

Welcome
Graduate Students

Getting It Published: Transforming the Publishing Activities of STEM Graduate Students through a Collaborative Workshop Series

Brittany Wofford & Sarah Park

Transforming Libraries for Graduate Students
Kingsport, TN, March 16 - 17, 2020

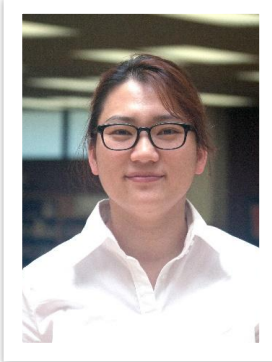

We Are...

Brittany Wofford

Librarian for the Nicholas School of the Environment

brittany.wofford@duke.edu

Sarah Park

Librarian for Engineering and Computer Science

sarah.park@duke.edu

Changes in Graduate Scholarship

- Student demographics
- Research environment
- Ethical issues
- Career perspectives
- New challenges for graduate students
 - Publishers
 - Publishing practices
 - Open Access and Open Science

Our Approach: Stop and Find the North Star

Focus on Students and Their Scholarly Activities

Stars Around Polaris - Day 62 by
Steve Ryan, CC BY-SA 2.0

New and Existing Partners on Campus

Graduate Communications and Intercultural Programs

- Academic Writing
- Presentations & Degree Defense
- Conversation & Small Talk

English for International Students at the Graduate School

International House (IHOUSE)

