Lists of Selected Full-text Databases by Subscription in East Asian Studies

Compiled and edited by

Vickie Fu Doll, University of Kansas
Wen-ling Liu, Indiana University
Dongyun Ni, University of Hawaii at Manoa
Chiaki Sakai, Columbia University

This supplement is comprised of three database lists:

1. 137 E-Book Database modules by Subscription,
2. 96 E-Journal Database modules by Subscription, and
3. 23 Multi-Media Audio/Visual Database modules by Subscription

These databases were subscribed or created by East Asian collections in North America. Each list covers Chinese, Japanese, Korean, and Non-CJK databases. In total, 256 databases modules are included in these three lists as of December 2020. Each list consists of the following columns: (1) English Title, (2) CJK Title, (3) Romanized Title, (4) Subtitle/Module, (5) Languages, (6) Sub-series, (7) Publisher, (8) Description/source, (9) Title counts, and/or (10) Title/Volume/Chapter counts. For the convenience of readers in North America, the commonly accepted title of the database usually takes precedence over the database's original name. For example, CHANT is a known abbreviation for Chinese Ancient Texts Database 漢達文庫; therefore, the abbreviated name is listed first, with the English and Chinese titles next to it. The same format is applied to the Vendor and Publisher columns.

These lists were a collaborative work by CEAL members who have contributed to the compilation, editing, and review of the content. Chiaki Sakai, Japanese Studies Librarian and Chair of the Committee on Japanese Materials, inputted and reviewed all of the Japanese databases. Michiko Ito (Japanese Studies Librarian, University of Kansas) also verified contents with vendors of Japanese databases. Susan Xue (U.C. Berkeley and the Chair of the UC System CJK E-Resources Task Force) contributed content counts for the University of California system's Chinese databases subscriptions. Our thanks also go to several CEAL Statistics Coordinators who input their locally produced databases in East Asian studies. The attached lists are databases which have been subscribed by CEAL libraries and they are not an inventory of what databases are available in the markets. We hope the databases' information may also serve e-resource collection development needs of East Asian studies librarians.

CEAL Statistics Special Survey Executive Summary

Background

About 60 libraries and museums in North America have participated in the annual CEAL statistics submission over the years. However, about a dozen have not participated in the past five to ten years.

Goal

- 1) To find out the reasons why some libraries dropped out from data submission or submitted partial data;
- 2) To find ways that CEAL can further help colleagues with this annual task.

Responses & Results

The online survey (with 10 key questions) was sent to 60 CEAL statistics coordinators and open for input from Sept. 8, 2020 through Sept. 30, 2020.

The survey response rate was 78.3% (47 out of 60), and not all answered every question. The main findings are as follows:

1. 42 libraries (91% of responses) indicated they participate in the CEAL Statistics survey every year.
2. Top ranking of main reasons preventing institutions from submitting statistics:
 - #1. "Lack of library support for data collection."
 - #2. "System limitation to provide data" and "lack time to collect needed data."
 - #3. "not a priority" and "inability to get required data"
3. Concerning whether they have sufficient support from library administration for collecting statistics data, 18 libraries (39%) strongly agree, 15 libraries (32.6%) somewhat agree, only 4 libraries (8.7%) somewhat disagree and strongly disagree.
4. Helpfulness of creating a "CEAL Library membership" category in terms of getting support of CEAL statistics data collection at an institutional level. Most responded from "maybe helpful" (43%) to "not helpful" and "very unhelpful" (30%). In addition, considering 42 institutions submit the CEAL statistics data every year, the committee concluded that the creation of a "CEAL Library Membership" is unnecessary.
5. Many expressed the need for training on new feature(s) or regular training every few years, which the committee will take into consideration in addition to continuous one-on-one communication for statistics input assistance.

Q3 - Please provide any additional reasons or comments in response to the question above.

What's the point of collecting the data if the data isn't accurate. I could see bigger libraries to use the data in some way to get grant. But it is almost useless for smaller libraries. For those with only 1 librarian, this adds too much work.

We don't collect our data in the way it is being requested

Q4 - Do you agree that you get sufficient support from your main library administration for collecting the data you need?

| # | Answer | % | Count |
|---|----------------------------|--------|-------|
| 1 | Strongly agree | 39.13% | 18 |
| 2 | Somewhat agree | 32.61% | 15 |
| 3 | Neither agree nor disagree | 19.57% | 9 |
| 4 | Somewhat disagree | 2.17% | 1 |
| 5 | Strongly disagree | 6.52% | 3 |
| | Total | 100% | 46 |

Q5 - To what extent would this make your data collection easier: If CEAL creates a new "CEAL Library membership" category (without fee charge) that would include institutional responsibility to submit CEAL statistics data.

| # | Answer | % | Count |
|---|------------------|--------|-------|
| 1 | Very helpful | 12.77% | 6 |
| 2 | Somewhat helpful | 14.89% | 7 |
| 3 | Maybe helpful | 42.55% | 20 |
| 4 | Not helpful | 25.53% | 12 |
| 5 | Very unhelpful | 4.26% | 2 |

It'd be helpful to provide such training every few years as new data may be collected and the person who is responsible for answering the survey may change over time.

Learn how to collect data correctly and fast.

CEAL Statistics Collection training would help enhance the quality of data collection and data consistency across CEAL libraries.

Currently, there is no training or workshop for CEAL Statistics data collection. It would be great if CEAL can organize such training.

1. For non-CJK materials "about" East Asia: for institutions with a separate East Asian library, this might be easy but for us, where non-CJK materials are integrated into the general collection, gathering this data is problematic. 2. There are some questions about the source of acquisition. It might not be essential to evaluate the strength of our collections. 3. Is there any possibility to decrease the number of questions regarding non-print physical pieces?

Review of the current questionnaires in CEAL statistics database; doing some necessary updates and simplifies some questions

I would benefit from a refresher workshop on CEAL statistics, particularly with an expert who understands data extraction from the Alma ILS.

For ease of entry, it would great to be able to upload the data via a spreadsheet. for example, it could work like this: library downloads a spreadsheet to fill out, with all the data to be filled on a "main" sheet; library then collects all data on other sheets that it creates as needed filling out "main" datasheet as formula. When done, upload sheet and CEAL pulls data from main sheet to populate the form.

CEAL data collection is the sole responsibility of Asian Studies librarian at my institution. No support is expected from the main library.

There is always the case that certain statistics are not collected locally, or are only collected in the aggregate, with no breakdown. We always need to make some adjustments.

Can't expect the library to support. Would be more practical for me to learn some gimmicks to collect data myself.

Q8 - How often do you consult CEAL Statistics data or reports?

| 2 | 1-3 times a month | 2.17% | 1 |

Not a priority since we are not an academic or research institution

Training for gathering e-resource data would be helpful.

CEAL stats is critically important to us and we refer to it often for reporting purposes. Hope more institution would participate in to fill the stats.
