COLLEGE GLEE CLUB SINGS AT McALLISTER'S IN PHILA.

Program Presented To Members of Men's League Of The Reformed Church

An interesting program characterized the opening concert of the season, which the Ursinus College Glee Club presented to the members of the Men's League of the Reformed Church at their meeting held on Tuesday evening, October 31, at McAllister's banquet hall in Philadelphia.

The club opened the evening's program by humming the "Campus Song," and followed this with "Jolly Roger," "Winter Song," and the encore, "Laughing."

At this point a missionary from Japan gave a short address concerning life, habits, and mission work in the Orient at the present time.

The thirty singers then delighted their audience with Victor Herbert's success, "The Sleigh," taken from his operetta, "Babes in Toyland." This was followed by "Mulligan Musketees," a Russian folk song entitled "At Father's Door," and the encore, "The Bells of St. Mary's." The program was closed with the singing of the "Campus Song."

Dr. W. Sherman Kerschner '09 of Philadelphia, while commenting on the excellency of the program, stated that no preceding Glee Club of Ursinus had ever reached the degree of perfection which the present one has attained; and his words were corroborated by the applause from the audience. He presented the conductor, Jeanette Douglas Hartenstine, with a huge bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums in recognition of her capable leadership. The accompanist for the evening was Walter Thomas Watson.

Bears Felled by G-Burg Bullets, 12-13; Frosh Score 9-0 Win at Farm School

Farmers Lose First Game In Four Years As Cubs Chalk Up Third Victory

WYOMING SEMINARY NOV. 18

Flaunting an airtight defense and fast-charging line, Swede Paul's crew of undefeated Ursinus Frosh chalked up their third straight win, handing National Farm School their first setback in four years, Saturday, by a count of 9-0. It was the first time in eight years that the Farmers had been shutout.

The Cubs tallied shortly after the initial period had begun. Farm School had trouble in getting off their punts, and finally Worster, star left tackle of the dink-and-tie gridgers, blocked a kick and recovered in the end zone for a safety.

Towards the end of the quarter, Pancoast blocked another punt and Lamore recovered for Ursinus on the home eleven's 5 yard stripe, as the period ended.

Greek Jakomas carried the pigskin over on the second try to open the second quarter. It was his sixth six-pointer in three tilts. Bonkoski added the point from placement, with Jakomas holding the leather.

The defense held like the proverbial stone wall until the end, with the Farmers at no time possessing the oval within the Cubs' 25 yard marker. Worster, Hallett, and Costello starred on the line, while Bonkoski and Jakomas played a bang-up in the backfield for the men of Paul.

Jakomas' Nose Broken

Jerry Poley, right halfback, injured his shoulder in the last quarter and was replaced by Brandt. In this same period Jakomas sustained a

Ursinus Harriers Place Second in Conference Meet

F. and M. Takes 1st Place in Meet To Retain Conference Cup

The Franklin and Marshall cross country team emerged victoriously from a tri-collegiate meet held Saturday at Gettysburg to win the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference cup. The contest for this cup, which was to be awarded to the first team to win three meets, was begun in 1927. The competing colleges, Ursinus, F. and M., and Dickinson, each had two victories to its credit, and for this reason the final meet of the series was held on neutral grounds. The final score was F. and M., 21; Ursinus, 40; and Dickinson, 59.

Frey of F. and M. was the individual winner of the meet, covering the course of slightly over four miles in 21 minutes and 37 seconds. Captain Sutin, the winner of the contest in 1931 and 1932, placed first for Ursinus, coming in fourth. The second and third, as well as sixth, positions went to F. and M., while the only Dickinson runner to finish among the

MRS. JOHN LENTZ PLANS TO ENTERTAIN FRESHMAN GIRLS

Mrs. John Lentz will entertain the freshman girls at a tea at her home Thursday, November 16, from four to six o'clock.

The tea is sponsored annually by the Ursinus Woman's Club, an organization composed of alumnae, mothers of alumnae, and other women interested in the life of the girls on the campus.

Mrs. K. Emmet Latschar, of Spring City, who is chairman of the social committee, has planned a musical entertainment.

ENG. CLUB PLANS DISCUSSION OF "MOD. THEATRE" TONIGHT

The English Club will hold a regular meeting tonight at Shreiner hall. The modern theatre will be considered. The program includes a resume of successful current plays with special reports on "Both Your Houses," "When Ladies Meet," and "Alien Corn."