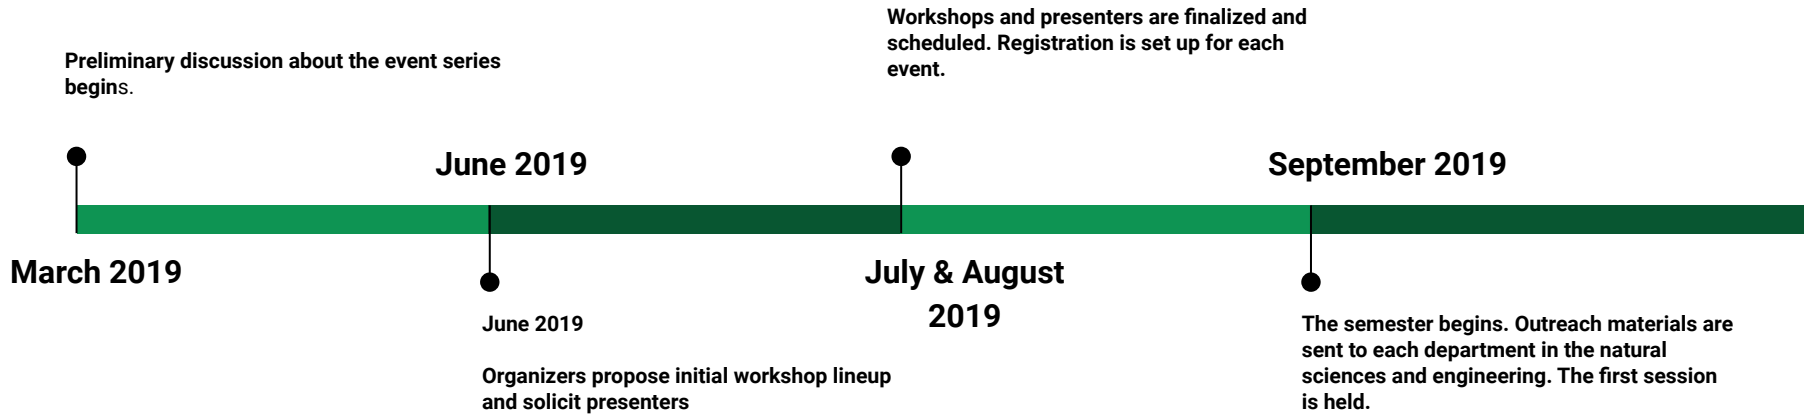

GRADUATE COMMUNICATIONS
and INTERCULTURAL PROGRAMS

DELIVER YOUR MESSAGE WITH CONFIDENCE

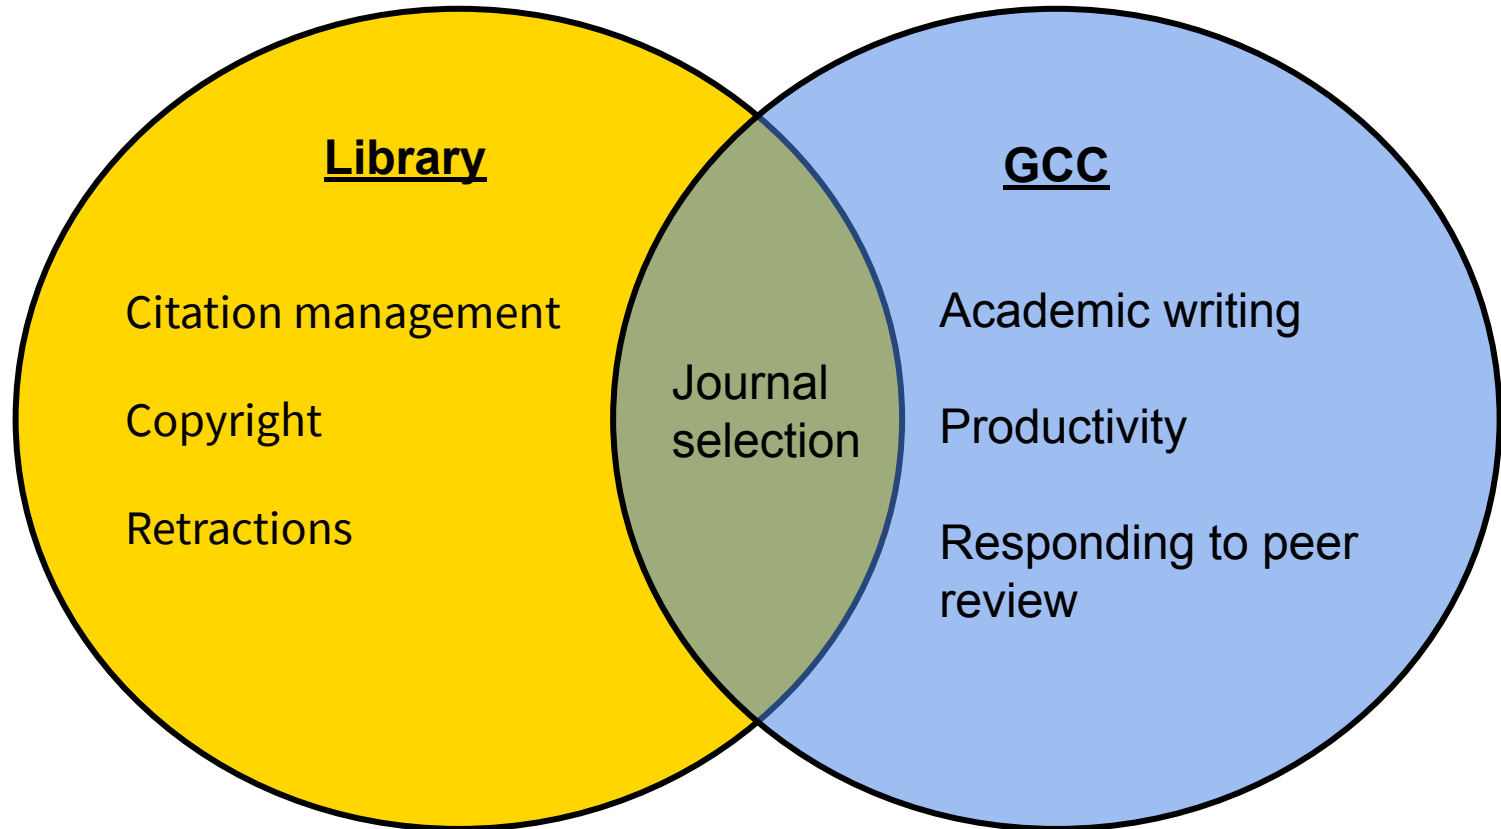

DUKE UNIVERSITY
LIBRARIES

Planning the Workshop Series

Expertise

Developing Classes

Citation Management	“Citation Manager Matchmaking”
Evaluating Journals	“Finding the Best Journal for Publication”
Academic Writing	“Writing Abstracts and Introductions”
Copyright	“Copyright and Fair Use in Research and Teaching”
Writing Strategies	“Getting it Write: Overcoming Writing Procrastination”
Responding to Feedback	“Surviving and Responding to Peer-Review Feedback”
Retractions	“Retractions in Science and Social Science Literature”

Navigating the Library's Role

DUKE UNIVERSITY

LIBRARIES

&

Duke
ENGINEERING

GRADUATE COMMUNICATIONS
and INTERCULTURAL PROGRAMS

DELIVER YOUR MESSAGE WITH CONFIDENCE

Assessment

DUKE UNIVERSITY
LIBRARIES

Workshop Title: _____

Please rate your satisfaction with this workshop (circle one)

Very Dissatisfied	Dissatisfied	Neutral	Satisfied	Very Satisfied
1	2	3	4	5

What did you enjoy the most about this workshop?

What do you think would improve this workshop?

Do you have any suggestions for other workshops you'd like to attend?

Your department (write in):

Your Duke affiliation (circle one)

Master's PhD Post-Doc Staff Other

DUKE UNIVERSITY
LIBRARIES

Writing Abstracts & Introduction Workshop

Please rate your satisfaction with this workshop (circle one)

Dissatisfied	Neutral	Satisfied	Very Satisfied
1	2	3	4	5

What did you enjoy the most about this workshop?

Clarity and density of the presentation

What would improve this workshop?

Do you have any suggestions for other workshops you'd like to attend?

More information on how to work with Methods, results
paper sections

Your department (write in):

Your Duke affiliation (circle one)

Master's PhD Post-Doc Staff Other

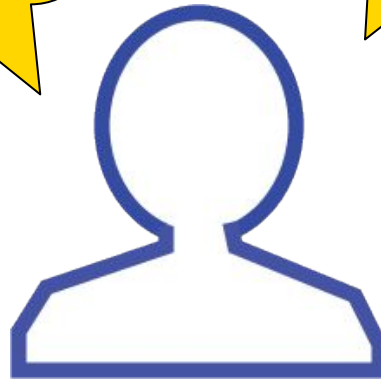

Comments

It was straightforward and addressed many aspects of the submission process

I have never used EndNote before, so it was a good start for me!

Informative, easy to follow, and interactive

Instructor's illustration of peer-review was very specific and easy to understand

Planning for Next Year

- Additional topics
- More publicity throughout the academic year
- Active learning
- Free lunch

Lessons Learned

1. The library occupies a central place on campus and is integral to supporting scholarly activities across multiple schools and departments.
2. Understanding the changing demographics and needs of the graduate student body is the first step to building shared values and knowledge among campus stakeholders.
3. Sharing knowledge and expertise about graduate scholarship across campus units benefits everyone.

Questions?

Thank you

Brittany Wofford
brittany.wofford@duke.edu

Sarah Park
sarah.park@duke.edu