FRESHMEN HOLD TRADITIONAL BANQUET AT BUNGALOW INN

Sophomores Foiled In Their Efforts To Prevent This Annual Class Festivity

PRESIDENT ARRIVES SAFELY

Despite the efforts of the Sophomores, the members of the Freshman class made a successful getaway shortly after seven o'clock last Tuesday evening for their traditional banquet. Chartered busses carried them to Bungalow Inn, seven miles from Collegeville on the Reading P.k.e.

The evening's fun was initiated by a dinner consisting of fruit cup, turkey, succotash, mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce, vegetable salad, and ice cream. The Frosh were seated at attractively arranged tables for four.

Robert Barnes, president of the class of '37, who had successfully eluded his would-be Sophomore captors, welcomed the banqueters. Ida Trout and Florence Bowe will serve as Freshman vice-president and secretary respectively, and Dale Edgerton as treasurer.

The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. A number of Sophomores and upper classmen, lured perhaps by memories of their own Freshman banquets, joined the dancers, but none attempted to interfere with the plans of the Freshmen.

Professor and Mrs. Franklin I. Sheeder, Thomas Price, Junior class president, and Margaret Paxson, secretary of the Juniors, acted as chaperones for the evening. The expenses of the banquet were covered by a nominal tax of two dollars per person.

DICKINSON TO OBSERVE 150TH ANNIVERSARY THIS WEEK

Dr. Omwake And Prof. Sheeder To Represent Ursinus

Dickinson, the twelfth oldest college in this country, will formally celebrate its 150th anniversary, on October 20, 21, and 22, terminating its sesquicentennial year, which has been observed with various programs and scholarship awards. Ursinus will be represented at this occasion by President Omwake and Mr. Sheeder.

Opening on Friday morning, October 20, with special chapel exercises, the celebration will continue that afternoon, when a conference under the auspices of the Liberal Arts College

FORMER INSTRUCTOR ACCEPTS POSITION AT OWN ALMA MATER

Miss Carrie B. Cureton, formerly an instructor in women's athletics at Ursinus, has recently accepted a position at Greenville Woman's College, Greenville, S. C., where she will give instruction in golf and swimming.

Miss Cureton was graduated from Greenville Woman's College in 1927, and in 1930 was awarded the degree of Master of Arts by Columbia University. She came to Ursinus in 1930.

ARTIST-STUDENTS' CONCERT TO OPEN CULTURE COURSE

Artist-students of the Curtis Institute of music in Philadelphia will present a concert in Bomberger hall on Thursday evening, Nov. 9 at 8 o'clock. This is the first of a number of entertainments to be sponsored by the college.

Further plans for the Culture Course, which was greatly enjoyed last year by the student body, are being discussed. In a short time final arrangements will be made for a complete series of concerts, lectures, travelogues, and dramatic presentations.

CORRECTION

An erroneous statement was made in the Ursinus Weekly of October 9 to the effect that an art course was to be given under the auspices of the College. There will be no art course as such, but a group of interested students have organized for the purpose of receiving instructions from an artist at his own studio.

The managers of the 1934 Ruby announce that the recent Ruby subscription campaign turned out to be highly successful and wish to thank all those who cooperated with them.

Although the 90 percent quota was not attained, the latest results show that over 70 percent of the student body signed up and this is a much higher percentage than that of previous years.

Anyone who has not yet subscribed may purchase a Ruby for $4.50 by making a down payment before May 1. After this date the price will be $5.00.

Men's and Women's Student Council Sponsor First Football Dance of Year

"NICK" NICHOLS PLAYS

Old-timers and undergraduates gathered in the Thompson-Gay gymnasium on Saturday, October 14 between eight and twelve o'clock for an evening of dancing to the strains of "Nick" Nichols and his orchestra.

The joint student councils had planned an enjoyable evening for those in attendance. The floor was well waxed, excellent punch was served during the evening, and the crowd was not uncomfortably large. The orchestra, which was generously applauded, responded to the enthusiasm of the dancers.

Dr. and Mrs. Marcus C. Old, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey L. Carter, Miss A. Bernice Graham, and Mr. William S. Pettit chaperoned the affair.

