Junior Prom Plans Near Completion

Phil Emerton's Band to Play At Annual Spring Dance Next Friday Night

TICKET SALES ASSURE CROWD

With the approach of April 5, plans for the outstanding social event of the year, the Junior Prom, are nearing completion. The rhythmic music of Phil Emerton's Diamonds, under the direction of Leo Steele, will be heard on this gala occasion. This band consists of ten men and a woman vocalist, and is noted for its clever skits, interspersed between dances.

The orchestra has only recently returned from an extended road tour of the most important circuits in the East. During the past winter season they have made a specialty of playing at university and college dances where they have met with the highest approval.

Nothing has been left undone in providing the proper atmosphere at the Thompson-Gay gymnasium this Friday. The gymnasium will be decorated with white and blue colors in a style never before used at Ursinus.

From early reports of the committee, the sale of tickets assures a large crowd. The tax is $3.50, and tickets can be procured from any member of the committee.

PLANS BEING COMPLETED FOR WRESTLING ASSOC.

Ursinus, Gettysburg, Haverford, Lafayette to Be Members

Director of Athletics R. C. Johnson reports that plans are under way for formation of the Middle Atlantic Collegiate Wrestling Association, of which Ursinus, Gettysburg, Haverford, and Lafayette will be members.

Representatives of those four colleges met last Saturday evening in the Penn. A. C., Philadelphia, and drew up tentative plans, the details of which will be completed at another meeting to be held Friday evening, April 26. The four teams will continue to wrestle each other in separate meets as they now do, but at the end of each season the four will hold a joint tourney.

Each of the member colleges would be host once every four years. The purpose would be to encourage interest in wrestling among the colleges involved, and give the participants a final "big meet" to look forward to. Officers of the association were elected on Saturday: president, R. L. Reeves of Lafayette; secretary-treasurer, Archibald MacIntosh of Haverford.

'35 RUBY TO GO TO PRESS WITHIN NEXT TWO WEEKS

With the possibility that it will be practically the first yearbook off the press in 1935, the work on the Ruby has been pushed to such an extent that the editor, Harry F. Brian, promises its appearance on the campus before May Day.

All engravings have been completed, and all copy except a few sports articles and the feature section has been sent to the printers, so that this statement is no idle dream. Already page proofs of the first 75 pages have been returned to the editor for correction, and inside of two weeks, the book will be ready for the final printing.

Printers, engravers, and other yearbook critics who have seen the 1935 Ruby in the process of formation have been of the opinion that it will be one of the finest yearbooks in the east and will by far surpass the Ruby of 1934, taking no credit from that volume whatever. The very nature of the layout promises favorable reception on the

"Hawk Island", Three-Act Play, to Be Given By the Junior Class, Saturday Night, April 6

Novel Lighting and Sound Effects Intensify Thrills of Mystery; Ticket Sales Pass Three-Hundred Mark

"Hawk Island", the three-act melodrama which has been selected by the junior class for the annual play will be presented next Saturday night, April 6.

Work on the play is going forward rapidly. Last Thursday night a full rehearsal was held without the use of books. At that time all the indications were that by the night of play, the cast will be well prepared.

The scenery and lighting effects are well suited to bring out the high spots and to intensify the thrills of the evening. But it is the off-stage sound effects that are especially good. Booming claps of thunder *** waves dashing against the shore *** the distant tolling of a bell buoy *** shots in the darkness *** all will contribute to the interest and excitement of the performance.

At the present time, ticket sales have passed the three hundred mark and it is expected that the usual last minute rush during the coming week will greatly increase this amount.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL BUYS SCHOLASTIC PLAQUE

Trophy to Be Awarded Bi-annually To Frat Rating Highest

The Interfraternity Council decided to purchase a plaque to be awarded to the fraternity having the highest scholastic rating each semester, at its meeting held last Thursday night, March 28.

At the end of each semester, the average of the marks of the members in each fraternity will be computed. The fraternity having the highest average will be awarded possession of the plaque for the succeeding semester, and will have its name engraved upon it.

A plaque was agreed on in preference to a loving cup, since it was felt that the former could easily be hung on the wall and that the fraternities would have no suitable place to display a cup. Representatives of all fraternities agreed that each group would pay $2.50 for the plaque, which amounts to about ten cents per man. The award will be made for the first time in June of this year.

