OVER 100 TO ATTEND I. N. A. CONCLAVE

Kermit Harbaugh To Head Weekly

Thomas J. Beddow Is Elected to Advertising Managership By Managerial Board

FREAS IS CIRCULATION MGR.

E. Kermit Harbaugh '36, was elected Editor-in-Chief of the Weekly and Thomas J. Beddow '36, was chosen advertising manager, at a meeting of the Board of Managers held last Thursday evening, April 4, when the annual election of a new staff took place.

The new editor will assume office immediately and will have charge of the issuing of the paper for the rest of the year. He has served on the staff throughout his College career, first as sports reporter and then as associate editor.

The new head of the Weekly is a graduate of Gettysburg High School, and has been in a wide variety of activities at Ursinus. He is secretary-treasurer of the Webster Forensic Club, and of the Varsity Club. He is a member of Tau Kappa Alpha, of the International Relations Club, of the 1935 and 1936 Ruby staffs, and of Sigma Rho

LANTERN STAFF TO OFFER PRIZE FOR BEST STORY

Faculty Members to Act as Judges; Contest Closes May 1

The Lantern staff has announced that a five-dollar prize will be awarded to the student who submits the best short story for publication in its next issue.

The prize will be given on the basis of the literary value of the work as judged by a group competent to serve in this capacity. The story may deal with any subject, plot, and background, and must be between 2200 and 3000 words in length. The judges for the contest will be Dr. N. E. McClure, Professor M. W. Witmer, and Mr. C. D. Yost, Jr., according to a recent statement made by the editor, Dorothy Thomas '35.

The rules of the contest are as follows:

- (1) The story must not be less than 2200 words or more than 3000 words in length.
- (2) All manuscripts must be typewritten.
- (3) The final date for submitting manuscript is 10 p. m., May 1.
- (4) Do not put your name on the manuscript. Write the title of your story and your name on a separate sheet of paper, and submit it in a sealed envelope. The envelopes will not be opened until after the winning story has been chosen.
- (5) Manuscripts should be left in a box provided in the office of the Registrar.

While no cash prize is being offered for the short story which wins second place, the writing which wins this distinction will be published in the magazine with the announcement of the award.

VARSITY CLUB POSTPONES BANQUET UNTIL MAY 2

The annual Varsity Club banquet originally scheduled for Thursday evening, April 11, has been postponed until May 2, on account of circumstances making it impossible for W. R. Okeson, the speaker, to attend.

The time, place and other details of the previous arrangements remain the same.

As Mr. Okeson will then be present, the general plan of the program will be the same. New invitations are being sent to the letter men of the class of '34. A large attendance is expected.

E. KERMIT HARBAUGH
The new Weekly editor will assume office immediately.

All-Ursinus Conference Planned for April 27

Theme to Be "College Education And Religious Expression"

ENTERTAINMENT IS INCLUDED

"College Education and Religious Expression" will be the theme of a panel discussion in the opening session of the All-Ursinus Conference on Saturday afternoon, April 27.

The members of the panel, comprised of Rev. John Lentz, Prof. George Tyson, Prof. Harvey Carter, Dorothy Thomas '35, Rubin Levin '36, and Allen Cooper '35, and representing a wide range of interests, will attack the problem from diverse viewpoints.

This week-end program will be the third annual conference of its type. Through it the Y. M.-Y. W. C. A. organizations seek to focus campus attention on a timely subject of contemporary interest. The leaders are exclusively Ursinus students and faculty members.

The general committee which has arranged for the various events is composed of Prof. Marcus C. Old, Prof. Maurice O. Bone, Dorothy Witmer '37, Wilhelmina Meinhardt '36, William Evans '35, and Charles George '35.

On Saturday evening, April 27, an entertainment novel to the Ursinus campus, to be held in the gymnasium, at 8 o'clock, has been planned by the social committee. This part of the program is in charge of Elizabeth Evans '36, Margaret Paxson '35, Charles George '35, and George Stoudt '35.

Gilbert Bartholomew '35, will deliver the sermon at the student church service at 10:00 a. m., Sunday, April 28, in Bomberger chapel. Dorothy Horne '35, will read the Scriptures, and special musical selections will complete the worship. The sermon topic will be "Religion and Life," and will include a summary of the previous day's panel discussion. The candlelight ceremony will be used to install the newly-elected officers of both organizations at the Sunday evening service.

