E. Covert Elected Council President

Classes Pick Representatives To Student Government; Officers Chosen

FACULTY ADVISERS RENAMED

E. Wayne Covert '35, was elected president of the Men's Student Council for next year at a meeting of that body held last Friday, May 18.

"Bud", as he is generally known, engages in quite a few college activities. He is a member of the Chemical Biological Group and belongs to the James M. Anders Pre-Medical Society. Recently he was elected president of the Beta Sigma Lambda fraternity.

In addition to this, he belongs to the Varsity Club, having been on the Track Team his sophomore year and on the Basketball Team both his sophomore and junior years. As special feature writer on the Weekly Staff, his writings are watched for by students each week. Covert is a graduate of the high school in Camden, N. J., his home town.

When asked for a declaration of policy, the new president replied: "I'm going to see that the freshman rules are more strictly enforced next year, with the help of the council. There will be no riding of freshmen and they will get justice, but errands must be run."

At the same meeting Dr. J. Lynn Barnard and Prof. J. H. Brownback were re-elected faculty advisers of the council. Other officers elected were: Jesse G. Heiges '35, vice president; and James E. Reese '36, secretary-treasurer. Robert Dresch '34, the retiring president, administered the oath of office to the new officers.

Earlier in the week, next year's three upper classes elected their representatives to the council. The following were chosen: Seniors—E. Wayne Covert, Jesse G. Heiges, Charles George, Camille Kurtz, Samuel Levin, and Daniel Little. Juniors—Herman Bassman, Thomas Glassmoyer, John Grimm, and James Reese. Sophomores—Charles Edwards and Seiber Pancoast.

FOREIGNERS SPEAK AT TEA

SPONSORED BY THE Y. W. C. A.

Audience Participates in Informal Discussions on Speeches

Two speakers, one from Hungary and the other from Palestine, featured the International Tea sponsored by the Y. W. C. A., which was held Sunday afternoon, May 20, in the recreational hall at 3 o'clock.

Following the singing of a hymn, Mr. Frank Adler of Budapest, Hungary spoke on "Education in Budapest and Vienna." In an interesting and humorous manner he told of student life generally in Austria and Hungary from the very beginning to university graduate work. Mr. Adler, an ordained Baptist minister, is a student at the Crozer Theological Seminary in Philadelphia.

Following this, Betty Neast '34, and Alice Richard '35, played a violin duet, accompanied at the piano by Irene Takacs '34.

Miss Sultanie Hallaby, from Jerusalem, Palestine, was the next speaker. In a very interesting talk she outlined the political situation in her part of the world. Miss Hallaby, a

Physical Ed. Group Presents Exhibition

Forty Students Participate In Apparatus, Exercise, and Dance Drills

STUDENTS DANCE AFTERWARD

Apparatus work, free exercise drills and tap dancing constituted a large part of the exhibition given by the physical education group on Friday evening, May 18, in the Thompson-Gay gymnasium.

Approximately forty students participated in the exhibition which was directed by Professor Oscar E. Gerney, assistant professor of physical education; Mr. Harry Nelson, instructor of apparatus and free exercises; Miss Eleanor F. Snell, instructor of games and exercises; and Mrs. Dorothy M. Ogden, directress of dancing.

The program opened with games arranged for elementary grades which were given by members of the freshmen class. The "Seed Dance," taken from the May Day pageant, was presented next by two senior and two sophomore girls.

In group formation all the physical education students exhibited outstanding ability on the horizontal bars, trapeze, rings, and the horse. Exceptional talent was displayed by Charles Schaffer '36, who performed skillfully on the trapeze, rings, and horizontal bars.

Following the apparatus performance, several symmetrical pyramid formations were executed which called for the cooperation of the entire group. Members of the senior class then performed a tap dance in military style.

Music for the program was supplied by Sylvia Acri '35, Mary Hutchings '35, and Vincent Bonkoski '37.

After the termination of the exhibition, dancing was enjoyed by the spectators until 11:15 p. m. The music which was obtained by Professor Gerney, was furnished by the Cyclone Six. All six are students at the Northeast High School in Philadelphia.

Dr. Calvin D. Yost was the speaker at the last meeting for the year of the Men's Faculty Club, held last Friday night, May 18, at the Spring Mountain House.

Following the dinner, Dr. Yost spoke informally concerning his trip to Europe last summer. He related, in particular, his impressions of the English countryside, the Dutch cities, and the Scottish Universities.

The program committee for next year will consist of: Dr. C. V. Tower, chairman; Dr. M. C. Old, and Professor M. O. Bone.

PRESIDENT OMWAKE ATTENDS

Representatives from more than forty Pennsylvania colleges attended the spring meeting of the Association of College Presidents of Pennsylvania at Pennsylvania State College on May 15 and 16.

