St Augusta Nov 3rd 1856

J. P. Wilson Esq

Please to pay Henry Waller's three dollars (3^{rs}) and charge the same to St Augusta also what Meal he may want - about 4 Bushels

Yours &c
G. W. Wilson

The reason of my drawing on you at this time is, that this man has worked on the road and has always been very accommodating - let us have his cattle whenever we want -ed them - As the judge was absent yesterday when this man was sup^d to him - gone to Monticello - and as he would not be likely to see him, as he starts before he returns and Mr W. is desirous of leaving tomorrow morning I have taken the liberty to make this order

Yours G. W. W.

I wish you would see the Bygones and see if we can get some logs to make shingles this winter - if we could buy those logs lying in the stream at a fair price we can do a little something making shingles - We will take a correct account of the marks & signs - Reuben Leonard says - don't know but what he is an owner - if so & you get them would not be much trouble in getting them