Wilhelmina Meinhardt '36, and Robert McLaughlin '36, head the publicity committee, and Mabel Shelley '36, and Pearce Smith '35, are preparing the programs.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM TO BANQUET ON WEDNESDAY

The formal close of the women's basketball season will be signified, when the "letter-coeds" travel to Valley Forge to be feted at a banquet on Wednesday night.

The event, an annual affair, is most significant in that letters and awards are made to the members of the team by the coach, Miss Snell.

Those who will attend include: Coach Snell, Assistant Coach Ouderkirk, Captain Dedrick, Captain-elect Godshall, Bup Francis, Sarah Helen Keyser, Sydvia Erdman, Edna Meyers, Doris Roach, Gina Fenton, Alice Richard, and Manager Ganser.

Promenade, Play Pleases Patrons

Junior Week-end Is Outstanding Financial Success of Recent Class Affairs

115 COUPLES ATTEND PROM

The annual Junior Week-end, featuring the promenade on Friday evening and the play on Saturday evening, was both a financial and social success.

Approximately 115 couples danced to the music of Phil Emerton's Diamonds, consisting of ten men and a woman vocalist, Miss Doris Lee. The slower tempos which predominated were favored by the large crowd, with whom the faster numbers were not so popular.

The gymnasium was decorated in white and in two shades of blue. Dark streamers, from which stars were hung, ran from the center to the sides of the building. The chaperones were seated in an alcove, constructed with white crepe paper, and silhouettes were placed here and there on the white and blue walls.

The Junior Week-end was brought to a successful close, Saturday night, when an appreciative audience of more than three hundred people witnessed the class' presentation of "Hawk Island", a three-act murder mystery by Howard Young.

Honors for the best performance of the evening go without doubt to Montgomery Weidner, who, in the leading male role, gave a splendid portrayal of the young and care-free Gregory Sloane. Mr. Weidner's apparent ease at all times and his fine stage presence in every kind of situation make this by far his best performance on the Ursinus stage.

Playing opposite Weidner, Elizabeth Evans also carried very well the part of Sally Rogers, a serious-minded young girl just out of college. In view of the fact that this was Miss Evans' first part of importance in an Ursinus play, special credit is due her for the naturalness of her manner throughout the performance.

In the supporting cast, Donald Ohl and Jessie Wilson deserve special mention for their enactments of the dour, sarcastic Paul Cooper and his highly excitable wife.

William Solly, as the egotistical and superficial writer of mystery

I. N. A. DANCE, FRIDAY EVE., RESTRICTED TO DELEGATES

Fifty Ursinus Coeds to Provide the Dates for Visiting Newsmen

Plans are completed for the dance of the Intercollegiate Newspaper Association on this Friday evening, April 12, from eight until twelve o'clock. Music will be furnished by Will Lamon and his College Club Orchestra of which the full membership—nine men—will be present.

Admission to the affair will be by ticket only. The large number of I. N. A. delegates expected makes it impossible to admit Ursinus students, other than I. N. A. delegates or those accompanied by I. N. A. delegates.

Mildred Fox '35, Anne Grimm '35, and Ione Hausmann '35, who are in charge of securing dates for the incoming newsmen, report that between 45 and 50 Ursinus coeds will remain for the occasion. Thomas J. Beddow '36, chairman of the sub-committee in charge of the dance, reports that the gymnasium will be decorated for the evening's festivities.

The chaperones for the dance will be: Dr. Elizabeth B. White, Dr. Calvin D. Yost, Mr. Calvin D. Yost, Jr., Dr. J. S. Heiges, and Prof. and Mrs. Harvey L. Carter.

Dr. Luther A. Harr, Secretary of Banking, To Address Closing Banquet on Saturday

Cups to Be Given for Excellence in News, Editorials, Advertising; Mueller Appointed Member of Nominating Committee

President of Y. W. C. A.

SORORITY ABOLITION FAVORED

Elizabeth Evans '36, was elected president of the Women's Student Government Association at the annual election, which was held Wednesday, April 3, in the Recreation hall.

On the same ballots the voter was asked whether she favored the abolition of sororities. Abolition was favored, 79-63, but this vote has no official effect.

Wilhelmina Meinhardt '36, was elected president of the Y. W. C. A. The other officers chosen were: Charlotte Tyson '37, vice-president; Virginia Beck '38, secretary; and Mildred Gring '36, treasurer.

The W. A. A. officers who were elected by members of that organization only are: Doris Roach '36, president; Virginia Fenton '37, vice-president, and Dorothea Benner '38, treasurer.

