Dear Folks

Today is beach day and I am taking full advantage of it by sleeping on the sand since 1:30 this afternoon. It is now 4:30 and I am trying without too much success to write to you.

First of all let me recommend that you read EXODUS. At the same time let me caution you against the movie which is a travesty of the book.

Second did you know that I am living in an apartment with three other officers from my Division and it is right on the beach. Really great. We have two bedrooms a big living room a dining room a kitchen and a bathroom for 125 a month.

so it is a steal particularly since it is in Belmont Shore on the beach.
Most of the place goes for 200 or more
during the year and much higher
during the summer.

My leave will start on Sept.
1 or whenever the Capt. gets back from leave. I am going to get a hyp home or else I can't afford to come as it is an indefinite thing when I will be there. When shall I go to?
Norquitt or home?

Have you planted the grapes
yet. I am not kidding about the vineyard if you agree.
Lots of love
Lulu