Last Period Filled With Plenty of Thrills As Bears Tally Twice

POWERFUL OFFENSE BY G-BURG

By the slim margin of one extra point, the growl of the Ursinus Grizzly Bear was silenced on Saturday at Gettysburg when the Bullets defeated the prowling invaders 13-12. A dazzling last quarter packed with thrills and a see-saw scoring spree saw the Orange and Blue finally strut off Memorial Field with their second consecutive Conference victory and witnessed the end of loyal Ursinusites' hopes for an undefeated season.

The game was a heartbreaker to lose, for it was only a matter of getting that all-important kick to correctly propel the pigskin over the crossbar, but as consistent as the Bears have been all season in registering extra points, so were they inconsistent in two tries on Saturday, and consequently never caught up with their Conference rivals. Gettysburg deserved the victory as far as straight football went, for the Bullets presented a powerful offense and an impenetrable defense, and lost no time in building up an early lead, which lead could never be quite overcome. A barrage of Ursinus aerials in the second half threw plenty of scares in the Bullets' camp, but the intended pass receivers just couldn't get their hands on the ball most of the time.

G-burg Scores Early

At the outset of the game, it was evident that Gettysburg had scouted the Bears' offensive plays perfectly, for the hard-charging Bullet line stopped the Grizzly backs five yards behind the line of scrimmage consistently, and consequently the highly-touted running that the Grizzlies displayed at Drexel never had a chance to get under way. When the McAvoy-men failed to take any advantage of two G-burg fumbles in the first quarter, one on the kickoff, an exchange

Soccermen Tie Haverford But Bow to the Bullets, 7-0

Shaeffer's Quick Kick Knots Score With Main Liners

The Haverford Game

After tying Haverford jayvees the Grizzly booters went down to defeat at the hands of a strong Gettysburg eleven Saturday morning by the score of 7-0. The Bullets scored in every period, taking advantage of the wind in the third quarter to tally four times.

Although fighting gamely throughout the entire contest the Bears were greatly handicapped by injuries. The Battlefield boys with swift passing and strong defensive work had no trouble in holding the Ursinus eleven. The accurate shots of Fink proved to be the Bears' Waterloo. Coach Baker's proteges threatened to score in every period, but each time were met by a solid line of Bullets.

Editorial Comment

A CO-ED INSTITUTION?

This is a co-educational institution where men and women are supposed to receive the same opportunities under the same conditions. To a certain extent, the women are given these opportunities on an equal basis with the men. Scholastically, they share the same classes and the same professors. But when it is a question of extra-curricular activities, the women seem to fall far short of the share rightfully belonging to them.

It seems to be traditional on this campus to consider the male as proper heir to those positions of most important rank. Some examples may be enumerated as follows:—

In the literary field the two outstanding publications of the campus are The Ursinus Weekly and the Ruby, both of which are edited by men. There is no constitutional rule denying the women these honors. It is merely tradition, yet any attempt to remove it is met with considerable opposition.

Again, when a freshman class enters college, they are told to elect officers—with certain specifications. The president and treasurer are to be men, while the minor offices of vice president and secretary are awarded to the women.

The same state of affairs can be shown to exist in many of the clubs or societies, although observance to tradition is not as strictly maintained. Reasons which seem fairly valid may be offered for this condition, but they are not so, until the failure of women in these positions has been proved.

As a last thought, what do women's colleges do without the superior male to lead them? Why, they take his place and prove to be very capable substitutes!

CONTROLLING STUDENT FUNDS.

Is the money that is spent by students who represent their classes or different organizations always spent most judiciously? Here is a question that always comes in for considerable comment whenever any one individual has to handle large sums of money for the rest of the students. In many cases there have been cries of dishonesty directed against treasurers and others who handle these funds.

In order to correct this situation a faculty committee has been busy for the past few months and has already made definite proposals for the establishment of a budgeting system which will apply to all undergraduate organizations that handle money.

The main proposals that have been made up to this date include: the setting up of a budget system for each treasurer or other individual that handles student funds, the auditing of these books at least twice a year, and the selection of a budget committee which will include both student and faculty representation.