A new policy of voting was inaugurated this year. Instead of voting in Bomberger during the lunch hour, the elections were held in the Recreation hall from 9 to 1:30 o'clock. Two representatives from each class took charge of the voting; each class was provided with a ballot box, so that voting might proceed in a fair and orderly manner. Printed ballots were used.

W. A. A. TO MEET TONIGHT

The Women's Athletic Association will meet tonight in the gymnasium at 8:00 p. m. The entertainment which will follow the short business meeting, presided over by president Prudence Dedrick '35, is in charge of Doris Roach '36, the newly-elected president.

Each of the 84 members, women who have earned at least 50 points by participating in college athletics, is urged to attend. Refreshments will be served.

DR. OMWAKE REMAINS ILL

Dr. George L. Omwake remains very critically ill with a valvular condition of the heart. Reports from the hospital indicate that he is daily growing weaker.

Attendance of delegates will pass the 100-mark at the convention of the Intercollegiate Newspaper Association of the Middle Atlantic States here next Friday and Saturday.

One of the late developments over the past week-end was the fact that Dr. Luther A. Harr, treasurer of the Philadelphia Record and of the New York Evening Post, and at present Secretary of Banking for Pennsylvania, will address the closing banquet of the I. N. A. at Norristown on Saturday evening.

At that time also, Don Rose, columnist for the Evening Public Ledger, will speak, and awards will be made to outstanding member papers. A cup will be awarded to the paper having the best editorials and another cup to the one which is superior in news qualities. The judges, who have received copies of member papers for their consideration, are:

Herbert D. Brauff, publisher of the Vandergrift News; E. J. Titon, editor of the Brownsville Telegraph; Professor P. I. Read, head of the department of journalism, Univ. of West Virginia.

For the first time in the history of I. N. A. a cup will be awarded to the newspaper showing superior qualities in its advertising. The purpose of this is to spur the advertising managers to greater effort and to encourage more careful make-ups of advertisements. The judges in this contest are:

William B. Tracy, president of Tracy, Parry, Inc.; W. S. Davis, advertising agent of the Reading Railroad; Wesley Gilman, vice-president of N. W. Ayre and Son.

The first session of the convention will open promptly at 2:15 p. m. in the Science Building Auditorium on Friday afternoon. The I. N. A. dance will take place on Friday evening, to be followed by separate sessions of the editors and business managers on Saturday morning and afternoon. At least 12 speakers, variously connected with newspaper work, will address the association at some time during its two-day session. (The program in detail will be found on page 5).

At the business session on Saturday afternoon, officers will be elected for 1935-36. President Herbert Stare, of Gettysburg College, has appointed Frederick Mueller '35, retiring business manager of the Weekly, a member of a committee of four to nominate candi-

Editorial Comment

OFFENSES AND OBLIVION

The election of a new Weekly staff leads us to consider our good and bad deeds as newsmen. We have offended a few people with our editorial comment; "Mr. Grizzly Gleanings" has stepped on some toes; and all the campus personalities—not excluding several members of the faculty!—have received honorable mention in "Gaff".

An impartial member of the administration reveals that the two chief charges against us are: 1. numerous proof reading mistakes; 2. garbled alumni notes. To our public—forgive us our errors, as we forgive those who handed in articles late or not at all. To the new staff—take heed lest ye follow our desultory ways.

We deeply regret that, due to the illness of Dr. Omwake, "The Tower Window" was not a part of our paper during the last two months. This column, to which many of our readers turned first, has been a unique and vital feature of the Weekly for over 20 years.

One year ago tomorrow we declared in our first editorial: "We hope to form a constructive editorial policy, based on the joint beliefs of the editor and associate editors. Any editorial appearing in this column will represent, as far as possible, the opinion of the editorial writers as a group, and will not be merely the individual opinion of the person who wrote it." We believe that we have accomplished that.

A faculty member has warned us: "A year from now everyone will have forgotten those who were on this staff." We know that oblivion awaits us, as it did Ozymandias. We know, too, that "revolutionists never attain their ideals", whether they are in politics or in newspaper work.

WE WELCOME THE I. N. A.

The Weekly is glad to be host to the Intercollegiate Newspaper Association of the Middle Atlantic States for the second time during the 16 years of that organization's existence and for what will probably be the second largest convention in I. N. A. history.

Prospects are excellent that both the registration and the actual attendance at sessions will be large. It will not take our visitors over five minutes to see the town; we have neither movie palaces nor night clubs, elite or otherwise, to distract their attention. On the other hand, we believe that we have a program which they will want to hear.

