FOREWORD

The following is a list of generic, specific, and subspecific names of Trematoda listed in the Index-Catalogue of Medical and Veterinary Zoology. Subjects: Trematoda, Genera and Supergenera A-Z. It is also a supplement to the preceding Catalogue in that genera and species described since 1960, the closing date of the series, as well as many not available at time of compilation have been included. It serves as a link to bind together the information contained in the other catalogues of the Trematoda series, i.e., the Parasite, or master catalogue, the Host Catalogue, and the Geographical Catalogue. This list must be used with the Author Catalogue of the Index-Catalogue of Medical and Veterinary Zoology as the bibliographical key. If a given genus or species has not been listed in the Author Catalogue, bibliographical information as well as host, location, and locality have been added to this checklist. Such information is also being entered in the Host and Geographical Catalogues and is marked with an asterisk *.

Basic information on the genera includes the author of the genus, the year published, the pages of the description, and the type if given by the author. Example:

TAGIA Sproston, N. G., 1946a, 190, 419-420 (tod: T. ecuadori).

For species and subspecies, the basic information regarding author, date of publication, pagination, and illustrations, is given and also the genus or genera in which the species or subspecies has been placed and the years in which such combinations were made. Example:

excavata Rudolphi, C. A., 1803a, 28-29. 1803: FASCIOLA. 1809: DISTOMA. 1819: HOLOSTOMA. 1819: AMPHISTOMA. 1850: HEMISTOMUM. 1936: PROALARIA. 1929: DIPLOSTOMUM. 1933: PRODIPLOSTOMUM (tod). 1935: TYLODELPHYS.

Thus anyone seeking complete information concerning this species must check the Parasite Catalogue under nine combinations with this name.

Collective group names for immature forms such as Adolescaria, Cercaria, and Metacercaria are treated for convenience as if they were genera. Brackets [] around date, word, or group of words mean that the enclosed information was supplied by the compiler. Parentheses () around a date indicate that the original description has not been seen.

This checklist is designed to contribute to the stabilization of nomenclature in a small segment of the immense field of Zoology. Authors using it can quickly ascertain whether a selected generic name has been used previously or whether a specific name has ever been combined with a given generic name, and thus avoid creating a homonym.

the eastern side of the river, where it was a part of the original fortifications of the town. The bridge was built by the U.S.A. during the Civil War, and it is still in use. It connects the two sides of the river, and it is a very convenient way to cross the river. The bridge is made of wood, and it is very strong. It is about 100 feet long, and it is supported by four large stone pillars. The bridge is very old, and it has been in use for many years. It is a very important part of the town's infrastructure, and it is used by many people every day.

On the western side of the river, there is a small bridge, which is made of wood, and it is very old. It is about 50 feet long, and it is supported by two large stone pillars. The bridge is very old, and it has been in use for many years. It is a very important part of the town's infrastructure, and it is used by many people every day.
