Mr. John Muir.

Dear Sir, I am venturing to send you, by this week's mail, a little book on the Welsh and English mountains which I have just published, not because I think it particularly worthy of your attention, but because I have in several of my papers made reference to your "Mountains of California", a work which has been a source of much joy and inspiration to me, as I am sure it must have been to many other readers. Permit me, though a stranger, to offer you my thanks for the beautiful things which you have there written of the mountains. Your book is worthy of its subject; and what more could be said?

I remain

yr. faithfully

Henry S. Salt.