The plaque of ebony finish wood is ten inches high and twelve wide. On it is a male figure and shield eight inches high, and plates on which will be engraved the names of the winning fraternities.

MRS. E. S. GRISCOM TO TALK ON BIRDS AND BIRD LIFE

An unusual lecture will be offered on Wednesday evening at 6:45 o'clock in Bomberger by the Junior Advisory Committee when Mrs. E. S. Griscom of Roslyn, Pennsylvania, will speak on birds and bird life.

Mrs. Griscom, a recognized authority on all forms of nature, will accompany her lecture with colored slides to illustrate her topic. The speaker is president of the Wissahickon Bird Club.

For those who have previous knowledge of, and a natural interest in birds, the lecturer will afford an opportunity for meeting one of the foremost workers in this field. To those who have a moderate interest, Mrs. Griscom will present the subject in a enjoyable manner that will be easily understood by all.

Dorothy Witmer '37, who is in charge, wishes to announce that everyone is welcome and that the attendance of freshmen girls is compulsory.

Mrs. Griscom will remain overnight at the College and will gladly meet anyone after the lecture on Thursday morning to answer any questions that might be asked.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS HOLD WINTER MEETING THURSDAY

Routine Business Taken Care of; Twelve Members Attend

The Board of Directors of the College held its winter meeting on Thursday of last week. There were present at this meeting Rev. T. A. Alspach, D. D., Hon. A. R. Brodbeck, LL. D., C. C. Burdan, Rev. Several members were unavoidably absent because of illness and several others because of prior engagements. In the absence of the president of the Board, the first vice-president, C. C. Burdan, presided.

The usual routine business was taken care of, informal reports were received from the several officers, and several committees reported items requiring the attention of the Board. The report of

Board of Managers to Elect New Weekly Staff Thursday

The new Weekly staff will be elected by the Board of Managers at its meeting to be held Thursday evening, April 4.

Ten positions will be left open on the editorial staff by departing seniors, and many promotions will be made. The new staff will assume its duties immediately after the Easter vacation. However, the present circulation and business managers will remain in office for the remainder of the college year.

Jesse Heiges '35, editor, and the five associate editors will meet with Dr. Calvin D. Yost, faculty advisor, tomorrow afternoon at 4:00 to make recommendations for the elections, on which the Board of Managers will take action. Those wishing to apply for the circulation or business managership should consult Norman Turner '35, or Frederick Mueller '35, at once.

REVISION OF RULES

Plans for simplification of women's rules are under way now. The Revisions Committee is hoping to condense the large number of rules now in existence and to eliminate several which seem unnecessary now.

The Revisions Committee is composed of Mildred Fox '35, chairman; Evelyn Hoover '35, Mary Helen Alspach '36, Ida Trout '37, and Betty Collins '38. Suggestions from any of the women students will be considered.

HERBERT STARE

I. N. A. Convention To Open April 12

Cups for Editorials, Advertising, News to Be Awarded

TO RELEASE PROGRAM SOON

Advance reports from member and prospective member papers of the Intercollegiate Newspaper Association indicate a large attendance at the conclave here on Friday and Saturday, April 12 and 13.

From the seven papers which have so far reported, 46 delegates will come: Stevens Institute, 11; Brooklyn Polytechnic, 10; West Chester S. T. C., 10; Lehigh, 6; Gettysburg, 5; Univ. of Delaware, 2; and Elizabethtown, 2. Returns are expected this week from most of the 25 papers which are yet to report.

The program, which is practically completed, will be released for publication late this week, according to Jesse Heiges '35, chairman of the convention committee. The list of speakers includes: Don Rose, Evening Ledger columnist; Eleanor Morton, Inquirer feature writer; Ross Kauffman, Bulletin sports writer; John L. Blackman Jr., Inquirer reporter; William F. Reimert, (Ursinus graduate in class of 1924), managing editor of the Allentown Chronicle and News.

The convention will hold its opening session Friday afternoon, April 12, at 2:15, and additional sessions on Saturday morning and afternoon. The I. N. A. dance will take place on Friday night, and the closing banquet on Saturday night.

Three cups will be awarded by the association to those newspapers having the best editorials, news, and advertising, as determined by a board of impartial judges. Student papers, pertaining to the various phases of newspaper work, will be read and discussed in both the editorial and business sessions.

