Toppers Clinch 11th OVC Title

Clobber Morehead By 77-51; Head For NCAA Tournament

Sizzling with a burning desire that simply could not be denied, an aroused Western blazed by Morehead State 77-51 Monday night to clinch the Ohio Valley Conference title and earn an automatic bid to the 1962 NCAA Tournament next month.

Putting on a dazzling exhibition of scoring, and with an iron-tight defense spearheaded by senior reserve forward Doug Smith, the Hilltoppers left no doubt in the minds of any of the 5,000 fans packed in the Western Gym as to which is the OVC's best team.

Leading only 32-29 at the half, Western came back to completely overpower the Eagles in the second period with the Hilltoppers' amazing accuracy from the field (hitting 33 of 63 attempts for 52.4 percent for the game), coupled with a hawking defense that made a shambles of Morehead's offensive attack.

Morehead opened the game with a deliberate style offense that slowed Western in the initial minutes of the game, but three shocking defensive steals for three quick baskets in the first 1:24 of the second half put Western ahead by 38-29 and the Hilltoppers never looked back.

With what looked and sounded like the entire Western student body urging their favorites on with cries of "Pour it on Big Red" and "Iowa City, here we come", the Hilltoppers out-shot, out-rebounded, and out-hustled Morehead to destroy any hopes that the Eagles may have had of earning a second straight NCAA bid.

It was All-America candidate Bobby Rascoe who, as usual, led all scorers with 25 big points in the game. He was closely followed by Jim Dunn with 19, while Darel Caarrier had 15, and Todd collected 8. Defensive demon Doug Smith collected six points, picking up five of these in one 21-second span! Jackson and Castle each had two points for

Debaters Cop Honors In Mid-South Tournament

Western debaters compiled a record of ten wins and three losses in the Mid-South Debate Tournament held at Arakadelphia, Arkansas, February 9-10. This record gain a semi-final berth for the junior division team and a quarterfinal berth for the Senior division team.

The Junior division, composed of Bob Denhardt and Jim Smith, both sophomore political science majors, went undefeated until the semi final round with Southwest Missouri, the eventual winner of the division. The senior division team, composed of senior physics major Bernard Madison and junior pre-law major Gary Gardner, lost only one round before bowing to Kansas State College, the eventual winner of the division.

Both teams qualified for the elimination rounds with a 4-0 record for the junior team and a 3-1 record for the senior team. In the junior division Western was one of only three schools of the total of thirty-one schools represented to obtain a 4-0 record in the preliminary rounds. In the senior division Western debater had the distinction of beating the University of Alabama twice. Alabama was runner-up in the tournament. Some of the teams bowing to Western were Alabama, Arkansas State, Harding, Coffeyville, Centenary, Southeastern State, and Stephen F. Austin College.

As a result of their excellent performance in both divisions, Western debaters received numer-

Major In Psychology Now Offered By College

A major in Psychology for Arts and Science students has been approved by the Board of Regent according to an announcement by Dr. Raymond L. Cravens, Dean of the College. This will be offered to persons planning to pursue graduate study in this or a related field.

The first psychology major in the history of the College is restricted for two reasons: first, unless a student pursues graduate study in psychology, job opportunities would be negligible; and second, since psychology is taught little in high schools of the state, certification regulations do not recognize this field for a teaching major.

College officials expect that the high quality major will be offered a few students each year who rank in the upper percentages of their classes. A large number of excellent graduate scholarships, fellowships, and assistantships are available in psychology at graduation.

Western is the only state college in Kentucky having a Psychology department. Dr. Cravens said that by September, 1962, this department may have a total of four faculty members with doctorates in psychology.

College With A Heart

By Bernard Madison

A few days ago, this writer had an opportunity to visit a campus of a Southern college. It was a rather small college and perhaps most of the people on the Hill have never heard of it. Located in Southcentral Arkansas, this college shares a town of 8,000 persons with Ouachita (pronounced Wa-chi-ta) Baptist College. The town is Arkadelphia, Ark., and the college is Henderson State Teachers College.

The college is referred to as the "college with a heart" and this writer is convinced that this slogan is lived up to. Fully admitting that our own campus is very friendly, I must remain impressed with the atmosphere of this institution in Arkansas. Nowhere have I encountered such a complete and wholesome atmosphere of friendliness. The influx of visitors saturated the campus and housing facilities of this school, but no one gave any inclination of being cramped or inconvenienced.

It was a smile and a happy 'hello' for the visitors when they encountered a student or faculty member. Everywhere was a pleasant relationship between the faculty and student body.

Serving as the host school for the Mid-South Debate Tournament, the college not only carried the tournament out smoothly and without incident, but also removed from the visiting debate coaches the duties of judging in the elimination rounds by employing approximately 20 faculty and administrative members.

This friendly atmosphere was also evident in the town and surrounding area. After driving 16 hours (two of which was through a snowstorm), the Western team received a hearty welcome in the town of Arkadelphia. School officials were very cooperative in arranging for the teams comfort, and the same can be said for the manager of the motel at which the team stayed.

After completing the preliminary qualification rounds with a record of 7-1, the Western team began to receive numerous invitations to other debate tournaments in that area. Coaches and competing debaters were very free with their congratulatory remarks.

