BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Ella Mai (Randolph) Dawson was born 26 May 1892 to Sam Randolph and Ella Barbee. She spent most of her youth in Logan County, Kentucky, before marrying Preston Dawson (b. 1864) of Cadiz, Kentucky, and moving with him to Clarksville, Tennessee, where he worked on the L&N Railroad. They lived in the Gallows Hollow area of Clarksville, where Ella Mai worked as a domestic and was a longtime member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Clarksville, Tennessee. Ella Mai died on 20 March 1991 and is buried in Logan County, Kentucky.

COLLECTION NOTE

This collection consists of personal papers of Ella Mai (Randolph) Dawson. Included are correspondence from numerous family members, including sisters Fannie (Randolph) Neeley and Bertha (Randolph) Smith in Springfield, Tennessee (Folder 2); cousins Airlean Barbee and Vera Sanders in Louisville, Kentucky (Folder 3); sister-in-law Eliza J. Randolph of Adairville, Kentucky (Folder 4); and nephew Fred Stovall of Flint, Michigan (Folder 5). Holiday letters from Meggs and Son Funeral Home of Adams, Tennessee (Folder 6) reflect on the changes in the Hopkinsville-Russellville, Kentucky and Clarksville-Springfield, Tennessee area during the twentieth century. Other personal correspondence includes greeting cards from Jody Cates of Clarksville (Folder 7), letters and cards from Cecil Crawford and Irene Holder of Clarksville, Tennessee and Florida (Folder 8), and miscellaneous letters from family and friends (Folder 9), which typically convey family news and express affection and deep religious faith.

The collection also contains letters and cards to Fannie Neeley from First Missionary Baptist Church, Springfield, Tennessee (Folder 10); Fannie Neeley's death certificate and various funeral programs, including Ella Mai's (Folder 11); and two flyers relating to voter registration and get-out-the-vote drives for African Americans in Clarksville, Tennessee in 1968 and 1970 (Folder 12). Miscellaneous items include Preston Dawson's L&N Railroad retirement application and a notice to residents of the Gallows Hollow area of Clarksville, Tennessee regarding the acquisition of their homes for an urban renewal project (Folder 13); and items relating to Ella Mai's membership in Mt. Olive Baptist Church, including programs, bulletins and newsletters, a certificate of appreciation, and a program commemorating the church's 94th anniversary (Folder 14).

Some greeting cards, as well as the photographs in this collection, were transferred to the Kentucky Library in 1991-1992.