The committee in charge consisted of William O'Donnell, Jr., '34, chairman, Sara Mary Ouder Kirk '34, Martha M. Moore '34, Mildred Gring '36, Maurice Shuman '34, and Robert Cunningham '34.

Men Debaters To Hold Initial Meeting Tonight

Regular Meetings Not To Begin Till Late in November

All men desiring to join the debating club with the view of trying out for one of the teams next January will have an opportunity to do so when the Webster Forensic Club holds its first meeting of the fall tonight at 8 p. m. in Room 5 of Bomberger hall.

The regular meetings of this organization, held every other Monday night, will not begin until late in November, according to Irving Sutin '34, the president of the club. This preliminary meeting is being held in order that Prof. H. L. Carter, the coach of debating, may discover how many men he will have with which to build up teams.

If enough men indicate their desire to try out for debating, it is probable that four regular teams will be formed instead of the usual two. Freshmen are eligible to membership in the Forensic Club. Five men of the last graduating class were varsity debaters and possessors of Tau Kappa Alpha keys. The fact that only four regulars are left from last year's teams indicates that places are open for several new men.

SISTER CLASSES HOLD TRADITIONAL GET-TOGETHER

The girls of the freshman and junior classes gathered in the College Woods at seven o'clock on Saturday morning for the annual Junior-Frosh breakfast. Despite the early hour almost seventy girls were present.

Bacon, eggs, and coffee were cooked over an open fire. Oranges and rolls completed the meal. The breakfast was planned by the Junior Advisory Committee, under the leadership of chairman Jane Stephen '35.

The following have been appointed to the Revisions Committee of the Women's Student Council: Florence Frosh '34, chairman, Miriam McFadden '34, Dorothy O'Brien '35, Virginia Garrett '36, and Virginia Fenton '37.

WOMEN CONSIDER CAMPUS PROBLEMS AT MASS MEETING

Tree To Be Planted In Honor Of Dean Kline; Moore In Charge of Meeting

PAGEANTRY DISCUSSED

Current problems on the Ursinus campus were discussed at the W. S. G. A. mass meeting held in Bomberger hall last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Josephine X. Sheeder, instructor in pageantry, reviewed the history of pageantry at Ursinus, and told of the classes in that subject, of which she is in charge. Mrs. Sheeder urged the girls to enter original May Day pageants in the contest and pointed out that such pageants should be suitable for presentation on May Day rather than on some other occasion, and should require the participation of girls alone.

Jane Stephen '35, announced a project that is being planned by the Council at the present time, the planting of a tree in honor of Whorten A. Kline, dean of the College.

The problem of girls' smoking was brought before the meeting, discussion was called for, and a vote was taken. As the majority of the girls favored the granting of permission to smoke at Ursinus, the Council has agreed to place the matter before officials of the College.

The meeting was in charge of Martha Moore '34, president of the Women's Student Council.

Miss Winder Outlines Problems Before World Disarmament Conference

A representative body of citizens of this community held a meeting in the auditorium of Bomberger Hall, Ursinus College, on the evening of October 12 in the interest of National Disarmament. The meeting was called by a group of individuals who presented as a speaker, Miss Mary Ida Winder, Associate Secretary of the National Council for the Prevention of War, Washington, D. C.

Miss Winder outlined the problems which will come before the World Disarmament Conference about to re-assemble at Geneva. At the conclusion of her address the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

BE IT RESOLVED by citizens of the boroughs of Collegeville and Trappe and of their surrounding communities, in the State of Pennsylvania

That we declare our belief in the power and ability of civilized nations to satisfactorily adjust

CORNELIA OTIS SKINNER TO APPEAR AT NORRIS THEATRE

The performance of Cornelia Otis Skinner to be given at the Norris Theatre in Norristown on the evening of October 24 was brought to the attention of the student body at the chapel service on last Thursday morning.

Miss Skinner will appear in a series of character impersonations under the auspices of the North American Business Club of Norristown, a representative of which spoke at the chapel service.

Reserved seats in the first twenty-five rows will be sold for $1.50, and the remainder for $1.00. The proceeds, which will consist of approximately fifty per cent of the receipts if the audience is as large as is anticipated, will be used for charitable purposes. Ursinus students were urged to support the project.

