HANUSOVÁ, Martina. Factors affecting the Czech public opinion about Muslims. Prague: Charles university of Prague, Protestant Theological Faculty, 2012. Diploma degree thesis. 51 pp.

The diploma thesis deals with the nature of Czech public opinion about Muslims and the factors influencing this opinion. Among those factors of this thesis is a historical development of the Czech Republic which never met with a large number of Muslims and Czech society is one of the ethnically homogeneous European countries. Another factor is the uncritical acceptance of information from the media, film production and memoir type of Huntington's Clash of Civilizations.

All of this factors of influence are compounded by ethnocentric gradient that doesn't avoid the Czech society.

The aim is to determine the role played by education Islamic Foundation in Prague in compared with the above factors influencing Czech opinion on this topic.