Careful consideration of the projects shows that there is not a single indisputably good reason why anyone should be opposed to this plan and there are a great many points in its favor. Not only will it enlighten the individual concerning the expenditure of his money but it will also relieve the treasurer of further responsibility when, and if, the auditing of the books shows that there are no discrepancies. The faculty committee who have studied the problem deserve a great deal of commendation and it is our hope that their efforts will culminate in an efficient budgeting system which will affect the whole student body.

Y. M. C. A. CHORUS MAKES TENTATIVE PLANS FOR YEAR

Under the direction of Craig Johnston '35, and Dr. James Lynn Barnard, the Y. M. C. A. chorus is once again being organized. The chorus will not limit themselves to the singing of anthems but will try to master some classical or semi-classical music to which religious words have been set. This attempt toward a wider range in their choice of songs is to increase the interest of their programs.

The work of the organization is progressing slowly, and up to the present time all plans are merely tentative. It is expected that concerts will be ready by Christmas and will be given both at that time and at Easter in the College church. Engagements with several other large churches are being sought by the manager.

HIST.-SOCIAL SCIENCE GROUP ELECTS WM. O'DONNELL PRES.

Election of officers took place at the initial meeting of the History-Social Science group on Thursday, Nov. 2, at 12:30 p. m. Betty Neast '34 served as temporary chairman.

As a result of the election, William O'Donnell '34 was elected president of the group. The other officers are: v. pres., Mario Farías '35; secretary, Fred Schiele '35; treasurers, Harry Brian '35 and Esther Lightner '34.

Following the election there was a discussion of plans for a group meeting to be held sometime in the near future. A committee consisting of Betty Neast '34, Sylvia Liverant '34, Louis Mitchell '34, and Jesse Heiges '35 was appointed to help in carrying out this affair.

THE MAIL BOX

Letter to the Editor:

Last year witnessed two outstanding events in the history of Ursinus—The opening of the Science Building, an inestimable addition to the equipment of the College, making possible the expansion of its curriculum, and the inauguration of a literary publication, enlarging the range of student activities. Both offer possibilities for great strides forward, the one in scientific study, the other in artistic expression.

The magazine was named "The Lantern," because of the association with the tower of the new structure, a feature distinctively representative of our college, and because of its symbolic suggestion of the light that radiates from creative writing.

A number of years ago an eight page literary supplement was printed in connection with The Weekly. When it was discontinued, nothing was provided to take its place. Recently, however, students have felt the real need for a publication which would bring to attention student talent and encourage individual expression of merit. Last spring a student-faculty committee made an investigation of college periodicals and formulated a constitution to direct such an activity on our campus. As a result, Volume 1, Number 1 of the "The Lantern" appeared in May of 1933. It was planned, after the initial copy, to publish three issues yearly.

The magazine consists of essays, short stories, verse, book reviews, and other articles of a literary nature. The whole student body is invited to submit contributions. They will be received by any member of the staff from now until November 27. Accepted material will be printed in "The Lantern" to be published at the end of December.

Editor-in-Chief of The Lantern.

GRIZZLY GLEANINGS

In the most unexpected places we sometimes find rather witty, very readable phrases and little ditties that make reading a real pleasure—or more of a pleasure, as the case may be. Often the surrounding material obscures the value of the writer's wisecracks. Grouped together, these little-known sayings from well-known books make passable reading material.

From page 33 of "The Fundamentals of Logic", by Chapman and Henle: "a plus 1=1—What is either "a" or "anything" is "anything". Let "a" stand for ash tray; then what is either an ash-tray or anything is at least anything."

"a plus a =a—Let "a" stand for a book; then that which is either a book or a book is a book".

Rufener's "Principles of Economics" deals with communism; page 721:

"The possibility of disagreement is represented by the formula X (X-1) divided by 2, in which X represents the number of persons in the family.

"In a family of two there is just chance of one quarrel at a time: 2 times 1 divided by two equals 1. But if there are 100,000,000 in the family! Theoretically, at least, each of the 100,000,000 may disagree with views of the other 99,999,999. The total number of possible disagreements would be 50,000,000 times 99,999,999. Assuredly, with such a family there would be no place like home!"

And a little ditty from page 56 of Wallis and Willey's "Readings in Sociology".

The centipede was happy quite
Until the frog in fun
Said, "Pray which leg comes after which?"
And wrought his mind to such a pitch
He fell exhausted in the ditch,
Considering how to run.

