UCB RECEIVES BOOKS VALUED $210,000

News has been released of donations of library books for the University College of Belize (UCB). Among the donor institutions are Murray State University, Ferris State University, Western Kentucky University and the University of North Florida.

Ms. Peggy Wright, a librarian from Western Kentucky University, has been working over the last month, at no cost to Belize, leading a task-force of Belizeans in getting the books properly catalogued and processed to meet the high accreditation standards demanded for academic libraries. She has expressed delight at the way her Belizean co-workers performed and the helpful and friendly spirit that animated the entire project.

The donated books are valued at approximately $210,000.00 BZE. Further book donations in excess of this initial sum are expected soon.