President Omwake, who is secretary of the association, was the official delegate from Ursinus. He was accompanied by Mrs. Omwake, and Professor and Mrs. Sheeder.

President Ralph D. Hetzel of Pennsylvania State College entertained the visitors at an informal reception on Tuesday afternoon in the Nittany Lion Inn, where all meetings were held. Dr. Charles E. Beury, of Temple University, President of the Association, called the meeting to order at 8:00 p. m., and a number of important items of business were discussed.

A report on the junior college situation in Pennsylvania was presented by President Hetzel. Competition in granting aid to students was discussed following a report by President W. P. Tolley, of Allegheny College, and a report on the preparation of secondary school teachers was offered by the standing committee of which President H. W. A. Hanson, of Gettysburg College, is chairman.

At the Wednesday morning session, Dr. Kelly, of the Association of American Colleges, made a report on federal legislation affecting the col-

Open Scholarship Prospects Invited To Visit at College

Twelve additional candidates for Open Scholarship appointments have been invited to the College next Saturday, May 26. These young men will come from various parts of the east, although the major portion are from Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Maryland.

A psychological examination will be administered to the candidates, after which they will be entertained at luncheon by the members of the committee on Scholarships.

Sixteen candidates from three States went through a similar procedure two weeks ago. The competition this year is quite keen, and it is expected that the ultimate choice of the committee will be difficult to make.

BOSWELL AND WILLAUER VIE IN DEBATE ON ECONOMIC TENDENCIES OF NEW DEAL

Before a large and enthusiastic audience in Bomberger hall on Tuesday, May 15th, Dr. James L. Boswell and Mr. Philip B. Willauer debated the question: "Resolved, that the New Deal, economically measured, be discarded." Professor Maurice O. Bone acted as chairman. The affair was under the sponsorship of the Women's Debating Club.

Dr. Boswell, upholding the affirmative side of the question discussed in turn the agricultural, industrial, Monetary, and miscellaneous policies of the government, and in turn he criticized each one. He pointed to the fact that while the government had attempted to increase the purchasing power of the farmers, in the south especially, the A. A. A. had succeeded in increasing the purchasing power only from 61 to 62 cents. At this rate the farmers will have complete recovery by 1972.

On the other hand, the N. R. A., according to the speaker, not only being based on the false assumption that we can sell more by charging higher prices, also has the added fault of being at cross-purposes with the A. A. A.

The Monetary policies, Dr. Boswell asserted, did not have to be discussed because no competent economist

T. K. A. Initiates New Members at Banquet

Rev. Oliver Maurer Outlines History of Debating Here; Named Honor Member

HEIGES ELECTED PRESIDENT

Eleven students and one alumnus of the College were taken into membership in the local chapter of Tau Kappa Alpha, the national honorary forensic fraternity, at the annual spring initiation and banquet of the organization, held last Saturday, May 19, in the Spring Mountain House, near Schwenksville.

Rev. Oliver K. Maurer of Red Lion, a graduate in the class of 1921, was the alumnus selected by the fraternity for honorary membership, because of his intense interest in debating while at Ursinus.

He related the difficulties in securing the establishment of intercollegiate debating here. The first season's schedule consisted of only one debate—with the University of Pennsylvania, which is still one of the College's yearly opponents.

During the business session of the meeting, the following officers were elected for next year: president, Jesse Heiges '35; vice-president, Mildred Fox '35, secretary-treasurer, Thomas Glassmoyer '36.

At the banquet, held at noon immediately following the initiation, Nadine Jones '34, retiring president of the fraternity, pointed out the special value of the organization in developing abilities useful in law, teaching, and the ministry. The faculty advisors of debating—Dr. E. B. White, and Prof. H. L. Carter, the alumni members of T. K. A., and the new president spoke briefly.

Those students received into membership were: Sara Brown '34, Dora Evans '36, Elizabeth Kassab '36, Esther Lightner '34, Sylvia Liverant '34,

College Chorus to Present Pageant

Musical Organizations to Unite In Presentation of Old Popular Songs

WRITTEN BY MISS HARTENSTINE

"A Forest Rendezvous", a singing pageant by the Ursinus College Chorus, will be given on the West Campus on Wednesday evening, May 23, at 8:30 p. m. The chorus is composed of the Glee Club, the choir, the voice students and all those on the campus interested in choral music.

Jeanette Douglas Hartenstine, head of the vocal department and director of the choral music will direct the production.

The pageant will be an informal presentation of old popular songs. The action takes place in a moonlit forest at midnight as the artists are returning from an aristocratic concert on the estate of an English nobleman. Passing by a rural tavern they stop to entertain the townspeople.