Dickinson Holds Grizzlies to a 7-7 Tie in Opening Conference Game

ON TO F. AND M. SAT.

This Saturday the Bears will meet F. and M. at Lancaster in their annual gridiron battle. Traditionally this game is one of the major tilts of the season and this year's is doubly important because the results of the Conference hinge largely upon it.

According to custom, if we win on Saturday, class work will be suspended on Monday.

The team deserves the support of the entire student body and there is no reason why the Ursinus cheering section at F. and M. cannot be as large as at home. Every loyal Ursinus supporter should be headed for F. and M. Saturday.

Old Timers Day Crowd Sees Both Teams Score in Early Part of First Quarter

F. AND M. ON SATURDAY

The manner in which the Ursinus Grizzly Bear pried off the lid of the 1933 Conference with Dickinson on Saturday down on Patterson Field was not exactly disastrous, but was far from pleasing. Unprecedented strength on the part of the Red Devils from Carlisle was a big factor in explaining the 7-7 tie the Grizzlies drew with them, but over-confidence and sloppy playing by the home team played almost as big a part.

For only five plays during the afternoon's tilt did Ursinus show anything of the zip and fight that it displayed so brilliantly in the season's opener with Villanova. But never was there demonstrated truer fighting Grizzly spirit than when the McAvoymen drove to a touchdown immediately following the Dickinson score in the first quarter. This spectacle was a thrill that the Ursinus followers, many of them alumni celebrating Old Timer's Day, will long remember, for the Bears savagely ripped the Carlisle team to pieces in their furious drive to touchdown land.

Dickinson Scores Early

The punting of Hughes, Dickinson captain and backfield star, was a feature of the game, and early in the opening quarter had the McAvoymen backed up to their own goal line.

VARSITY HOCKEY PLAYERS DEFEAT BEAVER BY 3-4 SCORE

Francis, Lyle and Godshall Score For Ursinus

It was a well earned victory with which the Ursinus 'U' returned from the hockey game on Wednesday afternoon by defeating Beaver by a score of 3-4.

The Beaver girls were a good match for the Ursinus eleven. The first goal, made by their inside, spurred the 'U' girls to better efforts. 'Mid' Godshall scored the next point and 'Bup' Francis followed with another. Beaver's center then made a goal, tying the score for the half.

In the early part of the second half "Bups" led the team over for another point. Beaver kept following up until they again tied the 'U's. During the last few minutes of play Eleanor Lyle '35, with strong support from

ALUMNAE HOCKEY STARS LOSE TO VARSITY ELEVEN

On Saturday morning hockey players from the alumnae ranks returned to test personally the present varsity's ability. The former stars proved that they still had the old Ursinus skill and spirit, as they held the game to a scoreless tie for the first half. Although the game as a whole was rather listless, the varsity team began to click at the middle of the second half and, aided by the breaks, man-

FRESHMAN GRIDDERS DOWN

PERKIOMEN PREP, 12-0

WILLIAMSON GAME CANCELLED

"Swede" Paul's Frosh gridders had an easy time in registering a 12-0 victory over Perkiomen Prep in their opening game at Pennsburg, Saturday afternoon. The winners reeled off nine first downs to Perkiomen's one.

Jakomas, left halfback, scored for the little Grizzlies in the second and fourth periods. The first 6-pointer came as a result of a 20-yard slice off tackle, around left end. In the last period, a long forward from Bonkoski to Poley put the ball on the 6-yard stripe. Perkie held for three downs, yielding only two yards. On the last down, Jakomas plunged through center for the tally. Both tries for extra points failed.

Bonkoski, Wildonger, and Jakomas, carrying the ball, played flashy games for the Collegeville clan. Perkiomen's closest opportunity for a touchdown ended within 28 yards of the Ursinus goal line. The gridders of the Purple and Gold played a defensive game throughout, battling with the cubs in their own territory.

Soccer Team Subdues Girard

College by a 5-2 Score

Excellent Passing Attack and Strong Defense Responsible

Displaying an excellent passing attack and a strong defense, the Ursinus soccer team subdued a light but peppy Girard team, 5 to 2, to inaugurate what appears to be a successful season.

