az IFLA elnöke

Hello, Everyone! “Szia!”

I am Christine Mackenzie, the president of the IFLA, and I am delighted to hear that you are celebrating the 70 years of librarianship education in Hungary.

What a fantastic milestone!

As our work becomes ever more important in a world facing many challenges, your role in educating the next generation of librarians is vital. The IFLA is committed to fostering and supporting new professionals, and I congratulate you all on what you are doing.

Best wishes for a great conference – I hope that you learn a lot, have opportunities to meet old and new colleagues and have great discussions!