Among the numbers that will be sung are: "Moonlight in the Forest" by the full chorus and a tenor solo by Raymond Christy '37, "The Sweetest Story Ever Told." Kathryn Schultz will sing the "Second Minuet." The numbers to be sung by the Glee Club will include "The Jolly Roger," "Winter Song," "Landsighting," "The Sleigh," "Laughing," "The Mulligan Musketeers," and "Fireflies."

Anna Grimm '35, will sing "The Goblins Will Get You" and a group of Scottish numbers will be presented by Thomas Burns '37. "Dost Thou Know That Fair Land" the aria from Mignon will be sung by Kathryn Prizer '34. The choir will render Mozart's "Gloria in Excelsis."

LeRoy Landis '36, will sing "Nobody's Darling" and Victoria Mollier '37, will delight with the novelty number "The Little Yellow Dog." "Thy

SORRY—NO COMIC ISSUE

Support among the students for a comic issue of The Weekly was not sufficient to warrant its publication. Comparatively few students agreed to pay that one thin dime for a comic issue.

On next Monday, therefore, will appear a regular edition of the paper. Any pre-commencement news must appear in it, as there will be no publication on June 4, in the middle of examinations. On commencement afternoon, June 11, will appear the last issue of the paper until September 17.

Editorial Comment

LET'S HAVE MORE

During the past week the Women's Debating Club sponsored a debate between Prof. James Boswell and Mr. Philip Willauer on the "New Deal". The plan was conceived as an experiment to test student response to such discussions.

To say that the experiment was a success would be putting it mildly. The debate was originally scheduled for a class-room, but the crowd was so large that proceedings had to be shifted to the chapel.

The general opinion among the student body afterwards was that the discussion was not only entertaining, and interesting, but enlightening. Genuine approval was manifest.

As one of the parties in the debate expressed it: "I certainly was pleased and surprised on the turn-out. I don't know whether the attraction was interest in the subject or the expectation of a free for all". The impelling force for attendance is unimportant. The fact that students drew something helpful from the debate and approved of the idea is important.

Such approval calls for more of the same thing in the future. If such discussions can continue to raise healthy debates on current problems among students, they are worth-while.

OPPORTUNITY FOR PREPARATION

For the first time in several years, examinations will start on a Monday. This is a much better plan than starting them on a Thursday, when classes run until five o'clock the day before.

Those in authority have also acted wisely from the student's point of view in spreading the tests over eight days instead of the usual six. At the end of previous semesters, examinations often were bunched close together at the beginning of the test period. That is fortunately not the case this spring. The College has certainly done all in its power to give students plenty of opportunity to prepare for "the hours of trial and tribulation".

If starting the examinations on Monday proves to be advantageous, the administration would doubtless continue that policy in the future, even though the tests at the end of the first semester of the year are now scheduled to start on a Thursday morning, according to the College catalogue.

It is now up to the students to make use of the extra "days of grace" by using them for the purpose for which they were intended.

COLLEGIATE SPOTLIGHT

The committee for the Senior dance at Swarthmore has designated May 17, just two weeks before the dance, as the "deadline" for getting their dates. After that the women may do the asking.

The Michigan Daily contributes this: if some coeds had the power in their eyes that they think they have, they could stir their coffee with a dirty look.

No grades are released at the University of Chicago. They are utilized only for one purpose and that is to provide a record for a student transferring to another college. — Then, it may be dangerous to release grades there.

Pun: A professor at Roanoke college claims that many of his students will be as famous as Napoleon at the rate they are going down in history.

Chinese instructors require their students to learn by memory, books of Oriental classics. Consequently, Chinese students study harder than American students according to two Chinese girls at the University of Pittsburgh.

The cruelty of it! The two leading ladies for the Wisconsin prom were a bit surprised—and annoyed, when they discovered their gowns were identical.

Ohio State University has a twelfth position on its football team. The "extra" is the humorist, whose duty it is to keep the team in good spirits. He wears a complete uniform for the occasion. There is an opportunity for all college clowns.

From the "Gamecock" of S. Carolina: "If chapel were made voluntary, the seats would be softer. Also, the numbers on the backs would last longer." Might not this be a judicious move in Collegeville too?

On the night before an English theme was due, a student at the U. of California found, as we all sometimes do, that the old words just wouldn't come. Soo , in order to avoid losing caste with the prof, he picked a paper marked "B" from the fraternity cabinets. The paper was returned to him graded "A", and inscribed thus by the professor: "I always thought this theme should receive an "A". I wrote it myself."

The Tower Window

COMMENCEMENT invitations from sister colleges are pouring in these days. Nearly all institutions have now come to the week-end program—that adopted years ago at Ursinus. In the leisurely times of the horse and buggy age, it was customary to spread the program over four or five days beginning with baccalaureate Sunday. It was in those days that the term "commencement week" came into use.