T. K. A. Conference Lays Plans For Future Regional Conclaves

Thirty-six student and faculty delegates from six colleges attended the first regional conference of Tau Kappa Alpha, national forensic fraternity, held last Friday and Saturday, March 29 and 30, at Juniata College, Huntington, Pa.

The opening feature of the event was a series of elimination debates on a modified form of the munitions question. In this contest Allen Cooper '35, constituted the "team" from Ursinus. By defeating Mr. Maxwell, president of the Juniata chapter of the T. K. A., Mr. Cooper stepped to the semifinals, where he was outspoken by Mr. Frost of Waynesburg College.

In anticipation of future district conclaves, the representatives met on Saturday afternoon for organization. An executive committee was elected, consisting of LeRoy Maxwell, of Juniata, presi-

Doctor Omwake Precariously Ill

Dr. J. M. Anders Is Physician; Sickness Due to Valvular Condition of Heart

NO FOUNDERS' DAY PLANNED

President George L. Omwake has been seriously ill for over a week in the Graduate Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, where he was admitted on Wednesday, March 20.

His trouble is due to the weak valvular condition of the heart. He remains in a very critical state although becoming no worse over the week-end.

Dr. James M. Anders, senior member of the Board of Directors in point of service, is Dr. Omwake's physician. Contrary to Philadelphia newspaper reports, Dr. Omwake is not suffering from influenza and has never been under an oxygen tent. Bronchitis several months ago and a recent cold probably served to aggravate the heart condition.

The Founders' Day exercises, scheduled for last Thursday, were called off last Wednesday noon. No Founders' Day celebration will be held during the present college year.

Editorial Comment

THAT PRE-VACATION PLEA

With the coming of every vacation, there also comes a plea from the administration to get in touch with prospective students and inform them of the advantages offered by Ursinus. Too often, however, this plea follows the well-worn path through one ear and out the other. It is true, nevertheless, that a student can often perform valuable service during his stay at home. There are many young men and women, just out of high school, who are uncertain as to where they want to go to college and who would appreciate the bits of information which Ursinus students could give. The fact that they know they have an intimate friend here will be an added incentive to choose Ursinus as their future alma mater. Such service does not require any high pressure salesmanship but merely a friendly chat.

A second thing the student can do when on his vacation is to note any changes or openings in the faculty of his local high school and to report them to the Placement Bureau of the College. This is a point not very often stressed in the pre-vacation plea, but is of just as great importance as the first. Prospective teachers will, in this way, hear about many positions of which they would have undoubtedly remained unaware if dependent entirely upon the ordinary methods of the Placement Bureau.

INTRAMURALS—ATHLETICS FOR ALL

Intramural athletics have been the subject of much editorial comment in the past and will probably be written about many more times in the future. But with the ever increasing show of interest in contests of this sort, as indicated by the high spirit of friendly rivalry existing among the dormitories, the editors of this paper begin to take hope in the belief that their editorials are read at least once in a while.

However, there is no time like this—just before another series in the yearly program is about to begin—to raise the topic once again. It is significant that in the three years in which intramural sports have been incorporated into Ursinus' athletic activities, they have grown to include football, basketball, wrestling, foul-shooting, and baseball, and have been participated in by more than a hundred students yearly.

The real value of such activities is often forgotten in the excitement over the outcome of the contests. The physical education department, however, did not overlook it as is shown by its action in giving physical training credit to students participating. The administration, and Jing Johnson in particular, deserve a word of commendation for building up an intramural sports program such as Ursinus has.

GAFF from the GRIZZLY

Here's the height of something or other. "T. P." Glassmoyer, Rube Levin, Frankie Tworzydlo, and Tucker Beddow arguing over who is the most henpecked.

We'll fool the public and leave Ruth LeCron out.

Gaff is pleased to announce that it has added a new member to its staff. From this day henceforth, the Poet's Corner section of the column will be handled by Miss Ruth I. Hamma, recently of the Lantern.

Saturday night's slash dance was a howling success to the extent of $12.50. Forty-three couples, Sieber Pancoast, Rube Levin, and Teru Hayashi scintillated to the haunting melodies of Will LaMon and his five lemons, who were slightly impaired by the absence of Josiah Guitar and an indisposed brass section. Nevertheless, they warmed up their instruments to the tune of their theme song, "Keep the Home Fires Burning", and the dance went on while the chaperones huddled about the camp-fire in the southeast corner.

