

An Unexpected Outcome of a Pediatric Simulation Encounter for Occupational Therapy Students

Abstract:

This presentation reviewed how to plan and implement a pediatric simulated educational experience to align with the targeted course learning objective(s). Participants learned how to incorporate best practices into simulation education in order to advance occupational therapy education.