The commencements of earlier years laid great stress on the forensic features. The oration—the highest form of the speaking art, prevailed in its transcendent majesty. All members of the graduating class were required to prepare orations and in the years when the classes were still small, every one had to deliver his oration on commencement day. Later the number of speakers was reduced to five or six and at length to two—representing the salutatory and valedictory honors. From these the formal salutations and valedictions which originally characterized the orations have long since been dropped. The terms are employed today merely to designate traditional honors.

The dominance of the oration was demonstrated further in the practice instituted at nearly all colleges of conducting junior oratorical contests. What an occasion the Junior Oratorical Contest was in its palmy days at Ursinus! No other event of the week drew so many people. From miles around came eager listeners who crowded Bomberger hall to the outer walls. How times have changed! At the last Junior Oratorical, some years ago, there was scarcely a soul present except the judges and the members of the orchestra.

Still another evening in which the oration reigned was Alumni night—on which some alumnus, chosen a year in advance, held the center of the stage with an "oration"—too often more honored in the name than in its substance and character. However, among the alumni orations delivered at Ursinus commencements were some very worthy productions.

As if the goddess of oratory needed further homage, there was instituted the Oration before the Literary Societies which occupied still another evening. This was delivered by some speaker prominent in public life who was brought to the College on the joint invitation of the Zwinglian and Schaff societies. Class Day was also distinguished by "orations" of various kinds. Possibly it was because of a surfeit of oratory that this form of entertainment suffered its decline.

The present week-end and week-beginning program, extending from Friday noon to Monday noon with its variety of literary, social, musical, athletic, and business features, is representative of the richer academic life of today. The larger graduating classes, the larger alumni body and the greatly extended circle of friends find the modern commencement season to be a continuous round of interesting and pleasurable exercises.

GRIZZLY GLEANINGS

Grizzly Gleaning Short Essays

1. About Debates

Debates are wonderful things! They cause students to forget not only their meals but also their prejudices against profs. They surprise the debaters themselves by polling bigger audiences than chapel speakers. They poke fun at the N. R. A. and all the other alphabet codes. Both sides make use of analogies, and then all admit that they are poor forms of argument, but fail to apologize for using them. In short, we like to hear debates, but we wish that the front row would be larger so that we all could park there and stand at least a chance of getting an "A" in pol. science or economics.

2. About Gym Exhibitions

Gym exhibitions are also wonderful things! They teach us how to play elementary singing games and give us that technique and grace required for May Day dancers. We thrill at the mere sight of two-hundred pound ladies performing daredevil feats on the parallell bars on the flying rings, and mostly on the floor. We love to listen to the "ach, swien, drie, biff," of the marching feet as they patter across the bounding boards of Johnson's Gymnastic Terminal in full flight formation. Even the tap dancers render various and individual performances for us. Yes, yes, physical ed. is a great thing—it teaches our younger generation to be as versatile with their hands and feet as they formerly were with their cerebrums, cerebellums, and other parts north.

3. About Cyclone Sixes

Cyclone Sixes are extraordinary things! They give us that certain rhythm which only the Hotcha Hoppes could rival. Even Slugger Santoro cannot match their rendition of "Wagon Wheel". In fact, "Wagon Wheel" was so realistic that several of the couples were contemplating turning cartwheels if they played it again. But Cyclone Sixes cause free dances and we all like free dances. Free dances at Ursinus cause a sell-out in the quarter section, and put standing room on the dancing pavilion at a premium. And free dances allow the co-eds 11:15 permission—O boy! We wish they'd have a Cyclone Six, or preferably, a Tornado Twelve, every Friday night. . . . then we'd be sure to digest the fish before Sunday noon.

LEO KOHL DISCUSSES PLANS FOR NEXT YEAR WITH Y. M.

Council Now Planning for Freshman Orientation in September

Next year's Y. M. C. A. Cabinet met in Bomberger, last Monday night, to discuss plans for the coming year. Leo. H. Kohl, travelling secretary of the State Y. M. C. A., was present at the meeting.

Plans for a Y. M. Council, to function next year, were considered. The Council will consist of committees, each headed by a member of the cabinet and including several other students and probably one faculty member.

The inclusion of a faculty member on every committee resulted from Mr. Kohl's suggestion concerning greater faculty participation, since such a plan has proved successful on other campuses. He also gave helpful advice concerning the unity of the cabinet, contacts with Hi-Y clubs, deputation teams, and freshmen orientation.

The reception of freshmen in September is already being planned by Theodore Boysen '36, the cabinet member in charge of "Personal Work." A program is being arranged, which will keep the incoming freshmen busy during the entire orientation week. The "Handbook" is now being planned under the direction of Lyrdell Reber '36, and will be mailed to each freshman during the summer.