FROM OUR FILES

30 Years Ago
 Columbia started a movement for an intercollegiate wrestling league among the universities of the East and asked Yale, Harvard, and Princeton to join.

The football schedule for the coming year (1905) included Jefferson Medical College, Williamson, Lafayette, and Haverford.

20 Years Ago
 The varsity baseball team opened its season by defeating Drexel.

Goucher College compiled statistics to show the relation between marriage and a college education. The report said: "Statistics show that college women marry somewhat later, but more wisely, and the percentage of divorce among them is negligible."

10 Years Ago
 B. Wycliffe Griffin, representing Ursinus, won the State Oratorical championship. Preparations were being made for class day. The Men's Glee Club sang in Norristown. The tennis schedule included Moravian, P. M. C., Haverford, and Franklin and Marshall.

Personal Paragraphs on Timely Topics

What is your opinion concerning modifications or other changes in freshman regulations?

John Taylor '36: I think freshman customs at Ursinus are sufficient to distinguish first year students from upper-classmen. These rules have been built into a tradition here, and as such should be continued as they are at present.

Raymond Christy '37: It is only too evident that the freshman regulations should be revised. The administration of these rules should be changed, imposing a set of new rules and an entirely different manner of enforcing them, so as to lessen any attempts at breaking them.

John Tomlinson '38: From my experience as a freshman, I think the rules are stringent enough but they are not enforced to the extent that they should be; for example, the sending of freshmen on various duties by the upper-classmen. Next year I would like to see the rules obeyed.

Heraiah Newsome '35: On the surface freshman customs seem silly, but to me they serve two purposes: in the first place, they make it easy for upper-classmen to recognize all first year students on sight; secondly, they help the new student himself to recognize the fact that he must climb the 'college ladder' from the lowest rung.

Eugene Shelley '37: Little boys and girls of tender years are known to be charming, altogether lovely, and irresistible. But when one day the fond parent refuses to respond to commanding demands, the youngster flies into an intolerant rage. We frown, but excuse the childish performance. This same display in adults becomes revolting, pitiable. I think the analogy is applicable; and to avoid it change is essential.

Margaret Paxson '35: Customs should be modified; the student has a hard enough time adjusting himself to his new surroundings without making this adjustment more difficult. The student councils seem to defeat their own ends; with one hand they make life miserable for the frosh, and with the other try to aid them with advisory councils and what not. Does this make for progress in any direction?

THE MAIL BOX

To the Editor of the Weekly:

It is a well-known fact that college students and other young people of the same age group will provide the largest numbers to be slaughtered in the event of a war. Regardless of the catch-words, propaganda, and pressure methods used by munitions makers and others to get a war started (and to get America into it), the feature we should continually uncover to public view is that youth must feed the cannons if war comes.

War is never justified; it is never of value. Authorities concede that another general war similar to the last one will be, not a "war to end wars" but a war which will end civilization. The time to do something constructive about it is now, while there is yet peace. And in view of the fact that people of our age will suffer most if war comes, and the further fact that our generation looks to the college-trained youth for its leadership, we should act, and act quickly.

It is with this in mind that a large group of young people, representing various youth organizations, have issued a call for a Students' Anti-War Strike for April 12. The strike will last only an hour, I believe, but that hour can have a powerful effect through mobilizing public opinion, if the strike is generally entered into. Many of the metropolitan colleges have signified their intention of participating. Shall we, at Ursinus, sit back complacently in the face of ominous war clouds, or shall we take our place in the growing opposition to the whole war machine?

Let us, whom war concerns most, "wage peace"—and may our campaign begin with the Anti-War Strike of April 12.

H. Allen Cooper.

GRIZZLY GLEANINGS

Personal Pippings on Two-Bit Topics

In providing for a much needed improvement, would you prefer Prof. Donald de la Kocher (pronounced koshay) as dance master for Wreck hall, official stadium for all local rat races, or the inimitable Rubin "Twinkletoes" Levin, of pumphandle fame?

Madame Eleanor Lyle de Kocher, Queen of Wreck hall—In my opinion, Koshay's got it all over the Twinkletoes kid. Baby, can he step. As his official dancing partner I am never so thrilled as when Donald and I buzz around doing that flit gun hop. Hot stuff!