It is experiences such as this one that makes all the work required for preparation worthwhile. It is experiences such as this one that points out the values of collegiate debating. Encouragement should be given to every student to participate in this "sport". This would possibly create reason for opening more opportunities to Western students in this area.

Detaching nothing from our own institution, it is here that I salute a little town in Arkansas and Henderson State Teachers College and its administrators.

Art Train Scheduled For Bowling Green Mar. 4

The Kentucky Guild Art Train is coming to Bowling Green this week and will be here until March 4. The Guild Train, sponsored by the Bowling Green-Warren County Jaycee-Elites, is under the direction of John Dillehay, who will give demonstrations of the makings of art and craft articles.

The Nation's first arts and crafts train is made up of two railroad cars converted to a gallery and work shop. The cars are loaded with exhibits of painting, sculpture, weaving, pottery, and other ceramic work, wood and metal work, and other major arts and crafts.

The idea of the Guild Train was conceived by Mrs. Lawrence T. Minish, a Louisville artist, and the donation of two railroad cars by the Louisville & Nashville (L & N) Railroad. This started a campaign that netted $250,000. From the beginning the project has been under the sponsorship of the recently formed Kentucky Guild of Artists and Craftsmen, with the support of the Kentucky Department of Economic Development.

The idea of the Guild Train is to encourage the development of more art and handicraft in Kentucky, to create an appreciation of arts and crafts products, and to stimulate a consumer market for the products.

The Train will be located at the south end of the L & N Railroad Station. The admission is free, and the train will be open from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. during the week; from 1 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Sunday.

The entire student body and the faculty are invited to visit this very worthwhile exhibit.

College Students Not Prime Contenders For AA

College students are not prime contenders for Alcoholics Anonymous. This is the finding of Campus Illustrated, the only national magazine for the college community, in its survey and report on student drinking. CI states that campus drinking is no more widespread, no more frequent or excessive, than drinking elsewhere.

In fact, CI reports that college students drink no more than their noncollege contemporaries and drink less than their predecessors. The CI survey reveals that most collegians — 80 per cent of the men and 65 per cent of the women — started drinking before they entered college. Furthermore, the survey shows that collegians' attitudes and customs in regard to drinking were well determined before they came to college by the practice, attitudes and customs of their families, their social groups and their communities.

A surprising fact uncovered by CI's comprehensive survey is that less drinking takes place in co-educational schools than at colleges restricted to one sex only. Statistics show that the big drinking schools are the private men's colleges, 92 per cent of the students at these colleges drink while only 83 per cent indulge at public co-ed schools. The ratio for women is similar — 89 per cent at private women's colleges to 74 per cent at co-ed schools.

Based on the information it gathered, Campus Illustrated concludes that "there is no drinking problem on campuses today. Collegians rarely or never get drunk or have complications resulting from drink."

Kentucky Building News

A special exhibit of a complete collection of books by Alfred L. Crabb is on display in the Kentucky Building Library. The collection was presented to Mr. Patrick C. Smith by the author as he published each book. Inside each book is a personal inscription to Mr. Smith.

In the collection are Dinner at Belmont, Supper at the Maxwell House, Breakfast at the Hermitage, Lodging at the Saint Cloud, Home to the Hermitage, A Mockingbird Sang at Chickamauga, Reunion at Chattanooga, Home to Tennessee, Home to Kentucky, Peace at Bowling Green, Journey to Nashville, and Nashville-Personality of a City. All, but the last book, are novels.

Since this year marks the centennial celebration of the Civil War, the re-issues of Harper's Weekly and Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper are on file in the library. These newspapers are issued 100 years to the day of the original copy.

A case of Civil War illustrations is also on display in the library.

Book Marks

By Dianne Howard

If cast away on a desert island, which ten books would you take with you apart from a guide to edible fungi? In the December 29, 1961, issue of Time, a list of the year's best selling fiction, non-fiction, and poetry books are given. The ones found in our library appealing more to me are Shadows on the Grass, The Road Past Mandalay, Collected Poems, The Making of the President-1960, Fate is the Hunter, and A Burnt-Out Case.

Since the world affairs are centered around the African tribes and the Congolese trouble, Shadows on the Grass may appeal to one as it is also in African story. The author, Isak Dinesen, writes a dry, elegiac reminiscence of the years she spent managing a coffee plantation in Kenya. Her principal theme is the feudal harmony of a white master and a black servant. She felt the servant lifted her up to a classic plane, such as that of which the poet Wergeland speaks:

"Death follows the happy man like a stergmaster. The unfortunate like a servant. Who is ever ready to receive his master's cloak and mask."

The Road Past Mandalay is a story of how one man's journey brought him to maturity through love and battle and the responsibilities of command. After falling in love and fathering a child, he faces squarely up to the dilemma confronting his generation of officers in the Indian Army, that the road no longer leads to Mandalay, but past it.

In the book, Collected Poems, Robert Graves, the author, outlook on life is pictured. Mr. Grave feels these poems have never adopted a foreign accent, but remained true to the Anglo-Irish poetic tradition into which he was born.

The election of John F. Kennedy as president is told in The Making of the President-1960. It gives some of the vastly complicated fragments of how the Americans chose their President in 1960.

Ernest K. Gann writes why he quit flying in the book, Fate is the Hunter. Perhaps one will want to read this memoir to see if one agrees with the author on why he quit flying.