FINAL LANTERN TO APPEAR DURING FIRST WEEK IN JUNE

The third and final number of "The Lantern" for this school year will be issued during the first week of June.

It will also be on sale during commencement week for all non-subscribers and friends of the College who will be on campus for the graduation activities.

This will be the last issue produced by Editor Rose Marie Brubaker '34, and her staff. The new staff for the school year of 1934-35 will be chosen by the executive council and the board of advisers on Monday evening, May 21. Any persons who desire to be considered as candidates for this new staff must give their names to some member of the present staff before the meeting on Monday evening. Juniors and Seniors only are eligible.

Any contributions for the June issue will be received by the editor during this coming week.

Representatives Appointed To Student Activities Body

The following are the representatives to the council on student activities for next year, together with the organization they will represent:

E. Kermit Harbaugh '36, International Relations Club; Jesse G. Heiges '35, The Weekly; Eugene Shelley '37, Y. M. C. A.; Thomas P. Glassmoyer '36, Men's Debating Club; Marion E. Kern '35, English Club; Harry F. Brian '35, The 1935 "Ruby"; Russell S. Fisher '35, The Varsity Club; Jane Stephen '35, W. S. G. A.; Charlotte R. Tyson '37, Y. W. C. A.; Dorothy F. Patterson '35, French Club.

Several representatives are still to be appointed. It is requested that all organizations appoint a representative at their earliest convenience.

Frosh Girls Present Program

At Y. W. Big-Little Sister Party

A big-little sister party sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. was held in the Recreation hall of the Library, Wednesday evening, May 16. The committee of freshmen girls presented a short program for the big sisters and refreshments were served.

The program consisted of two readings and a piano duet. Lillian French gave the dramatic reading "Helene Thame". A piano duet, "Liebestraum" by Reubinstein, was played by Elizabeth Scherfel and Florence Bowe. Mildred Olp presented "Buckwheat Cakes", a humorous reading.

The freshman committee for the party was: Florence Roberts, Charlotte Tyson, Dorothy Witmer, and Mildred Olp.

The Women's Debating Club will hold a banquet in the upstairs dining hall, Wednesday, May 23, at 6:00 p. m.

This banquet will be the last meeting of the club for the current year and will mark the close of a successful season.

Movie-Sound System to Be Purchased by the College

Next year the students of Ursinus College will have all the advantages of a movie-sound system.

To help those in charge of purchasing a machine well-suited to the needs of the College, an elimination contest was held recently among four companies that, at different times, gave demonstrations in the Science Building.

The fourth and last in the series of demonstrations was held on Tuesday evening, May 15, when the Williams, Brown, and Earle Company of Philadelphia exhibited the Bell-Howell Sound Projection.

IT COSTS BUT LITTLE To Telephone Home!

Most pleasures cost money—some too much. No wonder home folks say "go easy" to sons at college.

But you'll never (well—hardly ever) hear that warning when you telephone home. For Father and Mother the pleasure of hearing your voice far outweighs the trifling cost.

After 8:30 P. M. (if you use Station to Station Service) you can telephone a hundred miles for 35 cents. What greater pleasure can such a small sum buy? A "voice visit" home is next best to being there!

PARENTS ENDORSE these SUGGESTIONS . . .

Keep a regular telephone date with Home. Then you can count on the family being there when you call.

Set the "date" for after 8:30 P. M. to take advantage of the low Night Rates on Station to Station calls.

Just give the Operator your home telephone number.

PROF. SIBBALD GIVES TALK AT FRENCH CLUB MEETING

An illustrated lecture on France by Professor Sibbald featured the French Club program, held on Wednesday evening, May 16, in the lecture room of the Science Building.

Professor Sibbald, using postcards that he had collected on his trips abroad, talked on views of Italy, and then France, starting at Marseilles and going northward through Tarscon and Avignon to Paris.

He discussed all the main points of interest in Paris, stressing especially the Cathedral of Notre Dame, about which Parisian life seems to be centered. As an old cathedral of Gothic architecture, the Cathedral of Notre Dame ranks as one of the most beautiful in the world.

The lecture was followed by a short business meeting of the club, in which officers for next year were elected.

The results were as follows: president, Dorothy Patterson '35; vice-president, Helene Meyers '35; secretary, Mildred Fox '35; and treasurer, Robert Deen '36.

CHEMISTS TO ELECT OFFICERS

Officers for the next college term will be elected at a meeting of the Hall-Chemical Society to be held in one of the rooms of the Science Building on Monday evening, May 21, at 8:00 o'clock. William Evans '35, the president, will preside.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CLASS TO BANQUET FOR FINAL EXAM

The Spring Mountain House at Schwenksville is to be the scene of a banquet for Professor Harvey Carter's public speaking class, on Wednesday, May 23, at 7:00 p. m.