"The Art of writing Prose" by Loomis (the successor of Grose) comes through on page 53:

Mrs. Yifnif. You should see a easiness wit weech dey subtract a toot. Dey got it a invention wot it makes de faze absoluteleh indispensable to pain—

Mrs. Feitlebaum. Witt mashinney dey pulling dem out, ha?

Mrs. Yifnif. Who's talking from mashinney? Wit a local esthetic.

Mrs. Feitlebaum. Wot is?

Mrs. Yifnif. Is so. Dey got a soitin kind stoff wot it pallorizes de noives—Is absoluteleh devoid from cessation.

MATH. GROUP ENJOYS GAMES AND SPEECHES AT MEETING

Instead of worrying over unsolved problems, the Mathematics group met on Tuesday evening in the Science Building tower for a few hours of fun without figures.

Dr. John W. Clawson outlined briefly the development of the group system within Ursinus College. By means of a graph, he showed the gradual alteration of old and addition of new groups since 1902. The Mathematics group, averaging nearly the same ratio with the College as a whole from year to year, comprises approximately one-third of the College enrollment. The maintenance of versatile achievements of the group was commended.

As the second feature of the program, Mr. Frank L. Manning expressed the close relationship of mathematics and science with the growth of careful thinking. Mathematics as a fundamental subject, he showed, has always been a center of intellectual development. Citing Einstein as an example, he pointed out that many of the greatest masterminds in either past or present history have been those which have developed in mathematical fields.

In addition to the program which the group advisors contributed, there was a part in which everybody participated. This consisted of enjoyment of games, fortune-telling, and plenty of Hallowe'en refreshments.

BIG-LITTLE SISTERS UNITE

IN CELEBRATING HALLOWE'EN

After several unsuccessful attempts to have a party, the Y. W. met with great success at the "Big and Little Sisters" Hallowe'en party in the gym last Wednesday evening, November 1.

Many of those present were gayly attired in attractive costumes. Most of the evening was spent in playing Hallowe'en games such as bobbing for apples, a candle race, and fortune telling. Jean Ulsh '37, played for dancing which followed.

Refreshments appropriate to the Hallowe'en season were served. Mrs. Grace Cordry, adviser to the Y. W., acted as chaperon.

JEWELRY

The Tower Window

THE firm of William Henry MacDade, certified public accountants, of Philadelphia, which for the last half dozen years, has audited the accounts of Ursinus College, has filed its report for 1932-1933. All friends of Ursinus will be glad to learn that the institution has come through the year with a balance on the right side of the ledger of $749.65.

When the budget for the year was made up at the beginning of last year it was evident to our fiscal officers that notwithstanding the most conservative allowances to the various departments, there would be a deficit of at least $10,000. The total of expenditures for the year were $418,417. So experienced are our officials in budget making, that in handling figures of this large amount, the estimates in past years have not varied more than a few thousand dollars in any year. It seemed to them that the deficit of $10,000 was inescapable.

When this fact became known the amount of the anticipated deficit was assured to the College in gifts by the faculty, officers and employes, the whole amount having been cheerfully subscribed without going off the campus. The report of the auditors shows that they made good by donating to the institution the actual sum of $10,403. This was not done without hardship on the part of some contributors and of self denial on the part of all. It is a notable exemplification of the fact that the loyalty and self-sacrificing spirit so conspicuous in those who wrought here in the early years has not departed from the campus.

Because of fewer students, yielding a reduced income from fees, and a further loss of income from invested funds, a still greater deficit impends for the coming year, and again the faculty and officers alone, relieving the employes at present, have generously come to the help of the institution by subscribing an even greater amount. They are determined that the educational structure that has been reared here at such great pains, shall not be permitted to suffer impairment.

Seldom are the folks who make up the working forces of the College mentioned in this column, but here is an example of steadfastness and co-operation that I think the wider circle of Ursinus friends will be pleased to know about.

MR. PETITT SPEAKS TO Y ON TOPIC OF RELIGION

At the Y. M. C. A. meeting held last Wednesday evening, November 1, Mr. William Petitt, the new chemistry instructor, spoke on "What Religion Means To Me—A Scientist." This was one of a series of programs sponsored by the Y on "What Religion Means To Me." The object of these meetings is to have the various professors give their frank and personal ideas of religion.

Mr. Petitt, in the short time of twenty minutes, gave a very stimulating talk on his religion. In the course of his speech he said there were two premises about which his religion revolves, namely: that there is a Supreme Being; and that the Biblical Scriptures are valid.

