

For intermediate learners of Korean wishing to take their skills to the next level, here's everything you need.

Advanced Korean offers a complete, systematic, and streamlined third-year course in Korean—ideal for university students and adult learners—with plentiful reading texts, grammar notes, and written exercises, all in Han'gul. This volume features:

- ▶ Rich and highly nuanced examples of language in context
- ▶ Detailed but concise grammar notes, ample written exercises with an accompanying answer key
- ▶ Free Sino-Korean Companion CD-ROM contains twenty lessons to help you systematically master the Chinese characters in regular use in modern Korean

Ross King completed his BA in linguistics and political science at Yale in 1983, then his MA (1985) and Ph. D (1991) in linguistics at Harvard. Currently he is professor of Korean and Head of Department in the Department of Asian Studies, University of British Columbia, Vancouver, Canada.

Jaehoon Yeon is Professor of Korean Language and Linguistics and a member of the Centre of Korean Studies at the School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS), University of London. He is the author of many books for Korean language learners.