The Ursinus booters passed cleverly and found the going fairly easy the first two quarters, netting two goals in each. Fisher made the first shortly after the game had begun, climaxing a fast and tricky bit of pass-work by the forward line. The second came soon after, when George let drive a long one from midfield which bounded off the head of Fields, the Girard fullback, and through the goal. Fisher and Chestnut each booted a goal in the second period.

The Girard team retaliated in the second half by scoring two goals while the Bears netted one. Davis of the

"TREES" THEME OF WELL-

ATTENDED VESPER SERVICES

"Trees" was the theme of the weekly Vesper service held in the West Music Studio on Sunday evening. The program was opened with Joyce Kilmer's song of that title, rendered by Freda Schindler '35, accompanied by Jean Ulsh '37.

Bertha Francis '35 chose as her scripture reading a selection from the fifteenth chapter of John. Two poems, "A Ballad of Trees" and "Master Christ Amid the Sequoias" were read by Dorothy Patterson '35. Dorothy Thomas '35 read Elbert Hubbard's "The Tree Surgeon," a brief essay on John Davey. Two hymns completed the program, which was attended by a large number of students.

Editorial Comment

WEEKLY SUBSCRIBERS

We are directing this editorial only to those who have become delinquent about paying their Weekly subscriptions.

As all you alumni probably know, the Ursinus Weekly or almost any other college publication, is not run with the idea of making money. Much as we would like to show a substantial profit at the end of the year, records show that it has not been done very often, and we do not expect to do so at this time, despite all of the talk by N. R. A. officials that business is to take in a legitimate profit for its labors and for capital invested. However, we would like to make the Weekly stand on its own and not force it to seek a subsidy from the College.

We are of the opinion that it is possible to make our paper pay its own way. Although we are not able to run much advertising, our subscription list at the present time is rather large and if we could depend on every one of our subscribers to do his part it might be possible to make ends meet and that is why we are pleading for your cooperation.

The Ursinus Weekly is essentially a college publication and in that capacity should meet the needs of the students and at the same time be a connecting link for the alumni to their alma mater. The extended circulation that we have at the present time among the alumni shows that it serves its purpose. However, upon looking over the account books of the circulation manager we note that many subscriptions have not been paid up for two or more years. There is only one way that the Weekly can continue to make its own way and that is by the heartiest cooperation of our subscribers. Let's make the trite phrase 'Pay your Weekly subscription now' meaningful this month and see if we cannot list you as a paid up subscriber.

A SURVEY SCIENCE COURSE

The rapid increase in human culture has been accompanied by a challenge to education, for the time has long since passed when any but a jack-of-all-trades—master-of—none could know a great deal about a great many fields.

The contemporary college has met the challenge, in part, by the introduction of survey courses. The outstanding representative of this innovation on the Ursinus campus is the History of Civilization course. Moreover, in other subjects courses are offered which are basic in their respective fields, although they are not strictly survey in type.

But what of the sciences? Are those whose major interests lie along other lines to be denied an understanding of their principles? The course in any one of the sciences required for the degree of Bachelor of Science brings only one field within the student's realm of experience. And requirements for majors, teacher certification and the like crowd out courses in other sciences. Moreover, it would be impractical for any but science majors to spend hours in laboratory work. The logical solution seems to be a survey science course.

Steps toward this end have already been taken by a committee of the faculty, but the materialization of the plan is by no means assured. If offered, the course would probably consist of lectures and demonstrations, and would be organized in units representing all the sciences. Meanwhile it must be admitted that many of us sadly need such training.

LABORATORY TECHNICIAN ADDRESSES WOMEN STUDENTS

Under the auspices of the Junior Advisory Committee an interesting talk was given on Wednesday evening, October 11, to the women students of the College by Miss Helen Hirschland of Reading, Pa.

Miss Hirschland, an expert laboratory technician, vividly described the work of her profession, the personality and the training needed for the work, and the field open to those interested in the occupation. Throughout the lecture Miss Hirschland narrated humorous incidents about her own laboratory in the Jefferson Hospital in Philadelphia. Miss Hirschland's humor was thoroughly appreciated by her audience.

This talk was the first of a series of programs being presented by the Junior Advisory Committee. Included among the programs scheduled for the year are several well-known entertainers who usually draw large audiences. The entire student body will be invited to attend some of these features.