In answer to the question of the conflict of science and religion Mr. Petitt said that there certainly is a conflict, but that they deal with two totally different spheres of life—Science depersonalizes and religion personalizes the universe, "As for me," he declared, "my science is not religious and my religion is not scientific."

GLENSIDE QUARTERLY CLUB TO WITNESS FOOTBALL GAME

Arrangements for the annual Quarterly Club outing of the Carmel Presbyterian Church at Glenside have been completed. This men's club, which has originated from the largest single congregation in the United States, will be at Ursinus on Saturday, November 18.

They will attend the football game with Swarthmore, and afterwards dinner will be served to them in one of the College dining-rooms. A program of after-dinner speeches and songs has been arranged.

Mr. James F. Coles, president of the organization, will preside.

PEP RALLY TALKS BY "POP" HENDRICKS AND BROWNBAC

With rousing cheers by the audience and lively music by the College band, another pep meeting on Thursday evening, November 2, in Bomberger hall hoped to lead the Ursinus Bears on to victory in the game with Gettysburg on Saturday, November 4.

Professor Brownback addressed the meeting in which he stated that Ursinus was very fortunate in having exceedingly good teams for the past few years. He believed that this was due to the spirit of both the team and the student body as well as the determination of the team to win.

Professor Brownback then introduced "Pop" Hendricks, former baseball fan of Ursinus. Mr. Hendricks with his witty remarks and reflection of baseball and football experiences of former years kept the meeting in a spirited atmosphere.

"Swede" Paul, freshman coach spoke a few words concerning the freshman football game after which "Minnie" Seiple was called upon to speak. Cheers were led and the Campus Song terminated the meeting.

CURTAIN CLUB MAY PRESENT PRODUCTION IN DECEMBER

The Curtain Club of Ursinus College adopted a constitution at its first regular meeting of the year on October 31, in Bomberger hall.

The regulations go into effect immediately. The members will be assessed 50 cents as dues for a semester. New members of the Club are on probation until they participate in a play or work on three committees.

Plans are being made now for the Club's first production which will be held in December.

The government universities of China have an annual tuition of four dollars, reports the Intercollegiate Digest.

Columbia University reporters, questioning people on the street, discovered that five out of six men think that college students are loafers. The sixth spoke only Chinese.

GAFF from the GRIZZLY

"McAvoy's Animated Cartoons" have signed a new star—Horace Horsecollar Harvey.

Much to the dismay of our Derr hall, "Frank Buck" Shade returned last Monday night from his last expedition with a new animal for his collection.

The kitchen has added a new unit. The pump house is now being used as a smoke house.

We've heard that Cooper is making his "exodus" next weekend. And there is a home game too!

One more smack in the nose and the Greek will look like our old pal Jake Julo.

Mitchell was hunting the other night. He seemed to have been a little more fortunate than Jake Shade.

Another record shattered—we listened to the radio for a full hour without hearing "We're Not Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf."

Are they searching for pirate gold or did another war break out?... Blizzard Stoudt please note—the above refers to the work being carried on behind Bomberger.

"THANK YOU DOCTOR" TO BE PRESENTED NOVEMBER 18

A tryout for the one-act play, "Thank You, Doctor" was announced for one evening last week. Comparatively few students turned out. The male representation was entirely lacking. This week there will be another tryout which more students are urged to attend. The play will be given in the gym, Saturday, Nov. 18, under the auspices of the Women's Dormitory committee.

The depression has raised the scholarship record, claims the dean of Dartmouth. "In former years," he said, "about seventy freshmen flunked at the end of the first year, while this year only five failed."

THIRTY-FIVE CENTS

Isn't Much!

Most college allowances go only so far. But even at that you can probably spare 35 cents once a week.

It isn't much—35 cents—hardly the price of a movie or hair cut. Yet for 35 cents, if you know the ropes, you can telephone as far as 100 miles.

That probably means you can telephone home! Can 35 cents buy more pleasure than that? You can pick up a budget of family news... talk over your problems... share your interests. There's nothing like a "voice visit" with the folks back home to brighten your whole week—and theirs.

TO TAKE ADVANTAGE of the LOW NIGHT RATES...

Call after 8:30 P. M., and be sure to make a Station to Station call.

That means, ask the Operator for your home telephone, but not for any specific person.

If you've fixed a date in advance, the family will be sure to be there.

