SC FISHER, H. Lee, b. 1867? 1899
2408

Letters written from Kentucky by H. Lee Fisher to his wife Adah in Vineland, New Jersey and Sioux City, Iowa, while employed on a government survey. He writes from Floyd County of the progress of his work and local conditions (4 June); his wife's purchase of a cow, and his job prospects (2 September); family matters and prices (24 October); and the hardships of women in Floyd County (25 October). Letters from Johnson County discuss local fruit crops (1 June) and his future plans (24 September), and a letter from Martin County (7 September) describes a visit to a fruit farmer and beekeeper and local stories of hauntings. A letter from Lawrence County (17 November) discusses family matters and comments on the endowments of a local woman. Includes one letter from Adah to her husband with household and family news; she teases him about their separation, and expresses her wish for a piano in order to enjoy the civilizing influence of music.