The novel most fascinating to me is A Burnt-Out Case by Graham Green. The title is a term used for victims of leprosy who can be cured because the disease has eaten about all that it wants: ears, fingers. They no longer suffer the excruciating pains of those who undergo cure with their bodies intact. Pain is the alternative to mutilation.

In a remote African leprosy run by nuns and priests, a famous young architect is trying to escape the past suffering and become whole once again. The novel tells of what would have been his recovery if the world would let him alone.

A journalist seeks out Quarry's story and cooks up a sensational story that falsifies the truth of Quarry's relationship with a neighbor's young wife and with his leper servant. This brings the story to a violent, but ironic close.

HILLTOPICS

By WILLIAM E. HOCKER

HillTopic

It may be known to very few of the personnel of the Hill, but to the debate team, there remains one merchant of this city which is very well known and appreciated. That is Mr. Harry Leachman, owner of Leachman Motors, dealer in Buick and Rambler automobiles.

Mr. Leachman has generously provided this group with its transportation to and from tournaments throughout several years. It is rewarding and encouraging to see such interest in such a scholastic endeavor by Mr. Leachman.

HillTopic

To note the weather of the past week, some students may get the impression that Spring has arrived just a little early and proceed to fall into the pit of complacency which so often accompanies this season. Do not be deceived, if the weather does not convince you, then the instructors will.

Spring fever will come soon enough, do not rush the inevitable.

HillTopic

It is becoming rather ridiculous to hold class meetings on the Hill with the attendance that has been occurring lately. At the last senior meet, fifteen seniors were present. This is exactly 2.5 per cent of the total class enrollment. That, to put it mildly, is very unimpressive.

What do you say, let's attend the next class meeting.

HillTopic

Notice any vicious-looking canines running loose around the Hill lately? If you haven't, there is something wrong. There are plenty of them around.

Perhaps someone should direct these creatures over toward the Registrars office and see if we can get them properly enrolled. They might be very helpful in some biology or physics courses.

HillTopic

The hurry and buzz of graduation is less than four months away. The last few weeks will be very full of activity for the prospective graduates, so now is no time to fall behind and expect to catch up in the last minute rush.

In such an event, the prospective graduate may remain just that, prospective graduate. After three and one-half years, don't stop now.

HillTopic

Now, let us talk about a new problem. That is the traffic situation on the Hill. Maybe, this is a little off, but it is still a problem and is getting to be more of one every day.

If the situation does not change, it is inevitable that some action will be taken to remedy the situation. This presupposed action might not please everyone, and this is reason for everyone to help in solving this problem. In order to avoid some action that might inconvenience some of us, let us use our automobiles with care and only when the distance to be traversed is farther than the dormitory parking lots from the classroom buildings.

A little cooperation might save a lot of inconvenience.

HillTopic

Heartiest congratulations are extended to Coaches E. A. Diddle and Ted Hornback, as well as, the winning Hilltoppers for bagging the OVC crown. This is the eleventh OVC title that the Western gagers have won.

HillTopic

Western Players are now reading and casting for their third major production of the year. This play is to be Thornton Wilder's sensational The Skin of Our Teeth. This play promises an entertaining evening. If you are interested in working on the production, see Mr. Russell H. Miller.

HillTopic

The current production of Community Players is the classic Uncle Tom's Cabin. The play will be produced Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of next week.

Roman Thoughts

by Marcus of Anselm

It is assumed that by the time a person reaches the age and status of a college student, packs his bag, and races off to the chosen college campus, he is able to read beyond the second grade level.

Close observation of the Western student leads the author to believe that this is an erroneous assumption. First to be offered in evidence is the continual running across the grass by Western students. On most of the spots where students are urged not to walk, there is a single sign containing one six-letter word. The word is PLEASE. This sign can be interpreted to mean a great many things, however it was placed there to mean one thing only—PLEASE DO NOT WALK ON THE GRASS.

We concede that some do not have the personal qualities needed to interpret literature, but surely each student has enough imagination to find the hidden meaning in this simple little sign PLEASE. Instantly it also shows by the Hilltop academic pursuit is being unable to recognize that the canary color used to outline certain curbs, entrances to buildings, and public drive-ways means do not park here.

English Department Adds Four Instructors

Four new members have joined Western's faculty as members of the Department of English, according to President Kelly Thompson.

New members added to the English Department faculty are Mrs. Edith O. Curry, Miss Mary Ellen Pitts, John Adams, and Joseph M. Boggs.

Mrs. Curry is a native of Cave City and has been a teacher in the Bowling Green city school system since 1951. She was awarded the B. S. degree by Western in 1954, and was awarded the M. A. degree by the same institution in 1959.

She has previously served as a part-time instructor in the English department at Western, and was a classroom teacher in the Barren County school system for one year.

Mrs. Curry is a member of the Kentucky Education Association, the National Education Association, and the First Baptist Church of Bowling Green. She has two children, Mrs. Joan Curry Livey, Louisville, and Lerond L. Curry.

Miss Pitts is a native of Sheffield, Alabama, where she received her early education. She was awarded the B. S. degree by Florence State College in 1959, and was awarded the M. A. degree by the University of Florida this month.

While completing graduate work at Florida, Miss Pitts served as a graduate teaching assistant in the Department of English.