The Rt. Rev. H. Allen Cooper, D. D.—Now of course there's two sides to every question and it's all in the way one ponders over the situation. Ahem, several years ago in my youth, I patronized Wreck hall, and I daresay, modestly speaking, of course, that I could hold my own with the best dancers there. But now, ahem, in my official position as inspirational leader of those who seek knowledge of the gospel, I believe it will suffice to say that I am withholding my opinion forthwith since I deem it rather obnoxious for one of my status to be quoted on such a light subject.

Heru Tashayi, of the zooming voice—Koshay gets my vote because he can run backwards almost as good as I can. But I'll bet if I were taller I'd attract just as much attention as he does.

Plunky '38—For me, ze great Donald. Ah, how he waltzes. Ze ideal dance master; I tank I take him to ze Lorelly next year. Twinkletoes, bah, he ess a beeg peeg.

Sociology Sam Levin, Pumphantle's unrelated namesake—Whadya mean? Rube's the best. Look, sociologically speaking, he's got reflexes, Complexes, brain growth, heredity, environment, I mean, say can you figure this one out.....?

Miss Stinkey '38—It's immaterial to me. I'd have to get a step ladder to dance with Twinkletoes and an outboard motor to keep up with Koshay. Why not give us runts a break and establish a junior varsity Wreck hall in the Y. W. room and throw in the Jap, the Greek, Big Mike, and Little Caesar as "Danseuses"?

Lillian Barnett '35—As an exponent of the art of the dance, I'll select Rube. He's got that Tex Guinan complex as a host and besides I think he'd pass out more eats than Koshay in case there was a Wreck hall party.

Minerva, Derr's feline friend—Meow! They're both lousy. There's nobody like my Oscar, and even though he did duck me, I still love him and hope to make him happy some day soon.

Yale, Wallick, and Guest Debate Wagner College Here

One of the last of the Webster Forensic Society's home debates was contested last Tuesday evening, March 26, in Bomberger hall, before a meager audience. The issue was the munitions question, the opponents the negative team of Wagner College of Staten Island, New York.

This debate was in the nature of a practice debut for the three incoming freshmen club candidates who represented Ursinus, Charles Yale, Charles Wallick, and Paul Guest. The Wagner men were Messrs. Raub, Cordner, and Corbin. The Ursinus debating coach, Prof. Harvey L. Carter, officiated as chairman for the discussion.

Although there was no decision rendered, the debate was generally conceded to the visitors, by reason of their greater experience and recognized reputation. The orthodox plan of presentation was employed, with three ten-minute constructive speeches and three five-minute rebuttals allowed each side.

An interesting feature of the Wagner team was their arrival by airplane. The Wagner College administration, deeming their student debaters' itinerary would keep them too long away from their studies, chartered for them a New York plane to accelerate their return. The pilot's intention of landing on the Ursinus soccer field was frustrated, however, by adverse wind conditions, so the plane put down at the Pottstown airport.

Only two more home debates remain on the Ursinus schedule: one with F. and M. on April 26, and an indefinitely scheduled encounter with Dickinson.

Following these novels there was an open discussion.

At a meeting of the International Relations Club last Tuesday evening, March 26, the club discussed the question, "Is France justified in her stand toward Germany's recent action?"

Three speeches were given representing diverse view points. The speakers were: Alice Richard '35, who upheld Germany; Dorothy Witmer '37, who upheld France; and Rubin Levin '36, who weighed the situation impartially.

The speeches were followed by an open forum discussion.

MRS. PHILIP B. WILLAUER SPEAKS ON "SOCIAL WORK"

Advisory Council Speaker Relates Many Personal Experiences

A talk on "Social Work" was given by Mrs. Philip B. Willauer, last Monday night, March 25, at a meeting sponsored by the Advisory Council.

In listing the different classes of social work, she related several incidents from her own experience. The three types are: case work, unemployment relief work, and research work. Under these, Mrs. Willauer spoke about the various organizations which take care of each group, such as the Family Welfare Workers, the S. P. C. C., the Red Cross, and health clinics.

The training requisite for obtaining a position in the social field includes a college diploma, experience (such as volunteer work), and training in a school conducted by the social organization. "Such training," said Mrs. Willauer in speaking about those schools, "is not always absolutely necessary to obtain a position, but it guarantees a better position and organizations prefer trained and experienced employees. It is possible to work and attend school at the same time."

