

SCRATCHING AN ETCH

Artist Merry Meredith brings more than 30 of her Etch-A-Sketch portraits to the Basic Inquiry gallery. See page R4.

7 days

WHAT'S INSIDE

going outThe Dish Going veggie R3*Art Hope in Shadow's lens on the Eastside; plus a show devoted to the Etch-A-Sketch R4*Dance Global movements: Dance in Vancouver R5*Concerts Listings R5*Theatre Carnage: TV gets bloody treatment R6*Repwatch When porn feels worn R6*Music Don't call her avant-garde: Meredith Monk works with Bjork; plus Henry Rollins, flexing and reflecting R7*film*Johanna Schneller on the advantages of playing an Austen girl R8*Opening Derailed, Zathura, Bee Season, The Dark Hours, Guy Terrifico and more Index, R8*Profile Brit beauty Keira Knightley finds her element in Pride & Prejudice; plus Kiss Kiss, Bang Bang starlet Michelle Monaghan R15 and R16*staying in*John Doyle on The Virgin Queen and the craze for all things Elizabethan R20*DVDs Le Samourai, plus Sally Potter's Yes R21*CDs Madonna's Confessions on a Dance Floor and more R22 and R23*Web Someone (finally) makes money on-line R24*Gaming Scott Colbourne on The Warriors: nasty, brutish, occasionally innovative R25*11 FRIDAY*A COMMON MAN'S GUIDE TO LOVING WOMEN

Four buddies (one's a jilted groom) try to figure out women in this 21st-century comedy of manners. 8 p.m. (and to Dec. 3). $10 to $24. Firehall Arts Centre, 280 E. Cordova St., 604-689-0926.

12 SATURDAYTHE GREAT RIVER: A FLAMENCO JOURNEY

Go with the metaphorical flow through bandoleras, tangos and fandangos with staccato-stepper Miguel Angel and the throaty-voiced Momi de Cadiz. 8 p.m. (and Nov. 13). $30 to $35. Norman Rothstein Theatre, 950 W. 41st Ave., 604-280-3311.

13 SUNDAYGRANVILLE ISLAND CHEESE FEST

Last day of the weekend brie and Stilton bender, with local cultures by artisans from McLennan Creek and Salt Spring Island Cheese. 9 a.m. Public Market, 604-666-5784.

14 MONDAYYALETOWN WINE TASTING AND MIXER

Join the backlash against the Sideways swipe at merlot — if you've got tickets for this sold-out (monthly) event. 5:30 p.m. (and Nov. 15). Hamilton Street Grill, 1009 Hamilton St., 604-331-1511.

15 TUESDAYAD MARE

The B.C. wind quintet puts the "Mozart effect" in action with operatic airs aimed at listeners aged 5 and up. 10:30 a.m. $8. Studio 16, 1551 W. 7th Ave., 604-736-9806.

16 WEDNESDAYCLASSIFIED MATERIALS

Once you've ogled the Picassos, head upstairs for Ts stretched like canvas, a pile of a million pennies and oddities from Geoffrey Farmer's Hunchback Kit. 10 a.m. $15. Vancouver Art Gallery, 750 Hornby St., 604-662-4700.

17 THURSDAYA COOL YULE

Dress for excess, from freewheeling jazz to a globetrotting buffet. Warning: Chocolate fountain ahead. A VSO benefit. 7 p.m. $150. Pan Pacific Hotel, 300-999 Canada Place. For tickets, e-mail kelly@vancouverSymphony.ca.

He was the rock, once I was past everybody else to get to him.

Director Jim Sheridan, on moving titanic rap star 50 Cent. 7 Questions, R26.

COVER PHOTOGRAPH: DIANNA DUBICK;
THIS PAGE: MERRY MEREDITH.