Miss Pitts is a member of Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English society; Sigma Sigma Kappa, social science honorary society; Kappa Delta Pi, honorary education society; and Phi Kappa Phi, honorary scholastic society.

Adams is a native of Chicago, but received his early education in Michigan. He was awarded the A. B. degree by Kalamazoo (Michigan) College in 1959, and was awarded the M. A. degree by the University of Alabama in January of this year. While completing work at Alabama, Adams served as graduate assistant from September, 1960, until January, 1962.

Adams is the author of an article of Freshman English which has been accepted for publication in Improving College and University Teaching.

A native of Harrisonburg, Virginia, Boggs was awarded the A. B. degree by West Virginia University in 1958, and the M. A. degree by the same institution in January of this year.

Boggs has served as a graduate assistant in English at West Virginia since September of 1960. From 1959-60, he was a member of the U. S. Air Force, serving as a radar weapons control officer in Louisiana and North Africa.

Boggs is married to the former Ann Nesselrodt Boggs, and has two children, Michael David, 2, and Rebecca Jo, six months.

Sen. Thurston B. Morton spoke to the weekly chapel assembly at Van Meter this morning. The Senator's topic was "You, the Young People of America—Our Hope for the Future".

Phi Delta Kappa Holds Meeting

The Phi Delta Kappa Professional Fraternity held its monthly meeting Saturday, January 20, at the Paul L. Garrett Student Center.

After dinner in the cafeteria they adjourned to the Music room where Mr. Claude Rose, president of the chapter, opened the meeting by presenting a report on the Biannual Council which was held at the University of Indiana, December 28-30.

Mr. Rose was selected as the local representative of the 218 chapters of the United States and Canada.

Stone Leaves Today For New Orleans Meet

Dr. Stone, who is vice-president

Enrollment Tops Year Ago By Eight Hundred

Western has 4322 students enrolled in college classes for the spring semester which opened on January 29, according to figures released last week by Registrar Rhea Lazarus.

The second semester enrollment is 809 above the figure for last year at the same time.

James A. Carpenter, director of the Training School, announced that 440 students are enrolled in the Training School.

A total of 516 students are enrolled in classes at the Western Area Vocational School, according to Director Phillip Hampton.

Registrar Lazarus announced that seventy-seven students completed academic requirements for degrees at the close of the first semester. These graduates will return to the campus to formally receive degrees at the spring commencement exercises on May 31 in the Western Stadium.

The second semester will close on Thursday, May 31. The spring baccalaureate program will be held on Sunday, May 27, in Van Meter Auditorium.

Summer school will open on Monday, June 11, and continue for a period of eight weeks ending on Friday, August 3.

SNEA Sets Goal For Scholarship Fund At $2000

The Student National Education Association Scholarship Fund, which was inaugurated October 24, by a contribution of five hundred dollars from the organization, has a set goal of two thousand dollars by October of 1962. It is hoped that many people, faculty, students, and alumni members will wish to assist in reaching this goal.

Dr. E. G. Monroe, of the Art department, sensing the worthiness of the project, became the first faculty contributor. Since that time, two others have voluntarily contributed, bringing the faculty total to thirty dollars. It is hoped that others from each of Western's thirty-three departments will wish to assist the SNEA by becoming 1962 contributors.

The SNEA is an organization for all college students who plan to enter any area in the field of teaching. Of this year's membership 456 from 18 different fields are represented.

The Scholarship Committee on Alumni Contributions is at work on plans for seeking alumni support and will be pleased if contributions begin to come in immediately. They should be addressed to Martha Burn, SNEA President, McLean Hall, Western Kentucky State College.

Joann Hancock, SNEA First Vice-president, West Hall, Western Kentucky State College.

Lee Ellen Inman, SNEA Director of Mass Media, Potter Hall, Western Kentucky State College.

From time to time names of faculty, alumni, and individual student contributors will be listed in the College Heights Herald unless a request for anonymity accompanies the donation.

Dr. D. K. Wilgus of the English department played a prominent role in the University of Chicago Folk Festival, February 2-4.

The festival is sponsored annually by the University of Chicago Folklore Society and presents folk performers from various areas of the nation. In addition to evening concerts, the festival sponsors lectures, panels, and discussion groups.

An academic folklorist, Dr. Wilgus was chosen for the first time to direct some of the activities and provide a more scholarly basis for the festival.

Dr. Wilgus presided February 2 at a panel discussion of "Country Music in the American Folklore Tradition," with rural singers Clarence Ashley and Tom "Doc" Watson and city singers Mike Seeger and John Cohen of the "New Lost City Ramblers."

On February 4, Dr. Wilgus delivered a lecture, "The Academic Folklorist and the Folksong Revival." Dr. Wilgus consulted with students and directors of the festival throughout the three-day period.

Among the performers at the festival were Edna and Jean Ritchie of Viper, Kentucky. Edna Ritchie gave two folksong concerts on the Western campus this fall.

Dr. Paul Hatcher, head of the Foreign Language department, attended meetings in Chicago from December 28-30 of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese, the Modern Language Association, and the American Association of Teachers of French.

Highlights of the meetings were the literature and language sessions and addresses by distinguished scholars, statesmen, and diplomats representing interests in all modern languages used in the world.

Mr. Claude Rose, of the Music department, has returned from Bloomington, Ind., where he attended a three-day conference of Phi Delta Kappa on the campus of Indiana University.

