Friday

Dear Family,

I've been unable to make contact with Joan and Jack up to now and I am beginning to worry about the existence of New England. What is going on back there anyway? No ink.

My school is going pretty well but I am not doing as well as I'd like. It certainly is a fine school and they really keep me pretty busy.

However, I manage to do a few things like golf every Saturday & spot a job last weekend - boatting every other Friday and I even write a few letters now and then.

Tell Grandma, not to go down to Florida for awhile. That super sickness deal is rather bad right now.

I've been writing to Wanda quite frequently say every three days or so, you know nothing special, Pa, Ma and she say you've gotten a job teaching nursery school two days a week. A perfect job for her I think. She says the kids will think of Jack and Patty left Joan with her for a day instead so they could go to a wedding. Pretty happy huh. I told Jack to take care of her for me while I was away and so he is but I didn't think he would make her baby sit. Just kidding because I know she enjoyed it.

Jim is Chris and school, and have you got the fence all rented, and how goes it at the state? There must be something going on back there. Tell Chris to write me if you are too busy.

What is the story on the Waxed boys? are they still lying around or are they organized and being constructive? I guess not he's back at school.

A couple of questions. First can you tell me what the different oven things are; like baker, grill, etc. Well, I need a cook-book. I can't get out of the frying pan. However I have become one of the best pizza makers outside Naples. My instant coffee isn't bad either.

Well it's to the math and physics right after the good TV.

Love,
Luis
