Resolution 91-4-S
General Education

PURPOSE: For the University to offer two general education programs; one for B.A. students and one for B S students

STATUS:

WHEREAS: These students are different in their needs and desires and our current general education curriculum does not recognize this, and

WHEREAS: This method would allow students to focus on courses that would benefit them, and

WHEREAS: This would allow students to take a greater variety of courses, and THEREFORE: Be it resolved that the members of the Associated Student Government, do hereby ask that the University offer two possible general education plans.
