Hon. William Langer
Senator from North Dakota
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Langer:

It is my sincere hope and prayer that you may be able to influence the Supreme Court in behalf of the condemned Sandberger and others.

Inclosed please find letter and more documents from the father of Martin Sandberger. While I herewith am sending you the third set of documents on this case, and have received no word from you or your office, I have the confidence that you are continuing to champion the cause of fairness and justice in this European chaos, and that also the case of Sandberger is receiving your due attention.

Very sincerely yours,

T. W. Strieter

See Ben
