Resolution 86-4-F
Flagpole and Flags
Introduced 9-30-86

PURPOSE: To place a flagpole behind Downing University Center in the center of the circular concrete plants so that the National, State, and University flags can be flown.

WHEREAS, One United States Flag flies on campus and is not visible, and

WHEREAS, The only other time a United States Flag is flown is during sports events, and

WHEREAS, The United States flag is symbolic of these United States and should be flown proudly, and

WHEREAS, The location of this flag cite could be seen by the majority of individuals on campus, and

WHEREAS, The United States Flag at this location could remind us of special holidays and could be flown at half-mast as necessary, and

WHEREAS, This flag cite is centrally located and thus would be accessible to Downing University Center where either Downing University Center personell or the Department of Military Science could be assigned the duty of raising and lowering the flags, and THEREFORE, As members of the Associated Student Government of Western Kentucky University and current citizens of the United States of America, we strongly encourage teh University to add a flag pole and fly the National, State and University flags behind Downing University Center in the circular concrete planter.