For two years Mrs. Willauer was visitor for the Philadelphia County

"America's History in Dance", a pageant written by Dorothy O'Brien '35, has been selected by a committee from the Y. W. C. A. of Norristown to be presented as one of the series of celebrations of Youth Week, April 29-May 4.

Miss O'Brien's pageant treats the development of the dance in America, and the various difficulties met and surpassed to make the dance American.

The committee which selected the pageant was composed of Ruth White '33, secretary of the younger girls' department of the Y. W. C. A.; Louella Mullin '33, workers' education teacher of the Y. W.; and Miss Olsen, health education secretary.

COEDS HOLD FIVE DEBATES AS SEASON DRAWS TO CLOSE

Elizabethtown, East Stroudsburg, And Kutztown Met

The munitions questions was discussed in a dual debate between Elizabethtown and Ursinus, Wednesday evening, March 27, 1935. The debate held here was won by the home-team, but lost at Elizabethtown. Miss Mirza of Collegeville High School was the critic judge here. The negative team traveled.

The debaters at Ursinus were Maude Funk '35, and Sarah Helen Keyser '36. The girls who debated at Elizabethtown were Janet Bardsley '35, and Nellie Wright '37, against Hilda Gibble and Leah Mousser of Elizabethtown.

The final debates on the question of munitions were held on Friday, March 29, when the Ursinus women's team met Kutztown State Teachers College on the home and visiting floors, and East Stroudsburg at East Stroudsburg.

The first contest was a dual engagement, the teams consisting of two speakers, orthodox style. The question debated was: "Resolved, that nations should agree to prevent the international shipment of arms and munitions. The affirmative team traveling to the opponent college consisted of Sarah Helen Keyser '36, and Florence Roberts '37.

The Ursinus negative team debated on Friday afternoon on the home floor. The team consisted of Janet Bardsley '35, and Sara Ennis '37. A single critic decision was given by Mr. Calvin D. Yost, Jr.

The same question was debated at East Stroudsburg in the evening, with Ursinus upholding the negative side. This was an Oregon style debate with Nancy Pugh '36, giving the constructive speech, and Bertha Francis '35, doing the cross-examining and rebutting.

The debating team is planning to contest Mount St. Joseph College, of Philadelphia. The question will be: "Resolved, that Section 7A of the National Industrial Recovery Act should be enacted into permanent legislation." The date for this debate has not been officially announced.

On "Why I am a Catholic"

Rev. Edward C. Hawkes, former Philadelphia minister but now converted to the Catholic faith, spoke before the Y. M.-Y. W. C. A. on Wednesday evening, March 27, on the subject, "Why I am a Catholic?"

He stated that Catholics held three ideas that principally distinguish that faith from Protestantism; namely, church unity, sacramental unity, and infallibility of the church head. Following the address, he led a lively discussion in open forum.

The Reverend Hawkes was formerly pastor and founder of St. Joan of Arc Parish in Philadelphia, and also chaplain in the Canadian army during the World War. Recently he has spoken at Pottstown and has figured prominently in various radio talks.

William Tempest '35, conducted the opening devotionals, and Gilbert Bartholomew '35, introduced the speaker. The organist was Richard Miller '37.

"Is this fact important to You?"

"Camels are made from finer, more expensive tobaccos... Turkish and Domestic... than any other popular brand." (SIGNED) R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company WINSTON-SALEM, NORTH CAROLINA

MILDNESS! "Every woman prefers a milder cigarette," says Miss Helene Bradshaw, an enthusiastic horsewoman. "Camels are the only cigarette I've ever found that is mild—and pleasing to your throat."

HEALTHY NERVES!

"I've smoked Camels for 14 years, without a sign of upset nerves," says Bill Horn, former Gold Cup winner and outstanding figure in American motorboat racing. "I like Camels and they like me."

ENERGY! "As a master builder, I have learned that any work requiring 'push' just naturally calls for Camels," comments Frazier Forman Peters. "Camels always give me new energy when I'm feeling listless."

FLAVOR! "It's been thrilling to have a part in the vast enterprise of building Boulder Dam," says Erwin Jones, Boulder Dam engineer. "Plenty of strain. Many long hours of exhausting work—that's the lot of an engineer on this job! A recent check-up shows that most of us here at Boulder smoke Camels. Man, what a swell flavor Camels have! Mild, cool, mellow! You can tell they are made from choice tobaccos, too, because they don't get 'flat' or tiresome in taste when you smoke a lot."

