tuesday with a 3-0 six-hit triumph over the White Sox, and drove in two of the Tigers' runs to boot—crashed a three-run homer in the third inning and punched a run-scoring single in the fifth to cap a five-run wrap-up burst.

His 31 career homers are eight less than the all-time mark for pitchers, held by former Cleveland right-hander Wes Farrell.

"They pay me to pitch," said the 6-foot-4 right-hander. "This is the first time I've had this much of a lead this year."

Sever Goes To Back Of Class

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Tom Seaver, once of the precious New York Mets pitching staff, moves to the back of the class today. He gave the St. Louis Cardinals two runs.

Seaver pitched seven perfect innings against St. Louis Friday night, extending to 25 the string of zeroes dealt the Cards by Met pitchers this week.

Then he blew up and surrendered three hits and two runs for an 8-2 victory. That almost wouldn't do for the Mets, who became accustomed to shutting out the Cards when Jim McAndrew and Dick Selma produced consecutive blanks earlier this week.

Elsewhere in the National League Friday, Chicago Cubs dropped Houston Astros 5-3; Philadelphia Phillies took Cincinnati Reds 7-4; Atlanta Braves shut out Pittsburgh Pirates 2-0 and Los Angeles Dodgers shelled San Francisco Giants 5-4.

BREAKS THE SPELL Seaver, 33-9, retired 21 consecutive batters before Orlando Cepeda broke the spell by dropping a leadoff double to right field opening the eighth inning. Mike Shannon's run-scoring double and Lou Brock's ninth inning single were the only other hits off Seaver.

Meanwhile, the Mets had a wide bulge against loser Nelson Briles with a six-run fifth

Champs Have Been Decided In Two Stock Car Classes

With only three weeks of official points competition remaining, the champions have been decided in two of the three stock car classes at the Billy Foster Memorial Raceway.

Lyle (The Viking) Hickson has such a big lead in C modified points he could stay home the rest of the season and still win by a wide margin. And, unless he stays off the track for the rest of the year (which isn't likely) Drew (The Laughing Stock) Kitch should be able to capture the track's first B modified points championship.

Only in the exciting early-late class is there a battle for first place, which could easily continue to closing day, Sept. 15. Fred (The Blue Angel) Deuschel leads fellow Pentiction rival Bob Morcombe by only 14 points.

Racing resumes at 2 p.m. Hutherton and Halquist who Sunday after a p.m. time trials should see about 150 Joe Harvey, who hasn't raced at the Foster Raceway for two months, is still fourth in B modified points and in Kamloops, where he now races, is second.

There is no change in the order from last week, except for Hutherton and Halquist who Sunday after a p.m. time trials changed places in early-late.

Some Of World's Best Athletes To Gather In Vancouver Monday

TORONTO (CP) — The Canadian National Exhibition Invitational track meet Monday will bring together some of the best athletes from Canada, United States, Australia and Jamaica.

The United States contingent of 20 is led by two world-record holders, Tommie Smith and Wyomia Tyus.

Both are expected to win gold medals in the Olympics and American coaches have said the CNE meet should confirm their supremacy in world sprint events.

Smith holds the world record in the 220-yard dash at 20 seconds.

Miss Tyus of Tennessee State University may become the U.S.'s second female athlete to win three gold medals in the Olympics. Wilma Rudolph did it in 1960.

The U.S. team also includes Bob Schul of San Diego, winner of the Olympic 5,000-metre race in 1964.

Australia is represented by Steve Pearce, holder of the world's record in the indoor 200-metre, and Peter Boyce, one of the world's top high jumpers who has jumped seven feet, three inches this year.

Although a full Canadian team has not been named, Ross McKenzie of Kelowna, Man., will compete in the 400 metres and Bryan MacLaren of Winnipeg in the 200 metres.

Trapshooters Get Busy The air will be filled with the sound of gunfire and the sight of falling clay this weekend.

About 70,000 pigeons will be shot down in the Okanagan Trapshooting Championships which opened at 9 a.m. today at Sportmen's Field.

Approximately 100 shooters from such points as Edmonton, Calgary, Vancouver, Victoria, and possibly Washington State have converged on Kelowna for the two-day affair.
