October 14, 1965

The October meeting of the A.M. Stickles History Club met on the 14th in the Paul L. Garrett Student Center.

Mr. Michael Kelley, last semester's first Vice-President, called the meeting to order, and introduced Mr. Walter Nimocks as the speaker for the evening. Mr. Nimocks discussed the expert's view of Viet Nam, based on information derived from an institute he attended at Florida State University this past summer.

The meeting was then turned over to Mr. Paul Cook, this year's sponsor, who introduced the candidates for the fall officers. The meeting was adjourned, and dues and ballots were collected as the members left.

November 18, 1965

The A. M. Stickles History Club met in the Paul L. Garrett Student Center on November 18, 1965.

Pictures for the Talisman were taken before the meeting began.

The President, Herbert Sparks, called the meeting to order. He first asked for a roll call, and afterwards, he introduced the speaker for the evening, Mr. J. T. Orendorf. Mr. Orendorf is a trustee of Ogden College and the President of Citizens National Bank.

Mr. Orendorf gave a most interesting talk on "Responsibilities and Freedom." He began by defining freedom and concluded with the statement that freedom without responsibility was going to be fatal.

Following this, the President announced that the next meeting of the History Club was to be the second Thursday in December, and that a party was planned for this meeting.

He then introduced the officers for the fall semester, as follows: President, Herbert Sparks; First Vice-President, Leon Hampton; Second Vice-President,

George Hoodby; and Secretary-Treasurer,
Patricia Ford.

The meeting was then adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

December 9, 1965

The December meeting of the A.M. Stickles History Club was on the 9th in the Paul L. Harrett Student Center.

The President Herbert Sparks called the meeting to order. He first asked for a roll call and a reading of the minutes. The minutes read and standing approved, then ^{1st} Vice-President Leon Hampton introduced the first speaker for the evening, Maria Lugo. Miss Lugo, who is a junior and native Puerto Rican, told the members about the Christmas customs of her country.

The second speaker of the evening was Dr. Paz Ramas, a native of the Philippines and an administration intern at Western this year. Dr. Ramas gave a very interesting talk on the Christmas customs in the Philippines and also some historical facts about her island country.

Mr. Hampton turned the meeting back over to Mr. Sparks with the conclusion of the speakers. The meeting for January was announced for the 2nd Thursday of that month, and the meeting was adjourned after announcing that refreshments were to be served, including a cake which was donated anonymously,

January 13, 1966

The regular meeting of the A. M. Stickle's History Club met in the Paul L. Garrett Student Center on Thursday, January 13, 1966.

The 1st Vice-President Leon Hampton called the meeting to order and asked for a roll call.

The President Herbert Sparks, then gave an introduction to the topic of the evening — "A look into the Up-Coming Session of Congress." In his introduction, Mr. Sparks presented a synopsis of the Presidential State of Union address. He then introduced the first speaker of the evening, Mr. Frank Chelf, Jr., a senior at Western. Mr. Chelf told the members about the structure and organization of the 89th United States House of Representatives.

The second speaker was Mr. John Poore, also a student at Western. Mr. Poore spoke on the Senate of the 89th Congress. Then, the third speaker, Mr. George Hodoy, another student at Western, discussed the political issue of Section 14b of the Taft-Hartley Act.

Following the speakers, Mr.

Hampton called for remarks from the sponsor, Mr. Paul Cook. Mr. Cook told the members that nominees for the spring semester officers would be posted on the bulletin boards around the history department offices, and that ballots for voting would be in the history department outer office on January 20th and 21st.

The meeting was then adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

February 10, 1966

The first regular meeting of the Spring semester O. M. Stables History Club met in room 105 of the Paul D. Garrett Student Center for Thursday February 10th.

This semester's president Frank Chelf introduced Dr. Hinton who briefly spoke on the future of graduate study at Western with special emphasis on history. Then he introduced two graduate students who spoke on their theses: Mr. Brashear's thesis was Joseph & Underwood. Mr. Snyder's thesis concerned the life of Jim Porter.

Next Frank Chelf introduced the other new officers. They were Dennis Petrie, first vice-president; Larry Farmer, second vice-president; Becky Myers, secretary, and Jim Costrell, sergeant at arms.

After a brief remark by Dr. Potter the meeting was adjourned. Dues were then collected for the second semester.

Respectfully submitted,
Becky Myers
Secretary & Treasurer.

March 10, 1966

The regular monthly meeting of the A.M. Stickle History Club was held in the Paul D. Garrett Student Center. The meeting was called to order by the vice-president Dennis Patrie. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The program consisted of four faculty members who lectured on "Books Every History Student Should Own."

Merlin Berry opened the program with a discussion on ancient and medieval texts. Jack Thacker followed with a summary of books on modern European history. He emphasized the best ways to acquire these books. James Bennett of Dr. J.

Crawford Crow covered the American history period. The History Club is reproducing copies of this program which will be made available to club members.

The club will not meet in April due to Spring Vacation. The May meeting will be the annual dinner meeting at the Helm Hotel.

Respectively submitted,
Becky Myers
Secretary Treasurer