35 cents at night will pay for a 3-minute Station to Station call to anywhere within 100 miles.

ANNUAL TUGGE-OF-WARRE

water was a marked improvement over last year's victory deadline (Big Ed Hershey), for it not only gave the fire department exercise and enlivened the dying grass blades on back campus, but also practically "cleaned up" everybody in the affair, Parson Mitchell and several annoying spectators included.
The exponent of the Student Council who tried to run the brawl, Judge Brian (successor to Judge Hershey of 1932) gave up in utter despair in his attempt to stage a fair and square performance when the faculty members even went so far as to join hands with the light weights of the frosh team. After the ground was once thoroughly soaked, it was an easy matter for the team pulling down hill to drag their opponents through the mud. Probably realizing this when they won the toss, the frosh warriors ingeniously decided to pull uphill. Such brilliant generalship is astounding—can it be possible that they are only freshmen?

Tug No. 1 was absolutely on the level, the Sophs winning and the Frosh getting wet. Tug No. 2 showed direct evidence of padded ranks and foul play, but seeing the second year men getting their share of H2O was more than worth nerve-racking shouts of "Fake!"
The deciding pull was short as it was thrilling. The result was in the Sophs favor, but for some reason the fire hose went wild and everyone in the immediate neighborhood got his share. Oh, well, it was all in fun! Ten dollars please, freshmen—after all a rope's a rope!

SOCCERMEN TIE AND LOSE

Next Saturday morning the local boys will meet F. and M. on the Lancaster field in a tussle which promises to be one of the hardest of the season. Last week the Gettysburg booters defeated the Nevonian eleven by a 1-0 score.

The Gettysburg Game

With Shaeffer's quick goal in the last few minutes of play, Coach Baker's booters played a 1-1 stalemate against the Haverford Jayvees on Haverford field Tuesday afternoon. Although the Bears outplayed their opponents throughout the game they lacked the necessary punch to do any great amount of scoring.

In the first period the Grizzlies continually threatened the goal, but were repelled each time. In the second quarter the fast-traveling Jayvees began to break through and scored on Jones' short kick just before the half ended.

Following a listless third period, the Grizzlies rallied late in the last quarter. After many tries for scores had gone wide, Shaeffer playing center forward, slipped through close-packed opposition, sinking the oval in the net to tie the score at one all.

The absence of "Russ" Fisher at center forward because of injuries, was especially noticeable. His injuries necessitated a last minute change in the line-up so that the booters could not function together with their maximum ability. "Lefty" Trumbore, veteran fullback was also on the bench because of injuries.

ROXBOROUGH M. E. CHURCH TO HEAR URSINUS GLEE CLUB

On the evening of Monday, November 20, the Glee Club will present a concert in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Roxborough, Pa. This program will consist not only of numbers offered by the entire club, but also of selections given by various quartettes and individual soloists. Tickets for this program, which promises to be one of worthwhile entertainment, can be purchased from members of the club for the nominal sum of thirty-five cents.

BROTHERHOOD DISCUSSES "PRAYER" AT MEETING

A message based on Paul's exhortation to Timothy to pray for all men, especially those in authority and holding temporal offices, was given by Rev. P. Vanis Slawter to the Brotherhood of St. Paul last Thursday evening, Nov. 2, in the Hendricks Memorial building. The theme of the entire program was "Prayer". Rev. Slawter is pastor of the First Baptist Church at Norristown. The substance of his message may be epitomized in the words of Tennyson, "More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of."

Devotions were in charge of Gilbert Bartholomew '35, who read selected portions from the Gospels regarding prayer. A short review of business affairs followed, after which the meeting was adjourned.

On Sunday evening, November 5th, the deputation team of the Brotherhood conducted the service at the First German M. E. Church, Philadelphia. The message was based on the text in Hebrews, "Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today, and forever." It was discussed in order by Charles Francis Ehly, '36, Pearce Smith '35, and George Carvel '36. The service was in charge of Elmer Schmitt, '36.

NEW PRESS BOX WILL WELCOME VISITING SCRIBES HEREAFTER

Realizing the need for more ample press facilities, a new press box is being constructed in the Patterson Field Stands, according to a statement recently issued by "Jing" Johnson.

The project will be completed in time for the Muhlenberg game here next Saturday.