One of the chief values to be derived from a convention such as this is the chance to exchange ideas with fellow college newsmen. Improvements made in newspapers of the association tend to spread to all member papers, and a general improvement in collegiate journalism is the result.

In regard to the convention this Friday, the Weekly extends its thanks:

To Dean Whorten A. Kline, Dr. J. Lynn Barnard, Dr. Norman E. McClure, Mr. Philip B. Willauer, Mr. Russell C. Johnson, and Mr. Calvin D. Yost, Jr., for the speakers whom they suggested.

To the treasurer's and the administrative offices for various favors.

To Mr. Harry M. Price for his cooperation in furnishing meals.

To Mr. Walter Burns for his assistance now and throughout the year.

To those students who will permit I. N. A. delegates to use their rooms during the convention.

COLLEGIATE SPOTLIGHT

This is the last round-up—or sumpin' so let's take a look at what we've got. There are five per cent more students in the United States this year than last, fourteen per cent more are freshmen. Even the depression can't keep them out of college.

There are about a million students in nearly 600 institutions (educational, to be sure). This is in the line of statistics, too. Eight per cent of the girls at Skidmore College admitted they had been kissed. Better hop up there and look into things, boys! Then just to go snooty I guess, Washington and Jefferson has announced that they will not grant degrees to women after this year.

Up at the University of New Hampshire a student recently solved the flat-tire-and-no-spare problem by using skis on the front wheels when he came face to tire with such a situation. His education isn't failing him. Temple suggested these grammatical quips: Colon, a perfume; comma, box that snaps pictures; noun, lunch hour; Book, slang term for dollar; quote, usually worn with pants.

Here's a more interesting item: a girl at the University of Denver collects buttons—has over 500 of them including one from Lily Pons and one from Sally Rand—imagine Sally! To close, note that a survey at Cornell reveals that most students sleep twice as much as they study. Ho-hum!

I guess I'll sleep now or else take a walk in the Moon-light.

Personal Paragraphs on Timely Topics

Do you favor more 15-cent dances like the one held on Saturday, March 30?

Joe Sholl '38: I think that the Student Council should sponsor more informal Saturday night dances. The price is so low that it makes it possible for all students to attend. Those who live at a long distance from the College and who are not able to go home week-ends would have an opportunity to enjoy their Saturday nights.

Don Ohl '36: The inexpensive Saturday night dance is a boon to the student who must spend his week-ends on campus. The College Orchestra has become a noteworthy organization deserving of our support. I am sure one could appreciate his College more, if he stayed to attend one of these dances instead of performing the usual weekly exodus.

Nancy Harman '38: The present number of dances is sufficient. However, I believe that the small Saturday night dances should be continued in the place of Rec hall. These dances would act as an incentive for the students to stay on campus over the week-end, and they would give the students a chance to make new and better friends.

Herbert E. Stratton '35: The "little" dance held some time ago was a good example of what has been needed on our campus for a long time. It gives those that have to stay on campus something to do at a small outlay, as well as encourages others to remain on campus.

Raymond Costello '37: Dances of this sort, in my opinion, are a great aid in the social activities of this campus. They should be held more often and the hours extended. Those taking dates, however, should not be offended by others cutting in. The band itself has great possibilities and every Ursinus student should aid it in this manner.

Evelyn M. Hoover '35: The dance ten days ago was an example of the students' appreciation of something to do over a week-end. However, to appeal to all, the idea must be conveyed that it is a form of "glorified" Rec hall, and that one need not be escorted or escort.

GRIZZLY GLEANINGS

(Editor's Note: A rock inscription from the diary of a Pleistocene cave man was recently unearthed by Elmer Binchell, Ursinus student geology bug. After much labor the stone relic was finally deciphered by Mr. Binchell, with the authoritative aid of Prof. Greenback.)

March 3, 601, 935 B. C. Rock Pile, Caveshire.

Have now been at Bear Tail College for twenty moons. It is a great life. My fathers were right when they told me it would make a real animal of me. I am learning fast. Killed a professor two suns ago for putting me on the Bean's list. Am making a big hit with the grass-skirts, too. That cave man stuff gets 'em. This fraternity stuff is the dinosaur's roar, also. Nothing like a frat cave-party, with plenty of pterodactyl-blood cocktails and kidnapped babes.

But what is the best entertainment is initiating a bunch of pledges. Took twenty into our Freak-letter society last sundown, and did we sweat their manes off! Nobody'll ever be able to think up things like we made 'em do.