WELL-KNOWN PHYSICIAN TO ADDRESS WOMEN STUDENTS

The Women's Student Government Association and the Young Women's Christian Association are combining to sponsor a mass meeting for women students on Wednesday evening, October 25, at which time Dr. Carl Haff will talk on the problem of sex hygiene.

The speaker, procured through the kindness of Mrs. Edward S. Fretz, is a physician in Northampton, Pa., where he maintains a private hospital. Dr. Haff is a past district governor of the Rotary International. As a physician of repute and a man of fine character he is well qualified to present the subject of sex relationships.

Dr. Haff will address the Collegeville Woman's Club and the girls of the Collegeville High School in the afternoon.

After his address Dr. Haff will answer personally any questions and will conduct an open discussion. The meeting will be held in the auditorium of the Science Building.

THE MAIL BOX

To the Ursinus Men;

I have been approached at various times by students with criticisms—both constructive and destructive—of our chapel services. This critical interest seems to indicate that there is not, generally speaking, that passive type of interest which a few students exhibit, but there is evident interest built upon a desire for a real reflective religious service.

The Y. M. C. A., since it is the center of the college religious activities, on the campus, has undertaken an attempt to measure the student and the faculty attitude toward our daily assembly program.

For this purpose a Y. M. fact-finding committee has been organized. Ten students who are representative of various student interests and three professors constitute the investigations group. Within the next few weeks you will be interviewed personally by a fellow student as to your opinion of chapel. This is a serious attempt to get concerted student and faculty opinions on a vital problem.

I ask that you cooperate by presenting, when interviewed, your frank and serious attitude toward chapel.

CLUB DISCUSSES PILSUDSKI, GOMEZ, FEISAL, AND AZANA

Lesser known personalities who are of importance in international affairs made up the theme of the discussions at the meeting of the International Relations Club held in Shreiner hall, Tuesday evening, October 10. Eight new members who had recently been invited to join the club were present at the meeting.

Allan Claghorn '34, chairman of the program committee, introduced the speakers of the evening. Nadine Jones '34, opened the program with a talk on "Gomez, the Dictator of Venezuela", whose reign has brought prosperity to the nation, the only South American dictator who has kept his position throughout the depression.

The second personality considered was Pilsudski of Poland, who was reported upon by Eugene Shafto '35. This man, who was one of the most influential in securing Polish independence, is at present in close relations with Stalin, the leader of Soviet Russia, and has lately been instrumental in securing trade relations favorable to both nations.

A discussion of ex-Premier Azana of Spain was given by Margaret Shively '35. In 1931, when King Alfonso was driven from the throne and a five hundred year old dynasty came to an end, Azana was made Minister of War. When Zamora, the head of the provisional government, resigned some months later, Azana reorganized the government and made himself Prime Minister, thus ascending from the position of an obscure civil servant to the highest office in Spain in the course of a few years.

"The late King Feisal of Irak" was the topic presented by Martha Moore, '34. This interesting individual was an outstanding character in the East for many years and was closely connected with T. E. Lawrence when the latter was in Arabia during the World War.

After the discussions refreshments consisting of ice cream and pretzels were served, and the meeting adjourned.

ADVISOR LECTURES ON NEW PLAYS BEFORE LITERARY CLUB

Five new members, Ruth Burrows, Mildred Fox, Evelyn Hoover, Marion Kern, and Margaret Shively, all of the Junior Class, were accepted into the English Club at a meeting held on Monday, October 9 at Shreiner Hall.

Dr. Homer Smith, faculty advisor of the club, welcomed the newcomers. He then lectured on several new plays which the club will read in the near future.

A short business meeting followed, at which Marion Kern '35 was elected secretary-treasurer.

Y. W. PARTY POSTPONED

The Big and Little Sister poverty party scheduled for Wednesday evening, October 11, under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. was postponed in order that all the girls of the College might hear the speaker brought to the campus by the Junior Advisory Committee. The party will be held next Wednesday evening.

MODERN LANGUAGE GROUP MAY ORGANIZE FRENCH CLUB

The possibilities of organizing a French Club at Ursinus were presented by Prof. Reginald S. Sibbald to the Modern Language Group at a meeting held in the West Music Studio on Monday evening, October 9.

