Dear Dr. Gatrell,

It is a pleasure to accept your manuscript entitled "Monstrous Motherhood versus Magical Maternity? An exploration of conflicting attitudes to maternity within health discourses and organizational settings" in its current form for publication in Equality, diversity and inclusion: An international journal. It is obvious that your revisions have strengthened the paper's contribution, and we look very much forward to seeing the paper as part of the special issue.

Please go to your Author Centre on ScholarOne Manuscripts (Manuscripts with Decisions/Manuscripts I have co-authored) to complete the copyright assignment form. We cannot publish your paper without the copyright form. ALL AUTHORS are requested to complete a form and to input their full contact details (including streetnames and zipcodes), to ensure that a complimentary journal copy can be despatched upon publication. If you have provided full contact information in the completed copyright form your journal copy should arrive within 8 weeks of print publication.

If you would like more information about Emerald's copyright policy please visit the Information & Forms section in the Resources section of your Author Centre.

Thank you for your contribution. We look forward to your continued contributions to the Journal.

Prof. Torkild Thanem and Prof. Alison Pullen Guest editors, EDI special issue on 'Difference, diversity and inclusion in monstrous organizations'