The banquet is to be the occasion for the final examination. At that time the members of the class will deliver prepared addresses, which will be considered their final examinations. In this manner, the students are given an opportunity to display their ability to speak before a gathering outside the class room.

TAU SIGMA GAMMA HAS PARTY

Last Monday, Tau Sigma Gamma Sorority gave a farewell luncheon for the senior members.

The luncheon was served at the Bakery at noon. Short talks were given by the newly-elected president, Helene Meyers '35, and the former president, Betty Neast, and also by the senior girls. The senior girls are: Betty Neast Iola Anderson, Rose Marie Brubaker, Mary Hutchings, Margaret "Jo" Jenkins, and Mary Meyers.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

The Haverford nine recently defeated Swarthmore 9-8, thus breaking a long-time losing record, since the former had not conquered the latter on the diamond in the seven previous contests between the two colleges, covering the last four years. At one time during the contest, Swarthmore led 8-4.

In the annual Middle Atlantic States College track and field meet held at Lafayette, Rutgers emerged as the victor for the second consecutive year. Fourteen colleges were entered, which required that the meet cover a period of two days.

Omitted from the last edition of The Weekly was the fact that the Grizzly trackmen's recent win over St. Joe's was the aggregation's first victory since 1931. It was in this meet that Johnny Grimm broke the College record for the 120-yard hurdles, reducing the time from 17 to 16 seconds. On the same afternoon, he lowered the time of the College record on the low hurdles from 26.4 to 26.2.

Eighteen students recently competed in the intramural horseshoe pitching at Lehigh. All competition was run off in one afternoon, and the winners received medals from the athletic department.

You've heard of health clinics and baby clinics, but a new one was added to the list ten days ago, when a football clinic was held at the University of Pittsburgh. Over 1000 coaches and players from high and prep schools were present to see Doc Southerland, his coaching staff, and players demonstrate how the game was played. From 9 in the morning to 5 in the afternoon the crowd watched, and at noon listened to words of wisdom from Lou Little, Eddie Casey, and Paul Jenkins, all nationally known coaches.

URSINUS COEDS LOSE TO SWARTHMORE TENNIS TEAM

The Ursinus netwomen suffered a 4-1 defeat at the hands of the Swarthmore coeds on Friday afternoon. The Quaker lassies ran off with 2 out of 3 singles and made a clean sweep of the doubles.

Capt. Monty Blew '34, gained the first advantage for Ursinus when she took the first singles to the tune of 6-2; 8-6.

Luck turned when Bups Francis '35 dropped the second singles to Betsy Geddes of Swarthmore making a tie score.

After a bitter three-set encounter, Ruth LeCron '37, yielded the first time for the season.

According to Swarthmore custom a fresh set of doubles' players was put on the court, Marg Gotwalls '35 and Vivian Jensen '37 represented "U" in the first doubles, while Mid Godshall '36 and Lydia Ganser '36 played the second doubles. Both sets resulted in losses for the local maids, who proved less experienced than their opponents.

The results:
Singles: 1—Blew defeated Chidley, Swarthmore, 6-2; 8-6.
2—Geddes, Swarthmore defeated Francis; 6-1; 6-4.

3—Brooks, Swarthmore defeated LeCron; 6-4; 2-6; 7-5.

Doubles: 1—Harvey and Sonnehorn, Swarthmore, defeated Gotwalls and Jensen; 6-1; 6-1.

2—Cresson and Stutete, Swarthmore, defeated Godshall and Ganser; 6-2; 6-1.

Johnson Plans for Trophies In Dormitory Sports Program

The intermural sport program, which was gobbled up with so much enthusiasm during the past year, is to be given an additional lustre next year.

Jing Johnson announces that he is making plans to provide trophies for the winners in each sport. The trophy awarded will probably be in the form of a plaque, whereon each winner can have its name inscribed.

The possession of the trophies will not be permanent. Instead, possession will only be had for one year, unless won again by the same team.

It is Jing's hope to have a large trophy presented to the dormitory having the best all-around record in football, basketball, foul shooting, wrestling, and baseball. If the hope materializes, the trophy presentation will be made part of the commencement exercises.

Albright Wins Pennant By Downing Grizzlies

Trumbore Fans Thirteen And Yields But Seven Hits

The tough luck that has been camping on Lefty Trumbore's salary arm all season kept up its trouble last Saturday, when Ursinus dropped a 7-4 decision to Albright. The victory won the pennant in the Eastern Pa. Baseball Conference for Albright, who finished the season with five wins and no losses.

