The Stickles History Club met Thursday evening, October 8, 1942 at the Kentucky Building. The meeting was called to order by former President D.C. Ferguson. It was suggested that the constitution be amended in order to comply with the quarter system and that the officers be elected at once upon the supposition that the constitution had already been changed.

After Benton Marshall read sections of the constitution dealing with the matters in question, the following amendments were proposed and are to be voted upon at the next meeting:

amendment to Article II, Section 2. These officers shall be elected at the first meeting of each quarter by a majority vote of those present.

amendment to By-laws:

Article I. Dues shall be thirty-five cents per quarter.

Article II. This constitution and by-laws may be amended at any regular meeting by a three-fifths vote of the members present.

A motion was then made and passed that the History Club have a home-coming luncheon at 12:00, November 7 at the Helm Hotel.

An election of officers for the first quarter was held with the following members being chosen:

President - Jimmy Stickle

Vice-president - Claire Bryant

Secretary - treasurer - Mildred Ballinger

Sergeant-at-arms - Oscar Willey

Benton Marshall presented a quiz program on the ancient history of Greece and Rome between various old and new members. The quiz ended in a victory for the new members.

The meeting was adjourned until the regular meeting in November.

President Stickle appointed the following committees:

Program Committee

Claire Bryant - chairman

Mary Alice Blakely

Lowell Harrison

The Stables History Club met Thursday afternoon, February 11, at 4:00 in the Little Theatre to avoid any possible conflict with the ballgames originally scheduled for Thursday night. The meeting was called to order by President Martel Hale. The minutes for the previous meeting were read and approved.

The program was presented by vice-president James Barry. Bob Cochran and Edgar Mivgard debated on the question: Should the Government of Japan Be Destroyed after This War? Cochran upheld the affirmative while Mivgard argued the negative. James Oshiro then spoke on the emperor of Japan and his powers, following which he answered questions posed by the audience.

The business session was held next. It was voted to have the individual pictures for the club's Talisman page made on Wed. afternoon, Feb. 17, from 2:00 - 4:00. The club decided to hold the annual chapel program ^{Thursday,} and, March 11, if possible. The possibility of holding a banquet was then discussed.

Refreshments were served and the club adjourned.
