House for an Art Lover

A photograph of a wooden structure made of light-colored pine or similar wood. The structure consists of several rectangular frames stacked and arranged. On the right side, two white, smooth, stylized bird sculptures are perched on top of a frame. The bird on the left is standing upright, while the one on the right is leaning forward. On the far left, a green, skeletal arm sculpture is visible, extending upwards. The word "DREAD" is printed in white, bold, sans-serif capital letters on the front panel of one of the wooden frames.