Trumbore limited the opposition to seven hits, fanning thirteen, yet could not win. The Bears outthit their rivals, but failed, except in the eighth frame, to connect in the pinches.

Albright greeted Trumbore in the first with a three run onslaught. Fittapaldi drew a pass with one out. De Franco's smash to center for two bases, Hino's bingle to left, and Sacks' error on Oslislo's easy ground-er did the damage.

Ursinus tossed away a scoring opportunity in their half of the second, when Heck crossed the signals on a hit and run play, with Shuman on third, and Mickey was trapped on the baseline.

The visitors touched Trumbore for another trio of tallies in the fifth, when Oslislo crashed a triple to right with the bases full.

Ursinus put over their initial score in the sixth chapter on Fisher's single and Calvert's three bagger, but Calvert was out at the plate trying to stretch the hit into a homer.

Albright got this counter back in their next turn at bat, Hino's single to center admitting De Franco from second. In their half of the eighth, Ursinus did their only serious stick-work of the afternoon, tabbing a trio of markers.

One gone, Sacks received a walk. Fisher slashed a double to left. Calvert's long fly to right scored Sacks from third, and Fisher went down to the hot corner. Roy Johnson, who had fanned three times before, then bombarded a boundary belt into the shrubbery past centerfield, his third homer in the last three games, ending the scoring for the afternoon.

The second-half schedule of the Inter-dorm soft-ball league swung into action this week. Brodbeck won the first-half. The first and second half winners will have a play-off game to decide the championship.

Brodbeck and Derr, each credited with two wins and a loss, are tied for second honors; Freeland and Stine hold fourth and fifth places, respectively; and Day, who has forfeited all her games so far, in this half, maintains the cellar position.

Current Bear Nine To Meet Former Stars on Alumni Day

One of the features of Alumni Day, Saturday, June 9, will be the baseball game between the alumni and the current Grizzly baseball team. The contest is scheduled for ten o'clock in the morning.

The alumni are expected to put a strong aggregation on the field. Some of the outstanding Ursinus players of the past ten years are to be on hand.

It will be master against pupils, for Jing Johnson, himself, is expected to toil on the mound for the old-timers.

The alumni team is not complete, as yet. However, some of the former U-Men who have promised to be on hand are: Derk '26, Strine '30, Hunter '31, Sterner '32, and Reese, Lodge, Diehl, Eachus, and Scholl—all of '33.

DREXEL WINS TRACK MEET AS BEARS FAIL ON FIELD

Tropp and Grimm Stand Out as Two Drexel Records Are Broken

Ursinus trackmen lost to Drexel 69 to 56 in a dual meet at Philadelphia, Monday afternoon. All the events were close—the final event deciding the winner.

The score stood 61 to 55 in favor of the Philadelphians at the beginning of the half-mile. A first and second in that event would have meant victory for the Grizzlies but the best they could offer was a third, which gave the meet to the Dragons.

Drexel edged out the Ursinus cindermen by a close margin of two points 37 to 35. Both teams garnered four first places in the running events. The Bears lost out not having second and third places to cope with the Dragons.

The Dragons also proved superior in the field events allowing coach McAvoy's portion of the track team only two firsts. However, Ursinus scored in all the field events. The Grizzlies could only toss and jump their way into 21 points while the Dragons piled up an 11 point advantage with 32 points.

Tropp and Grimm again starred for Ursinus, Tropp gaining first in the quarter mile and 220; second in the century and a pair of thirds in the javelin and discus. Johnnie Grimm broke a Drexel record in scoring his first in the 120 high hurdles. Not satisfied with this he snapped the tape for another first in the low hurdles and took second in the broad jump.

Athletic Conference Holds Spring Meeting

Clawson, Carter, and Johnson Represent Bears at G-Burg

Gettysburg College was host to the annual spring meeting of the Eastern Pennsylvania Athletic Conference, of which Ursinus is a member, last Monday, May 14. Dr. J. W. Clawson, Prof. H. L. Carter, and R. C. Johnson, the director of athletics, represented the College.

Other members of the conference, all of whom had delegates there are: Gettysburg, Muhlenberg, Dickinson, and Franklin and Marshall. It was decided to hold the annual cross-country meet at Lancaster on November 3. Another decision concerned fall football practice, which may start on September 10.

Officers elected for next year were as follows: president, H. H. Beck, of Franklin and Marshall; vice-president, Dr. Thomas L. Cline, of Gettysburg; secretary-treasurer, C. E. Bilheimer, of Gettysburg. Franklin and Marshall will be the host to the next spring meeting of the conference.

At noon the conference members were luncheon guests at Hotel Gettysburg, where they were addressed by Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, the president of Gettysburg College. In the afternoon the representatives made a tour of the battlefield, conducted by members of the Gettysburg College faculty.