First we made 'em take off their tyranosaurus skins. Then we tied vine-bags over their heads so they couldn't see, and lined 'em up along a cliff. All of the brothers had flint clubs along, and we mauled them slightly.

When they came to, we began to prepare 'em for the "ride". We laid 'em stark in a cave, and one of the brothers stole a bag of whale-brain glue. With this we muchly annotated their hairy torsos. (For the benefit of the uninitiated, I will explain that whale-oil glue is of an unholy stickiness.) It was indeed a pleasure to pry some of the frosh up from the stone floor.

We completed this operation by generously besprinkling their syrupy torsos with ground stag feed. We were fortunate in having a brother whose father owned a feed pountery. Then, after prodding the pledges with our mammoth-tusk spears into donning their skins, we fed them moving herbs to break the monotony of their journey.

Harnessing a mastodon-sledge, we then drove the whole lot many trailings away from the campus, and left them to thumb their way back. Those who were not killed by beasts, or did not fall into sink-holes, or did not die of fatigue and glue-rub, arrived back the next sun-up sufficiently alive to take them into the frat.

Upon leaving several of them, we also gave them stone notes, sending them upon diverse ingenious errands. For instance, we had one freshman travel to a cave village some trailings away, to obtain the signature of a femme with whom several of the brothers were acquainted. A harmless errand, to be sure, but this pledge was one of the number who failed to return.

But I must close this sun's scratching. One of my room-mates has just been drowned in a friendly water battle with a neighboring dormitory-cave. Besides I must go out and slay a neighboring villager for tomorrow sun's anatomy class.

GAFF from the GRIZZLY

Dubious frowns on tired junior faces, when the prom began on Friday night, turned to smug grins, as the pocketbooks of friends of Ursinus went flat.

The week-end even crowded the posting of the dean's list into the gloomy periphery of the spotlight.

"Twinkletoes" Levin won out at the prom by default when the much-heralded Donaldo failed to show up. The following evening came the passing of Donaldo.

Koshay is dead—Rec hall is safe. Long live "Twinkletoes"!

Dame rumor hath it that Dr. Andrew Jakomas will chaperon the next prom. He managed to chisel into the receiving line for a while this time.

And such confessions. "I thought all the girls would grieve over my demise" brags Donaldo, while Jessie Wilson exclaims "My husband never agrees with anyone about anything."

That's the way it goes: the school made merry, while the juniors made money.

FROM OUR FILES

30 Years Ago

The Schaff Society debated the question: "Resolved, that the United States should adopt the initiative and referendum."

An editorial appeared in the Weekly advocating the discharging of the cap and gown for many of the ceremonies for which it was then worn.

MEN'S COUNCIL DRAWS UP MODEL CLASS CONSTITUTION

Document to Be Presented to All Incoming Classes for Adoption

A "Model Class Constitution" to be presented to all freshman classes for their approval was adopted by the Men's Student Council at its meeting, last Thursday noon.

The committee which drew up the constitution consisted of John Grimm '36, chairman, James Reese '36, and Herman Bassman '36.

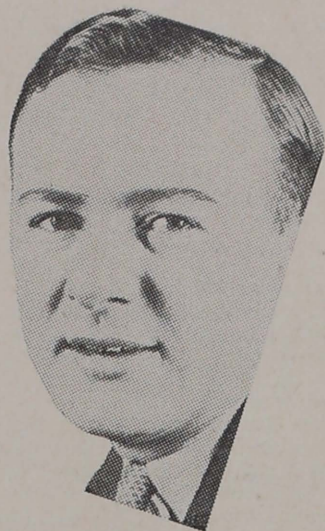

It is proposed to offer this constitution to all future freshman classes, for their adoption. Theoretically, this adoption is optional, but its merits, the council feels, should secure the approbation of incoming classes. For its first year, the entering class must make use of this constitution in its original form. At the beginning of the second year, if its members see fit, the class may amend the constitution.

The salient features of the organ are as follows:

Freshman class officers shall be nominated the last week in October, upper-class officers the third week after the Easter vacation; elections shall be held one week later. The class president and secretary shall be women. These officers shall assume their duties immediately after election in the freshman year, and upon Commencement Day in the three upper classes.

The machinery of election shall be supervised the first year by the junior class president. All officers must be elected by a majority. The powers of these officers shall be

CLAIR HARE

WILLIAM D. REIMERT

Clair Hare, a member of the Evening Public Ledger news staff, will give the first address to the delegates of the Intercollegiate Newspaper Association, on Friday afternoon shortly after 2:15. His theme will be newspaper work as a livelihood.