Mr. Rose, who served as a member of the committee on "Strengthening the Teaching Profession," was the delegate representing the local Epsilon Kappa chapter of Phi Delta Kappa, an international professional fraternity composed of some 90,000 educational leaders.

Among the council actions were election of a board of officers and district representatives. More than 334 representatives of the 218 chapters in the United States and Canada attended the conference.

Dr. D. K. Wilgus of the English department attended meetings of the American Folklore Society at Austin, Texas, from December 28-30.

At one of the meetings Dr. Wilgus contributed a paper entitled "The Rationalistic Approach" to a panel on folksong scholarship. The paper will be published in the publications of The Texas Folklore Society.

Four training school teachers recently attended the Tenth Annual Conference of the Southeastern Region Association for Student Teaching held at the university center at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. They were Miss Lavinia Hunter, Mrs. Herman Lowe, Mrs. E. C. Garrett, and Mr. James Godfrey.

Dr. Paul G. Hatcher head of the Foreign Language department, has been named to the Membership Committee of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese.

Dr. Hatcher's appointment was made by Dr. Wallace Woolsey, AATSP Membership Committee Chairman, and is effective immediately. Dr. Hatcher replaces Dr. Fortuna Gordon of the University of Oregon, who has resigned because he is to be out of the country.

The AATSP is a national professional organization that publishes the journal Hispania, in which teachers are provided articles and information about teaching aids and literary and language problems.

Billy M. Adams, member of the Agriculture department, was re-elected secretary-treasurer of the Kentucky Holstein Cattle club held at Owensboro, recently. There are approximately 250 members in Kentucky, and this organization is sub-divided into seven districts.

Dr. Earl A. Moore on Monday, January 8, addressed the combined state conventions of Kentucky and Tennessee Monument Builders of America. The meeting was held at Mammoth Cave.

He addressed the committee in the afternoon on "Business Ethics." That evening Dr. Moore was the guest speaker at the convention banquet. His dinner subject was "Epitaphs".

Mr. Robert Wurster and Miss Sara Rodes, members of the English department, and Mrs. Pattie Gillespie traveled to Vanderbilt University on Wednesday night, January 16, to hear John Crowe Ransom read his poetry.

Math Club Hears Of 'Liber Abaci'

"Fibonacci Sequence" and the "Golden Ratio" were the topics Mr. Wilburn C. Jones of the mathematics department spoke to the Math club about at its monthly meeting recently.

Fibonacci, an early Italian tradesman and mathematician, developed a large sequence of numbers from a problem he derived. He expanded his thinking in a book, Liber Abaci, and showed many other cases in nature in which it worked with the same principal sequence.

Mr. Jones developed his entire talk around the works of Fibonacci and the Golden rule which is a number derived by dividing one side of a perfect Greek rectangle by the longer one.

Mr. Jones began the discussion by giving the problem: How many pairs of rabbits can be produced from a single pair in a year if every month each pair begets a new pair which from the second month on becomes productive? The first pair does not produce until they are two months old. The sequence of the number of rabbits at the end of each month is the beginning of Fibonacci's sequence. The total is 14 rabbits.

This sequence is true for more things than rabbits, however, it holds true for the number of pine seeds in rows on a cone, for the number of buds on a twig between two buds in line parallel to twig, and for the number of seeds in a cluster on a sunflower.

The only business discussed at the meeting was on the plans previously made to buy a coffee pot. The coffee pot was not purchased because the club could not purchase the planned coffee pot in Bowling Green. Refreshments were served at the meeting.

Art Gallery Opens Show

The Art Gallery will have in new show opening this week, using the works of Mr. Stanley Caywood, Mr. William Loy, and Mr. William Weaver. The show entitled "Development of an Idea" will display one work of each artist.

Mr. Caywood will use the various stages of drawings and paintings. Mr. Loy will show the different stages of drawing and etching, and Mr. Weaver will illustrate the idea of drawing a pot, the development of the slab pot, and the finished product.

This showing is intended to illustrate the changes that take place after the work has begun. All of this work has been done within the past year.

This is the first public showing at Western for Mr. Weaver, who came to the Art department from Ohio State University, where he received his M. A. degree.

Family Relations Class Is Taught By Students

One of the better known ways for a student to acquire thorough knowledge of the subject he is studying is by actually teaching the class for a short period of time. With this in mind, Miss Adams has assigned each member of her family relations class one chapter to do research for and to have enough knowledge to teach this chapter to the class. So far five different people have taught; and according to all reports, the project is quite successful. The class members seem to enjoy having a classmate for a teacher, and class attention and attendance have been very high.

Fall Semester Filled With Notable Events

From the opening day of school there could be no doubt that this past semester would be an outstanding one at Western.

After registration was over and everyone was counted, it was found that Western's enrollment had increased an enormous 33.1 per cent, probably the highest percentage increase in the nation.

The administrative staff did a remarkable job in making accommodations for these students, and the thirty or so new members of the faculty were greatly appreciated additions.

The building program told of Western's progress this semester.

At the beginning of school there was a new women's dormitory ready for use and on Sunday, October 15, the new science building, named in honor of President Thompson, was dedicated.

This was not all of the building program, for the new six-story women's dormitory, the tallest building in Bowling Green, is well under way and the ground was broken November 15 for the new academic-athletic building.