VALUE! "I've seen how Camels are manufactured," says Charley Belden, who runs the big Pitchfork ranch in Wyoming. "They are made from costlier tobaccos. No wonder Camels have such a rich, cool flavor!"

Johnson Represents Ursinus
At Collegiate Sport Meeting

R. C. Johnson, director of athletics, represented Ursinus at the meetings of the Eastern Pennsylvania Collegiate Basketball League and of the E. P. C. Baseball League, held at Gettysburg, Saturday, March 23.

Gettysburg was awarded the basketball championship for the fourth successive year, the entire time during which the league has been in existence. As the Bullets had gained permanent possession of the first trophy last season, a committee was appointed to purchase a new one.

For the third successive year, Captain Roy Johnson, center of Chase's courtmen, took third place in league scoring, this time with 120 points, according to statistics released last week-end.

Jacobs, of F. and M., who held first place last year, dropped to a tie for fourth. Johnson scored nine less points this season than last, but three more than in his sophomore year.

Of 69 players, Cliff Calvert stood eleventh; King Heiges, thirteenth; Ray Costello, nineteenth; Fuller Grenawalt, thirty-second, Paul Lauer, tie for thirty-seventh; and Frank Tworzydlo, thirty-ninth.

DR. OPPENHEIMER ADDRESSES
ANDERS PRE-MED SOCIETY

Dr. M. J. Oppenheimer '27, associated with the Department of Physiology at Temple Medical School, was the guest speaker at the Pre-Medical Society meeting last Wednesday evening, March 17, in the Science building.

His topic was the body's glandular control of menstruation and pregnancy. This subject, he explained, has been clothed in mystery until recent times; only in the past six years have the effects of the endocrine glands on sex physiology been discovered. The functions of the various endocrine glands were shown by means of blackboard diagrams.

Professor Brownback, in introducing the Ursinus alumnus, referred to him as a man who "has made good—very good—in his chosen field."

We advise the University of Paris as a remedy. From the Northwestern University Daily comes this: Then there was the woman who looked at the menu and called the bus boy to one side asking him which of the waiters was Tom Collins.

Baseball Team Wins, 14-4
In Practice Tilt, Saturday

Closing their third week of training, the Ursinus baseball team proved their prowess at bat and dexterity on the field by decisively subduing the Phoenixville Crusaders, 14-4.

Coach Jing Johnson can be well pleased with the prospects for the coming season with the fine showing his pitchers made on the mound. Trumbore, Johnson and Beyer held the crusaders to six hits and struck out 13 men. Sledge Beyer, pitching the last two frames, held his opponents hitless, no balls going past the infield, and fanned four. Trumbore and Johnson both proved themselves capable in the pinches when, with men on bases, they pulled themselves out of the hole via the strike outs. Jing, in Gaumer and Mowrey has two more able moundmen on whom he can depend for wins.

Fisher, veteran catcher for the Bears, started his season with a triple the first time at bat, and followed with two singles in his remaining times at the plate to prove himself an asset to the Grizzlies' batting forces. Wildonger, who fielded for the frosh last year, also aided his team by cracking out two bingles in three trips to the plate.

Flora Youngken Selected Manager;
Varsity Letters Awarded

When the varsity basketball players assembled last Friday, March 29, Mildred Godshall '36, was unanimously chosen to captain next year's court team.

The newly elected leader who succeeds Prudence Dedrick, came to Ursinus from the local high school in Collegeville where she early proved her athletic ability.

At Ursinus she continued her good work, and for three years earned a varsity berth in hockey as well as in basketball. With this record to her credit, her teammates honored her thus.

At the same time, Flora Youngken '37, who served as assistant manager, was promoted to the position of manager. Ditty Grounds '38, and Jenny Pallonis '38, were elected to serve as assistant managers.

Following these selections, the Athletic Association Council voted basketball letters to the following: Captain Prudence Dedrick '35, Captain-elect Mildred Godshall '36, Bertha Francis '35, Sylvia Erdman '37, Doris Roach '36, Virginia Fenton '37, Sarah Helen Keyser '36, Edna Myers '38, Alice Richard '35, and Manager Lydia Ganser '36.