A keen eye can, at present, discern, something vaguely resembling a press box at the extreme right of the Patterson Field stands. Surrounded by nothing, the box offers the newspapermen as a perfect target for the bitter cold and wind.

Visiting scribes will enjoy the Muhlenberg game with comfort, as the new press box will be entirely enclosed, a glass front offering easy vision of the field. The structure will lie at the center of the stands, and at the extreme rear, a special projection being built to sustain it.

Newspapermen will have an inclined board in front of every seat upon which to pound out their stories. The telegraph wires will be in the back, with the operators occupying seats at the extreme ends of the box.

As to the number of seats, "Jing" states that there will be as many as there are now, and the box will be much wider.

In the event that there should ever be any need for broadcasting a game, there would be plenty of room for an announcer and microphone.

REPRESENTATIVES ATTEND

Y. W. CABINET CONFERENCE

Marion Hageman '34, Catherine Prizer '34, and Lyndell Reber '36 were delegates to the Eastern Pennsylvania Cabinet Conference of the Y. W. C. A. held in the Christian Association building of the University of Pennsylvania, Saturday afternoon and evening of November 4.

The main feature of the meeting was that of committee discussion groups. Topics such as "Little Sister," finance, publicity, membership, meetings, social, social service, vespers, and study groups were led by representatives from the various colleges. Lyndell Reber '36 had charge of the social group.

CHURCH CONFERENCE HELD AT URSINUS NOVEMBER 4

Fifteen members of the various organizations of Mt. Herman's Reformed Church in Philadelphia, met at Ursinus College Saturday afternoon and evening. They met for the purpose of discussing a method of securing united instead of divided cooperation from the various organizations represented.

The afternoon program consisted of discussion and visiting the College buildings. Dinner was served to them in the upstairs dining room, after which another session was held.

POLITICAL IMPERSONATIONS AT WOMEN'S DEBATING CLUB

A group of argumentative Ursinus co-eds seem to be making rapid strides in the political field, as was displayed by the Women's Debating Club on Monday evening at South hall.

Secretary of Labor, Miss Frances Perkins, impersonated by Maude Funk '35, presented impartially the facts of the N. R. A. and outlined briefly the means by which the N. R. A. realizes these facts. Mrs. Snodgrass, alias Sara Brown '34, speaking in favor of the act, pointed out the decided benefits that have been and will be derived from it.

An open forum followed the principal speeches. Keturah Donaldson '34, who represented the small business man that is crushed, and Thelma Smith '36, who showed the unconstitutionality of the N. R. A. and the path to a dictatorship, were the most active participants in this part of the program.

The political meeting was the first attempt of the Club at entertainment of this kind.

WM. TEMPEST LEADS VESPERS IN "APPRECIATION" PROGRAM

"Appreciation of Other Religions" was the theme of the Vesper Service held Sunday evening, November 3, in Bomberger hall. Walter Boyer '37, opened the meeting with an organ prelude. The audience then sang softly "Holy, Holy, Holy." The prayer litany was led by William Tempest '35. Following prayer the group sang "These Things Shall Be." William Tempest '35 gave the selection "By An Unknown Disciple." After the singing of another hymn the meeting was closed with a short period of meditation.

In the evening a one-act play entitled "Thank You, Doctor" will be presented in the gymnasium. A twenty cent admission will be charged. The characters for this production will be selected from the entire student body. The gifts will be on sale any time after the game and the play.

The purpose of this bazaar is to raise funds for the proposed dormitory for women. The co-operation of the entire student body is asked in order that this affair may be successful.

broken nose, and was removed from play. It is expected he will don a mask for the remainder of the season.

Farm School, undefeated thru four seasons, showed nothing in the line of offense except weird formations and shifts. Their pet was an off-tackle slice with a ten man line, but alert defensive play halted this without gain after the initial attempt.

Swede Paul's eleven upset all the well-known dope in blanking the Farm School gridders, who were odds-on favorites to win. The Frosh are looking forward optimistically to the fray with Wyoming Seminary on November 18.

By virtue of the sensational win, the Ursinus Frosh are now rated among the leading Frosh elevens in the state, still sporting an undefeated, untied, and unscored upon slate for the season.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

So this is Gettysburg...no, we don't want to be shown over the battlefield...we have our own private battlefield. The Bunion Derby is on...well, let's go in while the crashing is good... here comes Captain Sutin—the F. and M. runners must have seen the Battlefield before.

