Brief Reflection

Alison Erves

I drive along
This slick, slippery road
On Saturday morning
I hear tiny thuds
Against the windshield
The patterns made by this brown liquid
Blocking my vision
A certain peace settles over me
In the city of angels
As I watch the rain cleanse the earth
Cleanse the hustle and bustle and madness and rush
While hitting the brakes ever so softly
As to not disturb this heavenly ritual
