Dear Senator Langer:

This in further reference to my letter of April 2nd, 1946
I am sending the certificate from Mr. Emil Schneider, last President of the former D. A. B., San Francisco, dated Denver, Colorado, m April 6th, 1946.

I hope that this certificate will show, that my answer was correct.

May be the Attorney General will take my case in consideration, with your help.

Hearty thanks to you for all your help.

With kind regards, I am

Sincerely

Richard Auras

Dear Mr.Auras,

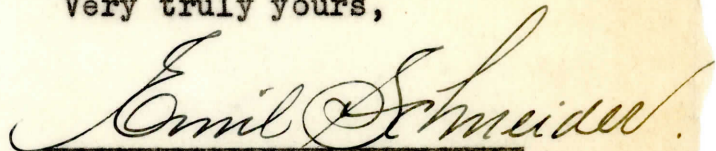

This is to certify that you were a member of the former D.A.B. in San Francisco, California, for a period of 15 months, (February 1940 to April 1941).

You never were an officer of the organization.

A few weeks before the dissolution of the S.F. branch of the D.A.B., either the last week of October or during the month of November 1941, when you were not a member any more, the Board of Directors persuaded you to temporarily act as the recording Secretary, as you happened to be present at that particular meeting as a guest of a member.

You were never instructed to write any letters for the organization to Germany, as the organization had no connections whatsoever with Germany.

Very truly yours,