The semester was a successful one for athletics. The football team compiled a 6-3 record, the best since 1954, and Coach Nick Denes was honored as the OVC "Coach of the Year".

The semester began a great year for basketball coach E. A. Diddle. He began his 40th year at Western and on Saturday, January 6, sent a Hilltopper team into action for the 1,000th time. His many fans and admirers presented him with a thousand silver dollars to mark the occasion.

These achievements are only a few of the events which gave Western a great semester, perhaps the greatest in its history.

HOW TO BE A BWOC

Ladies, let me be frank. The days of the college year dwindle down to a precious few. And some of you—let's face it—have not yet become BWOC's. Yes, I know, you've been busy what with going to class and walking your cheetah, but really, ladies, becoming a BWOC is so easy if you'll only follow a few simple rules.

The first and most basic step on the road to being a BWOC is to attract attention. Get yourself noticed. But be very, very careful not to do it the wrong way. I mean, any old girl is bound to be noticed if she goes around with a placard that says, "HEY! LOOKIT ME!" Don't you make such a horrid gaffe. On your placard put: "ZUT! REGARDEZ MOI!" This, as you can see, lends a whole new dimension of tone and dignity.

Once you have been noticed, it is no longer necessary to carry the placard. It will suffice if, from time to time, you make distinctive noises. If, for instance, every three or four minutes you cry, "Whippoorwill!" you cannot but stay fresh in the minds of onlookers.

We come now to clothes, a vital accessory to the BWOC—indeed, to any girl who wishes to remain out of jail. But to the BWOC clothes are more than just a decent cover; they are, it is not too much to say, a way of life.

This spring the "little boy look" is all the rage on campus. Every coed, in a mad effort to look like a little boy, is wearing short pants, knee socks, and boyshirts. But the BWOC is doing more. She has gone the whole hog in achieving little boyhood. She has frogs in her pockets, scabs on her knees, down on her upper lip, and is followed everywhere by a dog named Spot.

All this, of course, is only by day. When evening falls and her date comes calling, the BWOC is the very picture of chic femininity. She dresses in severe, simple basic black, relieved only by a fourteen pound charm bracelet. Her hair is exquisitely coiffed, with a fresh rubber band around the pony tail. Her daytime manes have been replaced by fashionable high heeled pumps, and she does not remove them until she gets to the movies!

After the movies, at the campus cafe, the BWOC undergoes her severest test. The true BWOC will never, never, order the entire menu. This is gluttony and can only cause one's date to blanch. The true BWOC will pick six or seven good entrees and then have nothing more till dessert. This is class and is the hallmark of the true BWOC.

Finally, the BWOC, upon being asked by the cigarette vendor which is the brand of her choice, will always reply, "Marlboro, of course!" For any girl knows that a Marlboro in one's hand stamps one instantly as a person of taste and discernment, as the possessor of an educated palate, as a connoisseur of the finer, better pleasures. This Marlboro, this badge of savoir-faire, comes to you in flip-top boxes that slip, or in soft packs that are soft, with a filter that filters and a flavor that is flavorful, in all fifty states of the Union and Duhok.

BWOC: Buy Marlboro On Campus. Buy them downtown, too. Either place, you get a lot to like.

Western Hosts Home Economics Conference

Western hosted a regional conference for home economics teachers on Friday and Saturday, February 16-17, in the Paul L. Garret Student Center.

The meeting was one of six in a series of regional conferences which are being held in each of the State Department of Education supervisory regions during the month of February. Other meetings have been held in Murray, London, Lexington, Carrollton, and Morehead.

The conferences were set up by Mary Linn Williamson, State Director of Home Economics Education, for the purpose of working on ways of improving the summer employment and home project phases of the home economics program.

Home economics teachers from Region II, which includes the Bowling Green and Elizabethtown districts, attended the meeting at Western.

Morris Attends Science Meeting

Mr. Joseph Morris of the Education department attended a meeting concerning the summer science programs in Washington D. C. on February 3. Mr. Morris was serving as an alternate for Dr. Tate C. Page, head of the Education department.

The meeting was conducted primarily to discuss the summer science program, which will be conducted on various college campuses, for high school students during the coming summer.

The officials in Washington felt that the students should be subjected to a very high level of learning experiences. They said that the program should not contain any subject matter that would overlap with the student's high school courses.

The Hilltoppers continue to roll over OVC opposition in quest of their 11th conference championship. The Toppers have won or shared the OVC championship in regular season and tournament play 10 years during the 13 year history of the league. There are only two loop games remaining and all will be played at home where the Toppers have won 22 in a row.

The latest victim to this date, February 14, was Middle Tennessee. Showing the way was big Harry Todd, who pulled down 25 rebounds, for a record high this season in a single game, and Western's All-American candidate Bobby Rascoe scored 26 points. This win gave Western Coach Ed Diddle a 11-1 edge over his son, Ed Jr., in their coaching rivalry.

Bobby Rascoe has moved into the number four position of all-time Western scorers. He has 1424 points at the conclusion of the Middle Tennessee game. At the current rate he is scoring he will become Western's all-time scorer for three varsity seasons. Ralph

Hilltoppers Lead Murray To Slaughter

Bobby Rascoe sank 16 field goals in 19 shots to lead Western to a 96-77 victory over Murray before a capacity crowd of 4,500 in Western's gym February 17.