William D. Reimert will address the editors on Saturday, at 1 p. m., on the necessity of newspapermen's taking a stand on problems of the day. He is an ex-editor of the Ursinus Weekly and has recently been promoted to the managing editorship of the Allentown Chronicle and News.

those generally recognized by parliamentary procedure.

The dues for the whole four years shall be eight dollars, two dollars to be paid by the end of the sophomore year, and six dollars by the end of the senior year. Special fees may be levied by majority vote.

All financial transactions of the treasurer and any committees must be accounted for in written reports in class meetings. Amendments, if added after the first year, can only be adopted by a two-thirds vote of three-fourths of the class membership.

Netmen to Open Court Season
Two Days After Easter Recess

Two days after the close of the Easter vacation, Coach Harvey L. Carter's netmen will play the first contest of their eleven-match schedule, when they will oppose Muhlenberg in Allentown.

Veterans from last year's team, who will probably see action in most of the contests are: Captain Jesse Heiges, Jack Davison, Clayton Worster, and Mitchell Fenimore. The graduation of Ev Danehower left open a fifth position for which several additional candidates will probably compete. Eligibility rules will prevent freshmen from participating in intercollegiate competition.

The local courts may not be ready for use until after the Easter vacation, although they are being rolled at present. The racquet-wielders will probably have to get their practice on the Norristown courts or elsewhere, in the meantime.

Coach Carter comments that "we should succeed in ending the season in the upper division". The complete schedule follows:

- April 25, Thurs., Muhlenberg, away.
- April 30, Tues., Villanova, away.
- May 3, Fri., Osteopathy, away.
- May 4, Sat., St. Joseph's, home.
- May 6, Mon., Albright, home.
- May 11, Sat., Osteopathy, home.
- May 14, Tues., Villanova, home.
- May 15, Wed., Drexel, away.
- May 18, Sat., Lebanon Valley, home.

FRENCH STUDENTS HEAR
JOSEPH PARLAMOUNTAIN

Joseph Parlamountain, former French Professor at Boston University, spoke to the combined French classes at 1:00 p. m. Thursday, April 4. Mr. Parlamountain is now a representative of the McMillan Publishing Company.

The speaker had no definite subject but spoke against war. He pointed out its horrors and disastrous results by quoting French authors from the time of Victor Hugo to the modern French writer, Jean Giraudous. An outstanding feature was Mr. Parlamountain's reading of the last act of Giraudous' "Seigfried."

About fifty students were present at the meeting. The play which was scheduled to be given in French Club has been postponed until Wednesday, May 15.

TRACK PRACTICE STARTS; DREXEL IS FIRST OPPONENT

Grimm, Bradford, Levin, Expected To Score Heavily

Although the places of Wally Tropp, last year's captain, Irv Sutton, distance star, and Reggie Miller, absentee captain-elect, will be hard to fill, the Bear track and field men are looking forward to a good season.

The team is headed by Johnny Grimm, hurdler and broad jumper, Rube Levin, sprinter and weight-heaver, and Gene Bradford, pole-vaulter and weight man, a trio of juniors who were consistent winners last year. Much is expected from them as well as from Gaumer and Pole, high-jumpers, Bassler Rinehart, Brian, Johnson, and Spangler, all last-year place winners.

Wynkoop and Reynolds, cross-country men, should strengthen the distance departments. Straub and Murray are also expected to garner points.

This year will be the first in which freshmen are not eligible for track. This means that coaches McAvoy and Rubin must depend entirely on the development of last year's material.

The squad is out nightly and is gradually rounding into shape for its first meet of the season on May 4 with Drexel. With the runners and field men showing up well in early season practices, the prospects of having a fairly well-balanced team, which will give a good account of itself, are encouraging.

The complete schedule follows:
May 4—Drexel, home
May 10-11—Middle Atl't's, Lehigh
May 14—Albright, away
May 18—St. Joseph's, home
May 22—F. and M., home

DEBATERS' IMPERSONATIONS SHOW REACTION TO HITLER

A program featuring two impersonations was presented at the Women's Debating Club meeting at Fircroft hall, last Monday evening, April 1.

Under the direction of Alice Richard '35, program chairman, Agnes Baker '36, and Mildred Peterman '36, impersonated two German women, victims of the Hitler regime and exiles to America. They presented their personal reactions to Hitler's program, and also their immigrant impressions of America.

