

SLJID reviewers 2019 (September) – 2020 (December)

The Editorial board of the SLJID wishes to express their gratitude to the reviewers who immensely contributed to improve the quality of work published in the journal by reviewing manuscripts from September 2019 to December 2020. Their timely responses despite the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, which has increased the workload of all involved in infectious diseases, is greatly appreciated.