Look's like they've got Doc Omwake in solitary confinement...oh no some of the faculty members are going to keep him company. Here's the team...let's give it to them and then get going...hum, maybe we were wrong...there goes the extra point... let's come back gang. Oh well, the Warner system looks pretty...but we could very nicely do without those G-burg ends.

Things are looking better this period... block that kick...too late, there's the half...quite a band G-burg... so the drum major is going to Chicago...is he taking his Harlow strut with him?...Ah, at last we have it...a Bullet and a Bear...that's it, play cagey...stay in the band you fool.

There goes the kick...looking better...fourth quarter already...come on its getting late...nice catch Herman...oh boy, again...there goes the galloping gander on his galvanic gambol...get up Cliff we'll need you some more. Looks like it's all over but the shouting...wait!...Wow... there goes Grim with his escort of honor...fell out of the stand on that one...don't ever mention the law of averages to me. There she blows... looks like a banner day for G-burg... Oh well a 3rd tie would have been monotonous.

Saturday was a bad day for all the big boys...Ursinus, Notre Dame, Carnegie Tech, and Farm School all lost...The Frosh were the only team that could prove we turn out winning teams at Ursinus...The Greek's pan looks like Santoro will have some competition...Swede Paul's proteges have already won as many games as have the Frosh in the past two seasons...

BEARS LOSE TO BULLETS

of punts found the Bullets in possession of the leather in midfield. From this point they put on all available pressure and drove straight to the goal line, with McGinnis and Nowicki gaining 44 yards between them on two end runs. The former carried the ball across from the 3-yard stripe. Howard added the extra point, and the Breamites, off to an early 7-0 lead, settled down and were content to play defensive ball for the remainder of the half. In the punting duel that ensued, one of Calvert's boots almost brought disaster to the home team when Bradford downed the ball on the G-burg 3-yard line, but the half ended directly after that.

Bears Launch Aerial Attack

The third quarter found the Bears launching a desperate counter attack in which they hoped to overtake the Bullets' lead. But the rival line strengthened after a brace of Grizzly first downs, and the Ursinus team took to the air, with Calvert doing the passing. Cliff's beautiful passes went for nought, however, although several near completed ones brought the stands to their feet.

Drama in Last Period

The final period was as dramatic as one finds in any football story book. The first play resulted in a 12-yard gain on a forward to Bassman. The next play was as perfect as it was thrilling. Calvert faded back and heaved a marvelous pass to Bassman, good for 40 yards, and the hard-hitting Grizzly fullback galloped the remaining 15 yards to the end zone unmolested. A touchdown play resulted in exactly that. Groans were heard everywhere on the Ursinus stands when Shuman missed the try for extra point.

Gettysburg's sudden burst of power following the next kickoff astounded the now excited fans. In four plays her hefty backs had advanced the ball to the Ursinus 6-yard line, and a score seemed imminent. But an intercepted forward, the first the Bullets tried, ended this threat, only to have them start another touchdown drive a few moments later. The Breamites fooled the Bear defense and startled the fans with a 40-yard pass to Captain Kozma, who stumbled across the goal line with the second G-burg touchdown and also the victorious points. The try for extra point failed, but the 13-6 lead seemed absolutely safe to everyone present, for it was only a few minutes before the final whistle would blow.

Grim Recovers Blocked Pass

However, the Bullet quarterback made an almost fatal mistake when he attempted another forward from his own 40-yard line. The alert Bear linemen charged him, blocked the pass, and before the ball touched the ground, Grim gathered in the leather and sped to the goal line for a touchdown. Again the Grizzlies were one point behind, and it depended on Shuman's toe, whether or not the Bears were to tie the score. But hopeful hearts in the Ursinus stands sank when Mickey missed placing the ball between the uprights by inches. A minute later the game ended, and with it went the Grizzlies' hopes for an undefeated season.

McGinnis, Howard, and Kozma were the Gettysburg gentlemen who made things hot for the Bears and between the three of them, the 13 points were scored. Captain Tropp was the only Grizzly able to gain ground against the stalwart Bullet line, while the brilliant work of Bradford at end and Bassman's catch of Calvert's pass were the highlights on the Ursinus team.

Mules Next

Next week the last Conference battle of the season will be played on Patterson field, when the Bears encounter the strong Muhlenberg Mules. The Grizzlies will attempt to regain their winning form in this contest.