Rascoe had a field goal percentage of .842 which is a record and only five Hilltoppers have booked more than 38 points in a single game. Rascoe hit his first six shots in a row from the field before he missed a shot. His season average is now 26.06 points per game.

All five Hilltopper starters were in double figures as Western took its 24th straight home court victory. Harry Todd had 14; Darel Carrier, 12; Jim Dunn and Bob Jackson each had 11 points.

Murray got within 2 points four times in the first half but the Toppers drove to a 45-35 lead at the end of the half and were never seriously challenged after that.

Ron Greene paced Murray with 21 points and Al Varnas had 17. Murray's Jim Jennings was held to eleven points.

Western out rebounded Murray 48-39. Harry Todd had 11 rebounds and Dunn collected 10.

Reserve Doug Smith collected 7 points and pulled down 6 rebounds.

Crothwaite, Tom Marshall, and Art Spoelstra are now ahead of Rascoe, but Crothwaite and Marshall played four years of varsity ball.

What home-floor advantage? Last season, the seven OVC teams won 29 and lost 13 at home in the conference. Tri-champs Morehead, Western, and Eastern were unbeaten at home. This season, only Western remains unbeaten and the visitors have won 12 of 28 conference starts as of February 10.

Looking back through some old files, I came up with an interesting fact or two on Western Coach Ed Diddle. Mr. Diddle began his coaching career at Monticello High school. He went to the state tournament his first year and lost to Manual High school by the close score of 20-19.

Six of Coach Diddle's former basketball players are now head collegiate basketball coaches. They are Bernard "Peck" Hickman, University of Louisville; Johnny Oldham, Tennessee Tech.; Ed Diddle Jr., Middle Tennessee; Charles Paraley, Southeast Missouri State College; Robert Lavery, University of Tampa; and Buddy Cate, Tennessee Wesleyan College.

The Xavier Musketeers will be Western's opponent tonight for the second time this season. The Musketeers defeated Western at Cincinnati earlier in the season. The series between the two schools is now 10-10. This is the first of three non-conference foes Western has left to play. The other two are LaSalle and the University of Louisville, both away.

Some OVC Statistics: Western is on top for the year with .457 per cent in field goal accuracy and .742 per cent in free throw conversion. Morehead continues to set the pace in team offense with an 82.7 average while Middle Tennessee's 70.0 is tops in defense.

Girls' Intramural Bowling Begins

Girls Intramural Bowling began February 14, and is being held every Wednesday at 4:15 p. m.

The bowling season will consist of approximately twelve bowling meets.

A team winner will be determined at the end of the team meets with individual trophies being given to the members of the team.

NCAA BOUND . . . Having been placed second in previous years of the OVC race, these hustling Hilltoppers proved all competitors wrong and have the title sewed up with two games remaining to be played. Taking the hard way by winning of the "disastrous OVC road trip," the Toppers have toppled all OVC opponents.

Tops Host Xavier Tonight

With the Ohio Valley Conference title all wrapped up, Western steps outside the conference tonight for a return engagement with strong Xavier of Ohio slated to get underway in the Western Gym at 7:30 p.m.

The Hilltoppers will be seeking revenge for an earlier 53-95 setback handed them by the Musketeers in late December at Cin-

Topper Freshmen Slide By Murray

Western's freshman basketball team defeated Murray's freshmen 90-89 in an overtime February 17.

The win left the freshmen undefeated against Ohio Valley Conference schools.

Ralph Baker led the Topper attack with 24 points and the other Western players in double figures were: Ray Keeton, 23; Ray Rhorer, 19; Mickey Brown, 18.

Bob Ford paced Murray with 30 points and Butch Hill added 25.

College Hi Falls Before Glasgow

College High traveled to Glasgow last Friday where they lost their 10th game of the season, evening the slate at 10-10. Glasgow dropped the Cardinals 49-46.

Tyler led College High with 18 points and grabbed off 16 rebounds. Smith added 12 points to the losing effort. Fraiser led Glasgow with 24 points.

600 Men Enroll In Intramural Cage Action

Men's intramural basketball is continuing in full force again this year, with the biggest program in Western's history. Six hundred men are taking part in this activity under the direction of Frank Griffin, assistant football and basketball coach.

Each week 45 teams take part in the program. The teams play Monday through Thursday night, except when Western has a home game. The games are played in the College High and the Western gymnasiums, with 15 teams competing each night.

The program will end the first week of March. The second week of March will consist of a single elimination tournament for the championship, with trophies being presented to the winners.

Every student is invited to come out and enjoy the game. There is no admission fee.

Toppers Fall At Chicago 86-78

Western eagors were handed their second straight defeat, 86-78, by DePaul February 2, at Chicago.

Western led the entire first half and were leading 40-33 at half-time due to their good defense and fast breaking. The playing of the Demon's M. C. Thompson in the second half pulled a victory for DePaul. Thompson scored 27 points and grabbed 22 rebounds.

Bob Jackson was high for Western with 20 points.

This loss left the Toppers with an over-all 9-6 record.

Trade School Adds More Adult Classes

Western Area Vocational School is conducting a 30-hour adult training class in blue print reading for employed adults. The class started January 29.

The classes meet once a week in the W. Tyree band room and Electric Plant Board Building for 10 weeks between the hours of 7 and 10 p.m.

