

Art Therapy: Perspectives of South African Psychologists

James A Gower

Research Report submitted in partial fulfilment of the requirements for the Degree of Masters in Community Counselling Psychology, at the University of the Witwatersrand,
South Africa

Supervisor:
Dr Hermanean Laauwen
University of the Witwatersrand
South Africa

2006

*“Talk therapists work to listen, as well as to hear;
art therapists seek to see, as well as to look.
To see and to feel the beauty in the self as well as in the world can be the gift of truly transformative therapy, which may be uniquely possible through art”.*

(Rubin, 1999)