TRACK PRACTICE BEGINS;
FIRST MEET TO BE MAY 4

In response to a call for track candidates, issued last week, over two dozen runners and field men have reported for practice. Coaches N. W. Rubin and Jack McAvoy have begun as soon as possible in order to whip the team into shape in time for the first meet on May 4 with Drexel. Five meets are included in this year's schedule.

The squad is slightly handicapped by the absence of Reggie Miller, this year's captain-elect and veteran javelin tosser. Miller also participated in the dashes. However, there is still much good material from last year's team, among whom are Rube Levin and Johnny Grimm, College record holders for the shot-put and hurdles, respectively; Bill Pole and Elmer Gaumer, high-jump; Gene Bradford, pole-vault; Harry Brian, half-mile, and Gordy Spangler and Norrie Johnson, mile.

Among the '34 graduates whose places will be hard to fill are ex-captain Wallie Tropp, who starred in the dashes, and Irv Sutin, veteran two miler.

Y. M. to Nominate Candidates
For 1935-36 College Year

The Y. M. C. A. cabinet will sit as a nominating committee on Thursday evening, to select candidates for office during the 1935-36 school year. In former years, this committee was the sole means whereby candidates could be placed on the ballot, but this year a petition containing the signatures of five students will be sufficient to place in nomination a candidate for president, vice-president, secretary, or treasurer. Such petitions must be handed to the president, Gilbert Bartholomew '35, by noon on Wednesday, April 3.

Candidates will be announced as soon thereafter as possible, and election will take place on Tuesday, April 9. It is also likely that there will be a revision of the constitution and by-laws of the organization with a view to increasing the functioning efficiency of the Y. M. C. A. program.

Committees for the Y. M.-Y. W. C. A. All-Ursinus week-end, to be held April 27 and 28, will be appointed this evening to arrange for the entertainment in the gymnasium and the installation of officers. Already three faculty members and three students have consented to participate as leaders in a panel discussion on Saturday afternoon. The remaining feature of the conference will be a worship service in Bomberger on Sunday morning.

THREE STUDENTS ATTEND REGIONAL YOUTH CONCLAVE

Three representatives from Ursinus attended the Regional Youth Conference held in Philadelphia on March 29, 30, and 31. The students who took part were Gilbert Bartholomew '35, Mabel Shelley '36, and Dorothy Witmer '37.

This was the last of 26 Regional Youth Conferences held in various parts of the United States and had its outgrowth in the national Christian Youth Conference held this summer. 500 registered delegates from Philadelphia and vicinity attended.

Miss Witmer addressed a group of adult leaders on the attitude of the young people toward the Church, based on a survey made of a representative cross-section of the College.

Following the banquet on Friday night, five after-dinner speakers, each representing a different college, spoke on "New Frontiers", developing the topic as each saw fit. Thelma Smith '36, from Ursinus, spoke on "New Frontiers" for Women, since, she explained, only four of the thirty-six delegates were women. This contest was won by Mr. Rosenberg of Dickinson, who projected the broad subject into "New Frontiers in a Philosophy of Life".

Ursinus was represented at the conference by Prof. Harvey L. Carter, Thelma Smith '36, Dora Evans '36, and H. Allen Cooper '35.

A plan for the retirement of Professors and Administrative officers was presented as was also a communication from the Alumni Association. Owing to the absence of the President of the Board and the President of the College action in these matters was deferred until the annual meeting in June.

The Board took recognition of the death of one of its members, Mayne R. Longstreth, Esq., who served as a member of the Board for twenty-eight years. An appropriate minute was adopted and entered on the permanent records.

STUDENT COUNCIL SPONSORS INFORMAL DANCING IN GYM

The success of the informal dancing, held in the gymnasium last Saturday night from 8:00 to 10:00 p. m., gives promise that other similar affairs will be held in the future. Over thirty couples and about twenty stags attended the function which was sponsored by the Mens' Student Council.

The dance was held merely as a social affair, all proceeds going to the College Orchestra which provided the music. The chaperones were Dr. Elizabeth B. White, Dr. J. Lynn Barnard, and Prof. and Mrs. J. Harold Brownback.

The Women's Debating Club will meet at Fircroft tonight at 8:00. Mildred Peterman '35, and Agnes Baker '36, will impersonate German women and present the various aspects of the present German situation. The club will discuss these aspects informally.