After this intimate dialogue was concluded, the "German guests" were questioned by the members of the club concerning the reactions of the German people to Hitler's dictates, the Jewish persecutions, and Germany's military policies.

Election of Y. M. C. A. Officers To Take Place Tomorrow Noon

Election of Y. M. C. A. officers for next year will take place tomorrow, Tuesday, April 9, after lunch. The "Y" cabinet at a meeting last Thursday nominated the following candidates:

For president, Robert McLaughlin '36, and Paul Shelly '36; for vice president, Harry Fenstermacher '37, and Eugene E. Shelley '37; for secretary, Jack Taylor '36, and Louis Krug '37; for treasurer, John Brown '36, Sieber Pancoast '37, and Lester Brown '38.

Gilbert Bartholomew '35, this year's president of the men's organization, has appointed William Tempest '35, William Evans '35, Theodore Boysen, Jr. '36, and Eugene E. Shelley '37, to serve as a Constitutional Revision Committee. Charles George '35, will serve as an ex-officio member of the committee.

The Y. M. C. A. constitution now in use has served since pre-war times, and has become outmoded, it was explained. The committee will submit their suggestions for revision at a May meeting of the society.

Plans for Y. M. C. A. meetings this month have been postponed.

FLAVOR! "Camels have a great taste—rich and pleasing," says Herman J. Lamkin, linotype operator. "I've smoked them for many years. I can smoke as steadily as I want to, and Camels don't ever affect my nerves."

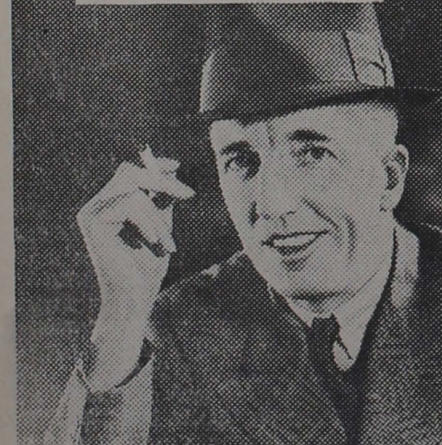

ENERGY! An editor gives his experience: "The enjoyable way of easing strain is smoking Camels," says Ray Baker. "Camels bring back my 'pep,' and I can tackle the next big story with renewed energy!"

SO MILD! Miss Margaret Nichols, expert woman reporter, says: "Camels are a smoother smoke. They have a mild flavor—delicate and pleasing—entirely different from any other cigarette. Camels taste better!"

HEALTHY NERVES! Pat Robinson, sports writer, says: "I've been smoking Camels ever since they were put on the market. I smoke at least two packs of Camels a day. They never interfere with my nerves."

VALUE! "Camels are made from costlier tobaccos. They're the real 'extra value' cigarette," says E. E. C. Pickwood, ace news-photographer, who often uses fast airplanes to get "front page pictures" for a great New York newspaper. "I'm loyal to Camels," Pickwood continues. "They taste so much richer and smoother—never frazzle your nerves. I have smoked Camels for years and I, too, would 'walk a mile for a Camel.'"

Clair Hare, Don Rose to Speak To Newspaper Conclave Here

Outstanding among those who will address the I. N. A. convention, next Friday and Saturday are Dr. Luther A. Harr, treasurer of the Philadelphia Record and the N. Y. Evening Post, and Secretary of Banking; Don Rose, writer of the column "Stuff and Nonsense" for the Evening Public Ledger; and Clair Hare, staff member of the Evening Ledger.

Don Rose, a teacher for several years, in 1925 began a one-man magazine entitled "Stuff and Nonsense". In 1929 it became a feature of the North American Review, and its owner joined the staff of that magazine as associate editor, at the same time serving as literary critic for the Forum magazine.

Mr. Rose later joined the editorial staff of the Evening Public Ledger and his column became a regular feature of that paper about three years ago. He has recently published two "Stuff and Nonsense Scrap Books" and is planning a third.

Clair Hare has had wide experience in many fields of newspaper work. He has been a member of the staffs of six papers, usually in the sports department. He began his newspaper career in 1915 as a copy boy for the Philadelphia Press, and soon joined the Philadelphia Inquirer as a member of its sports staff.

He has also served on the Public Ledger, the Philadelphia Sun, and was sports editor of the N. Y. Post from 1933-34. In 1930 and 1931 he was president of the Philadelphia Sporting Writers' Association. At present he is a member of the news staff of the Evening Public Ledger, which he joined last January

Trumbore Pitches Two-Hit Contest But Bears Fail in Pinches

Despite the superb pitching of "Lefty" Trumbore, Coach "Jing" Johnson's tossers lost their opening game Saturday afternoon, to Lafayette at Easton, 3-2.

