The History Club held its regular meeting at the Cedar House on Thursday evening Nov. 17, 1932.

The following program was given:

A vocal solo _____ Corral Broderick

A resume of recent election - Charles Martin

After the reading and adoption of the minutes a motion was made to write up the Homecoming Luncheon in the minutes.

The club then went into its regular business session which consisted of the reading of the Constitution by the President and a discussion of same by members of the Club. A motion was made by Dr. Stickle that Miss Egbert, President and Secretary act as a revision committee for revising the constitution.

This motion was later amended by Miss Egbert placing the Vice President and Miss Pennick on the revision committee.

A motion was then made to buy a new Secretary Book and copy constitution in it.

Suggestions were offered by Mr. Snider and Mrs. Johnson about our programs, that they should be thought out and material given out a month before meeting time. Also that the professional phase of our club work should be stressed more.

A motion was then made to adjourn for the social hour. The Club adjourned

The History Club held its regular meeting on Thursday evening, Dec. 8, 1932 at the Cedar House.

The following program was given:
Summary of Current Events - John Dickey
The Future of Economic History - Lucy Rennie
Germany and France: The Problem of Reconciliation - Herbert Snider
The Verdict of the Lytton Commission
Joe Turner.

After the program the club went into its regular business session with the roll call and the reading and adoption of the minutes. Mrs. Rabey gave a report of the committee appointed for the purpose of revising the constitution. The revised constitution was read and discussed.

After the discussion motions were made that the following changes be made —

1 - To change the wording of the membership clause to read as follows —
"The membership of this club shall consist of history majors and minors whose names the membership committee may have approved after a conference with the head of the history department and such others as the head of the history department may invite to become members.

2- To change sentence regarding special committees to read thus - "Committees for a special purpose may be appointed at any time.

3. To change wording of initiation clause to allow members to become active as soon as they are accepted by the membership committee and the head of the department.

4- To Strike out Clause 2, Section I of by-laws dealing with a special time for initiation and insert one saying that the time of initiation shall be left to the discretion of the club but that all members shall be initiated at some-time.

5. To insert a clause concerning dues saying that the amount stated may be changed by a majority vote of members present after notice has been served at preceding meeting.

A motion was then made to accept the constitution. It carried with only two dissenting votes - those of John Thomas and Arvin Upton Jr.

Mr. Thomas Rinnick was accepted as a member of the club.

There followed a short discussion of the program to be given by the History Club in Chapel Feb. 22. No definite action was taken.

The club then adjourned for the Social Hour

The Stickles History Club held its first meeting of the year October 11, 1934 at 7:30 o'clock in the Cedar House.

Mr. Stickles called the meeting to order and appointed Mr. Hebb, Miss Jones, and Miss Anderson as a committee to nominate officers for the first semester. The following persons were elected:

President - Mrs. Wallace Smith

Vice President - Mr. Harold Mc Combs

Secretary & Treasurer - Miss Eileen Stewart

The annual Homecoming luncheon was discussed and the following committee was selected to send invitations to all former members: Miss Anderson, Miss Stewart, and Mr. MacNeely.

Mrs. Smith then took charge of the meeting and appointed the following committees:

Program: Mr. Hebb and Hithers

Social: Miss Jones, Mr.

Poteet, and Mr. Bogie.

The program Committee was instructed to submit at our next meeting the programs for the entire first semester and first meeting of the second semester.

Due to loss of time in organization, it was decided that our November meeting would consist both of a program and a social hour.

The embarrassing question of money was discussed and it was decided that the dues would be $1.00 and this would include 50¢ for the luncheon fee.

Mr. Stickle gave us an interesting talk on the purpose of the Club.

There being no further business the Club adjourned.

Signed - Eileen Stewart, Sec.

The Stickles History Club held its last meeting of the semester January 11, 1935 at the Cedar House. The roll was called and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The business was then taken up. The History Club is usually responsible for the Chapel program on February 22, so Dr. Stickles suggested that a committee be appointed to begin work towards a possible program. Miss Robertson, Mr. Withers, and Mr. Hebb were asked to serve on this committee.

The following committee was then appointed to nominate officers for the new semester. Mrs. Tichenor, Mr. Stewart, and Mr. Bogie. They submitted the following nominations:

President - Mr. McCombs

Vice president - Mr. Rudolph

Secretary and Treasurer - Miss Stewart

The nominees were accepted in toto.

The following program was given:
The 74th Congress - Dr. Stickles
The Saar Basin Question - Mr. Withers
Personal Notes on History Majors - Mrs. Tichenor
The United States Crusade Against Crime - Mr. Stewart

Following the program the secretary read the financial report for the first semester. This report was accepted. There being no further business the club adjourned.

Respectfully submitted
Earleen Stewart, Secretary

The History Club met December , 1936 for its second regular session of the semester. Miss Egbert expressed to the club, her gratitude, as an officer of the Kentucky Council of Social Science, for its cooperation when that body met here. Mr. Henman discussed his trip to Detroit during which he attended The National ~~Social Science~~ ^{Council Studies} meeting. Dorine Hauke discussed the conditions in Spain resulting in from the revolution there. Mr. Marshall Markham explained the various phases of The Social Security Bill. The question was brought up as to whether or not the club should continue to have formal individual discussions or informal group discussions. It was decided that we should try the group discussions, and ^{at} the topic of the next meeting was "Methods of Maintaining Peace" was chosen. President Boyce then dismissed the meeting in his most elaborate fashion.
