

THE SONG OF SIN

Words by Daragh Carville, music by Tim Prottey-Jones

Sing a song of right and wrong,
Sing a song of sin.

The things you've done you shouldn't have done,
The places you shouldn't have been.

The hidden history on your laptop,
Your dreams, your fears, your regrets.

That giveaway message in your inbox.
All your dirty, shameful little secrets.

Bring them out into the light,
All the greed and fear and doubt.

Cos no matter what you try and do,
Your sins will find you out.
