HONORARY DEGREE CANDIDATES

Mario J. Gabelli

Honorary Doctor of Business

Chairman, The Gabelli Group, Inc.

B.S. Fordham University
M.B.A. Columbia University
Graduate School of Business

"Your skills as a money manager are unsurpassed on Wall Street... you continue to earn plaudits from your clients as a superb investment advisor. Their appreciation for your business acumen is exemplified by your receipt of the 'Honeywell Pension Award' for the period 1982-1987. You compiled a five-year record, through the end of 1988, unmatched by any of the other equity advisors tracked by CDA Investment Technologies. A regular member of Barron's January 'Roundtable', you have appeared frequently on 'Wall Street Week.' Despite your dazzling success, you have never lost sight of the research and analytical skills which served you well early in your career."

David E. Henderson

(posthumously)

Honorary Doctor of Communications

Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, Outlet Communications, Inc.***

"A cultural and business pacesetter in the State of Rhode Island and the entire Northeast, he supported area arts and philanthropies. His significant civic leadership included chairmanship of the Community Relations Committee of the Board of Trustees at Roger Williams College. A first-rate manager, he 'made things happen' in both his professional and volunteer relationships, playing a key role in transforming the Outlet from a major retailer to a national broadcasting company. The executive suite, boardroom and broadcast studios constituted his 'classroom,' where he excelled."

\ Title reflects position held at time of death.*

Fiorindo A. Simeone, M.D.

(posthumously)

Honorary Doctor of Science

Professor Emeritus of Biological and Medical Science, Brown University; Surgeon-in-Chief Emeritus, Miriam Hospital***

"A surgeon of international renown, you were instrumental in establishing the School of Medicine at Brown University and also played a key role at Case Western University. You also served as a distinguished member of the Board of Trustees at Roger Williams College for 20 years, serving as Chair of the Honorary Degree Committee. Although you were a giant in the fields of education and medicine whose surgical accomplishments are legend, you are perhaps best-remembered for your love of family, your humility and kindness, your interest in the learning process, and your genuine concern for students."

Joseph R. Weisberger

Honorary Doctor of Laws

Justice, Supreme Court of Rhode Island

A.B. Brown University
J.D. Harvard University School of Law

"Your leadership and integrity as a Justice of the Supreme Court of Rhode Island since 1978 and before that, as a presiding and associate justice in the state's Superior Court, have placed you in the forefront of your profession. You have excelled since your earliest days, earning your degree from Brown University Magna Cum Laude despite interrupting your studies for five years of wartime military service... You accepted yet another challenge, that of chairing a blue-ribbon Law School Committee to explore the feasibility of establishing the State's first School of Law at Roger Williams College. You later accepted the chairmanship of the Law School Advisory Board whose efforts resulted in the decision to establish a School of Law on the Bristol Campus in Fall 1993."