Although Trumbore allowed but two hits, the one was a four-bagger by Weiss scoring Nesi who had been walked. The other Lafayette run also came through a base on balls and an error, when Santoro's throw to first was low.

Ursinus scored when Gensler tripled in the third inning and then was brought home by Sacks' bingle. Lafayette, however, scored in the latter half of the inning to even the count at which it stood for the next two frames.

Weiss's homer which bounded off Harvey's glove, as the Bear left fielder was attempting an over-shoulder catch, put the Maroons ahead and accounted for their victory.

The Bears lost their winning chances in the seventh when, with the bases loaded and none out, Gensler, who had previously hit a triple and a single when up before, drove into a double play. Wildonger, first up for the Grizzlies, was hit by a pitched ball. Santoro then got to first on O'Hara's error, and Harvey beat out a bunt which filled the bases. However, Wildonger was the only one to score, as both Gensler and Harvey were thrown out on the double, and Santoro was tossed out while taking too big a lead off third.

A walk put Calvert on base in the ninth and Wildonger's sacrifice advanced him to second. Although Santoro, next up for the Bears, was thrown out at first, the play enabled Calvert to advance to third. "Jing" chose Roy Johnson, leading slugger of last years nine, for the task of tying the score but Dumont, ace Leopard hurler, tightened up and fanned the Grizzly's pinch-hitter on three tosses.

ENGLISH CLUB TO MEET

The English Club will hold its regular meeting this evening, at 6:45 o'clock, at Maples. Talks will be given on Ruth Suckow's "The Folks," by Ruth Burrows '35, and on James Hilton's "Good-bye, Mr. Chips," by Lyndell Reber '36.

dates for the office of president and secretary for next year.

Arrangements for the I. N. A. convention have been brought to completion through the efforts of a committee headed by Jesse Heiges '35, chairman; Dora Evans '36, Mildred Fox '35, Anne Grimm '35, Ione Hausmann '35, Thomas Beddow '36, Thomas Glassmoyer '36, Kermit Harbaugh '36, and Frederick Mueller '35.

stories, gave a fine performance, although at times his gestures and manner of speaking became too noticeably artificial. Donald Kocher, as Donald Parish, the murdered man, seemed a bit weak in the opening portion of the play, but his later improvement both in voice and manner made him effective in the role of an easy-going unfaithful husband.

The difficult role of the jealous husband and unsuspected murderer, Tom Austen, was played by Oscar Freas. Although a bit uncertain and hesitant at times, Mr. Freas gave a good character interpretation. Elizabeth Krusen, as his wife in love with Parish, had the difficult task of carrying the most emotional scenes of the play. Her high-pitched voice made her emotional display seem too superficial and prevented those scenes from being as convincing as they might have been.

The lighter parts were, on the whole, enacted quite well: Emma Kirkpatrick and Mildred Godshall as two young woman guests; Edward Schaeffer as a typical English butler; Charles Smith as the captain of a yacht; and Robert Deen as the absent-minded old caretaker of the island. The latter, despite the small role, was especially good in adding a quaint touch of humor to the play.

In addition to the splendid work of the cast, a word of commendation is due the committee on stage and sounds. Once again, the coaches, Prof. and Mrs. Sibbald, are to be congratulated upon their excellent work.

I. R. C. TO MEET TOMORROW

The International Relations Club will discuss the topic, "What steps should England take toward German action," at a meeting tomorrow evening, at 8:00 p. m. in Shreiner hall.

—so far as we know tobacco was first used about 400 years ago

—throughout the years what one thing has given so much pleasure..so much satisfaction

It was a matter of pride with a host in Colonial days that his guests should smoke tobacco grown on his own plantation.

Today the Governor of North Carolina says to the Governor of South Carolina—

"Have a cigarette"

TODAY people all over the world use tobacco in one form or another.

They chew it, they smoke it in pipes, they smoke cigars and cigarettes, and here is what an eminent physician said about cigarettes:

"I have been something of a student of cigarettes, and it is my belief that they offer the mildest and purest form in which tobacco is used."

Yes, nowadays the cigarette is the most popular form in which tobacco is used. A good cigarette certainly gives men and women a lot of pleasure.

Have a Chesterfield—

For one thing—they're milder.

For another thing—they taste better.
