

Opening a Student-Run Pro Bono Occupational Therapy Pediatric Clinic

Abstract:

This presentation described the opening of a student-run pro bono pediatric therapy clinic that provides services to children/families who are economically disadvantaged. The benefits of participation for students and clients were reviewed, and fund-raising and the development of a mission statement were discussed.