RACQUETEERS BEAT ST. JOE'S FOR SECOND WIN OF YEAR

Bears Take All But Two Matches In Rout of Invading Tennismen

The Bears bore down on their home court, last Saturday afternoon, and took all but one of the singles, and half the doubles to defeat St. Joseph's netmen 5 to 2. The victory was the Grizzly netmen's second of the current campaign.

Danehower found Kane of St. Joe's too troublesome and was forced to yield in two sets 0-6 and 2-6 to the Philadelphian. Heiges, Davison, Fenimore, and Worster, however, came through in fine style to defeat McIlrairie, Forman, McAvoy and Gerhard, respectively. None of these matches were close, all consisting of but two sets.

Davison, who played a snappy back court game, and Danehower took over Kane and McIlrairie in two sets 6-4 and 6-3 in the first of the doubles, but Worster and Benjamin bowed to Forman and Gerhard in the second, 4-6 and 3-6.

Singles: 1—Kane, St. J., defeated Danehower, U., 6-0 and 6-2.

2—Heiges, U., defeated McIlrairie, St. J., 6-2 and 6-3.

3—Davison, U., defeated Forman, St. J., 6-4 and 6-1.

4—Fenimore, U., defeated McAvoy, St. J., 6-1 and 6-2.

5—Worster, U., defeated Gerhard, St. J., 6-2 and 8-6.

2—Forman and Gerhard defeated Worster and Benjamin, 6-4 and 6-3.

TENNIS TEAM LOSES CLOSE MATCH TO WILDCAT NETTERS

Coach Carter's proteges lost a close 4-3 decision to the strong Villanova racqueteers, here Friday afternoon.

The Ursinus netmen clicked in the singles to win three of the five matches, but were not so fortunate in the doubles, losing both contests.

The freshmen on the "U" squad, Worster and Fenimore, continued their good playing winning their singles matches. Heiges was the other Grizzly winner, turning back Miles 6-1 and 6-4.

Captain Danehower dropped his match to Orcutt, 6-2 and 6-2.

"Jack" Davison lost his first contest of the season in straight sets to Kramer 6-1 and 6-4.

The results in detail follow:
Singles—Orcutt defeated Danehower; 6-2 and 6-2. Heiges defeated Miles; 6-1 and 6-4. Kramer defeated Davison; 6-1 and 6-4. Fenimore defeated Malhome; 4-6, 6-3, and 6-4. Worster defeated Estrada; 6-0, 5-7 and 6-1.

Foundation Makes Survey of

Books on Religious Subjects

The Edward W. Hazen Foundation, of Haddam, Connecticut, recently conducted a survey among their agents on more than a hundred college campuses throughout the United States to discover what books were most helpful for students interested in an intelligent understanding of the Christian religion. Professor and Mrs. Sheeder, agents on the local campus, received this week the results of the survey.

The agents were requested to suggest eight books which if progressively read would give the average interested student some definite idea of the basis for Christian philosophy and belief. There were 135 contributors to the first list, and about 400 titles were suggested.

Although there was no unanimity of opinion, the results are of interest, and are reported in brief as follows:

Books receiving more than 50 votes each are "Living Creatively," Page; "The Plain Man Seeks for God," Van Dusen; "Modern Use of the Bible," Fosdick; "Our Economic Morality," Ward; "Moral Men and Immoral Society," Niebuhr; "Methods of Private Religious Living," Wieman; "Reality," Streeter.

Books which were suggested as emphasizing the social approach to Christianity and recommended for freshmen are "Larry"; "What Men Live By," Cabot; for sophomores, "Living Creatively," Page; "Jesus or Christianity," Page; for juniors, "Does Civilization Need Religion," Niebuhr; "Christianity and the Social Crisis," Rauschenbusch; for seniors, "Our Economic Morality," Ward; "Moral Man and Immoral Society," Niebuhr.

Library Gets Books As Gifts

From Various Organizations

Dr. C. D. Yost, the librarian, has announced the recent acquisition of a number of new books. Although these books have not yet been catalogued and placed upon the shelves, this work will soon be completed, at which time they will be accessible to the student body.

The addition of these books has been made possible by the gifts of various individuals, organizations, and classes. The Class of 1924 has presented four very useful gifts. The first two are complete sets of "Shakespeare's England" and "Jonson's England." The third is a set of the complete works of Thomas Hardy in nineteen volumes. The fourth gift is that of the fifteen volume set of George Meredith's complete works.

Another important acquisition is that of Mark Sullivan's study of contemporary civilization, entitled "Our Times," published in five volumes. The first volume is the gift of Dr. J. Lynn Barnard; the remaining four have been given by the Ursinus College Alumni Association.