The meeting was in charge of Mary Myers '34, president of the group. Professor Sibbald welcomed the members and appointed a committee consisting of Irene Takacs '34, Louree Remsburg '34, and Mary Myers '34, to draw up a constitution for the proposed French Club. The constitution will be presented to the faculty at its next meeting.

Two vocal solos by Freda Schindler '35, the "Chanson de Florian" by Godard and Brahms' "Wiegenlied" furnished an enjoyable part of the program. A novel feature of the meeting was a French-German pronunciation game in which the entire group participated. The French side won the contest by one point.

Dr. Calvin D. Yost spoke of the activities of the Modern Language Group, after which refreshments were served and the meeting adjourned.

The Tower Window

HUNDREDS of colleges and learned societies showered congratulations on our neighbor, Haverford College, on the occasion of her one hundredth birthday anniversary on October the seventh. Much was said of her devotion to high ideals, her maintenance of standards, and her emphasis on quality rather than on numbers, and Haverford deserves all the praise that was given her. The sturdiness with which President Isaac Sharpless and William Wistar Comfort who guided the destinies of Haverford through the greater part of the latter half of her hundred years, resisted the current tendencies toward bigness and superficiality, commands universal admiration.

While Haverford is known today as one of the most richly endowed colleges in the country, it was not ever thus with the little Main Line institution. There were times in her earlier history when she shared the experience of practically all colleges, namely, that of poverty and hardship. There was one thing, however, which the Quaker Overseers governing her destiny, saved her from—they did not permit her to become overburdened with debt. Indeed at one time when the income was insufficient to meet expenses, the trustees closed the college for a few years until sufficient income from endowment and gifts should accumulate to resume operations. If all institutions which suffer that handicap during the present depression, were to follow the same policy more than half the colleges and practically all the great universities in the United States would have closed their doors two years ago.

Even so late in the college's history as the call to President Sharpless, the funds were so low and the fear of debt so great that Mr. Sharpless was guaranteed no fixed salary but "what he could make out of it." This having been the condition at the beginning of his administration, it is to be credited to President Isaac Sharpless, that at its end he turned over to Dr. Comfort, his successor, the most heavily endowed college per student in the United States. Speaking out of his own experience, Dr. Sharpless once remarked that one should not accept the presidency of a college unless he has reasonable expectations of serving twenty-five or thirty years, as it would take that long for him to accomplish what will be expected of him. If I remember rightly he served twenty-eight years. However the wealth which he brought to Haverford came almost wholly in the latter half of his administration.

President Angell of Yale, which celebrated its two hundredth anniversary thirty-two years ago, congratulated Haverford on her centenary and in a sort of grand-fatherly way remarked that "the first hundred years are always the worst". I suppose it is hardly to be expected that a college like Ursinus which is jogging along at sixty-four should be free from perplexities.

Y. M. SYMPOSIUM PLANNED

Beginning Wednesday evening, the Y. M. C. A. will initiate a series of meetings centered around the theme, "What Religion Means to Me". It is planned that each discussion shall be led by a person who has definite religious convictions, and who, at the same time, is willing to be frank and open in the sharing of them. Leaders will be so selected as to present characteristic attitudes of men who have different primary interests in life.

The series will be opened under the leadership of Professor Brownback, presenting the attitudes of a biologist.

ADVISEES ARE ENTERTAINED

The Boy Scout cabin was the scene of a "family" party given by Mrs. Josephine X. Sheeder '21 for her advisees and ex-advisees on Friday evening, October 13.

The cabin was darkened except for an open fire. Bread twists were baked and marshmallows toasted over the coals. The girls, members of the freshmen, sophomore, and junior classes, brought the evening to a close with the singing of camp songs.

Baylor University at Waco, Texas, has in its freshman class this year the first set of quadruplets ever to enter college in the country, as far as is known. They are Mona, Mary, Leota, and Roberta Keys, 18, of Hollis, Oklahoma. All graduated together from high school last year.

A professor at Syracuse University, while in bed recuperating from an appendicitis operation, gave a lecture to his students in chemistry with the aid of a microphone, a telephone exchange and a radio loud speaker.