Mr. Owen Lawson, Supervisor of Maintenance, and Mr. Bill Simmons, Industrial Arts Instructor at Glasgow High, are conducting the classes.

Other classes to start in the near future will be problems in plumbing, electricity for utility workers, and motor tune up for auto mechanics. A registration fee of $1.50 plus the cost of workbook is charged for the entire 30-hour course.

The Industrial Trade Education program in Kentucky has grown in recent years. The coming of industry to our area brings a need for adult trade extension classes to the community. The training will open the way for adults to become familiar with the language of industry. Where the need exists, similar classes may be organized for other trades if twelve justified requests are made. This training will endeavor to update employees in various skills and keep them posted on the latest trends in industry.

The evening class program is promoted by Michael Bardin, Teacher Coordinator of the Vocational School.

Visiting Toppers Stop Middle Tennessee 87-81

Western defeated Middle Tennessee 87-81 February 13 at Murfreesboro, Tenn. to maintain a two game lead over Morehead in the Ohio Valley Conference.

The seventh victory in eight conference starts closed out the Hill-toppers OVC road schedule.

Bobby Rascoe led Western's scoring with 26 points. Rascoe tabbed only 6 points in the first half while picking up four fouls in less than 16 minutes of play.

Harry Todd picked off 25 rebounds and scored 18 points.

Western lost four men by the foul route. Jim Dunn left with 14 minutes remaining, Darel Carrier with 11 minutes, Doug Smith with 7 minutes remaining, and Harry Todd with 28 seconds left to play.

Western led the rebounding phase 73-53. Western led nearly all the way never trailing after going on top 10-9 on Bob Jalet's two free throws. Middle Tennessee caught up twice but Western was able to maintain the lead.

Western led 40-32 at halftime. Western hit 24 of 37 shots from the field for 39.1 percent. Middle Tennessee tabbed 30 of 79 for 38.0. The win gave Western's coach Ed Diddle an 11-1 margin over his son, Eddie, Jr. in their coaching rivalry.

IT'S MINE—Murray's Al Varnas seems to be stalling Western's Darel Carrier (right) and Jim Dunn that the scramble for the ball will end in his (Varnas) favor. Varnas recovered the ball but Western went on to win the game over Murray, 96-77.

History Club Views Film Of Pre-War Europe

At its final meeting of 1961, the A. M. Stickles History club heard a program presented by Pat Powers, History major from Bowling Green. The program, consisting of two films, showed how the political developments in Europe led to the beginning of World War II. The first film dealt with Benito Mussolini and the rise of Fascism in Italy, the second showed the rise of Adolph Hitler to power in Germany and his campaign to conquer the "Heart Land" of Europe.

AND TWO MORE FOR WESTERN—This is what the official scorers were probably thinking Monday night as four Morehead defenders watch open-mouthed as Bobby Rascoe drove and leaped for this layup in the OVC-clinching game between Morehead and Western. Morehead players, from left, are Ed Noe, Bob Hoover, Norm Pokley, and Cecil Clair. Rascoe booked 25 points in the 77-51 victory over Morehead.

Hilltoppers Bound For NCAA Spot

Western to round out the Hilltoppers' scoring.

Forward Bob Hoover was high for the losers with 15 points, while Ed Noe had 12. Morehead's leading scorer, Granny Williams, and the OVC's leading scorer until he met Western, got a season low of 10 points.

Thus as the outcome of this individual scoring duel, Rascoe now leads the OVC in scoring with a 26.0 ppg average to 25.7 for Williams. In the battle of the boards, Western also came out victorious by a 40-39 margin. Western's Todd garnered game rebounding honors with 11.

The victory bolstered Western's OVC record to 9-1, with two conference games yet to play against Eastern Kentucky and East Tennessee. But regardless of the outcome of these games, Western will be in the NCAA Mid-East Regional when play begins next month.

By clinching the OVC title this early, Western must wait a few days before learning what team the Hilltoppers will meet in the first round of the Regional; 2) where the game will be played; and 3) on what date the game will be played.

Up to now the situation looks like this: Western and the winner of the Mid-American Conference will meet "at-large" entries in the first round of the Regional. One of these "at-large" teams will be the University of Detroit, but it has not been determined whether Detroit will meet Western or the Mid-American winner.

After the second "at-large" selection is made, the first round opponents will be named by an NCAA committee. The winners of these first round games will then proceed to Iowa City for the second round of the Regional.

Very early tentative plans now call for the Mid-East Regional to be held in Lexington, Kentucky, on the night of March 12. These tentative plans will have to be approved by officials of the NCAA and all competing teams in the Tournament, however, before the final decision will be made.

In the meantime, Western meets a toughie tonight in Xavier of Ohio, an "at-large" selection last year for the NCAA, and not counted out of the running yet for a similar selection this year.

ing the program and explaining registration procedures will be mailed during the next two weeks.

High School Senior Day provides an excellent opportunity for high school seniors to visit the Western campus and observe educational opportunities available.

In the past, Senior Day programs have included a morning program in the Western gymnasium, lunch in the Western Stadium, and an afternoon of varied programs across the campus. The same general plan will be followed this year.

High School Senior Day was inaugurated at Western in 1934. The program was held each year until World War II forced discontinuation in 1942.

President Kelly Thompson renewed the program in 1956 and it has been held each year since.