Students at Connecticut State demand half the royalties on their examination papers which are sold to humor publications.

Virginia Polytech is one of the few colleges in the country having an all-alumni coaching staff.

Students at Amherst bet on the number of the hymn to be used in the chapel service.

Just as a debate at St. Mary's was about to begin someone discovered that both teams had prepared the affirmative side of the question.

According to the professors at Washington University, students who aim for "A" grades are barren of personality. "It is the band of 'C' students who move the world."

Four students at Purdue University have solved the rooming problem by bringing "bungalows on wheels" to serve as their living quarters. They hope to cut their expenses down to practically nothing.

DICKINSON TIES URSINUS

Shortly afterward, one of Mickey Shuman's punts were blocked by the hard charging Dickinson line and although the Bears recovered, much ground was lost and in the ensuing exchange of kicks the visitors obtained possession of the ball fairly deep in Ursinus territory. A 15-yard off-tackle smash by Chevinski of the Red Devils and another 5-yard line plunge put the ball in scoring position of the Bear 15-yard stripe. On the next play, Hughes grabbed a pretty pass from his quarterback and raced across the goal line to score for the Carlisle team. Chevinski booted the seventh point and Dickinson fans went wild with joy.

Tropp, Shuman Knot Count

Needless to say, the Grizzlies were mighty surprised, put the revenge they wreaked on their opponents following the next kickoff will never be forgotten by those who saw the performance. Bassman took the kickoff on his 15-yard line and thundered to midfield before being downed. Captain Tropp cut through tackle on a reverse and galloped to the Carlisle 20-yard mark before he was brought to earth. Two dashes by Seiple, and another by Tropp brought the ball to the seven yard line, from where Wally pushed it across the big stripe for the touchdown. When Shuman knotted the count with a beautiful placement, Ursinus fans were hoping for a continuation of this inspired playing and a glorious victory. But the inspired playing ended as quickly as it had begun, and although the Bears had Dickinson on the defense most of the remainder of the contest, lack of punch, penalties, or intercepted passes ruined their several good scoring chances.

The Bears didn't click as a team and will have to do considerably better if they wish to break into the Conference win column against F. and M. next week. Captain Tropp was a star in the Grizzly offense, while Bassman played his usual good defensive game. Hughes and Chevinski played the stellar roles in the visitors' lineup. Although the deadlock was disappointing, still it was not a defeat, and the Bears remain undefeated thus far, while the Conference championship is still not an impossibility.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

Old Timers' Day...Everybody here but the old lad Ursinus himself...The Red Devils blew into town today and blew out again leaving in their wake a crew of surprised Bears...The Grizzlies took it on both ends, they got the Devil on the field and in the locker room from the coach...

That first score came quicker than a freshman on call...Ursinus pricked the devil's horns when Tropp gave a flashy exhibition of broken-field galloping and capped it off with a touchdown on the next play...

Sssh!...The drum major's a ringer...That guy just won't miss the baton...We'll lay 8-5 he finishes the game without dropping the stick...The crowd seems a little shy—shy of the nickels they dropped in the donation hat...

There goes Bunker Hill...He cleared out of Detroit in a hurry when he heard some one was going to offer him a job...It must be raining...Or else frosh co-eds are awful pessimists...They tell us Tropp just went off tackle for 11 yards, but we were watching the blonde just ahead lighting a smoke in the wind...

Well, it's all over...Feel a little different about this draw than the one at Villanova...Nothing but trouble...Muhlenberg beat State and F. and M. held Penn...Ursinus money will be scarce at Lancaster next Saturday...

RUBY PHOTOGRAPHERS TO RECEIVE PROOFS THIS WEEK

The Merin-Baliban studios, photographers of the Ruby, will be on the campus all this week to receive the proofs of the individual sittings taken recently. The students, on returning the proofs, will designate which picture they desire in the yearbook. Those desiring to purchase pictures may do so at the same time. A schedule is posted on the bulletin board in order to facilitate the work for the photographer.

Snapshot pictures of students, campus activities, etc., are in demand by the Ruby. All students who have any unique pictures pertaining to Ursinus are requested to get in touch with Bob Bennett '34, assistant editor of the annual.
